

Don't Die of Consumption.

A Positive Cure Found by a Celebrated Michigan Physician—He Sends a Large Trial Package Free by Mail to All Who Write.

At last a cure has been found. Increditable as it may seem, after the centuries of failure, a positive and certain cure for the deadly consumption has at last been discovered. It remained for a great physician of Michigan to find the only known cure for consumption, after almost a life's work spent in experimenting and study.

Consumptives who have returned from the West—come home to die because they thought nothing could be done for them—have tried this new discovery and are now well and strong.

If you are afflicted, do not fail to send at once to Dr. D. P. Yonkerman, 98 Shakespeare Bldg., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial package of this remedy, proofs and testimonials from hundreds of cured patients. It costs nothing. The doctor does not ask any one to take his word or any one else's, as he sends a trial package free, and a few days' use will show you how easily and quickly you can be cured. Delay is dangerous. There is no time to lose when the death hand of consumption is tightening its clutch upon you. Write today.

Thanked by Thousands

Hundreds of Grateful Letters Daily tell how the Free trial of Doan's Kidney Pills brought relief to Invalid-Drifting People.

OAKLAND, CAL.—"I got your trial box of Doan's Kidney Pills and thank you very much for them. I think they are worth their weight in gold. I gave them to my son and they helped him more good than the doctors could do. They said he had Bright's Disease and could not get well. His urine was green and his back nearly killed him. Now he is nearly well. I have five other sons whom I have advised to write you, as I would like to convince them of the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills."—Mrs. LIGGETT, 703 East 17th Street, Oakland, Cal.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.—"I take pleasure in congratulating you on your Doan's Kidney Pills. I received and used the sample and then purchased a box of C. L. Cusack & Co., Ltd. I must say I have been cured of dizziness by them, and have not had the slightest sign of this so-called vertigo since the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I will recommend them to a great many others whom I know suffering from dizziness and kidney complaint. It is true, since using the pills, every one I meet remarks about how well I look. Thanking you for your free trial box."—Geo. JENNINGS, care of Preston & Stauffer, New Orleans, La.

Socialism in Europe. Mulhausen, Alsace-Lorraine, has a Socialist town council, which has decided to pay two shillings a day to all the unemployed workmen in the town.

Proud of Her Ancestry. Miss Mary Danbridge Spiers, now living in Washington, is a celebrated beauty and connected by ties of kindred and descent with the Washington, Danbridge, Pendleton, Taliatero, Buckner and other noted families of the colonial gentry of Virginia. Miss Spiers has literary aspirations and is now engaged in writing a book. She is a perfect blonde and a great favorite in society.

Duties of Congressmen. "It makes me tired," said Representative Swanson of Virginia, "to hear these Congressmen talking about the hardships of a campaign. Now, campaigning simply means blowing about yourself, and that is the easiest thing on earth for the ordinary man to do. I have been in Congress for several years and I have not noticed that the members differ much from ordinary men."

Eccentricity. Cable dispatches designate the crown princess of Saxony as "quite eccentric" because she left her husband when that gentleman set up a second domestic establishment with an actress. In this country her royal highness will be considered indeed eccentric, not because she left her husband, but because she didn't wear out a rolling pin on his royal head.

The Bridal Bouquet. The bride's bouquet at a recent wedding was in seven sections, and was thrown, as she left, to the six bridesmaids and the maid of honor. Three of the sections held typical gifts—a gold dollar, a gold ring and a gold thimble—prophesying respectively wealth, matrimony and spinsterhood to the recipient.

Senator's Efforts to Boom Western Town Not Successful. Senator Beveridge lived in Kansas for a while after he graduated from college. When the old-time land boomers got to spinning yarns, says the Washington Post, the young Hoosier has one or two himself. When he alighted from the train at Alva, Okla., during his late southwestern trip, he was grasped by the hand, and some one exclaimed:

"Well, Senator, do you know where I saw you the last time? In a settler's wagon over near Dighton, Kan., by golly!"

"I wrote the first boom circular for the country over there," said Mr. Beveridge. "Soil four feet deep, abundant rainfall, and all that sort of thing. There was a lively business in that vicinity for a time. The soil was really splendid for agricultural purposes. I was in partnership with a man named McClellan. Mac and I worked hard to develop that part of the state."

"Flourishing community now?" asked those who had heard the senator's vivid western story.

