

TIRE-HONORED PRINCIPLES OF THE DEMOCRACY.

After what has been said in two previous numbers, on this subject, we are prepared to introduce the topic of the Constitutional Amendment...

Now these Blue Laws are very odious and oppressive upon our white fellow-citizens of European descent. But was the State everally, in which they exist, had a right to adopt them, that is, if States have any right left, we do not think it would be just on the part of the majority of the States in the Union, they not being "Blue Laws," to force a constitutional amendment upon the New England States...

On Thursday night, in the same place, Major Mack and Col. Wood, formerly of Lafayette, but now a citizen of Chattanooga, delivered themselves of speeches, both having acted heretofore with the "Union" party, in antagonism to the views expressed by Mr. JULIAN. They were opposed to negro suffrage, to any commingling of the races, against the confiscation of the property of rebels, and any extreme punishment of the rebel leaders, on account of its expediency.

On Saturday night last Col. James Wilson was to address the people, giving his views, which are said to be different from those who had preceded him. And last night, the great Republican Mogul, Governor Morton, was to fire his big gun, in response to JULIAN, we suppose.

From all these indications it will be safe to draw the conclusion that the Republican leaders are in considerable of a quandary in regard to the questions which are now forcing themselves upon the attention of the country.

REDUCTION OF THE CURRENCY.

The invention of paper money, it has been followed by infinite evils to humanity. It has also been followed by some beneficial effects, though not over-balancing its evils.

But we have got paper money, plenty of it, and almost no other, and it is very uncertain when we shall have any other; and the control of its issues, which are issues of life and death to the people, is in the hands of the Executive of the United States, through his Secretary, and the bankers of the United States, and we can't help ourselves, since the countervailing power of State banks has been stricken down by the central administration.

THE HONORED PRINCIPLES OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

1. The Constitution—a league with hell and covenant with death. We will not obey it. 2. The flag of our Union—a flapping lie.

MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI.

Governor Fletcher's annual message was read to the Missouri Legislature on Saturday. The receipts of the State for the past year exceeded the expenditures by $69,247.

THE PROFITS OF THE THEATRICAL MANAGERS OF NEW YORK CITY.

The profits of the theatrical managers of New York City, for the past twelve months, foot up as follows: Niblo's, $105,000; Winter Garden, $75,000; Bowles, (George Wood, of Cincinnati, Manager), $65,000; Wallack's, $69,000; Olympia, $55,000.

RICKING OUT OF THE TRACES.

We notice that several prominent Republican journals feel no disposition to follow the lead of the Indianapolis Journal. They are unwilling to be parties to any deception in regard to the status of the Republican party upon the issue of negro suffrage and kindred topics, and are determined they shall be stated fairly and unequivocally.

COMMISSION IN THE REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION.

Hon. GEORGE W. JULIAN spoke in Lafayette last week, presenting his peculiar views upon the present condition of public affairs. He is in favor of hanging all prominent rebels, confiscating the property of all who were engaged in this rebellion, and dividing it among the soldiers, freedmen, and others; giving the negroes in the Southern States the right of suffrage, but withholding it from the blacks of Indiana just now, on account of his inexpediency, and opposes President Johnson's plan of restoring the late insurrectionary States to their former place in the Union.

STATE ITEMS.

There was quite a fall of snow at Lafayette on Saturday last.

There was a sprinkle of snow at Plymouth on last Saturday.

A little son of Dr. Davis, of Kokomo, was accidentally shot a few days ago.

Captain Idinger, Provost Marshal of the Fort Wayne District, has received his discharge, and the office closed up.

Mr. Real has purchased the South Bend Register of Messrs. Wheeler & Hall. We wish him success peculiarly, but not politically.

The Milwaukee Enterprise has been purchased by Mr. Norman V. Brower, by whom it will be hereafter edited and published.

The citizens of Tippecanoe county have succeeded in re-establishing a post-office in their place and it is under charge of a sound Democrat, too.

Lieut. Harter, who was found at the bottom of the Union Hall steps, in this city, with his skull broken, is lamented by the Jasper Courier as a gallant officer and a good citizen.

Robbery.—On last Sunday night some person entered the residence of Emily Shady, in Pleasant township, this county, and stole $1,700 in cash from him.—Vevay Reveille.

The Vincennes Sun has an account of a meeting of citizens to take into consideration the subject of building a bridge across the Wabash at that place, and express the belief that the construction of the bridge is now a fixed fact.

Hon. Samuel E. Perkins has become principal editor of the Indianapolis Daily Herald, in succession to the late Senator, Judge Perkins. A writer of great ability and large experience, and will doubtless render efficient service to the Democratic party in his new and responsible position.—New Albany Ledger.

