Death of J. J. Zeman.

Joseph J. Zeman was born in Austria, September 15, 1858, and came to this country while yet a mere lad. His parents located in Iowa till the fall of '77, when they moved to Kansas, where he lived up to the time of his death which occurred Friday, August 20, 1909. He had started to Wa-Keeney Friday morning about 10 o'clock, and at 11 was found by the mail carrier unconscious, lying in the road about a mile and a half east of his home. He was taken home and everything possible was done to relieve his sufferings, but passed away at 10:30 o'clock that night. His death was the result of internal injuries received in a runaway accident.

The funeral services were held Sunday at the home by Rev. W. E. Scott of this city after which the remains were taken to the Collyer cemetery and the body laid to rest by the side of his mother.

The deceased leaves an aged father, four brothers, two sisters, a wife and five children to mourn his loss.

Mr. Zeman was well known in Wa-Keeney and the west part of the county and had a large number of friends throughout the county and the World with friends extends sympathy to the family in their sorrow.

We wish to extend our most sincere thanks to the many kind friends for the kindly aid and sympathy extended to us in our hour of trouble.
Mrs. Mary Zeman and Children.

Obituary.

Sarah E. Yates was born at Benson, Vermont, November 9, 1824, and died at Wa-Keeney, Kansas, August 14, 1909, aged almost 85 years. She the third child and second daughter of Sireno and Tirzah (Whitton) Burke, there being five sisters and four brothers in the family. Two brothers and one sister, and many other relatives, who are still living in Ohio where the family moved in 1835. For more than twenty years she was a school teacher and was considered an attractive and accomplished young lady. From her savings she purchased a farm and persisted in living on it and personally managing her property, and later became part owner and associate editor of The Enterprise, a newspaper published at Nevada, Ohio., and was a charter member of the Lutheran church established at that place. Selling her farm and newspaper interests soon after the civil war, she moved to Riley county, Kansas, where she purchased a farm and was later married to John Yates. She was also owner of the Riley waterworks at one time and had a hardware store at that place. She sold her farm there, and came to Trego county about four years ago and bought the Anna Evans farm where Mr. Yates died two years later, after which she lived in Wa-Keeney. Mrs. Yates was possessed of acute business instincts and was very careful and methodical in all her dealings. Contrary to the impressions of those who knew her she was much given to quiet charity. During the war she was a contributor to the Ladies Auxiliary and to the Sanitary Commission. She was interested in missionary work, and being an ardent temperance advocate she continued her contributions to the W. C. T. U. up to within a short time of her death, as shown by the memoranda she left behind. Her manner of life was of her own choosing, and not from lack of friends or means. She has gone to her reward. Perhaps it will not be less than accorded to a Carnegie or a Rockefeller.

Miss Tillie Burke, who was called here on account of the illness and death of her aunt, Mrs. Yates, returned to her home near Cincinnati, Ohio, Wednesday evening.

Last Tuesday the city dads tested the city well south of town and are highly pleased with the result. Plenty of water was found and now they will proceed to put in one of the best water systems in western Kansas.

A. T. Butts and F. M. Hatch advertise a public sale in this issue the date of which is Wednesday, September 1st. They have a lot of good farm horses and mules also a lot of good farm machinery. Attend this sale.

B. F. Straily's house in Franklin township burned last Saturday afternoon and was a total loss of both dwelling and contents. He was insured in the Shawnee and R. C. Wilson paid the loss in full Wednesday, August 25.

Sam Shriner sold his farm just northeast of town recently at a handsome price, 160 acres for $5000. Some people say Sam is going to leave here, but we'll wager a good deal that he buys another farm and stays with western Kansas.

Last Saturday afternoon one of the Wineburner twins took sick and after a few hours illness died. On Sunday afternoon the funeral was held at the house conducted by Rev. Allison of the Presbyterian church. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their loss.

There was a man in our town, And he was wondrous wise, He swore by all the gods that be, He ne'er would advertise.

At last one day he advertised And thereby hangs a tale, The ad. was set in nonpareil And headed "Sheriff's Sale."

David Artz, the wide awake business man of Ogallah was in the city last Friday evening between trains, and made the World an agreeable visit. Mr. Artz is secretary of the Field Day committee and is leaving no stone unturned to make this event—the event—of the season. See their big ad in this week's issue.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church received their piano, with which they are very much pleased; and wish to thank all who gave their subscription or otherwise aided them in securing it.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. L. Schmidt entertained quite a large number of young people at her pleasant home in honor of her three nieces who are visiting her. All report a most enjoyable time.

Marshall McAtee is resplendent in his new police uniform. Mac wears it with an ease and grace that becomes a veteran, and petty offenders of the law want to look out for our new blue coat, for he wears an expression in his eye that means business.

On Tuesday morning Mr. and Mrs. D. Countryman left for old scenes in Indiana and Michigan. They will be gone some time and as they have not revisited the places of their youth for some years the trip will be one of more than ordinary pleasure. Uncle Dan has promised us a big red Michigan apple on his return.

Last Saturday the "Lucky Bill" show arrived on schedule time and in the evening showed on the grounds south of the Union hotel. The attractions were good and for a one ring circus the performance was above the average. The ponies and dogs amused the children and furnished plenty of entertainment for all with their numerous tricks and antics.

According to Bob Burdette, a boy who smokes cigarettes is like a cypher with the rim knocked off. President Jordon of Leland Stanford university says boys who smoke cigarettes are like wormy apples; they drop long before harvest time. They rarely make failures in after life because they do not have any after life. When the other boys are taking hold of the world's work, they are concerned with the sexton and undertaker.

On Labor Day, September 6th, Ogallah is preparing for one of the best celebrations in Western Kansas. All kinds of amusements and attractions are offered and the program for the day promises to be one of interest as the best business men of that enterprising little city are pushing things so that the success of the day will be assured. Everybody is planning on going and having a big day in the pretty little city nine miles east of us.
