

NEW MOTOR.

Latest by the Prince of the Power of the Air.

Edison Proposes to Haul Railroad Trains by Electric Motors.

CHICAGO, October 28.—"In the course of a few years the locomotive of to-day will be but rarely seen," said General Superintendent Collins of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, in speaking of inventor Edison's latest project in the way of electric motor.

Assistant General Manager Wood of the Chicago & Alton road, thought the invention would revolutionize traffic, but the cost it would save would be needed to keep the road beds in repair.

MISSING LINKS. A dispatch from Rangoon, Burma, states that the Burmese are trying of British rule and that a general revolt is imminent.

USED MORPHINE.—It is now said that the late General Boulanger was terribly addicted to the morphine habit.

UNION PACIFIC.—A rumor is current that General Dodge, formerly president of the Denver & Fort Worth, is to be made president of the Union Pacific system.

VILLAGE BURNED.—Pine Grove, a village of Kentucky, has been swept away by fire, only one building being left standing.

LOTTERY LAW.—Juan Hart, J. D. Ponder and Thomas O'Keefe, proprietor, editor and business manager of the El Paso Times, have been arrested for violation of the anti-lottery law.

HE WAS AT WORK.—A body supposed to be that of Charles Brown, an engineer of Long Island City, was identified by his wife and carried to her home and crepe hung upon the door.

STOCKS TOGETHER.—Messrs. Cleveland and Hill, of New York, spoke from the same platform to a party meeting of business men.

BUTS CHEAP SILVER.—London buys silver in New York every month after the treasury has purchased its regular 4,500,000 ounces, and the price goes down.

THEY ON TRIAL.—The trial of ex-State Treasurer Woodruff, who stole $90,000 from the state of Arkansas, is going on at Little Rock.

COBS DIED.—It is rumored in the City of Mexico that the duty on cobs will be removed, on account of the short crop raised in Mexico the past season.

FLY-WHEEL.—The fly-wheel at Kimberley's rolling mill, at Greenville, Pa., exploded, severely injuring five men, two of whom will die.

TRAIN MEN.—Al Harris, a Santa Fe freight conductor, shot Jack King, a passenger brakeman, dead in a gun battle at Las Vegas, N. M., and then fled.

OCEAN RACE.—Four sailing ships left San Francisco recently for an ocean race to Liverpool, Eng., the most prominent among them being the American (wooden) ship Shenandoah and the British (iron) ship Streatham, both heavily freighted with grain.

GOLD QUARTZ.—A vein of gold quartz is reported to have been struck at Chandler, O. T., while digging a public well. The vein is only fifty feet from the surface.

COTTON FIRE.—At Bird's Point, Mo., the Iron Mountain & Cotton Belt railroad depot and about eighty cars, mainly loaded with cotton were burned. Loss, $150,000.

FIFTEEN KILLED.—A passenger train on the railway between Lyons and Grenoble was derailed near Moirans, France. Fifteen persons were killed and fifty injured.

SETTLER'S LEAGUE AGAIN WINS. Washington, D. C., October 29.—Justice Harlan, in the United States supreme court, rendered an opinion reversing the judgment of the circuit court of the district of Kansas in the case of the United States vs. the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway company.

THE TEST SUIT. Washington, D. C., October 29.—Briefs for the United States in the cases of Boyd, Sutton & Co., Herman Sternbach & Co. and Marshall, Field & Co., appellants, vs. the United States, have been prepared by the attorney general.

DAMAGES FOR BOYCOTT. Boston, Mass., October 29.—Suit has been begun in superior court by Maria Kullburg, a store keeper, against Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, a Catholic priest, to recover $5,000 damages for the ruin of plaintiff's business by a boycott placed upon her store by the priest.

WRECK IN ARIZONA. FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ., October 29.—A serious wreck occurred on the Atlantic & Pacific at Pine Veta, sixty-five miles west of Flagstaff. The San Francisco express coming east was thrown from the track while running at the rate of forty miles an hour.

