See Schedule for Union Pacific wheat train.

Jacob Heckman attended church in Hays Sunday.

County Attorney Rea was up from Hays Thursday.

Wanted—Cleaning and pressing. Mrs. W. R. Holmes.

Frank Phillips has rented Gleason Brothers' ranch on the Saline.

Grover Hays spent Sunday in Hays the guest of Miss Alice Freese.

Dr. Jones made a professional visit to Brownell Tuesday afternoon.

The Democrats will nominate a county ticket September 1, 1906.

Read Bacon & Park's new ad. and go to their store and patronize them.

Thursday night this section of the country was visited by an inch of rain.

For Sale—Willard piano. A bargain if taken at once. Inquire at this office.

Geo. I. Verbeck is in Kansas City this week purchasing his fall stock of goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McKnight were up from Banner, Wednesday, on land business.

Rev. C. H. Putnam of Mount Vernon, Iowa, is visiting with M. W. Mason and family.

Services will be held in the Episcopal church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. by J. H. Lee.

For Sale—John Deere Plow and Columbia Drill. Good as new. Inquire at Hardman Lumber Co.

Notice—The Union Bible class will meet next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the M. E. church.

Miss Helen Poole and Miss Francis Hopkins, of Grainfield were guests of Mrs. I. T. Purcell this week.

For Sale—Span of mules; also good work or driving horse. W. J. Dillon, 7 miles north of Wa-Keeney.

Eddie Moore departed Tuesday evening for Grinnell. He crated and shipped his donkey there also.

Mr. and Mrs. John Razak, of Collyer, traded at the county seat Wednesday. We acknowledge a pleasant call.

For Sale—Pure home-made honey; extracted from alfalfa. Leave orders with Jacob Heckman, wa-keeneey.

Mr. Bundy, of Springville, Iowa, was in the city Thursday. Mr. Bundy is a cousin of our townsman, T. W. Bundy.

Charlie Riley has a permanent job in Joe Poffenberger's barber shop. He invites all his old friends to call and see him.

Samuel Glass, one of the prosperous farmers of Glencoe township, was a county seat visitor Monday. He made us an agreeable call.

Carl Deatrich, of Kansas City, arrived in the city Tuesday morning and is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ferris.

Robert Sims, of Colorado Springs, was in the city this week revisiting old scenes. There seems to be some attraction here for Robert.

Will Wollner and George Hays are beautifying Bob Kirk's ranch on the Saline. They are treating the buildings to a coat of fresh paint.

A. B. Redmond was up from Topoka this week getting ready for his sale, which will occur at his old home south of Collyer, September 6th.

Miss Alta Baggott, a niece of Mayor King's, left Tuesday morning for Kinmundy, Ill., her home. Mrs. King accompanied her as far as Kansas City.

Mr. Temple, of Allen county, was in the city this week looking up a quarter section of land in W. N. Larrabee's pasture with a view of trading for it.

The Agricultural College on wheels. See Schedule of Union Pacific and State Agricultural College "Wheat" train passing through this county next week.

Joe Poffenberger and Ray Gleason made a trip to Graham county Thursday. Ray says there was no politics in this trip as Joe spent most of his time visiting his son Clyde.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gregory, of Mowqua, Ill., are visiting their nephew, Samuel Parks, and family, this week. Mr. Gregory is president of the Mowqua National bank.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Gleason departed Wednesday night for their home at Council Bluffs, Iowa, after a pleasant visit at the home of Mrs. A. L. Gleason.

The Union Pacific "Wheat" train, with State Agricultural College speakers, will pass through this county next week. See schedule of stops elsewhere in this paper.

Dr. A. E. Woodworth, Dentist, will be in Wa-Keeney September 1st, remaining until September 5th.

J. W. Hancock, of Groveland, Ill., was in the city last week the guest of his old friend, Louis Morell. They drove over to Gove county where Mr. Hancock owns a quarter of land.

A. J. Atherton, of Goodland, was the guest of Sam Lamoreaux this week. Mr. Atherton has a good job as pumper at the city water works. He owns a quarter of land northwest of town.

Farmers ought to find time next week to attend one of the lectures on "Wheat," as the Union Pacific wheat train passes through the county. Lectures will be given in the cars at the stations.

Ellis Neff is building an addition to his home west of town. When completed, he will have one of the largest and best farm houses in western Trego. Henry Schroeder is the boss carpenter.

The Ladies' Good Will society are striving their utmost to obtain and erect the balance of the cemetery fence real soon, and though it is a big undertaking they are not soliciting, but we feel sure no offering would be rejected.

