

For District Judge, L. E. PRATT, of WAGON COURT. County Republican Ticket.

Probate Judge—F. H. OONGER. Sheriff—GEORGE BAKER. Clerk—W. H. DANE. Treasurer—C. H. GIBBS. Registrar of Deeds—ADA E. CLIFT. Coroner—JOSHUA GROFF. Surveyor—J. R. WILSON.

Cons. M. Dist.—J. M. WELCH.

We predict that Ada E. Clift will win.

The County Republican ticket is good clear through.

GROFF and Reddig will be apt to run an interesting race. Groff will be apt to distance him. He has good wind.

HIDDLESON'S candidacy for probate judge is only a joke. The real intention of the man, we hardly doubt, is to get acquainted a little before running in earnest for office.

Geo. BAKER will be re-elected sheriff by a handsome majority. He ought to be. He has made an excellent officer. He is serving only his first term, and deserves a second.

The Sentinel tells that nearly $700 was subscribed at Kenneth, Tuesday, in behalf of the movement for the building of a telephone line to connect Oberlin, Kenneth and Grainfield. That's a big country out there!

We are sorry to see Tim. Armstrong run for sheriff. He is a good fellow. We like him. He would have no more use for the office of sheriff, though, than a brand new babe would have for Lord Ross's telescope.

CAPTAIN WELCH is not going to be beaten by Dorns for commissioner—surely not. Welch has had almost three years' experience as commissioner. He holds himself in readiness to meet every charge which the opposition has hatched, or can hatch, against him.

WILSON will be the next county surveyor. He need not wait to be elected before heeding our advice to grow a full beard, and thus be the better prepared to meet the wintry blasts. Surveying is a cold business in mid winter, as well as for possibly a few weeks before and after.

TWO THOUSAND majority for L. K. Pratt is what the WORLD has claimed all along. It now raises the figures to twenty-five hundred.—[WAKEKNEY WORLD.] The latter figures are the Sentinel's estimate to a dot.—[Kenneth Sentinel, 29.] We always have claimed that you had lots of hard sense, Street.

THERE is something in the Bible, we believe, about Esau having sold his birthright for a mess of pottage. Our friend, H. C. Bryant, reminds us of Esau—only he seems to have sold his birthright into the Republican party for something less than a mess of pottage. There is not even one mouthful of substance to be derived from permitting his name to be placed on the Democratic ticket.

ASA ADAIR, common report has had it, don't want to be county treasurer. He could not be elected this fall anyway. For the benefit of Republicans who may desire to vote carefully, we will say that Mr. Adair, although he may be an excellent man personally, has the name of having served in the rebel army. All the wonder with us is that he has not done like Beator and Richard—declined.

WE RECKON HE CAN.

Our friend, W. S. Tilton, of the Wa-Keeney World, hoists the name of Gen. John A. Logan over a well-written editorial, favoring him for president in 1888. We will not take issue with the WORLD on this question, only so far as the state of New York is concerned. Can Gen. Logan carry New York? If so, he is the man to nominate, for certainly there is no better man for the position. But the party can not afford to suffer defeat to favor all the good fellows.—[Loroux Leader.]

We reckon he can. Our newspaper friends seem to think that General Logan would have won last fall if his name had headed the ticket. We are too blind to see what is to prevent his running as well in 1888, as the presidential candidate, as he would have run last fall in a similar position. In other words, we incline very strongly to the belief that similar conditions under similar circumstances are apt to result similarly. Do we reason falsely?

—Carpenters here are too few.

—J. Werlich has had Cooper & Michal sink a well on his place.

—L. A. Reed & Co. have established a lumber yard at FAMILTON.

—This is the time to organize literary societies for winter wear.

—Clarence Pilkenton has sold his pony. He says the advertisement did it.

—Attention is called to our corrected market report. It will do to bet on.

—Printers come also to grab land in that little spot where, for a week or two, a few acres will remain.

—Mr. Sigler, the carpenter, has built him a workshop between the opera house and Mr. Ferris's new house.

—Kan Walker, one of the most popular young men ever known in Wa-Keeney, is again clerking for Geo. I. Verbeck.

—W. S. Mead, the livery man who has stayed through all the hard times, has been adding to the size of his stable once more.

—F. O. Ellsworth took the east-bound train Wednesday morning. We understood that he was on a business trip into Illinois.

—A carpenter named Wakefield owns the new residence just west of Mr. W. H. Fuson's house. He lives in his new property.

—Mr. A. J. Beveridge started, Wednesday morning, to Indiana, where he expects to study law. It is in him to make a fine lawyer, we are sure.

—Grab the offer of two such papers as the WORLD and the Leavenworth Weekly Times a whole year for the price of one paper.

—Now we are offering you a grand bargain—the WESTERN KANSAS WORLD and the Leavenworth Weekly Times one year for $2.

—Mr. J. B. Hogan has begun the erection of a frame residence building on his lots in the block on which the Oakes House stands.

