COLLYER, TREGO Co., Nov. 3.

Planting rye.

Political rest.

Politicians' dance.

Some house moving.

Cool mornings these.

Sidewalks are losing their rarity.

Sunshine continues its supremacy.

Explanations were in order Saturday.

The cessation of the camp wagon comes off.

E. M. Crozier, of Russell, is now railroad agent at Collyer.

J. H. Siebert will exchange all kinds of meat for butter and eggs.

Mrs. L. A. Fisher entertained a few friends at dinner Sunday.

S. C. Sperry is reported to be recovering from his recent injury.

Prairie fires loom up in all directions, especially along the creeks.

A. Lord and W. Bruner are doing some building for Mills & Arnold.

The W. R. C. dance Monday night was a decided success in every way.

So cool was Thursday morning it seemed as if winter was close at hand.

Although not completed, the new side track received its first cars last Thursday.

E. H. Philippi and family took the Monday noon train for their home in Beardstown, Ill.

Mrs. P. Gubbins is able to resume her household duties, but she has not regained her former health.

Railroad Agent Maple and wife departed for Chicago last Thursday, where he expects to enter the mercantile business.

All kinds of meats exchanged for all kinds of country produce, at SEBERT'S, Collyer.

A little shower fell Sunday, after which the wind rose, and by Monday afternoon it was more than pedestrians desired to face.

Pierson & True shipped twelve carloads of cattle east to-day, to be corn fed. This is the first shipment by rail from this place.

Charles Bamberg, jr., will leave next Sunday to take charge of L. A. Fisher's store at Gopher. His promotion is well deserved.

The Wilson house took another move last week, and is now located west of Fisher's store. A Bohemian is the present owner.

L. LeBron solicits the patronage of all desiring fresh beef. He will deliver such at Quinter, Collyer and the Saline on Thursdays, and at Wa-Keeney on Saturdays.

Quinter is often represented in Collyer. Mrs. Huff, of our sister town, was the guest of Mrs. Rufus Kessler last week, and business brought R. W. Cook and J. C. Dunn hitherward Tuesday.

On account of a slight injury to his back John Conner has resigned his position on the section. His brother Charles and Mr. Owens will set up house-keeping in a fancy dugout in town.

To EXCHANGE—Fresh beef and mill products, including graham flour and cornmeal, will be exchanged for wheat, corn, rye and other grain at Blackwell's mill, Collyer.

The call for a county Sunday school convention at Wa-Keeney, Nov. 20 and 21, should receive a hearty response from all interested in having Trego rank among the first in morals, as she has this year in agricultural productions.

All parties are hereby notified to keep cattle and all other stock off of the n w q and n e q of sec. 4, 12, 25.

MISS G. T. STICKNEY, W. R. LEONARD, COLLYER, KAN., Oct. 20, 1886. 400-3t

Our people will no longer want for meats, as fresh beef is delivered at our doors in neat form by L. LeBron and dealt out in town by G. Blackwell, while J. H. Siebert takes the premium for variety of stock and style of market.

W. H. Ward, of McDowell Post, No. 290, has accepted an invitation to be present and speak at the camp fire Nov. 12. Mr. Ward is a citizen of Hoxie, Kan., and recently editor of the Hoxie Sentinel.

An increasing interest in the condition of the literary society as indicated by the last meeting. People come many miles to attend and feel well paid for their efforts. The debate on prohibition being a benefit to our state, was decided in the affirmative.

Since the first case of courting playing for hearts has been a familiar pastime, and recently an evening was given to a trial of the experiment in our community. It was well now for the winner to hasten and secure so intangible a prize before it flies his grasp.

Monday's Republican meeting was well attended, the ladies being present in great numbers. W. S. Tilton made an interesting speech on national affairs, and was followed by S. C. Bobb, J. C. Shover, R. G. Kessler and O. T. Birkenland on local matters.

The frosts of last week stole upon the unprotected garden flowers, and with their biting chillness forced them to an eternal winter of rest. Likewise the leaves withered beneath the same power, and the gentle morning breezes carried their summer connections with twig and branch to bury them in the soil which, by their decay, will renew its life giving power.

