TO THE PUBLIC.

Here we are, this time with a more attractive stock than ever. Our Black and Colored Cashmeres are cheaper than elsewhere, and for color, texture, finish and wear, cannot be plaid, striped, figured and plain Dress Goods. We will receive, this week, a full invoice of the celebrated Broadhead Alpaca, and Armure & Gerster Suitings. These are the best goods sold for the money. We warrant every piece to wash like muslin.

These goods are bought of the manufacturers. As for Dress Goods and Trimming, we have no competition, and our Cashmeres and Plaids are direct from New York. Our felt Skirts are simply magnificent, and prices to suit the times. The finest line of Yarns in town, and Germantown Wools at 10c, a skein; and as for Hosiery, both in wool and cotton, it is astonishing how low we are selling these goods. Prints and Gingham, in beautiful designs. Canton Flannels, very cheap. Wool Flannels, Blankets, Jeans, Tweeds, Water-Proof Cassimeres, bleached and unbleached Muslins and Sheetings, Bed Tickings, Table Linens, Towels, Napkins and Gloves. Bats, Combs and Linens, Children's and Ladies' Underwear, Fringes, Corsets and Girdles. The largest stock of Embroideries, Trimmings and Lace in the city. The best 90 cent Corset. Knit Goods, Lace and Linen Collars, Linen and Silk Handkerchiefs. Fancy Goods, of all kinds. Dolmans. We have a mammoth stock of Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Clothing, Groceries, and Queensware, and you can save money by buying of us.

Since the days of Monroe, Mr. Carpenter had taken a lively interest in politics, commencing as a Whig of the John Quincy Adams and Henry Clay school, and had a good recollection of old-time political and party lines.

Mr. Carpenter had a son in the Union army, who was among those murdered by whack-bushers at Centralia, Mo., in the summer of 1862. Mr. Carpenter had a son in the Union army, who was among those murdered by whack-bushers at Centralia, Mo., in the summer of 1862.

CHAMBERS, MARNEY & CO., ST. JOSEPH, MO.

Take a long step to the front, this Fall, with the largest and best lighted Dry Goods Store in the State, outside of St. Louis.

THEY HAVE JUST COMPLETED a magnificent system of improvements, including the addition of two more floors to their store-room, each 140 feet long by 35 feet wide, connected with their first floor by the

FIRST PASSENGER ELEVATOR ever used in the Dry Goods business in this city. This gives them three magnificent rooms and a basement, any one of which is as large as an ordinary Dry Goods Store. By means of the Elevator, each floor is made as accessible as the first, and all are fitted up so as to give the best light, and show goods to the best possible advantage.

Their second floor is fitted up as a superb CLOAK AND SUIT ROOM, where are displayed the very latest novelties in Ladies' Suits, Cloaks, Furishings Goods, and Ready Made Garments for both Ladies and Children. Their

NEW STOCK, now arriving, will surpass in extent and variety any thing ever shown by them, comprising Goods for every class of trade. Their patrons may rely upon finding the very latest novelties in the Dry Goods market upon their counters, as fast as they are introduced; and in

DOMESTIC GOODS, they will carry a stock ten times as large as are usually carried by country stores—giving their patrons not only an immense line to select from, but which they may buy at Retail at Wholesale prices. In fact, in every DEPARTMENT they propose to mark Goods at the very lowest prices possible, being determined not to be undersold by any house, East or West. Their stock is undoubtedly the largest to select from, west of Chicago or St. Louis, and in ATTRACTIVE PRICES, no house can offer greater inducements. They invite strangers visiting the city to pay them a visit, and for those who do, they have a pleasantly fitted up

WAITING ROOM, where they may rest themselves or children, and otherwise make themselves as comfortable as possible. New Goods are arriving constantly, so that all may find something to interest them; and to all who favor them with a visit, the most attentive and polite treatment will be extended, whether they desire to purchase or not.

HERE VAN BUSKIRK & BRECKENRIDGE. Herper's Magazine for November, containing the thirty-sixth volume, is a number of rare interest. It opens with a very interesting article, by W. H. Hildesheim, entitled "In Confrontation with Cuba." Mr. Reinhart illustrates the article with beautiful pictures of the people and the country. Mr. Hildesheim's recreation and sport in the woods in Canada, weekly illustrated.

Highland Miner. Mr. J. Leach, of Illinois, is here, giving lessons in the art of Stenography. He commenced by giving a free lecture on the subject of shorthand writing, in Judge Terry's office, and he has had a good number of pupils.
