

It is the duty of every delegate to stand by the candidate to whom his support is pledged by virtue of his election and acceptance of the position of delegate...

great desire with Democrats to secure good, lifelong judicial appointments. Keadyville Standard: Taking everything into consideration, it looks as though this might be the Republican ticket.

THE CHOICE OF INDIANANS It is Cordially Supported by Many Indorsements from Southern Delegates. Georgians, Alabamians and Tennesseans Visit the City—The Great Movement to Chicago in Gen. Harrison's Interest Continues.

with its force supplemented by many hundreds from outside the city. The club will be in session at the Mayor's office at 10 o'clock this morning...

and his friends have been vigorous in the balance and found wanting in political honesty. The most notable point in the case of the mugwumps is the fact that their friends are so unfortunates as to receive the combined...

HOW YOU CALL IT. Americans have a habit of calling them "Vests." The English say this is not correct; that "Vest" is the name of the garment that we call Undershirt, and that the proper name of the other is Waistcoat, which is pronounced "Weskut."

Mr. Blaine having withdrawn as a candidate for the presidency, it is left open for other aspirants. It is the duty of Indiana to select a man to nominate a man from her own State.

Figure Showing the Average Acreage of Some of the Principal Crops in the West. CHICAGO, June 17.—The Farmers' Review this week prints the following crop summary: Our crop correspondence for the past week enables us to offer some fresh particulars from the rural districts.

DELEGATES ON THEIR WAY. Many from the South Stop Here and Call on General Harrison. The interest in the Chicago convention still grows, and although yesterday was Sunday, a day when men's minds are expected to be off secular affairs, still there was little else than politics talked about in the city.

where they were from and where they were bound for, and as the long trains pulled out they were a parting scene and a parting word for Indiana delegates.

where would you? Judge Stewart tells a good story on Mr. Candler about his stand in the last Congress on the silver question. Every one knows how and what the free and unlimited coinage of silver. One day last summer, while in Atlanta, Mr. Candler went to the Citizens' Bank with a $100,000 draft which he desired cashed.

Have It as You Will. You may ask for "Vest," "Waistcoat" or "Weskut" and we will furnish you the garment in the latest style and at the lowest price. White and fancy vests or "weskus" are all the go now. As usual, we are ready for it with every variety of the summer article in Flannels, Marseilles and Linen, plain and fancy patterns.

THE TIME TO CONCENTRATE. Mr. Blaine having withdrawn as a candidate for the presidency, it is left open for other aspirants. It is the duty of Indiana to select a man to nominate a man from her own State.

But there was not only a shortage in fodder last year, but the potato crop was also seriously short in production. Hence prices were high, and in consequence it might be expected that this year's acreage of potatoes would be considerably greater than last. The following summary of reports on the subject gives the average per cent of acreage planted to ensilage and fodder-corn in eight States.

Members of the committee on reception of the Harrison Club were present the entire day and entertained such delegates as stopped over, either at dinner or with a drive through the city. Many expressed a desire to call on Gen. Harrison and were driven around in carriages to see him. They remained only a few moments, as their stay in the city was brief, long enough only to be presented to him and to shake hands with him.

A Car Full of Republicans. Henry Schwinge, the tea merchant, has chartered a car on the Moon route, and will go directly to the Harrison Club at Chicago. He has invited 23 gentlemen here in the city to accompany him—all prominent business men and well-known Republicans. They will have the use of the sleeper while in Chicago, and will be met at the Harrison Club in St. Louis.

Where Would You? Philadelphia Inquirer. Where would you rather be—in Chicago, with that mass of over-heated humanity, or with Blaine, plucking posies in the cool of the evening?

H. G. Means Harrison and Gresham, also Here Goes, and "Hoosiers Got It." Keep your eye on Chicago this week; keep your body cool and your head with THIN GOODS HATS FROM THE HAT MAN.