THE VETERAN HUNGARIAN PATRIOT. BUDA PEST, October 28.—The movement to present Kosuth with an estate near Debrecz, in Hungary, is meeting with enthusiastic support.

TILDEN'S WILL IS VOID. ALBANY, N. Y., October 29.—The court of appeals has decided that the Tilden will is void.

REPARATION DEMANDED. SANTIAGO, CHILE, October 28.—Acting upon instructions sent to him from Washington, Minister Egan presented the Chilean junta with a detailed statement of the results of the investigation made by Captain Schley and himself.

CROPS VERSUS CLIENTS. JAMESTOWN, N. D., October 28.—The term of court of Foster county was adjourned sine die by Judge Ross for the reason that to call a jury would take many farmers from the fields and witnesses from the threshing crews.

CHILI'S ANSWER. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 28.—The department of state has translated the cypher cablegram from Minister Egan, dated Santiago, October 28, in which he gives the following as the reply of the Chilean government to the United States telegram of October 28, asking reparation for the recent murder of American sailors in Valparaiso.

THE WEST AHEAD. DUN SAYS TRADE AND COLLECTIONS MUCH IMPROVED. WEST MONEY IS ALSO EASY IN THE WEST; THESE FAVORABLE SYMPTOMS BEGINNING TO BE FELT IN THE EAST—CORN BULLED 5 CENTS.

NEW YEAR, NOVEMBER 2.—R. G. DUN & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Improvement in business continues. It is greater than before at the west, considerable at the south, and is clearly perceived even at the east.

CHILI SAUCE. NEW YORK, October 31.—It is generally acknowledged by the merchants interested in the Chilean trade that the crisis is an exceedingly grave one.

MUST HAVE RAIN. EVANSVILLE, IND., October 31.—Forest fires along the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis and Evansville & Indianapolis roads are still raging and thousands of dollars worth of property have been destroyed.

SAME OLD STORY. SEATTLE, WASH., October 31.—The Washington state assembly of the Knights of Labor has issued an address to the workers in the country as well as all labor and reform papers urging men of all employments who are seeking work or wishing to change their present residence to consult their own comfort and happiness by keeping away from the state of Washington.

OSAKA.

Thirty Years Ago Osaka Had an Earthquake.

Now It Comes Again at the Same Season—Over 300 Dead—Multitudes Injured by Falling Buildings—Numerous Theaters and Places of Worship Destroyed.

LONDON, October 29.—Dispatches were received here from Japan announcing that the telegraph wires beyond Hiogo and Osaka were down.

Hiogo is a seaport town of Japan, on the island of Honshu, is situated about twenty-two miles by rail from Osaka. The population in 1884 was 40,000.

In his address the speaker disclaimed any intention to attack the Catholic religion, but condemned superstitious abuses such as the Lourdes vision and the Treves cost, and made a vehement attack on the pope's temporal power.

CONNEAU CYCLONE. CONNEAU, O., October 29.—A terrible cyclone swept over this town, destroying about thirty houses.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF STOCK WAS DESTROYED. Record's loss is about $50,000. The planing mill of H. E. Pond, adjoining Record's factory, is greatly damaged.

HORRIBLE ABUSE OF ORPHANS. DUBLIN, October 30.—Some startling testimony was given at the trial of Rev. Samuel Cotton, a rector of Carnagh, county Kildare, who was charged with criminal neglect and ill treatment of children in Carnagh orphanage.

THEY DRILLED A HOLE AND FILLED IT WITH GIANT POWDER. When the explosion occurred the roof was blown twenty feet and the car cleaners and others employed in the barn proper rushed up to the office to see what was the matter.

A BOMB THROWN. DUBLIN, October 28.—Great excitement was caused in this city by the apparent attempt to blow up the office of the National Press, the organ of the McCarthyites.