J. K. Richards, the live real estate agent, is enjoying a visit from his brother, of Humeston, Iowa; also an uncle, D. M. Oglesby, of Knoxville, Ill. Mr. Oglesby is a nephew of the famous governor, Dick Oglesby of Illinois, and was one of the men who fought to save this grand republic.

J. C. Ruppenthal, democratic candidate for judge of this district, was in the city last Friday circulating among the boys. Mr. Ruppenthal is a fine young man, but he is up against a hard proposition in opposing Judge Reeder, as the judge has a host of friends all over the district who will work hard for his re-election.

Last Monday Ed and Tom Mahoney, of Bunkerhill, threshed 3,340 bushels of wheat. During the day they broke their drive-belt, which delayed them 45 minutes. They also had to stop occasionally to wait for grain wagons. They were not trying to make any record-breaking run; and the above is simply the excellent result of a good day's work.—Luray Herald.

Last Wednesday evening Mrs. I. T. Purcell entertained quite a large number of young people in honor of Miss Poole and Miss Hopkins of Grainfield, Kansas, also Mr. Robert Sims of Colorado Springs, Colorado. Refreshments were served and the young people indulged in games and music until quite a late hour when they took their departure. They report a most delightful time.

Last Sunday Miss Anna Groft and Mr. Henry DeWitt were united in marriage at the home of the bride. Judge Groft performed the ceremony. Both young people are well and favorably known. Mrs. DeWitt is a quiet, sweet dispositioned girl and she has many friends. Mr. DeWitt is an industrious man of excellent habits, and the young couple cannot fail to be happy. The World and their friends extend congratulations.

Thursday morning Mrs. John Glenn received the sad news of the death of her mother at the Hospital "Dieu" at New Orleans, where she underwent an operation two weeks ago. The bereavement is doubly sad as just two months ago her oldest son was killed and the family had not recovered from the shock when this came upon them. The burial took place last Sunday at Harnell, N. Y. Mrs. Dunlivan was beloved by all who knew her for her charity and kindness and her children, one son and four daughters, have through her death suffered an irreparable loss. She was very highly connected being blood relation of Sir John Moore and Lord Kilwarren. One of her aunts was married to Arthur Forbes Wolf, Lord of Kilkenny Castle, Ireland, a first cousin of General Wolfe, killed at the battle of Quebec. Lord Kilwarren was first cousin of Sir John Moore, who was married to her great aunt. The family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in this great sorrow.

To Patrons of Our County High School. Your young people can be accommodated with stopping places while attending the High school in almost any way you may desire.

Board and well furnished rooms at reasonable rates. There are two places where young men can work for their board, three for young ladies and seven rooms suitable for two persons each that can be used for pupils to room and board themselves.

Residents of Wa-Keeney who will accommodate pupils in any way please let me know at your earliest convenience. Respectfully,

J. H. NIESLEY.

THE "WHEAT" TRAIN.

High priced land calls for scientific farming. Kansas farmers are anxious to learn from their neighbors and from their employees at the State Experiment Station the best methods of raising wheat. Experiments are being made each year that ought to help the general farmer. These men at Manhattan are working for the farmers of Kansas at the State's expense and are ready to report the results of their experiments.

The Union Pacific is vitally interested in helping the movement of big crops every year. Therefore the Union Pacific Company is conducting this special train over its lines, carrying the Agricultural College speakers strictly as a business proposition. It is hoped that the farmers along the line will also look upon it as a matter of business and attend the lectures.

Elsewhere we print the schedule as it affects the farmers of this county. Farmers are asked to come right to the stations from their fields, in field clothes, and to bring their boys and their hired men. Lectures will be given in the cars at the stations except where evening meetings are held.

Every effort will be made to keep the train on time and farmers are urged to be on time. The lecture will be on "Wheat Culture," Soil and Seed.

Gunckel-Beason.

Last Wednesday evening Miss Nina Gunckel was united in marriage to Mr. Cleve Beason at the home of her father, J. F. Gunckel. About nine o'clock Miss Irene Lucas played a march to which strains the young couple marched in and stood in the large bay window which was decorated in green vines which formed a canopy and above hung one large bell surrounded by several smaller ones, palms and house plants formed an effective back ground. The bride was attired in a lovely dress of white albatross profusely trimmed in lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and was indeed a very charming bride. The groom wore the usual suit of black. Rev. Scott of the M. E. church performed the ceremony in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties and about fifty guests.

Miss Nina Gunckel has lived in Wa-Keeney about six years and in that time she has won the respect and admiration of all who know her. She possesses a lovely christian character and all who have come in contact with her recognized the sterling worth not always found in one so young.

