Amusements This Evening. METROPOLITAN THEATER—Mr. J. E. McDonough and Miss Sophia Gimber...

CITY NEWS. BURNS CLUB.—This club will hold a grand ball and levee at Masonic Hall on New Year's night...

REMOVAL.—Breast Brigadier General Simpson yesterday removed his quarters from South Myrtle street, to the building on East Washington street...

ICE.—Several parties were engaged yesterday in cutting and securing ice in the canal and river, with a view to packing it away for future consumption...

THE PORK HOUSES.—The pork houses were generally busy engaged yesterday in slaughtering. Among others, the house of B. & S. Coffin cut seven hundred head yesterday...

WOOD.—The price of wood yesterday at the wood market was from $7 to $9 per cord, according to quality or the convenience of the seller...

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The motion for a new trial by G. W. Johnson in the matter of his application for a license to sell liquor at Mount Jackson, was heard by the Board yesterday...

RAILROADS.—For the first time for many months past the ability of the various roads entering here to transport freight is not taxed to the full capacity of the roads...

NOTABLES PUNISHED.—The following were punished by the Governor yesterday: Samuel H. Bloomhoff, Allen county; Robert Gregory, White county; Henry Kirkpatrick, Cass county...

MILITARY CHANGES.—Captain Burrows, of the Sixteenth United States Infantry, succeeds Lieutenant Stearns as Assistant Adjutant General on General Pitche's staff...

MARRIAGE COURT.—The adjourned term of this court, ordered by the court at its last session, commences in this city on Tuesday, the 20th prox. The cases will be called for trial as they are now docketed...

THE ARSENAL.—The workmen are still engaged on the new arsenal building, in the northeastern portion of the city. The arsenal proper will be finished during the next season...

ACCIDENT.—Mr. McFarland, an employe of Darry, Merritt & Wightman, on East Washington street, met with quite an accident on Sunday afternoon. He was crossing on the White River bridge, when he slipped, falling, stepping off, he slipped and fell, breaking his leg in two places...

JUROR COURT.—There was an unusual amount of business adjourned by the Honor yesterday. Ten juries were up for intoxication. Three paid the usual fine, and the remaining seven went to jail. Eight persons for constituting an unlawful assemblage were fined in the usual sum, four paid and four went to jail...

LAW ITEMS.—During the recent term of the Marion Circuit Court about one hundred indictments for felony were returned by the Grand Jury, of which sixty-six came to trial. Fifty-three of the number were convicted, thirty-seven were sent to the penitentiary and the remainder to the county jail...

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT AND CIRCUIT COURTS there were fifteen convictions for felony. Of this number one had been convicted in the Southern State prison, three to the Northern, and four are still in the custody of the United States Marshal.

INDISCREET.—Night before last an individual whose only possible purpose could have been to furnish an item for the local news, there is no indication of good judgment about the transaction, drove his horse and buggy upon the lee of the canal where it intersects with Georgia street, and the consequence was that the horse went under the ice, from which he was afterwards extricated. The driver succeeded in sustaining a cold bath, and the buggy went down through the ice, where it still remains. Experience teaches a clear school.

THEFTS STOLEN.—The stable of Mr. Williams, corner of Pennsylvania and Ohio streets, was visited by thieves night before last, and three very fine horses stolen. One of them was valued at $500. No clue has been obtained pointing to the guilty parties or the whereabouts of the missing animals. A faint hope is indulged by Mr. Williams that the horses have escaped from the stable, but this is hardly possible. The only immunity from thieves consists in safety securing the premises where articles of value are contained.

FAIR AT MASONIC HALL.—The fair at Masonic Hall last night, under the auspices of our German fellow citizens, and for the benefit of the German English E. schools, was quite largely attended. Independent of the good time had there, a very handsome sum was realized. Our Anglo-German population numbers many of our most interesting citizens. Activity, thrift and intelligence follow in their train. They believe in universal education, and like all good citizens generally it is in this principle that they found national grandeur. The fair will be continued to-night, and we take pleasure in putting in a plea for a good patronage.

DECEASED.—Three miserable, pitiable abandoned women were found in the woods in the vicinity of the city yesterday, where they had converted a hollow tree into a habitation. Their clothing was torn into tatters, and consisted only of mere shreds. They were all due to a woman, otherwise it is hard to believe in existence, to become the most vile and loathsome reptile that exists. One of them, we are informed, is the daughter of respect, the parents living in Kentucky, who drove their daughter from the paternal roof on the commission of her first error. We envy them not their reflections. May they reform, and like the reclaimed prodigal, meet with a welcome home. The longer they have been content to feed upon hanks the greater will be her hunger. The longer she has been content in her dalliance with the harlot of unchastity, the deeper will be her disgust at the embrace. As long as we hope in her case, and all similar cases.

PROVISIONS.—The following Indiana officers have been brevetted by the President for gallant and meritorious services during the war: Colonel Isaac H. Sumner, 9th Indiana Veteran Volunteers, to be Brigadier General by brevet, to rank as such from March 13, 1865. Captain Thomas H. AMUSEMENTS—METROPOLITAN THEATER.—A large house assembled last night, drawn thither by the attraction of "Arrah na Pogue." Owing to failure in making the necessary railway connections, Mr. McDonough and Miss Gimber did not put in an appearance, and at the last hour the seats were secured already. "Arrah na Pogue" and "The Quilt Family" by Mr. McDonough and Miss Gimber arrived, however, at nine o'clock last night, and to-night will be produced, without fail, the great spectacular play of "Arrah na Pogue." A large portion of the seats are secured already, and standing room will be at a premium to-night.