OF COURSE THE GRASS BURNS. GUTHRIE, O. T., October 29.—Prairie fires are raging all over the territory. So far as heard no lives are lost.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 31.—The commission appointed some time ago by President Harrison to investigate the streets and subways of Washington, under the act of congress, have submitted their report to the president.

WHY SHOULD IT BE THERE. RICHMOND, VA., October 30.—At the annual meeting of the Society of the Army of Northern Virginia, in the hall of the house of delegates, speeches were made by Generals Early, Taliaferro, Ross and Field.

FOOLISH ENGLISH PAPERS. LONDON, November 3.—The Times publishes a letter signed "An American" asserting that the attitude of the United States in regard to Chile is entirely due to the approaching elections in several American states.

PATRIOT McDERMOTT. DUBLIN, October 31.—The nationalist candidate, Patrick McDermott, has been elected to the seat in parliament made vacant by the death of Sir John Pope Hennessy.

A BISHOP CONSECRATED. PHILADELPHIA, October 30.—Rev. Isaac Lee Nicholas was consecrated bishop of Milwaukee at the Episcopal church of St. Marks.

DOMINION COURT DECISION. OTTAWA, October 30.—The supreme court judges gave judgment in the appeal against the act of the Manitoba legislature abolishing separate schools.

RIVER STEAMER BURNED. MEMPHIS, TENN., October 31.—A dispatch received in this city confirms the report of the burning of the steamer Oliver Biene, near Milliken's bend.

REBELS REVERE REBELS. RICHMOND, VA., October 31.—The bronze statue to the memory of Brigadier General William Carter Wickham was unveiled here with imposing ceremonies.

TROOPS IN THE STRIP. GUTHRIE, O. T., October 31.—Four detachments of cavalry have been sent out over the Oklahoma strip to scout all boomers and cowboys.

AT SANTIAGO. SANTIAGO, CHILE, November 3.—The only slight change in the situation lies in the fact that the junta's representatives are now claiming that the police of Valparaiso were in no way at fault in arresting the sailors.

NO BLOODSHED. KNOXVILLE, TENN., November 3.—The guards who have been in charge of the stockades at Bricoville have arrived here. The arms of the guards were all captured.

INDIAN'S MONEY. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The attorneys who have labored so hard and earnestly in behalf of the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indian claims assert that they have it from headquarters that the amount of their claim will be paid by the government next week.

A TOWN BURNED. TITZIE, O., November 3.—The town of North Baltimore is totally destroyed by fire. The dispatches state that twenty-one business houses, including the Beacon newspaper office, People's bank, postoffice, opera house, hotels, etc., were destroyed.

SUCCESSFUL FISH PLANTING. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The United States fish commissioner reports that the experiments made by the commission in 1893 and 1894 with trout in the waters of the Yellowstone National park have proved successful.

THE WEST AHEAD.

Dun Says Trade and Collections Much Improved.

West Money is Also Easy in the West; These Favorable Symptoms Beginning to be Felt in the East—Corn Bullied 5 Cents.

New Year, November 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Improvement in business continues. It is greater than before at the west, considerable at the south, and is clearly perceived even at the east.

CHILI SAUCE. NEW YORK, October 31.—It is generally acknowledged by the merchants interested in the Chilean trade that the crisis is an exceedingly grave one.

MUST HAVE RAIN. EVANSVILLE, IND., October 31.—Forest fires along the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis and Evansville & Indianapolis roads are still raging and thousands of dollars worth of property have been destroyed.

SAME OLD STORY. SEATTLE, WASH., October 31.—The Washington state assembly of the Knights of Labor has issued an address to the workers in the country as well as all labor and reform papers urging men of all employments who are seeking work or wishing to change their present residence to consult their own comfort and happiness by keeping away from the state of Washington.

