SURPRISE ON A. J. JOHNSON

On Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. F. Stranahan, Captain A. J. Johnson was very pleasantly surprised, when a small company of citizens were suddenly ushered into his presence to help him celebrate his 87th birthday.

The evening was very pleasantly spent. A number of jokes and stories were told and the Captain gave a brief story of his life since coming to Wa-Keeney in 1896 and spoke very kindly and freely of the many friends that have helped to make his pathway pleasant. After which oysters, that the company of friends brought with them, were prepared and served by Mrs. W. F. Stranahan and her daughter, Mrs. Grace Isenberg. Then after a few kindly words and good wishes to the Captain the company retired to their homes.

But this was not the end of his birthday pleasures, for the morning mails brought a beautiful postal shower from a number of the ladies, which he greatly enjoyed.

One who was there.

TREGO CO.-OP. ANNUAL MEET

The annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Trego Co.-Op Association was held at the court room last Saturday afternoon and was attended by over two hundred of the members. The annual report of the directors was received which showed the association in a very satisfactory condition. A dividend on the stock in the stores of 12 1-2 per cent was declared. This covered the period of from July 1, 1917, to July 1, 1918.

The old board of directors was re-elected and is composed of J. M. Rinker, president; John Zeman, vice president; W. C. P. Rhoades, secretary; John McCoy and J. E. Miller.

The meeting was attended by two prominent men of the State Farmers Union, E. E. Woodman, manager of the Farmers Union live stock commission company of Kansas City and C. E. Brasted, of Logan, Kansas, a director of the state Farmers Union and also a director of the Farmers Mutual Insurance Co., of Salina.

THE NEW ERA MOVEMENT

At the church services at the Presbyterian church last Sabbath morning the "New Era Movement" was made a special feature. A letter from the pastor, Rev. Allison who is ill in Denver, was read by Prof. J. H. Niesley and Mrs. Niesley sang very beautifully the song "I gave, I gave my life for thee." J. H. Heckman, who had attended the district convention in Kansas City last Thursday and Friday made an excellent report and brought a good message of the meaning of the movement. Mrs. J. W. Bingham read a prepared paper, arranged extracts from writings of prominent church men, on the movement. The "New Era Movement" can be briefly explained as a movement within the Presbyterian church to get the church, as an organization and as individuals, to take advantage of the opportunity for advancement in religious lines which is being offered by the conditions of the world at this time brought on by the war.

RECEPTION TO SOLDIERS

A reception was given at the Methodist Church last Friday evening to the soldier and sailor boys represented on the Service Flag of that church, who had returned home.

An interesting program was presented, consisting of short talks by the Sunday School Superintendent and Pastor and special music by Mrs. Lynn and Miss Weaver. After a lunch enjoyed by all in the basement, Jack Gordon and Fred Kerth gave talks on their experiences in the army and navy, which were very much enjoyed by all present.

Last Friday evening several of the friends of Richard Yoxall, who has been visiting here, gave an oyster supper for him at the Penney Hotel. Dick was with the sixth marines and in a modest way, told of the experiences of the company and how at one time they fought almost continuously for 20 days with little rest. He has seen some hard fighting and several times would have sold his chances for very little but is glad he is back in the States again and altogether. Several other soldier boys were present and told of their experiences in the army. Dick left Friday night for Sharon Springs for a short visit with home folks before returning to duty.

IT'S A REGULAR BLIZZARD

Spring is coming, sometime, gentle Annie, but it is not here today. The weather changed to the bad yesterday forenoon and a storm seemed to be coming on the way. It got here with a high wind about 8:30 last night and in a short time snow was falling. There is snow almost everywhere now and when the people of this part of Western Kansas awakened this morning a dandy old blizzard was doing business. The snow was as fine as powder and the wind was blowing about forty miles an hour. At this writing the storm has not abated and how long it will last we cannot tell. The weather is not cold and there is considerable moisture in the snow. P. S. the foregoing item was written in order to preserve a historical fact and not as an item of news for those now living here. We believe they know about it.

SIX PAGES HOME PRINT

The World takes pleasure this week in presenting its readers with six pages of home print. We hope you will be sure to read pages two and three on which are soldiers letters and township treasurers annual statements. We expect to keep up the six pages of home print as long as patronage deserves. In fact, we hope that patronage will justify us in running eight pages home print. As soon as it will justify the eight pages will be published.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Among the visitors of the week were Miss Edna Walker of the class of '15, now an instructor in Gove high school.

Our boys had a fine game with some of the oldtimers. The former members of Trego teams put up a lively game but our young fellows won out. Great fun and fine for our young team. Come again boys.

A short memorial for Theodore Roosevelt was held Monday afternoon.

February 12, we remembered Lincoln in an interesting half hour.

Classes have been organized for the second semester in psychology, therapeutic cookery and first aid, commercial geography, and physical geography.

Yes, people some times get an encore for a semester or a year's work. They may dislike the term but it does good just the same.

Miss McClelland has been out on account of sickness. She is improving and will be with us soon.

Below III is a failure. Those who receive a IV are asked to repeat, hence the encore.

Preparedness was a topic in history. We are discussing the war of 1812. This topic will come again and again even down to 1919.

No, there are no bolsheviks or I. W. W. in Trego County High School. True blue is the word. I serve, sounds like their motto. How do you like it?

Of the enrollment in the Kansas State Teachers' Association by counties we read that Trego enrolled eight. Seven were from Trego County High School. Three of the Sixth district counties did not enroll a one. Six counties enrolled just one and fifty-one was the highest number enrolled from any county in our district.