Well filled corn cribs and our farmers to smile this fall, and we know of no better than Chamberlain's.

complain because necessity compels increased store room for their crops or larger pens for the fattening pigs. John Burns thinks he has about three hundred bushels of corn from this season's crop, and G. W. Kessler's estimate of the fruit of his labor is not far below. Others, also, have succeeded well, and the corn, so far as seen by your correspondent, is large and sound and on well filled ears.

By an oversight the arrival of J. W. Barringer, from Clyde, Kansas, was unnoticed in last week's letter. Mr. B. is a pleasant young gentleman, and is making friends rapidly with our young people. He will spend the winter here with his mother, Mrs. M. J. Smith, who is delighted with the place. Her daughter, Mrs. T. Lawlis, of Hill City, Graham county, reached Collyer last Saturday evening, bringing her little infant for grandma to pet.

Just when it was thought that the railroad company had concluded to smile upon our town there comes a frown in the form of an order that no tickets shall be sold at our county seat depot for this place to be used on the night west bound train. It will inconvenience many of our people who have heretofore gone east on the noon train and returned home at 10 p. m. The reason assigned by the company for their action is that Collyer is no longer a regular watering station, and therefore not a stopping place.

At the close of an interesting session of Sunday school, Rev. J. Q. A. Weller preached here last Sabbath, most of the scholars remaining. After the close of the exercises, he mentioned the call he had received from Collyer to preach here regularly, and said that he would accept such on condition that the people assist in building a Congregational church, toward which he now had subscriptions to the amount of $300, and which would be increased from the denominational fund one-third of the entire amount raised, if less than $1,500; and that a reasonable amount be paid toward his salary.

G. A. R. CAMP FIRE. The Post and Corps committee have decided to open the camp fire Nov. 12 to all, only requesting those who attend to bring a donation toward the free supper, as also tin cups and tin plates. The following program will be given: Accordion solo..... S. O'fer. Address of welcome..... S. C. Bobb. Response..... Judge S. C. Osborn. SOLO AND CHORUS. "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground." Reading..... Miss G. T. Stickney. SONG. Mr. and Mrs. Burns and Miss Larimer.

"The Soldier of Western Kansas." Response..... W. S. Tilton. Violin solo..... Master J. Kessler. Reading..... Miss Mina York. Old army songs and speeches. Congregation. Lunch. W. C.

She Preferred to Affirm. A Patterson justice, after repeating the formula of an oath to a young woman, ended as usual by saying: "Kiss the book." "I will not," was the unexpected reply. "The last witness that was sworn was chewing tobacco and the one before him had fever blisters on his lips." She was permitted to affirm.

A Woman's Reason. Horrified Husband—"What's this I see? Another new dress?" Calm Wife—"Yes; isn't it a beauty? And it only cost $80, including the ribbons." "Eighty dollars! You had one just like it last year that only cost $40." "I know it; but, my dear, this was advertised as a bargain."

Miraculous Escape. W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, of Barton, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." Free Trial Bottles at Jones & Ferris' Drug Store.

Deserving Credit. Chicago Tribune. It can truthfully be said, to the credit of Miss Cleveland that in all her journalistic career she never wrote any of the following editorials: "The Hon. Slum Gullion has our thanks for public documents." Our friend Absalom Wyoff laid an egg on our table to-day that measured nine, and three-quarters inches in circumference.

Will our friends please bear in mind that it takes money to run a printing office? We dislike to have to mention this matter again, but some of our subscribers are more than two years behind. The sums are very small in themselves, but in the aggregate they amount to a great deal to us.

A. B. Jones is selling a medicine for diarrhoea and bowel complaint which is no doubt the best family medicine ever introduced in this country. It is not made on the coast, but it is all the more valuable on that account. It is known as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and it is worth one hundred times its cost in time of need.

