

ODDS AND ENDS

Just the thing for warm weather. Just the thing for 'tween seasons. Some folks are always late. For some reason or other a steady per cent of the human family can't reach things at the time they are ripe. For such,

ODDS AND ENDS

Are extremely valuable. The odds and ends of our millinery department are what we direct your attention to now. We have a lot of trimmed and untrimmed hats and bonnets.

Odd Sizes. Odd Shapes. Odd Prices. We have odd trimmings, too, and to all it is a rare opportunity for big bargains.

L. S. AYRES & CO

P. S.—New patterns in India Silks—some as low as 75 cents.

Second-Hand Pianos and Organs

- PIANOS. W. F. EMBERTON—7 octaves, four round corners, serpentine molding, carved legs, ornate top and bottom, etc., $175. CHAMPION—7-1/2 octaves, round corners, carved legs and top, etc., $150. WOODWARD & BROWN—6 1/2 octaves, round corners, ornate top, etc., $65. A. B. GALT & CO.—7 octaves, front round corners, ornate top, etc., $125. HALL & DAVIS & CO.—2-3 octaves, ornate top, etc., $100. CHICKERING & SONS—6 octaves, ornate top, etc., $75. CHICKERING & SONS—Full Concert Grand, $375. ORGANS. A. B. CHASE—High-top walnut case, two sets of reeds, 9 stops, etc., $600. BURDETT—Medium high case, two sets of reeds, 7 stops, etc., $40. ESTEY—Low top, two sets of reeds, 7 stops, etc., $35. FAUBERT & PELTON—Low case, two sets of reeds, 7 stops, etc., $30. MARSHALL & SMITH—High-top walnut case, two full sets of reeds, 14 stops, etc., $60.

Amateur Photographers

And all persons seeking an instructive as well as interesting pastime can find the best variety of OUTFITS and Photographic Stock at the Art Emporium of

H. LIEBER & CO

82 East Washington St. No PLATINUMS, but instruments with which first-class work can be done, at a price within the reach of everyone.

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON'S

NEW BOOK,

BLACK AARON

Paper, 50c. Illustrated. Cloth, $1.

THE BOWEN-MERRILL CO

NATURAL GAS

Pleasant fires make happy homes. Good, safe, reliable work done by

MURRAY & MOSIER,

J. N. HURTY, M. D., ANALYTICAL CHEMIST.

The New York Store

Established 1853.

We have an elegant line of

FANS

In Silk, Satin and Gauze, black and colors.

Also, Palm and Japanese Fans.

PRICES ALWAYS IN PLAIN FIGURES.

PETTIS, BASSETT & CO

Building Permits. The following building permits were issued yesterday: Jacob Reed, frame dwelling on Lexington avenue, near Dillon, $700; Lavina Harshman, frame cottage on Columbia avenue, near Tenth, $1,500; W. A. McDonald, frame cottage at No. 90 Kinross street, $600; J. G. Bellows, frame store-room at No. 194 Virginia avenue, $2,000; M. J. Yocum, frame cottage on Seventh street, near Newland, $800; R. Kruppner, three story brick store-room on Pennsylvania street, $1,200; Wm. S. Hubbard, improvement on Dixie street, near North, $450.

Hot Weather is Now Here. We have the "Success" stores for artificial or natural gas "Alaska" hard wood dry air refrigerators, better than the best and as cheap as the cheapest "Quick Heat" gasolene stoves, "Economic" low-pressure gasolene—the cheapest in the market. Wm. H. BURNEY & SON, 35 S. Meridian st. Telephone No. 100.

THE GREAT HOOSIER THROUGH

Departure of the Harrison Club Amid Enthusiasm of Remarkable Degree.

Scenes That Show the People's Love and Confidence in the Great Hoosier—Tribute of Praise Involuntarily Paid to Him.

AN INSPIRING SCENE.