TILDEN'S PROPOSED LIBRARY. NEW YORK, October 30.—The court of appeals decided in favor of the contestants of Samuel J. Tilden's will, thus defeating his purpose to establish a free library which the great statesman desired to give to this city upon his death.

EVIDENCES OF SUCCESS. OBERLIN, O., October 31.—Prof. Ellis, of Oberlin college, received a letter from his son, John G. Ellis, who is in charge of the government rain making experiments in the absence of General Dyer.

ANCIENT MEMENTOS. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 31.—The director of the mint has received from the United States minister at The Hague three bronze medals, which were struck by the province of Friesland in 1782 in recognition of American independence.

WHY SHOULD IT BE THERE. RICHMOND, VA., October 30.—At the annual meeting of the Society of the Army of Northern Virginia, in the hall of the house of delegates, speeches were made by Generals Early, Taliaferro, Ross and Field.

FOOLISH ENGLISH PAPERS. LONDON, November 3.—The Times publishes a letter signed "An American" asserting that the attitude of the United States in regard to Chile is entirely due to the approaching elections in several American states.

PATRIOT McDERMOTT. DUBLIN, October 31.—The nationalist candidate, Patrick McDermott, has been elected to the seat in parliament made vacant by the death of Sir John Pope Hennessy.

A BISHOP CONSECRATED. PHILADELPHIA, October 30.—Rev. Isaac Lee Nicholas was consecrated bishop of Milwaukee at the Episcopal church of St. Marks.

DOMINION COURT DECISION. OTTAWA, October 30.—The supreme court judges gave judgment in the appeal against the act of the Manitoba legislature abolishing separate schools.

RIVER STEAMER BURNED. MEMPHIS, TENN., October 31.—A dispatch received in this city confirms the report of the burning of the steamer Oliver Biene, near Milliken's bend.

REBELS REVERE REBELS. RICHMOND, VA., October 31.—The bronze statue to the memory of Brigadier General William Carter Wickham was unveiled here with imposing ceremonies.

TROOPS IN THE STRIP. GUTHRIE, O. T., October 31.—Four detachments of cavalry have been sent out over the Oklahoma strip to scout all boomers and cowboys.

AT SANTIAGO. SANTIAGO, CHILE, November 3.—The only slight change in the situation lies in the fact that the junta's representatives are now claiming that the police of Valparaiso were in no way at fault in arresting the sailors.

NO BLOODSHED. KNOXVILLE, TENN., November 3.—The guards who have been in charge of the stockades at Bricoville have arrived here. The arms of the guards were all captured.

INDIAN'S MONEY. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The attorneys who have labored so hard and earnestly in behalf of the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indian claims assert that they have it from headquarters that the amount of their claim will be paid by the government next week.

A TOWN BURNED. TITZIE, O., November 3.—The town of North Baltimore is totally destroyed by fire. The dispatches state that twenty-one business houses, including the Beacon newspaper office, People's bank, postoffice, opera house, hotels, etc., were destroyed.

SUCCESSFUL FISH PLANTING. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The United States fish commissioner reports that the experiments made by the commission in 1893 and 1894 with trout in the waters of the Yellowstone National park have proved successful.

THE WEST AHEAD.

Dun Says Trade and Collections Much Improved.

West Money is Also Easy in the West; These Favorable Symptoms Beginning to be Felt in the East—CORN BULLED 5 CENTS.

New Year, November 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Improvement in business continues. It is greater than before at the west, considerable at the south, and is clearly perceived even at the east.

CHILI SAUCE. NEW YORK, October 31.—It is generally acknowledged by the merchants interested in the Chilean trade that the crisis is an exceedingly grave one.

MUST HAVE RAIN. EVANSVILLE, IND., October 31.—Forest fires along the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis and Evansville & Indianapolis roads are still raging and thousands of dollars worth of property have been destroyed.

