

NO HOPE IN STORE FOR THEM

Editor Halstead's Views on the Promises of Success in the Doubtful States.

He Tells of a Little Scheme the Democrats Expect to Undertake Through the Use of Money--The Irish-Americans.

There were twenty-five present at the Hendricks club-room last night, by actual count, to hear an address by Hon. George W. Julian, Surver-general of New Mexico.

Mr. Halstead, editor of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, was in the city yesterday for the purpose of visiting General Harrison, with whom he attended school when they were boys.

He dined with the General's family, and in the afternoon they took a quiet drive over the city. Mr. Halstead is a man thoroughly conversant upon political matters, and he regards the outlook for the Republican party as one most hopeful and encouraging.

"You regard Republican victory a certainty?" he was asked by a Journal reporter.

"Yes, you can say that I consider Democratic hopes, if the party has any, are built upon sand, which will be washed away by the Democratic party in its coming campaign."

"What indications do you consider as favorable to the Republicans?"

"Oh, there can be no one thing mentioned, only the fact that the Democratic party is thoroughly disorganized. They absolutely are out at sea. The returns from Oregon came as a starter to their dismay, and then Vermont helped to give them a shove downward."

"How do you figure on New York?"

"Although I don't believe every word I hear said or see printed about New York, I believe that the administration has had a disappointment to many of his former friends, and as a consequence his vote will be largely decreased."

"What about New York city?"

"New York city is a doubtful place, politically. I have considerable doubts about it, though I am a little more hopeful about it than I was some time ago."

"Strong Support from the Irish."

John F. Beggs, of Chicago, was in the city yesterday making arrangements for the visit of the Irish-American club, of that city, to General Harrison Saturday. The club is one of the strongest political organizations in Chicago.

"In behalf of the colored American citizens of New York and Maryland, we send greetings to you for the undisputed utterance in our behalf in your letter accepting the Republican nomination for the presidency of the United States."

Yesterday afternoon the Indianapolis Presbytery, which has been holding its annual meeting in the Second Presbyterian church, called in a body upon the General Rev. Dr. McLeod introducing the delegates. No speeches were made, except Saturday two delegations will arrive, one from Floyd county, consisting of laboring men exclusively, and one from Chicago, which will include the Irish-American club of that city.

THE GRAND ARMY'S LEGIONS

Commander Rea's Report Shows an Aggregate of Almost 400,000 Members.

He is Disappointed at Failure of Pension Legislation, and Discussion of the Report Results in an Exciting Incident.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 12.—The national encampment proper began this morning, the campfires and parade of yesterday being preliminary to the actual work of the encampment. The Grand Army of the Republic, the Woman's Relief Corps, the Ladies of the G. A. R., the Army of West Virginia, the naval veterans of Sheridan's division and other divisions, brigades and regimental associations, met in various parts of the city, but the encampments were strictly secret, none but members being admitted. The first thing in order was the address of Commander-in-chief John P. Rea, which was as follows:

"A century ago, a little band of heroic men, fresh from the struggle for independence, crossed the Atlantic ocean, and in the face of the most determined opposition, they secured the right of self-government for this continent."

"Friday Night's Meeting."

Friday evening Dr. W. B. Fletcher and Corporal Tanner, of New York, will speak at Tomlinson Hall. These gentlemen represent two features of the campaign that are widely separated, but each is well equipped with facts concerning the topic upon which he will talk.

Letters were not received.

The Republican county central committee is now experiencing the same trouble in getting letters through the mail of which the State committee has been complaining so much. Recently several batches of letters have been sent out and not one-third of them reached the persons to whom they were addressed.

It was Corollary Indorsed.

General Harrison's letter of acceptance met with universal satisfaction among the Republicans yesterday, and was discussed on all sides by members of both parties. It was the general verdict that it would not only throw the General in a favorable light in the eyes of the public, but that it would be of great assistance to the party and to campaign workers.

What a Well-Informed Democrat Sees.

R. B. Beauchamp, of Tipton, a prominent Democrat of that city, was at the Bates House last night. To a Journal reporter he said that the Republicans were never better organized, and had splendid chances of carrying the county, which he said, was Democratic by 400 majority.

Two Important Meetings.

Saturday night two important mass meetings are to be held by Republicans, one at Tomlinson Hall, under the auspices of the Indianapolis Irish-American Protection Club, and the other in the East-end, at the corner of Washington and State streets.

Political Notes.

Hon. John B. Egan and Maj. John G. Glover will speak at New Augusta this evening.

Secretary of State Griffin will be absent this week making speeches in the southern part of the State.

President Cleveland's Response to the Resolution of Senator Hoar.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The President sent to the Senate today a response to the resolution introduced by Senator Hoar calling on the President for copies of all communications which have been addressed by his direction to the government of Great Britain remonstrating against discriminations against American vessels passing through Canadian canals and vessels engaged in fisheries.

"I would call special attention to that portion of the report of the Adjutant-general which refers to the army and navy survivors division of the United States Pension Office. The practical benefits resulting from that division are incalculable, and it is to be hoped that, through the instrumentality of the departments and posts, its records may within a short period be made complete."

I wish, also, to thank all the departments of the government for their uniform courtesy and earnest labors for the promotion of the best interests of our country."

A REMARKABLE CASE.

The well-known Carlsbad Sprudel Salt produced from the Natural Springs of Carlsbad, better than any of the so-called blood purifying remedies.

The cashier of M. Guggenheim's Sons, 96 and 98 Franklin Street, one of the largest import houses in the United States, writes under date of June 30, 1888, as follows:

"For years I have suffered from abscesses which always formed on the back of my neck, and had to be cut from time to time to obtain relief. I used all sorts of blood purifiers, but without avail. The abscesses would always reappear. I suffered very much pain until my physician recommended to me the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt (powder form). I used this for about four weeks, and since that time I have been entirely free from abscesses. My complexion cleared, and I have enjoyed good health ever since. I cannot speak too highly of this really valuable remedy, and have recommended it to all my friends, who also speak of its wonderful effects as a laxative. Yours very respectfully, J. MEYER, Esq."

Dr. A. L. A. Tobold in a paper read before the Ninth International Medical Congress, speaks of the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt (powder form), as follows:

"My experience with the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt Powder in constipation, diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys, diabetes, gout, rheumatism, etc., has been such that I may truly say, that no remedy which has so much power to give me so much pleasure and profit as this particular salt."

Dr. Lucius in his book on the action of Carlsbad Water, says:

"I may here state that in chronic abdominal ailments, constipation, gastric catarrh, dyspepsia, diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys, diabetes, gout, rheumatism, etc., has been such that I may truly say, that no remedy which has so much power to give me so much pleasure and profit as this particular salt."

The genuine Carlsbad Sprudel Salt Powder is put up in round bottles. Each bottle comes in a paper carton and has the seal of the city of Carlsbad, and the signature of Eisner & Mendelsohn, Co., Sole Agents, around the neck of every bottle. All others are worthless imitations. Pamphlets and Dr. Tobold's lecture mailed free upon application. Eisner & Mendelsohn Co., 6 Barclay Street, New York, Sole Agents.