The Harrison Club in Great Numbers, with Cheers and Enthusiasm, Leaves for Chicago. A thoughtful gentleman, at the Union Depot yesterday morning, as he watched the Monon train pull out with a thousand men shouting for Harrison, wanted to know how Chicago would care for all the Hoosiers who were going there. It was on the occasion of the departure of the Harrison Club. Although several hundred members of that organization left Saturday and Sunday, the square around the court-house was packed with men wearing Harrison hats and badges as early as 8 o'clock. The vast multitude was made up of all kinds of people. There were bankers, lawyers, merchants and laboring men pushing and jostling each other for room. The oppressive heat seemed only to add warmth to their enthusiasm, and on the least provocation there were rounds of cheers for Indiana's favorite son. The cheering news from Chicago the Journal contained was a great encouragement to the members of the club. Little groups would scan the columns of the paper and then give three cheers and a hurrah for General Harrison. While the members of the club were assembling a quartet of colored singers moved among the crowd and sang a Harrison jubilee song. It was one of their own composition. The refrain, always sung with great power and spirit, was "Harrison is the man." The singing was greeted with a chorus of yells. "That's right, nobly but Harrison goes." At 8:30 o'clock the White Star military band, under the direction of Prof. Ruder, joined the club. These musicians were all attired in new uniforms, and as a body they presented a splendid appearance. A few national airs played with spirit set the crowd almost wild, and there were demonstrations of various kinds.

The club was ready to move to the depot the color-bearer appeared with the colors of the club. On a long staff was a large silver flag. Above the flag, on either side of the staff, was a splendid lithograph of General Harrison on silk, and just below his likeness were the words:

INDIANA'S CHOICE.

At the flag was waved the sturdy Hoosiers gathered around it, and kept up their demonstrations of delight for several minutes. At 8:45 o'clock word came from Capt. D. A. Richardson to "fall in." His lieutenants, Major C. S. Denny, J. L. Fletcher, Henry B. Smith, Frank McCrea and H. W. Redpath, took their places down the long line, and, with the band in advance, the march began. The line was almost two squares long. The streets, all the way to the depot, were lined with citizens, and there was one continued cheer until the depot was reached. Clerks stood in the doors of business houses, and as their employers filed past greeted them with expressions like "Don't come home till Harrison is nominated. We can run things." "Never consent to Indiana deserting her choice" and other remarks, indicating the intense zeal with which General Harrison is supported. Men, women and children applauded the club as it marched down the street, and expressed the hope that it might come home victorious.

A thousand or more citizens who could not possibly leave home were at the depot to wish the club success. After the club reached the depot another outburst of enthusiasm was caused by the appearance of a little body of gray-haired men. They were members of the Tippecanoe Club, who supported for President the grandfather of General Harrison. They had come to the depot, not only on their own account, but they attracted almost as much attention as the entire Harrison Club. The old gentlemen could cheer much, but their very appearance was a demonstration. They carried with them a beautiful red, white and blue sash banner, on either side of which, in gold letters, was the following:

1830. YOUNG WHIGS. 1840. VETERAN VOTERS. [Log Cabin.] MARION COUNTY TIPPECANOE CLUB.

Each of the veterans wore a badge, having an inscription similar to that on the banner, and having on it a picture of a log cabin with the log string out, and a cedar barrel with the members of the club are all citizens of influence, and they said they intended to call on the president-elect after the State, and the citizens of General Harrison. While the crowd was paying its respects to the veteran Republicans, a large delegation of colored Republicans, headed by the Brotherhood Military Band, joined the throng, and gave three cheers for Harrison. The two bands to accompany the club, each playing alternately, furnished music to supplement the music there was incessant cheering.