Lawrence Hill. We take the liberty of publishing the following extracts from a letter written to the editor of the Mail, under date June 11, 1893, from a prominent Republican of Illinois. Our only regret is that, because the extract is from a private letter, we do not feel at liberty to give the gentleman's name—and have not time to give his consent that it be given in this issue.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The weekly crop bulletin issued by the United States Signal Office says the weather is more favorable for the season for growing crops. While all crops have improved in Nebraska, the conditions up to date have not been the most favorable for the corn crop.

How It Looks at Chicago. Mr. J. L. Fletcher, an enthusiastic Harrison man, has just returned from Chicago. He says that the Hoosiers have the largest crowd at Chicago, and are getting in their work in good style. He came here yesterday, and will go back to-day with the Harrison Club.

NOTES OF THE EVENT. Observations by Reporters as They Went Through the Crowds. Each of the railroads to Chicago sent out two trains last night.

Choking Catarrh. Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter?

AMUSEMENTS. THE MAGNIFICENT CYCLOPAMA. The Grandest, Most Magnificent Battle Cyclorama in the World, surpassing the famous "Gettysburg" at Chicago, OPEN DAY AND NIGHT! Market Street, between State-house and Circle.

WARREN TOWN. A Republican desiring the success of the party, and believing that its interests are best subserved by permitting the majority to rule, was along with all the Republican journals of the State, except a few here and there, and in the hope of preventing any discord in the ranks, have abided by the views expressed at the convention referred to, and have joyfully supported the candidacy of General Harrison.

A Week of Favorable Weather. WASHINGTON, June 17.—The weekly crop bulletin issued by the United States Signal Office says the weather is more favorable for the season for growing crops. While all crops have improved in Nebraska, the conditions up to date have not been the most favorable for the corn crop.

How It Looks at Chicago. Mr. J. L. Fletcher, an enthusiastic Harrison man, has just returned from Chicago. He says that the Hoosiers have the largest crowd at Chicago, and are getting in their work in good style. He came here yesterday, and will go back to-day with the Harrison Club.

NOTES OF THE EVENT. Observations by Reporters as They Went Through the Crowds. Each of the railroads to Chicago sent out two trains last night.

Choking Catarrh. Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter?

AMUSEMENTS. THE MAGNIFICENT CYCLOPAMA. The Grandest, Most Magnificent Battle Cyclorama in the World, surpassing the famous "Gettysburg" at Chicago, OPEN DAY AND NIGHT! Market Street, between State-house and Circle.

HARRISON A NECESSITY. In 1884 the Democrats carried both Indiana and New York, the former by the much greater plurality in vote, the smaller total vote. Since then the Republicans, with Ben Harrison for President, have released Indiana, but New York has again gone Democratic by an increased plurality, and remains so.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The weekly crop bulletin issued by the United States Signal Office says the weather is more favorable for the season for growing crops. While all crops have improved in Nebraska, the conditions up to date have not been the most favorable for the corn crop.

How It Looks at Chicago. Mr. J. L. Fletcher, an enthusiastic Harrison man, has just returned from Chicago. He says that the Hoosiers have the largest crowd at Chicago, and are getting in their work in good style. He came here yesterday, and will go back to-day with the Harrison Club.

NOTES OF THE EVENT. Observations by Reporters as They Went Through the Crowds. Each of the railroads to Chicago sent out two trains last night.

Choking Catarrh. Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter?

AMUSEMENTS. THE MAGNIFICENT CYCLOPAMA. The Grandest, Most Magnificent Battle Cyclorama in the World, surpassing the famous "Gettysburg" at Chicago, OPEN DAY AND NIGHT! Market Street, between State-house and Circle.

THE MOST AVAILABLE CANDIDATE. Richmond Palladium. Harrison's chances if it may be so called, is that he is the most available candidate before the convention in that he can certainly carry more of the doubtful votes necessary to be secured than any other candidate named.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The weekly crop bulletin issued by the United States Signal Office says the weather is more favorable for the season for growing crops. While all crops have improved in Nebraska, the conditions up to date have not been the most favorable for the corn crop.

How It Looks at Chicago. Mr. J. L. Fletcher, an enthusiastic Harrison man, has just returned from Chicago. He says that the Hoosiers have the largest crowd at Chicago, and are getting in their work in good style. He came here yesterday, and will go back to-day with the Harrison Club.