They Traded Wives. From the Atlanta Constitution. There died near Woodville to-day an old negro woman named Betsy Guill, who had been sold since emancipation. Living upon a plantation in that neighborhood, not many years ago, were two negro men. Both had wives, but the current of their domestic lives did not run smoothly. They got together one day and began discussing their relative conditions, when they came to the conclusion that a swap of wives might be beneficial. This they did, the negro man who exchanged for Betsy paying $10 and an old jack-knife to boot. The two wives changed their places of abode and lived happily ever afterwards, both raising large families. They died one by one until Betsy, the last of the four original parties to the contract, passed away. There has been a number of such trades in wives between negroes since the war.

If parents who have children would take A. B. Jones's advice they would never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house; then in case of need, night or day, they would be prepared to cure sudden attacks of bowel complaint. It is absolutely unsafe to be without a reliable medicine of this kind at hand, and we know of no better than Chamberlain's.

Our Great Age. From the Atlanta Constitution. We live in an age of good times. If this is not the best age of the world, history contains no record of a better one.

Pretty Women. All women look attractive when their color and complexion are clear. If your skin is sallow, eyes dull, you are bilious; secure a box of William's Australian Herb Pills, take as directed, and the feeling of languor will leave you, your eyes brighten, and you are another woman. Try them. Price, 25 cents.

Arbitration Working. From the Chicago Tribune. Whether or not arbitration between labor and capital is, or can be, of any value in this country, it is certainly proving of great utility in many parts of Europe.

Well-Grounded Convictions. Most persons have opinions. Now and then a person has convictions. A man with an opinion is of small consequence for or against a cause about which he has an opinion. A man with a conviction is always a power in the direction of his conviction. As a rule, the men who have opinions are waiting to be fed by men who have convictions. Commonly one man with a conviction can lead, say from one hundred to five million, men who merely have opinions. It's a great thing to have a well grounded conviction—on any subject; and it is comparatively a rare thing.

Animals are often afflicted with a disease called the mange, the same disease in human beings is called the itch, and is highly contagious. To cure it mix flour of sulphur with Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment, bathe it thoroughly and take Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm.

In cases of fever and ague, the blood is as effectually, though not so dangerously, poisoned, by the effluvia in the atmosphere as it is by the deadly miasma. Dr. J. H. McLean's Chills and Fever Cure will eradicate this poison from the system. 50 cents a bottle.

You will have no use for spectacles if you use Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Eye Salve. It removes the film and scum which accumulates on the eye balls, subdues inflammation, cools and soothes the irritated nerves, strengthens weak and failing sight. 25 cts a box.

Greene and the Compositors. It is related of the late Colonel Greene, of the Boston Post, that many years ago, when his compositors struck for an advance of ten cents per thousand, he thought it was too much, and determined to maintain his opinion, he called upon all the business and editorial departments who could set type, and with their aid undertook to get out the paper. They worked until supper time, and then, as the colonel took off his apron, he stepped to the window and called to the strikers, who were standing outside: "Boys, you might as well come up and go to work; it's worth all you ask."

If your kidneys are inactive, you will feel and look wretched, even in the most cheerful society, and melancholy on the jolliest occasions. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm will set you right again. $1.00 per bottle.

When you are constipated, with loss of appetite, headache, take one of Dr. J. H. McLean's Little Liver and Kidney Pills. They are pleasant to take and will cure you. 25 cents a vial.

Disease lies in ambush for the weak; a feeble constitution is ill adapted to encounter a malarious atmosphere and sudden changes of temperature, and the least robust are usually the easiest victims. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier will give tone and vitality and strength to the entire body. $1.00 a bottle.

Wives Supplied to Order. Garden City (Kan.) Irrigator. A somewhat unique excursion party passed through Garden City this morning on route to Pasadena, California. The party consisted of twenty-seven girls who are going to the coast ostensibly to work in the hotels there, but in reality to re-enforce the matrimonial markets. It was thoroughly understood by the women that they are to be supplied with husbands, and they seemed perfectly willing to run the risk of the new marriage. The ranchmen and others seeking wives pay a royalty to the agents bringing the girls out for the first pick after their arrival. The girls were all young, good looking and healthy, and will doubtless make good wives.
