

CLOSE OF THE SCHOOL YEAR.

Graduates of St. John's Academy Read Their Essays and Receive Diplomas.

A good audience attended the twenty-ninth annual commencement of St. John's Academy last evening at the chapel of that institution. There were three graduates—Miss Ella Connor, Miss Marie Goddard and Miss Clara Johnson. Each of these read an essay, and Miss Connor, in addition, delivered a valedictory.

Miss Mary MacDonald officiated as herald. The programme was largely musical, and was of unusual merit. The opening exercise was a song, "Welcome To-night," the words of which were written by Miss Marie Goddard. Then followed a piano duet, "Marche Triumphe," by Misses Annie Clune and Carrie Coffey.

The first essay was by Miss Connor, her subject being "Books." She spoke in an interesting way of the value of judicious reading, and of the great value which all the civilized world owes to books, but also referred to the injury done to many young minds by the perusal of books of an improper or trivial character.

Following Miss Connor's essay piano selections were rendered by Misses Lulu McCoy, Nellie Austin, Essie Marble, Emma Ryan, Jennie Beattie and Katie Ryan. Miss Marie Goddard then read an essay on the subject "In the Universe All is Harmony." She compared the harmonious condition of the forces of nature with the strife to be seen among men, and said that nature taught us the lesson of peace.

The senior vocal class sang "Come, The Now Our Festal Hour," by W. V. Wallace. Selections upon the piano from some of Verdi's operas were then given by Misses Carrie Coffey, Effie Roberts, Anna Clune, Clara O'Donnell, Jennie Beattie, Anna Shields, Lillie Beaspre and Etta Miller.

"The World of Thought" was the subject of the closing essay, by Miss Clara Johnson, which was well written and received with generous applause. A tambourine drill, similar to the one at the school, followed on Thursday evening. It was then given, after which Miss Goddard and Clara Johnson sang a duet. One of the prettiest features of the entertainment followed. It was the floral offering by the seniors to the graduates, and was accompanied by singing by the chorus. The Mazepa Galop was then given upon the piano by Misses Annie Clune, Carrie Coffey, Lulu Beattie, Lulu McCoy, Katie Ryan and Essie Marble, after which Miss Connor delivered the valedictory. The diplomas were then conferred upon the three young graduates, after which the entertainment closed with the sacred chorus.

Taking Down Their Signs. In accordance with the instructions of the City Council the business men on Washington street yesterday began taking down all signs projecting over the sidewalk. In all several hundred signs have to come down, and Assistant City Attorney Smith is seeing that the work is done promptly. The appearance of the street is being greatly improved by the enforcement of the ordinance.

Arrested for Abusing His Wife. Frits Gyzen, living on St. Clair street, was arrested last night for whipping his wife. Before the officers came to the woman's assistance she had been severely injured by being struck over the head. She had been put out of the house by her husband.

One of the most exciting incidents of the occasion, one showing how the mention of loved and trusted names will away and carry large bodies of men and women to the verge of insane excitement, is seen in the case of a witness in the Traveler's Index on this page.

AN ABSOLUTE CURE

Of a Most Distressing Skin Disease by the Cuticura Remedies.

In the winter of 1879-80 I found myself afflicted with a singular eruption on my limbs, to which I had hitherto been a stranger. The trouble appeared in large blotches upon which the skin was raised, but no itching under it. No particular pain attended it, save a burning, stinging sensation and an intolerable itching, such as was never before experienced. After becoming satisfied that it had come to stay, I called my physician, who, after a thorough examination, pronounced it a case of eczema. He comforted me by saying he could cure it, that it was merely a skin disease incident to old people; was neither dangerous nor contagious, but if not arrested would prove exceedingly troublesome and annoying. I asked him to prescribe, which he did, powders and pills to be taken inwardly, and a wash for outward application. I attended faithfully to all directions, but the wash only aggravated the irritation, and after a few applications had to be abandoned. Becoming thoroughly alarmed, I called my physician to call counsel, which he did. The case was examined, the medicines changed. I obeyed orders to the letter, all to no purpose. The eruption would disappear in one place (leaving a stain upon the skin as if some dark liquid had been spilled over it), only to appear in another. It had been a part of my early education to discountenance all advertised remedies as delusion and a snare, but one day, in glancing over a newspaper, I noted under the head of your CUTICURA REMEDIES a case precisely similar to my own, and after reading it over several times I went immediately to the nearest drug store, purchased a bottle of CUTICURA REMEDIES, two boxes of CUTICURA SOAP, and a box of CUTICURA, resolving to use them conscientiously, carefully noting the effects. The result of the first bath, with an after application of the CUTICURA, was most grateful and astonishing, quickly allaying the burning, itching sensation, and making me almost forget it ever existed. I persevered until an absolute cure was effected. I consider your CUTICURA REMEDIES invaluable, and cheerfully recommend them as such. One of your "Cure Cuticura Boys," which has gone all over the world, is my grandson, and the remedies that effected his speedy and wonderful cure was applied upon my recommendation. AUGUSTA R. SMITH, Ashland, Ohio.

A Good Appetite

Is essential to good health, and at this season it is often lost, owing to the poverty or impurity of the blood, and the weakening effect of the changing season. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful medicine for creating an appetite, toning the digestion and giving strength to the whole system. Now is the time to take it.

"I had been troubled with pimples on my lower lip, loss of sleep and appetite, and in fact was generally 'down.' After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla the pimples disappeared, my appetite was restored, and I feel better in every respect." P. DEVELIN, S. E. corner Tenth and Buttonwood sts., Philadelphia. "I must say Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I ever used. Last spring I had no appetite, and the least work I did fatigued me ever so much. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and soon felt as if I could do as much in a day as I had formerly done in a week. My appetite is voracious." Mrs. M. V. BAYARD, Atlantic City, N. J.

KANKAKEE LINE (BIG FOUR Rail-way) THE MOST ENTHUSIASTIC EVENT OF THE CONVENTION.

When the order of presenting dark horses was called, a tall, slender man, with a noble head, set firmly on an Apollo-like form, was seen approaching the platform. His commanding appearance attracted all eyes, and as the cadences of his rich, full voice filled the auditorium the great audience was spell-bound.

"Mr. Chairman, Fellow Delegates—Availability, some one who can carry Indiana, some one who can get there, is the Moses sought by this convention. We wish to offer the name of a candidate possessing all of these qualities. Our candidate is available East, West, North and South. Our nominee can carry Indiana—in fact, did carry Indiana to Chicago, 10th, 17th and 18th of June. As to the ability of the dark horse we shall mention to get there we have the evidence indisputable of the thousands who not only have seen our favorite get there, but got there with him. For thirty years he has been a winner—never been beaten. He will draw Democratic, Prohibition, mugwump and Labor votes; the German, the Irish, the colored—in fact he will pull all classes from all directions. He has the confidence and love of the farmers, the business man and the laboring man. Mr. Chairman and delegates, we present to this convention

"THE KANKAKEE LINE." Tremendous and long-continued applause. Delegates and the vast audience on their feet, swayed by the most enthusiastic moment of the convention. A voice in the gallery: "What's the matter with the Kankakee!" "Why, it's all right," comes from the 8,000 throats.
