WESTMINSTER CONCERT ENTERTAINERS

In Songs, Readings, Stories

This Company Will Appear Here In One of Their Inimitable Programs.

Bonnie Scotland and sunny Italy are represented in the Westminster Concert Entertainers. Mr. John Brodie, the Scotch comedian, is a real son of Bonnie Scotland and extremely proud of it. His brogue is so thick there is no mistaking his nationality.
He appears on the platform in real kilts direct from Scotland and sings a repertoire covering well the field from the Scotch classics to the folk songs. He sings many of Harry Lauder's greatest successes and to hear him sing "It Is Nice to Get Up in the Morning, but It's Nicier to Lie in Bed" or "I Love a Lassie" is a treat worth a dollar of any man's money. The costume worn in the act accompanying this article is a Scotch regimental uniform and one can almost imagine he can hear him singing "I love a lassie." Not only does Mr. Brodie sing, but tells humorous stories in his quaint Scotch style.

MARY MORASCO
with Westminster Concert Entertainers

Miss Mary Morasco is a daughter of sunny Italy and looks well to the reputation of her music loving nation. It is not an art acquired with her, it is an art cultivated and developed. She just could not help to bubble forth in song. She appears in Italian costume and with her tambourine renders the "Italian Street Song" true to life.

You've hit the right tobacco when you fire-up some Prince Albert in your old jimmy pipe or in a makin's cigarette. And you know it! Can't get in wrong with P. A. for it is made right; made to spread-smoke-sunshine among men who have suffered with scorched tongues and parched throats! The patented process fixes that—and cuts out bite and parch.

All day long you'll sing how glad you are you're pals with

It's an easy job to change the shape and color of unsalable brands to imitate the Prince Albert tidy red tin, but it is impossible to imitate the flavor of Prince Albert tobacco! The patented process protects that!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

You take this testimony straight from the shoulder, men.
You can smoke a barrel of P. A. without a kick! It hands out all the tobacco happiness any man ever dreamed about, it's so smooth and friendly. It's a mighty cheerful thing to be on talking-terms with your pipe and your tongue at the same time—but that's what's coming to you sure as you pin your faith to Prince Albert!
