Why the Indians Will Not Sign the Treaty. DURANGO, Col., Aug. 11.—All the chiefs have returned to the agency at Ignacio, and two councils, one on Thursday and one on Friday, have been held between the Indians and the Ute commission. The Indians have been busy so far stating their grievances. It seems that they have ideas which would be gratified by the government for ten years. This money has been due nine months, and the Indians will not agree to anything until they are paid. At the conference yesterday several of the chiefs spoke against the treaty, saying that they had been born and raised on the present reservation, as had their fathers, and they did not wish to be moved. They are very indifferent, and the commission will have hard work to persuade them to vacate.

Riot Growing Out of the Burlington Strike. LINCOLN, Aug. 11.—The old Burlington trouble broke out anew to-day, in the shape of a small riot. An excursion train of thirty-one left Omaha via the Union Pacific road, for this place, carrying several hundred people, who accompanied the train to Burlington, where they were to be taken to the Burlington tracks, and to this end it was switched on the latter line. At once Brotherhood men and agitators appeared on the scene, and insisted that the train should not pass over the line selected. A wholesale fight ensued. Several were drawn, and several shots fired. One man was shot through the thigh, and another had his hand shattered. The train left on the Union Pacific tracks at 9 p. m. No arrests have been made, and it is not known who the wounded men are.
