

SCAN THE TICKETS CLOSELY

Democratic Methods by Which They Will Try to Deceive Careless Voters.

The County Commissioners Revising List of Inspectors—Traces of Boodle that is Causing a Break Among Jaws of the People.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET.

[The following is the correct Republican national ticket, to be voted in Indiana. Voters will remember that they vote for electors and not for the candidates for President and Vice-president directly.]

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON.

VICE-PRESIDENT, LEVI P. MOITON.

ELECTORS AT-LARGE, JAMES M. SHACKELFORD, THOMAS H. NELSON.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.

- First District—CICERO BUCHANAN. Third District—DAVID W. VOYLES. Fourth District—O. H. TRAMMEL. Fifth District—DAVID E. BEEM. Sixth District—LEANDER P. MITCHELL. Seventh District—WINFIELD T. DUBBIN. Eighth District—JOHN C. CHANEY. Ninth District—DAVID C. SCULL. Tenth District—FRANK SWIGART. Eleventh District—WILLIAM H. TRAMMEL. Twelfth District—WILLIAM L. PENFIELD. Thirteenth District—HIRAM S. BIGGS.

Devices to Deceive Voters.

The attention of the Republican voters of Indiana is directed to the list of Republican presidential electors which appears at the head of these columns, for the reason that any variation from such list on tickets voted next Tuesday by Republicans of this State may be attended by disastrous consequences. The Democrats have already issued tickets headed by the names of the Republican presidential candidates, and followed by a list of Democratic electors, and prepared, by the use of stickers and other devices, to defeat the purposes of the Republicans who do not scrutinize their tickets closely.

While there is a provision for the punishment of any person who fraudulently causes, or attempts to cause, anyone at any election held pursuant to law in this State, to vote for a person different from the one he intended to vote for, there is no doubt but that a ticket headed Harrison and Morton, and followed by the whole or a part of the Cleveland electors would be counted for the latter, and hence there is the most urgent necessity for Republicans to compare the tickets furnished them with the above list where there is any reason to suspect a fraud attempted upon them by the parties supplying such tickets.

The electors printed above are the ones which should appear on all Republican presidential tickets in this State. The contingent or alternate electors appointed serve no purpose, except to furnish substitutes for electors who are chosen but are prevented from serving, and even in this case they must be appointed by the regular electors to fill the vacancies thus created.

In addition to scrutinizing their own tickets closely, Republicans are called upon to watch those deposited by others. If there is any reason to suspect that two tickets folded together, or which are known as a fault ticket, is being deposited in the box, it will only be necessary to call the attention of the United States supervisor or the judge of the precinct to the fact, and it will be examined as far as is necessary to settle the question of its legality.

The following are the laws of Congress in relation to the summary above referred to: 1. The statute of each State provides who are legal voters. (See paragraph 1 below as to Indiana.)

2. At an election for a member of Congress, if any one votes, or attempts to vote, who is not a legal voter in the precinct, he may be arrested, fined $500 and imprisoned. 3. Whoever, by reward, bribery, intimidation, or other unlawful act, induces one to vote illegally, or offers to induce one to vote who is not a legal voter, may be fined $100 and imprisoned.

4. Whoever, by threat, intimidation, bribery, offer or reward, induces another person to vote, who is not a legal voter in the precinct, may be fined $100 and imprisoned. 5. Any election officer who refuses to receive the vote of anyone who is entitled to vote, may be fined $100 and imprisoned.

6. Every officer of an election where a member of Congress is voted for, whether the election is held under the law of the United States, or under the law of any State, who neglects or refuses to receive the vote of any person who is entitled to vote, or who neglects or refuses to make the proper certificate according to the laws of the United States, or who neglects or refuses to receive the vote of any person who is entitled to vote, or who neglects or refuses to make the proper certificate according to the laws of the United States, may be fined $1,000 or imprisoned.

vote, who is not a legal voter, as the law provides, and the League suggests the following rules for the government of such arrests: 1. Let it be certainly known before arrest, that the person to be arrested is not a legal voter. 2. This being settled, point out the individual so illegally voting, to the proper officer, and let the officer, or the one legally authorized to arrest him, be duly provided for on election-day.

The Wage-Workers' Homes.