SAME OLD STORY. SEATTLE, WASH., October 31.—The Washington state assembly of the Knights of Labor has issued an address to the workers in the country as well as all labor and reform papers urging men of all employments who are seeking work or wishing to change their present residence to consult their own comfort and happiness by keeping away from the state of Washington.

TILDEN'S PROPOSED LIBRARY. NEW YORK, October 30.—The court of appeals decided in favor of the contestants of Samuel J. Tilden's will, thus defeating his purpose to establish a free library which the great statesman desired to give to this city upon his death.

EVIDENCES OF SUCCESS. OBERLIN, O., October 31.—Prof. Ellis, of Oberlin college, received a letter from his son, John G. Ellis, who is in charge of the government rain making experiments in the absence of General Dyer.

ANCIENT MEMENTOS. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 31.—The director of the mint has received from the United States minister at The Hague three bronze medals, which were struck by the province of Friesland in 1782 in recognition of American independence.

WHY SHOULD IT BE THERE. RICHMOND, VA., October 30.—At the annual meeting of the Society of the Army of Northern Virginia, in the hall of the house of delegates, speeches were made by Generals Early, Taliaferro, Ross and Field.

FOOLISH ENGLISH PAPERS. LONDON, November 3.—The Times publishes a letter signed "An American" asserting that the attitude of the United States in regard to Chile is entirely due to the approaching elections in several American states.

PATRIOT McDERMOTT. DUBLIN, October 31.—The nationalist candidate, Patrick McDermott, has been elected to the seat in parliament made vacant by the death of Sir John Pope Hennessy.

A BISHOP CONSECRATED. PHILADELPHIA, October 30.—Rev. Isaac Lee Nicholas was consecrated bishop of Milwaukee at the Episcopal church of St. Marks.

DOMINION COURT DECISION. OTTAWA, October 30.—The supreme court judges gave judgment in the appeal against the act of the Manitoba legislature abolishing separate schools.

RIVER STEAMER BURNED. MEMPHIS, TENN., October 31.—A dispatch received in this city confirms the report of the burning of the steamer Oliver Biene, near Milliken's bend.

REBELS REVERE REBELS. RICHMOND, VA., October 31.—The bronze statue to the memory of Brigadier General William Carter Wickham was unveiled here with imposing ceremonies.

TROOPS IN THE STRIP. GUTHRIE, O. T., October 31.—Four detachments of cavalry have been sent out over the Oklahoma strip to scout all boomers and cowboys.

AT SANTIAGO. SANTIAGO, CHILE, November 3.—The only slight change in the situation lies in the fact that the junta's representatives are now claiming that the police of Valparaiso were in no way at fault in arresting the sailors.

NO BLOODSHED. KNOXVILLE, TENN., November 3.—The guards who have been in charge of the stockades at Bricoville have arrived here. The arms of the guards were all captured.

INDIAN'S MONEY. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The attorneys who have labored so hard and earnestly in behalf of the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indian claims assert that they have it from headquarters that the amount of their claim will be paid by the government next week.

A TOWN BURNED. TITZIE, O., November 3.—The town of North Baltimore is totally destroyed by fire. The dispatches state that twenty-one business houses, including the Beacon newspaper office, People's bank, postoffice, opera house, hotels, etc., were destroyed.

SUCCESSFUL FISH PLANTING. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The United States fish commissioner reports that the experiments made by the commission in 1893 and 1894 with trout in the waters of the Yellowstone National park have proved successful.

THE WEST AHEAD.

Dun Says Trade and Collections Much Improved.

West Money is Also Easy in the West; These Favorable Symptoms Beginning to be Felt in the East—CORN BULLED 5 CENTS.

New Year, November 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Improvement in business continues. It is greater than before at the west, considerable at the south, and is clearly perceived even at the east.

CHILI SAUCE. NEW YORK, October 31.—It is generally acknowledged by the merchants interested in the Chilean trade that the crisis is an exceedingly grave one.