NOTES OF THE EVENT. Observations by Reporters as They Went Through the Crowds. Each of the railroads to Chicago sent out two trains last night.

Choking Catarrh. Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter?

AMUSEMENTS. THE MAGNIFICENT CYCLOPAMA. The Grandest, Most Magnificent Battle Cyclorama in the World, surpassing the famous "Gettysburg" at Chicago, OPEN DAY AND NIGHT! Market Street, between State-house and Circle.

GROWING EVERY HOUR. Keokuk Gazette-Tribune. General Harrison grows in popular favor every hour. His availability and his superior fitness for the exalted honor to which Indiana Republicans have named him find ready recognition in all candid minds.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The weekly crop bulletin issued by the United States Signal Office says the weather is more favorable for the season for growing crops. While all crops have improved in Nebraska, the conditions up to date have not been the most favorable for the corn crop.

How It Looks at Chicago. Mr. J. L. Fletcher, an enthusiastic Harrison man, has just returned from Chicago. He says that the Hoosiers have the largest crowd at Chicago, and are getting in their work in good style. He came here yesterday, and will go back to-day with the Harrison Club.

NOTES OF THE EVENT. Observations by Reporters as They Went Through the Crowds. Each of the railroads to Chicago sent out two trains last night.

Choking Catarrh. Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter?

AMUSEMENTS. THE MAGNIFICENT CYCLOPAMA. The Grandest, Most Magnificent Battle Cyclorama in the World, surpassing the famous "Gettysburg" at Chicago, OPEN DAY AND NIGHT! Market Street, between State-house and Circle.

THE POLAR TRENCH STATED. Yeedsburg Reporter: Harrison is the only man who can, beyond any doubt, carry Indiana. Indiana is sure to go Republican with a big majority.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The weekly crop bulletin issued by the United States Signal Office says the weather is more favorable for the season for growing crops. While all crops have improved in Nebraska, the conditions up to date have not been the most favorable for the corn crop.

How It Looks at Chicago. Mr. J. L. Fletcher, an enthusiastic Harrison man, has just returned from Chicago. He says that the Hoosiers have the largest crowd at Chicago, and are getting in their work in good style. He came here yesterday, and will go back to-day with the Harrison Club.

NOTES OF THE EVENT. Observations by Reporters as They Went Through the Crowds. Each of the railroads to Chicago sent out two trains last night.

Choking Catarrh. Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter?

AMUSEMENTS. THE MAGNIFICENT CYCLOPAMA. The Grandest, Most Magnificent Battle Cyclorama in the World, surpassing the famous "Gettysburg" at Chicago, OPEN DAY AND NIGHT! Market Street, between State-house and Circle.

RISE IN SEN. BEN HARRISON. In the interview with William H. Bryant, which appeared in the Mail last week, a very anxious reporter asked Mr. Bryant was made better to find a man to carry Indiana in the thirty-sixth Indiana Regiment. This was a blunder for which Mr. Bryant is in no way responsible. He gave no answer to the question.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The weekly crop bulletin issued by the United States Signal Office says the weather is more favorable for the season for growing crops. While all crops have improved in Nebraska, the conditions up to date have not been the most favorable for the corn crop.

How It Looks at Chicago. Mr. J. L. Fletcher, an enthusiastic Harrison man, has just returned from Chicago. He says that the Hoosiers have the largest crowd at Chicago, and are getting in their work in good style. He came here yesterday, and will go back to-day with the Harrison Club.

NOTES OF THE EVENT. Observations by Reporters as They Went Through the Crowds. Each of the railroads to Chicago sent out two trains last night.

Choking Catarrh. Have you awakened from a disturbed sleep with the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter?

AMUSEMENTS. THE MAGNIFICENT CYCLOPAMA. The Grandest, Most Magnificent Battle Cyclorama in the World, surpassing the famous "Gettysburg" at Chicago, OPEN DAY AND NIGHT! Market Street, between State-house and Circle.