Anthony Albright and Mamie H. Nelson, of Brownell, Kansas, were married at the office of the Probate Judge last Saturday evening.

John H. Burbach and Miss Phronia B. Mail, both of Colyer township were married at the office of the Probate Judge Monday afternoon.

Now is the time. Why not a game of base ball between the fats and leans? We suggest a Ben Rogers bunch against the Joe "Puffs."

F. H. Burnham is expecting the arrival of his nephew, Fred Hahn and family of Chicago, Ill., who will occupy his ranch northwest of town.

Now is your opportunity to get the best and the latest styles of wall paper. Samples of all kinds. A line of paper on hand at H. W. Finch's. 817

Miss Edna Tuttle, of Woodston, Kansas, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Irene Cloud of this city. Miss Tuttle is a student at the Hays Normal.

Neil Ufford arrived home Wednesday evening from Arch Creek, Florida, where he spent the winter raising garden truck. He reports poor crops there.

Lars Hansen left Thursday evening for Jaroso, Colo., where he will visit friends. He intends to be back again in about a month to look after his real estate interests.

May 18th has been set apart by President Wilson as Peace Day. Let every town, church and school throughout our county make some observance of this day.

Erma and Ada Law, who are attending school at the Fort Hays Normal came in last Friday evening for a few days visit with their parents in Graham county.

Read our new ads found in this issue. S. J. Straw, A. S. Treger, The Trego Mercantile Co., and W. E. Barr, the hustling life insurance agent. World ads are all reliable.

J. W. Phares and family left Wednesday evening for the coast and the Frisco fair. They expect to meet L. T. Purcell and family in Denver who are returning from their western trip after an absence of three months.

A party of Wa-Keeney ladies autoed to Ellis Tuesday afternoon and on arriving in that lively little berg were surprised and delighted with the nice smooth streets. On inquiry it was found that the streets had been dragged—this having been brought about by the ladies' clubs of that place asking consideration of the matter by the city authorities, who decided that it would be a very good and wise thing to do. Now why should Wa-Keeney lag behind her neighbors in this respect. Let everybody boost and not wait for the ladies to start the ball rolling.

The many friends of Mrs. Jos] Spena will be pleased to learn of her speedy recovery from an automobile accident last Saturday night. Their car was ditched by some unforeseen cause returning from Big Creek Hall. Very fortunately the other occupants were uninjured.

Tom Spena will soon spend a much needed vacation on the Western coast. The Ford Co., of Detroit, have tendered him a position as demonstrator at that place, which he will no doubt accept.

This community was surprised and shocked Thursday upon hearing of the death of Ray Gleason, which occurred that morning at Denver, Colo. He had been in failing health for sometime and left last Saturday evening for Denver, accompanied by John Connor, where he hoped to get medical relief. Obituary next week.

On Tuesday evening, April 20th Arthur B. Kachel gave the "Melting Pot," which brought the seasons entertainments to a close. Mr. Kachel's lecture brought before the people the honor and benefits derived of being a citizen of the United States, and made each person feel proud to be called a citizen of this great republic. He is an excellent speaker and those who failed to attend this entertainment missed a treat which does not often come our way.

Mrs. Oscar Cortright with her two little girls arrived in our city Monday evening from Wichita, where she had been called by the sudden death of a sister, and before her arrival here word had been received by Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Cortright that another sister living in her home town, Ridgway, Colo., had taken suddenly ill and died. Mrs. Cortright left on the Tuesday evening train. Her many friends in Wa-Keeney and surrounding country extend the deepest sympathy to her in this great sorrow.

Both Expositions For One Fare

Your California Exposition trip will probably be the most important trip of your life. And it need not be costly if you simply plan ahead. You can actually spend an entire week in San Francisco, visiting the Exposition every day, including hotel bills, meals, carfare, and Exposition fees for as little as $25. Send for new book "California and the Expositions"—it tells all about it.

Union Pacific

Operates two excellent through daily trains direct to the very heart of California. Dining cars on all California trains obviate the necessity of leaving train for meals.

Just fill out and mail the coupon below and learn how to visit the San Diego Exposition, Denver, Colorado Springs and Salt Lake City without any additional charges far over the cost of your Exposition ticket; how for a very slight additional expense, you can make a circuit tour of the West, visiting Yellowstone National Park, in the season, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, with choice of rail or sea trip from Portland to San Francisco, berth and meals on ship included, with three months' return limit and stopover privileges in both directions.