MUST HAVE RAIN. EVANSVILLE, IND., October 31.—Forest fires along the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis and Evansville & Indianapolis roads are still raging and thousands of dollars worth of property have been destroyed.

SAME OLD STORY. SEATTLE, WASH., October 31.—The Washington state assembly of the Knights of Labor has issued an address to the workers in the country as well as all labor and reform papers urging men of all employments who are seeking work or wishing to change their present residence to consult their own comfort and happiness by keeping away from the state of Washington.

TILDEN'S PROPOSED LIBRARY. NEW YORK, October 30.—The court of appeals decided in favor of the contestants of Samuel J. Tilden's will, thus defeating his purpose to establish a free library which the great statesman desired to give to this city upon his death.

EVIDENCES OF SUCCESS. OBERLIN, O., October 31.—Prof. Ellis, of Oberlin college, received a letter from his son, John G. Ellis, who is in charge of the government rain making experiments in the absence of General Dyer.

ANCIENT MEMENTOS. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 31.—The director of the mint has received from the United States minister at The Hague three bronze medals, which were struck by the province of Friesland in 1782 in recognition of American independence.

WHY SHOULD IT BE THERE. RICHMOND, VA., October 30.—At the annual meeting of the Society of the Army of Northern Virginia, in the hall of the house of delegates, speeches were made by Generals Early, Taliaferro, Ross and Field.

FOOLISH ENGLISH PAPERS. LONDON, November 3.—The Times publishes a letter signed "An American" asserting that the attitude of the United States in regard to Chile is entirely due to the approaching elections in several American states.

PATRIOT McDERMOTT. DUBLIN, October 31.—The nationalist candidate, Patrick McDermott, has been elected to the seat in parliament made vacant by the death of Sir John Pope Hennessy.

A BISHOP CONSECRATED. PHILADELPHIA, October 30.—Rev. Isaac Lee Nicholas was consecrated bishop of Milwaukee at the Episcopal church of St. Marks.

DOMINION COURT DECISION. OTTAWA, October 30.—The supreme court judges gave judgment in the appeal against the act of the Manitoba legislature abolishing separate schools.

RIVER STEAMER BURNED. MEMPHIS, TENN., October 31.—A dispatch received in this city confirms the report of the burning of the steamer Oliver Biene, near Milliken's bend.

REBELS REVERE REBELS. RICHMOND, VA., October 31.—The bronze statue to the memory of Brigadier General William Carter Wickham was unveiled here with imposing ceremonies.

TROOPS IN THE STRIP. GUTHRIE, O. T., October 31.—Four detachments of cavalry have been sent out over the Oklahoma strip to scout all boomers and cowboys.

AT SANTIAGO. SANTIAGO, CHILE, November 3.—The only slight change in the situation lies in the fact that the junta's representatives are now claiming that the police of Valparaiso were in no way at fault in arresting the sailors.

NO BLOODSHED. KNOXVILLE, TENN., November 3.—The guards who have been in charge of the stockades at Bricoville have arrived here. The arms of the guards were all captured.

INDIAN'S MONEY. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The attorneys who have labored so hard and earnestly in behalf of the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indian claims assert that they have it from headquarters that the amount of their claim will be paid by the government next week.

A TOWN BURNED. TITZIE, O., November 3.—The town of North Baltimore is totally destroyed by fire. The dispatches state that twenty-one business houses, including the Beacon newspaper office, People's bank, postoffice, opera house, hotels, etc., were destroyed.

SUCCESSFUL FISH PLANTING. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The United States fish commissioner reports that the experiments made by the commission in 1893 and 1894 with trout in the waters of the Yellowstone National park have proved successful.

THE WEST AHEAD.

Dun Says Trade and Collections Much Improved.

West Money is Also Easy in the West; These Favorable Symptoms Beginning to be Felt in the East—CORN BULLED 5 CENTS.

New Year, November 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Improvement in business continues. It is greater than before at the west, considerable at the south, and is clearly perceived even at the east.