Certainly no more enthusiastic crowd ever left Indianapolis, and the fact that, with very few exceptions, nearly all those accompanying the club were in the middle age was significant. The young men had gone in advance. Two of the most enthusiastic men were Generals Foster and Knicker. Their voices could be heard above the crowd, and if they do not succeed in converting some delegates it will not be their fault. "If General Harrison is nominated I want you to send an ambulance after us," said General Knicker to a Journal reporter. "No, but I expect to break my neck jollifying," he said. "Look out for us coming back one hundred thousand strong about Friday," said General Foster. "Indiana's son will hold the reins if General Harrison is nominated." It was nearly 9:30 o'clock when the special train backed into the depot. It consisted of ten coaches, two of which were parlor-cars. It was not gorgeously decorated, but there was enough flying colors to distinguish it as a Harrison train from Indianapolis. On either side of the rear car, in large letters were the words:

HARRISON CLUB, INDIANAPOLIS.

Then on either side of several other cars were long streamers bearing such inscriptions as:

INDIANA IS SOLID FOR HARRISON.

HARRISON—INDIANA—VICTORY.

The car next to the rear one on the train was occupied by Henry Swiney, the tea merchant. By invitation of Mr. Swiney, three prominent Indianapolis Republicans occupied it with him. They were:

- Gen. S. E. Foster, H. L. Burr, Fred Knicker, H. W. Redpath, John A. E. Deane, H. B. Updegraff, H. D. Allen, J. M. Gates, John W. Smith, J. S. Davis, Henry Schwab, J. S. Davis, A. J. Meyer, Wm. O. McVey, Dr. Theo. Wagner, Frank Karshaw, N. S. Byram, Wm. Rockelhaus.

The gentlemen will have the use of the sleeping car while in Chicago, and will remain until after the convention is over. In five minutes after the train backed into the depot every car was packed. The hundreds of people on the platform gave three cheers for Harrison, which was answered by the crowd on the train. The two bands on the train, one on the front and the other on the rear car, played "Marching through Georgia," and everybody was enthusiastic. A few minutes before 10 o'clock the conductor gave the signal to go ahead, and amid cheer upon cheer, the waving of flags, banners and handkerchiefs, and the deafening music of the bands, the train started on its journey. The club expected to reach Chicago by 5 o'clock last evening.

Owing to the excessive heat a good many members of the club postponed going until last night. The needed atmosphere induced many persons, not members of the club, to join the excursionists, and between one and two hundred Indianapolis

HOT-WEATHER DRESS GOODS

The big purchase made last week on sale to-day. Thousands of yards of French Batiste, Madras and Tambour Muslins, French Satins, Zephyr Cloths and Novelty Gingham to select from.

Swiss Flouncings

To-day we offer an immense stock of Embroidered Flouncings, full skirt width, from 37 cents per yard up.

H. P. WASSON & CO

Two thousand persons left the majority of the people here on the out count. Many parties from county-seats in the southern and eastern part of the State had chartered cars, and there was hardly a train in southeastern Indiana that was not represented in the throng.

Franklin sent fifty more representatives in addition to the thirty who the L. B. & W. handled four of the best of enthusiastic Harrison men brought from eastern Indiana, most of them from New Castle and intermediate sections.

Sherman's Restaurants are all supplied with our New Perfection Refrigerators. We have the best and most durable as we could ask for. Don't waste your money on inferior goods. See refrigerator in operation at our store. Buy the Rapid Freezer and New Model Lavitator.

HAZELTON BROS.' UPRIGHT GRAND PIANO.

STYLE 12 is a marvel of sweetness and power, of grace, beauty and brilliancy. Every note is clear as a bell. Every chord is perfect harmony. Every part evenly balanced. The action is light, firm, elastic, responsive. The scale is scientifically correct and musically perfect, the workmanship the highest skill can make them, and materials are the best. Beautiful new style for 1888 just received. Low prices. Easy Terms.

PEARSON'S MUSIC HOUSE

19 North Pennsylvania St. Hazelton and Cumston Pianos Packard Organs

HOT-WEATHER WARE

Nothing cooler than a watch—unless it is the chain that goes with the watch. We have both in every variety known to the trade. Our specialty is watches. We have the best watch in the world; the cheapest in the world; and you can rely on knowing just what you get when you get a watch of us. Always glad to show goods.

Bingzham & Walk

TRAVELERS' INDEX.