—Don't fail to notice the business card of Close Bros. & Co., in this issue. Mr. Hogan, their agent, has his office in the first room north of Verbeck's store. He means business.

—Again A. C. Frick is building an addition to his livery stable. He has now reached the west end of his lot. Rumor is rife as to where he will build the next addition.

—Louis Foster, a young man who had been working in Mr. Lipe's shoe shop, has been very sick with malarial fever at Mr. Ferris's. He is not recovering perceptibly.

—The newest town in Greeley county is named Horace. Mr. F. F. Israel has located in the land business at Horace. The WORLD turned out a big lot of job work for him on Wednesday.

—A. F. Tosh has moved his jewelry stock into the D. M. Henkel building, just south of B. Wagner & Co's store. Mr. Tosh's family will occupy the rear portion of the building as a residence.

—Mr. Sawyer has been in Wa-Keeney, letting the contract for the immediate building of the hotel at FAMILTON. The building is to be 30 feet long, 40 feet wide and two stories high.

—We are requested by Miss Della Escher to announce that a meeting of the literary society will take place Friday evening, November 6, at the residence of Mr. M. F. Morgan, about ten miles southwest of Wa-Keeney.

—G. I. Verbeck has sold his little rear storage room to a dacker, who has moved it south of the railroad track for a residence. Mr. Verbeck is about to begin the erection of a commodious addition to the rear of his store building.

—Mr. N. B. Miller has been building a house on his land, about eight miles south of town. This is not all he has been doing. He fell, last Monday, fifteen feet off a scaffold, striking the ground with such force as to sprain his right ankle so badly as to drive him to crutches.

—Jo. Bush, the shooter of Condon, was brought up from Hays last Monday. He waived examination in Justice Groff's court, and was taken back to the jail at Hays on Tuesday to await the action of the December term of our district court; all of which policy the Wozza, last week, stated would be pursued.

—Marshall & Ufford's advertisement undoubtedly speaks for itself. The heavy stock of goods which they carry adds weight to their words, and the commodious and beautiful room which they occupy forms the cap stone of the whole business. Our readers can depend upon the fairness of these men and the quality and cheapness of their goods. Call and see if your observation don't verify the correctness of our judgment.

Lawrence & Hall's Business.

It requires no expert to see that Lawrence & Hall are doing an immense business. Our observation assures us that that they are riding the present boom as gracefully as a duck over the pond.

We understand that it took fifteen thousand dollars to buy the stock of goods which they now offer for sale.

These goods fill two very large rooms—these rooms, in fact, were originally two separate buildings. The goods include dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, clothing, hats and caps, rubber goods, flour, feed, grain, a bakery and the full equipments of a general store, where people may go with a reasonable assurance of finding what they want, without having to run to a dozen different places while on a little trading trip.

We are not given to fulsome flattery, but, as a result of long neighborhood, it is a pleasure for us to speak thus of this staunch business firm.

There is one other consideration which occurs to us in this connection. Lawrence & Hall have not suggested it to us. They are the only business house of any kind which has advertised every week in these columns since the infancy of this paper. We certainly would be destitute of all the better instincts were we to fail to feel very kind toward the firm which has stood by us in this manner through the red-hot and miserable seasons of the past. While standing by us, they stood by the country, and are fully deserving, in every sense, of the splendid business prosperity which they are now enjoying.

This is the Way it Reads.

MR. AND MRS. R. G. KESLER REQUEST THE PLEASURE OF YOUR COMPANY AT THEIR RESIDENCE, ON THURSDAY EVE, NOV. 12, 1885, TO CELEBRATE THEIR CRYSTAL WEDDING.

To these friends at Collyer, we will say that it will afford us great pleasure to comply with this request in the case of its being possible to do so.

At all events, Mr. and Mrs. Kesler know that their pleasure always adds to the happiness of the WESTERN KANSAS WORLD. The celebration of their crystal wedding will be a grand triumph, we are sure. It ought to be.

—Mrs. Swayne, who has been running the millinery store in the Henkel building, on the west side of Franklin street, has gone to Millbrook with her goods, where, we hear, she has gone into partnership with Mrs. McMahan. Mr. Swayne, we are told, will remain in Wa-Keeney to ply his trade as a painter.

—Parties who can offer bargains in lands will do well to call on us within the next two weeks. We can furnish buyers for several cheap quarters of choice land. 347-3 COWICK & HOLLISTER.

—Just received—a fine line of samples for our merchant tailoring department. Overcoats from $25 to $50. 346-4 LAWRENCE & HALL.

TAXPAYERS, TAKE NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that I have received from the County Clerk the Tax Roll for the year 1885, and that taxes are due and payable on and after the 1st day of November at the County Treasurer's office in the city of Wa-Keeney. The following is the tax levy of Trego county for the year 1885 on each $100 valuation:

Table with columns for State, County, City of Wa-Keeney, and School Districts (No. 1-18) with corresponding tax amounts.

Given under my hand at Wa-Keeney, Kansas, this 31st day of October, 1885. JAMES KELLY, County Treasurer.