CHILI SAUCE. NEW YORK, October 31.—It is generally acknowledged by the merchants interested in the Chilean trade that the crisis is an exceedingly grave one.

MUST HAVE RAIN. EVANSVILLE, IND., October 31.—Forest fires along the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis and Evansville & Indianapolis roads are still raging and thousands of dollars worth of property have been destroyed.

SAME OLD STORY. SEATTLE, WASH., October 31.—The Washington state assembly of the Knights of Labor has issued an address to the workers in the country as well as all labor and reform papers urging men of all employments who are seeking work or wishing to change their present residence to consult their own comfort and happiness by keeping away from the state of Washington.

TILDEN'S PROPOSED LIBRARY. NEW YORK, October 30.—The court of appeals decided in favor of the contestants of Samuel J. Tilden's will, thus defeating his purpose to establish a free library which the great statesman desired to give to this city upon his death.

EVIDENCES OF SUCCESS. OBERLIN, O., October 31.—Prof. Ellis, of Oberlin college, received a letter from his son, John G. Ellis, who is in charge of the government rain making experiments in the absence of General Dyer.

ANCIENT MEMENTOS. WASHINGTON, D. C., October 31.—The director of the mint has received from the United States minister at The Hague three bronze medals, which were struck by the province of Friesland in 1782 in recognition of American independence.

WHY SHOULD IT BE THERE. RICHMOND, VA., October 30.—At the annual meeting of the Society of the Army of Northern Virginia, in the hall of the house of delegates, speeches were made by Generals Early, Taliaferro, Ross and Field.

FOOLISH ENGLISH PAPERS. LONDON, November 3.—The Times publishes a letter signed "An American" asserting that the attitude of the United States in regard to Chile is entirely due to the approaching elections in several American states.

PATRIOT McDERMOTT. DUBLIN, October 31.—The nationalist candidate, Patrick McDermott, has been elected to the seat in parliament made vacant by the death of Sir John Pope Hennessy.

A BISHOP CONSECRATED. PHILADELPHIA, October 30.—Rev. Isaac Lee Nicholas was consecrated bishop of Milwaukee at the Episcopal church of St. Marks.

DOMINION COURT DECISION. OTTAWA, October 30.—The supreme court judges gave judgment in the appeal against the act of the Manitoba legislature abolishing separate schools.

RIVER STEAMER BURNED. MEMPHIS, TENN., October 31.—A dispatch received in this city confirms the report of the burning of the steamer Oliver Biene, near Milliken's bend.

REBELS REVERE REBELS. RICHMOND, VA., October 31.—The bronze statue to the memory of Brigadier General William Carter Wickham was unveiled here with imposing ceremonies.

TROOPS IN THE STRIP. GUTHRIE, O. T., October 31.—Four detachments of cavalry have been sent out over the Oklahoma strip to scout all boomers and cowboys.

AT SANTIAGO. SANTIAGO, CHILE, November 3.—The only slight change in the situation lies in the fact that the junta's representatives are now claiming that the police of Valparaiso were in no way at fault in arresting the sailors.

NO BLOODSHED. KNOXVILLE, TENN., November 3.—The guards who have been in charge of the stockades at Bricoville have arrived here. The arms of the guards were all captured.

INDIAN'S MONEY. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The attorneys who have labored so hard and earnestly in behalf of the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indian claims assert that they have it from headquarters that the amount of their claim will be paid by the government next week.

A TOWN BURNED. TITZIE, O., November 3.—The town of North Baltimore is totally destroyed by fire. The dispatches state that twenty-one business houses, including the Beacon newspaper office, People's bank, postoffice, opera house, hotels, etc., were destroyed.

SUCCESSFUL FISH PLANTING. WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—The United States fish commissioner reports that the experiments made by the commission in 1893 and 1894 with trout in the waters of the Yellowstone National park have proved successful.