

CULLINGS FROM THE COURTS.

A Political Quarrel and Its Somewhat Serious Consequences. Politics led to a quarrel on the South Side late Monday night that came near resulting in murder.

good cause for contesting the validity of such an instrument, as well as raising or setting aside the probate of it under Sec. 2596, R. S. A. complaint, alleging that the will, which was already admitted to probate, had been revoked by the testator's publication of a later will, and that by reason of this fact its admission to probate was unlawful, amounted, in legal effect, to an application to contest the will, which should have been made under Sec. 2597, and on failure by the plaintiff to file bond as required by that section, it should have been dismissed.

AFFAIRS OF THE RAILWAYS.

The Union Railway Meeting. But little of interest was transacted, yesterday, at the meeting of the Union Railway Company. There were present at the meeting J. D. Layne, president, and Gaylor Beach, general manager of the Bee-line; M. E. Ingalls, president, and W. N. Groves, general manager, of the C. & I. St. L. & C.; J. N. McCullough, vice-president, and James McCrea, general manager, of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg; Wm. R. McKee, president of the Vandalia; V. T. Maki, vice-president and general manager of the Union Railway Company; W. P. James, auditor, and Wm. N. Kackson, treasurer and secretary. Several hours were occupied in examining the cost of the new improvement, the bills before them yesterday amounting to $985,000, in round numbers.

The Appropriation Not for Salaries.

In the Supreme Court, yesterday, in the case of Wm. B. Campbell against the commissioners of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument Association, the ruling of the Circuit Court was affirmed. On the 24 of July, 1888, Campbell filed a complaint against the commissioners, alleging that the Legislature had appropriated $200,000 to build a soldiers' and sailors' monument, and that $25,000 additional had been subscribed, and that the commissioners were proceeding to make contracts which would absorb the entire amount, requiring the incidental expenses, such as salaries of the commissioners and architects and the cost of the monument, to be paid out of the general fund.

STREET RAILWAY MATTERS.

The Ordinance for the McNeal Roads Will Probably Be Accepted. The resident members of the McNeal Electric Street-railway Company have forwarded to the City Council the necessary papers in connection with the ordinance passed by the City Council on Monday night, and expect to get a written acceptance of the terms of the ordinance in a few days. At present there is no indication as to whether the Citizens' Company will waive the same as it did against the Dudley Company. The Citizens' Company changed its operations slightly yesterday on the Prospect-street line, but it does not appear that this was done with any intention to hinder the electric line.

Withdrawn from the Traffic Association.

The presidents and general managers of the following roads met at the New Denison House last evening to consider their relations to the Central Traffic Association, and what action they should take as regards their continuing their membership in the association: The C. & I. & D., the C. & I. St. L. & C., the Pennsylvania lines, the Illinois Central, the Wabash, the C. & E. L., the N. A. & C., the C. V. & C., the P. & E., the E. & C. H., and the C. & W. N. The meeting was held at the New Denison House, and was presided over by the general manager, however, was present, but the management had agreed to abide by any action taken by the meeting. After a lengthy discussion of the question of withdrawal from the association, the roads named should sever their connection with the Central Traffic Association, and reorganize the old organization, which was known as the Chicago and Ohio Railway Association. W. H. McNeil, traffic manager of the L. N. A. & C. road, was chosen as chairman of the association, and C. E. Fuller secretary, the organization to continue as now until Jan. 1, when another meeting will be held to consider the matter on a permanent basis. When asked why such action was taken, one of the presidents in the meeting said: "The Central Traffic Association is run on an expensive scale that it is too much of a tax on the roads to keep it up. Second, the Central Traffic Association is run as a trust for the benefit of the roads to keep it up. Another official said that an association which cost over $100,000 a year to keep in operation was too expensive for the roads doing business across the State of Indiana."

FATHER MATHEW'S ANNIVERSARY.

A Priest's Eloquent Address on the Work of the Great Temperance Apostle. The ninety-eighth anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew was celebrated at Masonic Hall last night by the knights of that name. The Rev. F. B. Dowd was the presiding officer, and after his brief speech, a plan duet by the Misses Annie Clune and Carrie Coffee was given. It was well received, as was the recitation by Miss Anna Lockhart entitled, "Just Let Down the Bars." After a vocal solo by Miss Margaret McKee, the Rev. John E. Byrnes, D. D., delivered an address on "Life and Character of Father Mathew." He said this great temperance worker was the moral emancipator of the Irish race, as O'Connell was the emancipator of the Irish Catholic. A man of genius, Father Mathew was the lover of his people and had at the age of forty-eight become the first temperance reformer. In one year 150,000 people, influenced by his lectures, signed the pledge, and in the year 1840, when he made a tour through America, visiting 300 cities, over 600,000 became total abstainers. "The people," said the speaker, "turned out to hear the Father in the equal to the which will be here tomorrow to see the great statesman from Maine. In 1851, the speaker continued, over a half million people discarded the bowl under the teachings of this great reformer. "Although," said he, "I do not consider it my duty to drink moderately, yet the cause of nearly all the crimes committed can be attributed to the use of alcohol. The temperance reformer never got tired of selling whisky, therefore, why should we get tired preaching temperance? Nearly every city in the country has found it necessary to pass laws to make the selling of whisky at a certain hour and go to bed. Otherwise they would sit up all night." Fearing he might be accused of talking politics, the speaker said he would not make any reference to the fact that Father Mathew was a member of the Knights of the Temperance, but instead, the President was there last year. The President was apparently insulted when he was on that occasion given a glass of cold water. He hoped the Knights of the Temperance would not act in accordance with the meaning of the word "knights" so into the temperance work bravely, increase their number and do a good work.

WRITS OF ELECTION.

The Governor yesterday issued writs of election to fill the unexpired terms of hold-over Senators who have resigned. They are Oscar A. Clippert of the Dubois and Perry district, and Tippet K. Tharp, of the Davies and Martin district. Leon O. Bailey and Emory B. Sellers have also resigned, but as their terms expire this fall no special election is necessary in their cases.

OH! MY HEAD.

The pain from Neuralgia and its companion disease Rheumatism is excruciating. Thousands who could be quickly cured are needlessly suffering. Athlo-phors will do for others what it did for the following patients: Williamsport, Ind., Oct. 3, 1887. Having been afflicted with neuralgia for the past four years, and trying almost everything, but in vain, I finally found Athlo-phors. After taking one bottle I found it to be helping me, and after taking four bottles I am entirely cured. I think the medicine is positively good. G. A. BRYANT, B. REDDICK. I have used Athlo-phors in my head and find it to be the greatest medicine for neuralgia. I have used it for several years and find it to be the best.