KANKAKEE LINE

(BIG FOUR Rail-Way) MAKING A RECORD. 1,471—One thousand four hundred and seventy-one—1,471.

This is the number of passengers that purchased tickets and went to Chicago on the Kankakee Line from 12:05 noon, Saturday, 16, to 11:20 p. m., 17. From Indianapolis alone all of this vast crowd of people were hailed on a regular and 3 special trains. To haul these people required 100 sleepers, 4 reclining chairs, 2 parlor cars and 21 coaches. We took them safely and on time, not a person injured, and if anyone did get in comfort it was not the fault of the road, but because of the faithful action of some of our patrons in insisting on going away without seats on Friday and Saturday nights. These people could have had seats had they heeded advice of the railway employees. They were hugged to avoid later sections. All sections were in Chicago before 8 A. M.

Now we are prepared for Monday, and we'll hold our nose in Chicago until the last galoot is there. Don't forget, we have four trains Monday, 18th, 7:10 a. m. gets to Chicago early in forenoon. Our special Chicago train: Monday, 18th, 4 trains, 7:10 a. m. 11:05 a. m. 12:05 noon, 11:20 p. m. State price or private party. These people will be in Chicago at 4:30 p. m. Special leaving 7:10 a. m. Monday, 4:30 p. m. special at 11:05 a. m. arrive in Chicago at 4:30 p. m. All other trains reach Chicago at 6:30 p. m. and 6:50 a. m.

TIME CARD. CINCINNATI DIVISION. Depart 7:10 a. m. 11:05 a. m. 12:05 noon. 11:20 p. m. Arrive 11:05 a. m. 12:05 noon. 1:05 p. m. 11:05 p. m. CINCINNATI DIVISION—SUNDAY TRAINS. Depart 7:10 a. m. 11:05 a. m. 12:05 noon. 11:20 p. m. Arrive 11:05 a. m. 12:05 noon. 1:05 p. m. 11:05 p. m.

Palmetto palace cars, elegant reclining chairs, and parlor cars between Indianapolis, Chicago and Cincinnati.

For tickets, sleeping-car accommodations and all information call at Union Depot or the Medal Ticket Office, corner Washington and Meridian sts. J. E. MARLIN, Dist. Pass. Agt.

WHAT THE PEOPLE TALK ABOUT.

General Harrison as He Appears Among His Home Friends.

The local feeling is that General Harrison will be nominated, and with each bit of news as to an advance in his position confidence is strengthened. Speculation is already rife as to the jubilations that will occur here and in every town and village of the State. People are beginning to talk about the great crowds of visitors who will flock here in that event to pay their respects to the great Hoosier.

The local feeling is that General Harrison will be nominated, and with each bit of news as to an advance in his position confidence is strengthened. Speculation is already rife as to the jubilations that will occur here and in every town and village of the State. People are beginning to talk about the great crowds of visitors who will flock here in that event to pay their respects to the great Hoosier.

In the business quarters, particularly among wholesale dealers, the excitement in anticipation is almost as great as it could be. In fact, the business is interrupted by constant inquiry of each new-comer as to the latest news from Chicago. It is the same in the manufacturing districts, in the retail stores, the street-cars and hotel lobbies. Whoever men meet the first question, after the customary salutation, is "Have you anything from Chicago?" That inquiry is sure to be followed by a canvass of the situation as it appears at this end of the line. It is in every conversation, with an expression of hope or confidence that Harrison will be placed at the head of the ticket.

Then the same topic is resumed and the same ground is covered over and over again. Remarks like this were frequently heard and often they came from those who are not accustomed to move out of steady-going ways in manufacturing approval.

All this time the men were unrelentingly praising his professional duties. Every day General Harrison is at his office receiving friends or attending to his duties as if he were alone, of all the Nation, was far removed from the excitement and turmoil of politics. He talks but little about the convention, and that only as every other citizen would. His own personality does not enter at all in whatever he has to say. Yesterday, when a friend called on him in evening conversation, occasionally he can be seen on the street returning to or coming from his home. For every one he has a kindly good word, and all for him have the best wishes and loyal support.