Mr. Beason has lived in Wa-Keeney for a number of years and is a young man of excellent standing. He is honest, upright and industrious and is also a christian young man and with his many excellent qualities he is sure of making a success of life.

An excellent supper was served after which the guests took their departure.

A very large number of handsome and useful presents were received.

In a short time the happy young couple will go to house keeping in the west part of town where Mr. Beason has a cottage which is being rapidly completed.

The World with their many friends extend hearty congratulations.

Correspondence.

Collyer.

Corn needs rain very badly.

Not many in town Saturday.

The sick in this locality are all on the mend.

Collyer will soon have a new creamery in full blast.

Mrs. Webster is visiting her sister, Mrs. Millie Walsh.

The whole country has been enveloped in dust the past few days.

Misses Bell and Nannie Glenn are the guests of Mrs. C. C. Hickman.

Candidates are as thick as peas in a pod. Surely some will get it in the neck.

The skating rink has two new patrons, and several say the young ladies are very graceful.

Our primary school will be held in Razak hall for the winter, and Vince better change the sign to "Buzzing Roost."

The Voda ball nine scored a victory over the "Kidites" of Collyer Sunday, but the little fellows did some good playing.

St. Michael's church held services Sunday and was crowded. There will be no services next Sunday unless notice is given.

Norman Redmond is still assistant cook at the Palace hotel, and some even surmise that he is looking for cash for assistance rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorimer have the sympathy of the community in the death of their infant son last Tuesday evening. The little one was laid to rest at Collyer Thursday morning and another flower was transplanted from the garden of earth to paradise.

Ogallah.

Lee Tomson is cutting corn for C. C. Yetter.

Musgrave Bros. shipped two cars of cattle Wednesday.

Several threshing outfits running in this neighborhood.

A base ball game between the Rinker and Ford teams last Sunday resulted in a score of 25 to 24 in favor of Ford. It took ten innings to decide this warm contest. Burkett and Sweet pitched for the waders and Rinker for the hay heavers. Time of game 3:52. Griswold umpire.

Big Creek.

Mr. Goble is quite sick at this time.

Farmers are busy putting up feed.

A good deal of wheat to thresh yet.

James Furbeck is reported to be getting worse.

Fred Furbeck is visiting with his cousin, Earl Furbeck, this week.

A prospective land buyer was looking over the east side last Monday.

Mrs. Enoch Christenson and little son have been quite sick, but are reported better.

Mrs. Lee Wagg was quite sick last Sunday, and it was necessary to call a physician from Ellis.

Dame rumor says a powerful magnet drew Tom Peezor to Hays City last Sunday night and that he was on the road all night.

Frank Kutina is hulling out John Herbert's big crop of wheat south-west of Ellis this week with his new J. I. Case separator. Frank is sure a hustler.

One of the Blue Front Packers is in our vicinity at 10 cents per acre and Epps says if they pack half this year they can tell next year if it is any good or not.

W. A. Eppler, of the firm of Eppler & Brown of Ellis, is in Kansas City this week looking over the markets for bargains for their farmer and stockmen friends around Ellis.

Mr. Shafer, south of Ellis, had the misfortune to get four large stacks of good wheat burned last Saturday. He was threshing and it is presumed a spark from the engine set them on fire.

Eppler & Brown, the new implement firm of Ellis are preparing to put in a sales stable in connection with their implement business. This has long been needed in Ellis and we predict a good thing for our farmers and stockmen.

Engineer Hamilton, of Ellis, weighed three peaches from his own raising from a tree in his yard at A. J. Crombs' store in Ellis last Saturday that tipped the beam at one pound. The tree is only three years old and is a beauty with its load of fruit.

One of our old settlers and friends, northeast of Ellis, Eli Hoffman, treated himself to one of the Blue Front's new Platform spring wagons and a P. & O. double surrey harness last Saturday to which he will attach his fine Black Douglas team and drive overland to his native state, Ohio, next week. Mr. Hoffman sold all of his personal property a few weeks ago but still owns his fine farm in Ellis county and we predict his return to Ellis in a year or two.

Bosnia.

Rain came not too soon or too late to do good.

Several in our vicinity finished threshing last week.

Miss Mary O'Dwyer was the guest of Hattie Larrabee over Sunday.

Moses Surprise returned from Nebraska last week. He says Bosnia is the place.

The dance at W. N. Larrabee's Friday night was one of the most social events of the season. All present report a jolly time.

Voda.

R. Owen is cutting his fourth crop of alfalfa.

Mr. Glantz lost his separator by fire last Monday.

Mrs. Schwanbeck and daughter visited with Mrs. Banta Sunday.

T. Schimkowitz is going to visit his old home in Austria this fall and winter.

George Kristoff is threshing wheat that tests over 60 pounds to the bushel.