"No," he replied with a dejected air that would discourage a triple statehood boom. "Just ranch land."

Not a Mere Chat. Secretary Root invited two men who know much about the Philippines to breakfast with him at the Arlington a day or two ago, so they might have a talk about the archipelago. The secretary was absent-minded when he came down stairs and he went to the dining room and breakfasted alone. Then he came out into the lobby and found his two friends waiting.

"Why, good morning," said the secretary. "Come right along to the office and we can talk matters over."

The two men thought this meant that the secretary wanted to have a short talk with them before breakfast and they went along without protest. When they reached the office they sat down and talked until 2 o'clock. Then the secretary thanked them and bade them good-by. Five minutes later two hungry men dashed madly into the nearest restaurant and ordered nearly everything in sight. Next day Secretary Root remembered and spent half the forenoon hunting up his friends and apologizing profusely.

Paddy Found the Third. A London mechanic, with the intention of enjoying a practical joke, pasted the figures of two donkeys on the dead wall opposite to his workshop. Under these figures he had written in large letters: "When shall we three meet again?" The idea of this, it need hardly be explained, was to presuppose that whoever should stand to read the inscription was the third donkey. He then retired to his shop, from which he could see how the bait would take. It was not long until a man coming by stopped and stood gazing in perplexity at the two donkeys and the inscription. The mechanic was elated at the manner in which his brilliant joke had worked. He burst into a fit of loud and hearty laughter, which soon, however, subsided when the man quietly turned round and scornfully exclaimed: "Bedad, I was all along wonderin' where the other one was."

Answered the Description. He was dining at a foreign hotel, when a detective approached and said: "Beg pardon, sir, I am in search of an escaped convict, and shall have to trouble you for your passport as a matter of form."

"But do I look like a convict?" "Possibly not, sir. Still, I shall require to see the passport."

The Englishman, in his annoyance, snatched up the bill of fare from the table, thrust it in the detective's hand, and exclaimed: "There it is, then!" "What is this? 'Sheep's head, neck of mutton, pig's feet.' The description tallies exactly; you must come along with me."

HEALTHY WOMEN

(For week ending January 17, 1903.)

Praise Pe-ru-na as a Cure for Colds and a Preventive of Catarrh.

MISS ELIZABETH UBER, No. 57 Bassett street, Albany, N. Y., writes: "I have always dreaded unsettled weather because of my extreme liability to catch cold, when a catarrhal trouble would quickly develop through my entire system, which it would take weeks to drive away. I am thankful to say that since I have taken PERUNA I do not have any reason to dread this any more. If I have been at all exposed to the damp, wet or cold weather, I take a dose or two of PERUNA and it throws out any hint of sickness from my system."—Miss Elizabeth Uber.

Mrs. M. J. Brink, No. 820 Michigan avenue, St. Joseph, Mich., writes: "This past winter during the wet and cold weather I caught a sudden and severe cold, which developed a catarrhal condition through my entire system, and so affected my general health that I was completely broken down, and became nervous and hysterical and unfit to supervise my home. My physician prescribed for me, but somehow his medicine did me no good. Reading of PERUNA I decided to try it. After I had taken but three bottles I found myself in fine health."—Mrs. M. J. Brink.

Miss Sara McGahan, No. 197 Third street, Albany, N. Y., writes: "A few months ago I suffered with a severe attack of influenza, which nothing seemed to relieve. My hearing became bad, my eyes became irritated and feverish. Nothing seemed right and nothing I ate tasted good. I took PERUNA and within two weeks I was perfectly well."—Sara McGahan.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be glad to give you his valuable advice gratis.

IMMENSE TOBACCO PURCHASE. Forty-Eight Thousand Dollars Paid for a Fancy Lot of Tobacco.

The biggest purchase of high grade tobacco ever made in the West by a cigar manufacturer was made last Wednesday by Frank P. Lewis, Peoria, Ill., for his celebrated Single Binder cigar. A written guarantee was given that the entire amount was to be fancy selected tobacco. This, no doubt, makes the Lewis factory the largest holder in the United States of tobacco of so high a grading.

Awkwardly Expressed. In a West End church on a recent Sunday the junior curate was preaching on reasons for coming to church, says the British Weekly. Some people he remarked come to church for no better reason than to show off their best clothes. Then he glanced thoughtfully over his audience. "I am thankful to see, dear friends," he added, "that none of you have come here for that reason."