Cheers for Sherman and Harrison. The Lincoln Club, of Cincinnati, 153 strong, passed through the city yesterday on their way to Chicago. Its members came over the C. H. & D. road, arriving here at 11 o'clock and dining at the Bates. This organization is the oldest and most influential political organization in Ohio, and is well known throughout the country. It is composed of the representative Republicans of Cincinnati, having in its membership several persons whose wealth in the aggregate is several millions of dollars. They are exerting a powerful influence in the politics of the Queen City and the State of Ohio. It has a membership at the present time of about 800. Mayor Smith, one of the organizers of the club, is a delegate at Chicago. A great many of the prominent members were with the delegation yesterday, although an advance guard of forty or fifty were already at Chicago. They present a fine appearance, being surpassed by no political club in that respect that has passed through the capital of the West. A fine band and the Sherman Glee Club, formerly the Tenth-ward Glee Club, accompany them. They travel on a special train, and have special accommodations. One thing—in fact the club is a No. 1 all around. The club individually is, of course, strongly for the distribution of the convention to the delegates. They say, however, that they can support General Harrison with a royal good will, and that most of the organization, wherever they have any second choice, are for Sherman.

For the Man Who Wins the Victories. Lieutenant-governor Robertson was in the city, yesterday, to attend the meeting of the Board of Equalization of which he is president. He was met by a Journal reporter, at the New-Deacon, last night, strolling around the office, trying to pass away the time until the 11 o'clock train, on which he was to go to Chicago.

"What do you think of the situation, Colonel?" he was asked. "Oh, it's pretty hard to tell what that convention is going to do. I don't think I ever in all my political experience saw just such a situation, but I hope to see it. The delegates will see that Indiana is the battle-ground and give us the nomination at Chicago. I myself am a firm believer in honoring the man who votes the party he votes for. I believe he is worthy in all respects, and upon that principle I support General Harrison. Then the Republican of the State this year are enthusiastically for him and would go to the right with a confidence and a hurrah that would certainly mean victory. We will do our best to carry the State for the nominee of the convention—Indiana Republicans are generally found fighting for the ticket—but with Harrison as a candidate we will be certain of a victory."

A Pennsylvania's Views. S. E. Moore, a rattling, wide-awake and uncompromising Republican, of Pittsburgh, was in the city, yesterday, en route to Chicago. He is a member of the Andrew Carnegie Company. He says that Pennsylvania's majority this year for the Republican ticket will require expert calculators to count it.

"How do you folks feel about the selection of a candidate at Chicago?" a Journal reporter asked him. "Well, I suppose our delegation will go, on the first ballot, for Mayor Fuller as a compulsory vote. Then to Senator Sherman largely, after that, so far as I know, it will be pretty hard to tell what it will do. There are a good many Blaine men among us but I guess they will recognize his declination as final, and will consider it in the convention."

"How do you regard the nomination of Harrison?" "I think we'll win, very well. He was in Pittsburg last winter and made many friends. We look upon him as a man of splendid ability, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

"How does Depeve stand in Pennsylvania?" "He has a good many friends. We like him as a man and as a Republican—as they do everywhere. This is so year for personal preference, and as a Republican of the party. I know of no one of the candidates mentioned that I personally would prefer above him. There is considerable discussion in the State as to whether he is a great man and we would like to see him President."

CHICAGO ART GLASS CO.

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN STAINED, ORNAMENTAL AND BEVELED GLASS. Memorial Church Windows a Specialty.

EDWARD A. REID CHEUERMANN, No. 2 Odd-Fellow way, HEAT. Designs and Estimates Furnished Free on Application. State Agent, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

W. B. FLETCHER, late Superintendent

of the Indiana Hospital for the Insane, has removed to 297 North Pennsylvania street; has accommodations for a limited number of patients.