Prof. Bill Law, of Wa-Keeney, is water hauler for J. Krhut, and is also assistant engineer.

Stephen Krhut is running the separator for M. Phares a few days while Martin is laid up for repairs.

J. Krhut and M. Phares are threshing in Voda neighborhood—the best threshers in Voda country.

Mr. Maple and family are visiting at Mr. Banta's this week. Mrs. Maple is a daughter of Mrs. Banta.

Adolph Schwanbeck threshed 4000 bushels of wheat. He had 100 acres that averaged 24 bushels per acre.

Schwanbeck Bros. threshed 4500 bushels of wheat—some of it went 35 bushels per acre, and tested 62 pounds.

A new cook is wanted at Hotel de Voda—must be of the feminine gender, must be not less than 25 or over 60. Apply to Will Cox or J. Mollinsky not later than August 25.

The Voda Shamrocks and the Collyer Leghorns crossed bats on the Collyer diamond one day this week. It was an exciting game and the score was 23 to 22 in favor of the Shamrocks.

Voda will have a cement school house. There were three bids as follows: A. H. Wilkinson, $895 (number); A. E. Garrett, $900 (cement); H. W. Spear $850 (cement). H. W. Spear being the lowest bidder gets the contract.

Mr. Spena is threshing for Mr. Hall. Wheat is yielding well.

Hot, dry and dusty. The Hackberry creek is nearly out of water.

Mr. Glantz had the misfortune to lose his wheat separator by fire this week.

T. Curtz and lady and A. E. Wilds and family spent Thursday with George Haggitt on the Hackberry.

Butcher & Holt took out a corn binder from Banner today. They report some forty bushel corn on the Reynold's farm.

Mr. Woods, the land man from Collyer, is here with land hunters from Illinois. He is also talking telephone to the farmers.

Mr. Ice, a government employ looking after the different kinds of soil, stopped here to dinner, but he didn't look as cool as his name would indicate.

Dr. A. R. Talbott, Dentist, of Ellis, Kansas, next regular date at Wa-Keeney September 5 and 6. Watch this paper for further dates.

Kansas City Markets.

Stock Yards, Kansas City, Mo., Tuesday, August 21, 1906.

Cattle receipts yesterday and today are more nearly up to the August standard than we have been getting so far this month, 30,000 head for the two days. The month to date shows a shortage of 20,000 cattle and 6000 calves from same period a year ago, and the impression is growing that we are not likely to have any extra big runs this fall. There are plenty of cattle in the country, particularly west of here, but this year the biggest yield of corn is also in the west, and many cattle will go right on feed without coming to market. This arrangement may be beneficial all around, as it will do away with any congestion this fall, make a more steady market, and elevate prices somewhat. It will also insure a good run next winter, enabling packers to run their plants steadily, and nearer their capacity than heretofore. The trade is keyed up to handle large receipts, the market is strong and active each day, grass steers being the one exception, tendency on that class toward lower prices, 15 to 25 cents off in the last week. Cows and heifers are selling good, and veals are a quarter higher this week. Top beef steers sold at $6.40 yesterday, for part of a load of fancy steers, top today $6.15, dry lot steers $6.75 and upwards, corn and grass steers $4.75 to $5.60, straight grass steers of good weights up to $5.10, medium and common steers $3.40 to $4.50, Kansas grazed Texas steers $3.50 to $4.25, good heifers $3.50 to $4.75, grass cows $2.75 to $3.75, bulls $2.25 to $3.00, veals up to $6.50 today, heavy ones around $3.75, choice feeders $4.25 to $4.75, fair to good $3.50 to $4.25, stock steers $2.60 to $4.25. Trade in country grades is healthy, but not extra snappy.

Hogs are stronger this week, market up 5 to 10 cents yesterday, shade higher today, top $6.37 1/2, bulk $6.20 to $6.32 1/2. The same relative standing rules as a week ago, in regard to prices for weights, except that heavies are a shade farther behind the leaders, $6.10 to $6.25 today. August hog receipts so far are 75 per cent heavier than same time last August, run 12,000 today, and the rising market in the face of this condition speaks well for the demand. Shippers are being advised to be on the alert for breaks.

Increased receipts of sheep and lambs are relieving the heavy demand for feeding and breeding stuff a little, market strong, killing grades also firm. Spring lambs sold at $7.60 today, native muttons $5.50, yearling wethers and ewes for the country, Idaho, at $5.50, feeders around $4.90, breeding ewes anywhere from $5.00 to $6.00. Supply last week 22,000, of which 10,000 went to the country, run today 7000, about the same yesterday.