Iron Ore.—The Plymouth Democrat, of the 21st inst., says: "We have been shown a specimen of iron ore, taken from below the surface of the ground on the farm of Mr. J. J. Kelly, in German township in this county, which is of a quality very much superior to any other taken from the Iron Mountains of Missouri, and is no doubt equally as valuable."

New Paper.—We have secured the first number of the Indianapolis Daily Herald, which succeeds the Sentinel of that city, and is intended to be the Democratic organ of the State. It is published by Messrs. Hall & Hutchinson, gentlemen of ability. It places at its head the Jackson motto, "The Union it must be preserved." We commend the Herald as well worthy of public patronage.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

The Kendallville Standard is informed that the Democracy of Whitley county do not claim the election of George W. Jones, the called gentleman, as a Democratic victory. He was nominated, voted for, and elected by the Republican party, and if there is any glory in electing a negro, the honor belongs to those who elected him—the Republican party of Whitley county. We trust that the Standard will make the proper correction.—Columbia City Post.

Horse Stolen.—Last Saturday night was served from the stable of Messrs. Hartman & Hawk, of this place. Suspicion rests on a worthless fellow who has been a resident of this place until a few months past, and who was seen prowling about town a few hours before the robbery. The authorities are on the alert, and we hope to see him recovering the stolen horse and riding the thief.—Plymouth Democrat.

Fatal Accident.—The Veray Reville of the 21st inst. contains the following: "One day last week two little boys of Mr. Lochrie, in Pleasant township, this county, were riding on a log attached to a wagon. In consequence of the driver having to make a 'short turn' in the road, the log swung around very suddenly, throwing the boys off, killing one and severely wounding the other. No blame is attached to the driver, as he was not aware the boys were on the log until after the accident occurred."

The Lafayette Journal of the 4th contains the following notice of a "Missing Suicide": "The crazy German named Jrod, who attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat, at the Del. 1st, was not successful, as he determined purpose to make way with himself, is still missing. He was last seen on Thursday night, four weeks since, when he left the house of Mr. M. M. ..."

Important Revenue Decision.—Cabinet Members Interested. The following letter has been addressed by Commissioner ROLLINS to an Assessor of Internal Revenue: "WASHINGTON, Oct. 29, 1865."

Sir, Your letter of October 6th, with one inclosure in relation to furniture, has been received.

In answer, I have to say that the manufacturer is liable to a duty of six per cent on the entire value of all furniture, (including mattresses, feather bedding, bureaus, tables, washstands, chairs, etc.,) he manufactures, in the same as sold, or removed for sale, use or delivery.

When he buys articles of furniture on which the duty has been paid, and more completely finishes and fits them for use or sale, by upholstering, painting, varnishing, oiling, etc., he is liable to a duty of six per cent on the increased value only thereof.

No deduction can be allowed on the sale of marble-top furniture for the cost of the marble tops, though the duty may have been paid thereon.

When a piece of carrying becomes a part of an article of furniture on which no duty has been paid, its value cannot be deducted from the value of such article of furniture, though the duty may have been paid on the piece of carrying.

The increase of value given an article by finishing is the price at which it is sold, less the cost of the original article before finishing.

For example: A cabinet maker buys a bureau, on which the duty has been paid, for twenty dollars, paints, varnishes, or otherwise more completely finishes it, and sells it for thirty dollars. The increased value of this bureau is ten dollars.

When a manufacturer buys an article on which the duty has been paid, and sells them in the same condition they were in when bought, he is not required to return the duty paid to him, but when such sales exceed one thousand dollars per annum he is liable to a dealer's license.

I believe all the questions raised in the letters inclosed by you are answered above.

Very respectfully, E. A. COLLINS, Com'r.

OHIO AND ILLINOIS IN ACCOUNT WITH THE GOVERNMENT.

The amount advanced the Government by Ohio and Illinois, in 1861, to arm, equip, and subsidize transport troops to aid in the suppression of the rebellion, as well as the amount allowed and repaid these States:

Illinois, total amount expended, $3,803,449 89; allowed, $2,719,246; balance suspended and disallowed, $1,084,203 89.

Ohio, amount expended, $2,245,095 54, allowed, $1,848,322 13; balance suspended and disallowed, $396,773 41. Illinois advanced out of its treasury for this purpose $300,000 more than any other State in the Union.

Sir MORRIS PATRICK'S dinner at DELMONTE'S, New York, cost $25,000. There were 250 guests present and the entertainment cost about $100 each person. At least twenty-four kinds of wine were drunk, and the price of some of the brands, the Imperial Tokay for instance, was $50 per bottle.

The following are the rents paid by the leading hotels in New York, exclusive of the store-rooms: For the Park Avenue, $80,000; for the St. Nicholas and Metropolitan, $70,000; Astor, $50,000; New York, $50,000; St. Dennis, $30,000; Everett, $30,000; Hoffman, $35,000, and Howard, $32,000.