SCREEN DOORS AND WINDOWS; LILLY & STALNAKER

We have the best and neatest-made door on the market. Full assortment of sizes. 64 E. Washington St.

SPANN & CO'S WOODLAWN LOTS

Nominated for FIRST PLACE.

CAMPAIGN GOODS!

BADGES, TORCHES, DRUMS, FLAGS, FIRE-WORKS, CANES, HATS, ETC.

KIPP BROTHERS

87 and 89 South Meridian St., Indianapolis, Ind.

BROWNING & SON

Wholesale and Retail Druggists, And dealers in Pure Drugs, Chemicals, Surgical Instruments, Trusses, Glassware, Brushes, Combs, Fine Perfumery, Toilet Articles, Spices, Dye Stuffs, etc., at the old stand.

APOTHECARIES' HALL

7 and 9 East Washington Street. Please call or write for prices.

BUSINESS BLOCK FOR SALE

ILLINOIS STREET NEAR UNION DEPOT. We can offer a special bargain for a short time in the business block known as Nos. 193 and 195 S. Illinois St., just south of the Union Passenger Station. The ground is 32 ft. 9 in. x 170 feet. The building is a three-story brick, with 2 store-rooms and 10 dwelling-rooms. All under rent. Appraised at $15,000. Will be sold for much less. Terms to suit.

C. E. COFFIN & CO

90 East Market Street.

THE MODEL

Headquarters for All Grades of

THIN GOODS

From a Coat and Vest at $1 to the finest Silk article at $12. We would direct particular attention to our superb assortment of Imported Light-weight Serge Suits in gray, brown and black at $18. They are tailor-made, and just the thing for this sort of weather.

Bulletins from the Chicago convention will be posted in our show-windows as rapidly as received by the Western Union Telegraph Company.

MODEL

Don't miss our Straw Hats. Our 48c Straw Hats are selling by the hundreds.

CHICAGO ART GLASS CO.

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN STAINED, ORNAMENTAL AND BEVELED GLASS. Memorial Church Windows a Specialty.

EDWARD A. REID CHEUERMANN, No. 2 Odd-Fellow way, HEAT. Designs and Estimates Furnished Free on Application. State Agent, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

W. B. FLETCHER, late Superintendent

of the Indiana Hospital for the Insane, has removed to 297 North Pennsylvania street; has accommodations for a limited number of patients.

SCREEN DOORS AND WINDOWS; LILLY & STALNAKER

We have the best and neatest-made door on the market. Full assortment of sizes. 64 E. Washington St.

SPANN & CO'S WOODLAWN LOTS

Nominated for FIRST PLACE.

CAMPAIGN GOODS!

BADGES, TORCHES, DRUMS, FLAGS, FIRE-WORKS, CANES, HATS, ETC.

KIPP BROTHERS

87 and 89 South Meridian St., Indianapolis, Ind.

BROWNING & SON

Wholesale and Retail Druggists, And dealers in Pure Drugs, Chemicals, Surgical Instruments, Trusses, Glassware, Brushes, Combs, Fine Perfumery, Toilet Articles, Spices, Dye Stuffs, etc., at the old stand.

APOTHECARIES' HALL

7 and 9 East Washington Street. Please call or write for prices.

BUSINESS BLOCK FOR SALE

ILLINOIS STREET NEAR UNION DEPOT. We can offer a special bargain for a short time in the business block known as Nos. 193 and 195 S. Illinois St., just south of the Union Passenger Station. The ground is 32 ft. 9 in. x 170 feet. The building is a three-story brick, with 2 store-rooms and 10 dwelling-rooms. All under rent. Appraised at $15,000. Will be sold for much less. Terms to suit.

C. E. COFFIN & CO

90 East Market Street.

THE MODEL

Headquarters for All Grades of

THIN GOODS

From a Coat and Vest at $1 to the finest Silk article at $12. We would direct particular attention to our superb assortment of Imported Light-weight Serge Suits in gray, brown and black at $18. They are tailor-made, and just the thing for this sort of weather.