Congressman Bynum is having an uphill task trying to convince the wage workers of this district that he has been working for their best interest in Congress by advocating free trade. Instead of making votes he has driven away the support of laboring men in every ward or community in which he has spoken.

any reduction of wages would simply mean a reduction of wages, and I do not believe there is a sensible man in Indianapolis paying out building association stock who will vote with the free-trade party. The securing of a comfortable home is of more importance to a man than the success of any party.

There was a special session of the board of County Commissioners, yesterday, called, it is understood, at the request of the Democratic county central committee. The object of the meeting was to revise the list of election inspectors.

There is a provision for the punishment of any person who fraudulently causes, or attempts to cause, anyone at any election held pursuant to law in this State, to vote for a person different from the one he intended to vote for, there is no doubt but that a ticket headed Harrison and Morton, and followed by the whole or a part of the Cleveland electors would be counted for the latter.

The German for Harrison. The Senate yesterday contained a bold assertion, alleged to have been made by Paul Kraus, to the effect that nearly all the Germans in this State are Democrats.

George Roberts, a member of the First Voters' Drum Corps, until yesterday was employed by August Kubz, the surveyor of customs. When Mr. Roberts declared his intention to vote for General Harrison, and joined the First Voters' Club, he says he was threatened with discharge.

William Kotbe is another who does not believe Mr. Kraus's statement. Regarding it he had the following to say: "One-half of the Germans employed in the Cabinet-makers' Union are so long to vote for General Harrison. I know of more Germans in the precinct where I live who vote for General Harrison than Democrats of the same nationality. Mr. Kraus does not know what he is talking about to make such a statement as that."

While the first installment of Democratic boodle sent out to all the counties of the State has been in the hands of the local managers only a few days it has become a source of trouble. Alexander Lockhart, of the State Board of Agriculture, who returned to the county yesterday from his home in DeKalb county, says the Republicans there have positive information that a fund of $2,500 was sent to that county last Friday.

There were few or no votes of any consequence on the political outcome noted at the city hotels yesterday, and the pecuniary backing of opinions seems to be transferred to the pool-rooms for the time being. The book-keeper at Walker's establishment last night said $2,000 had been bet there yesterday, there being three wagers of $500 each on the general result, and the balance being in smaller amounts, and some of them on the result in this State.

The League calls attention to the fact that in the late trials at Indianapolis of the tally-sheet forgery it was clearly held that the State law is in effect and in force in the trial of violations in the federal courts, and that court may enforce the State laws on the subject of elections at which federal officers are voted for.

Ed Tavorer, of the Indianapolis car-workers, said to a group of gentlemen at the New Denison Saturday night: "I came from England to this country six years ago. My first associates were Democrats, and I naturally became one, and remained so until this campaign. My friends have tried hard to dissuade me from acting with the Republican party, but have failed."

I met E. F. Grant and talked several times with him about politics, and began to see that there were two sides to the question. I have been convinced that the party that represents protection is the party for me. I know what a reduction of tariff is. I hope that every one who is a protectionist will do as I do on this great political issue."

The Irish and Protection. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 23, 1888. Hon. A. L. Morrison, New York City:

My Dear Sir:—I have received your letter of Oct. 21, giving me the details as to the great meeting of the Irish-American Anti-Foreign Trade League in the city on the evening of the 20th inst. I had previously seen some press reports of the meeting, and your letter of the 20th inst. has confirmed the importance of the meeting seemed to warrant, yet I gathered from them that the demonstration was not only in numbers but in enthusiasm and in the intelligence of the people who took part in it, one of the most notable events of the campaign.

On the Pacific Slope Democratic newspapers have been busy in stating that Wm. Dudley Foulke, president of the Indiana Civil Service Reform Association had left the Republican ranks yesterday the following telegram was received: INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 29. M. H. DeYoung, San Francisco Chronicle:

Chippings from California papers announce that the late Hon. E. F. Grant, who was a protectionist, and a bond-buying speech and Senate tariff bill. None here dare circulate such infamous falsehoods. I speak for him every night. W. M. D. Foulke. No one has been or is more energetic or effective in this campaign in the cause of the Republicans than Mr. Foulke.

When in Chicago on Sunday Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, on his return home from that State, told a reporter that Indiana will be carried by the Republicans, because for the first time in the history of the State the people can cast a ballot for one of their number.

Major Mitchell and Thomas L. Sullivan, candidates for prosecutor and circuit judge, respectively, are attempting to elect themselves at the sacrifice of everybody else on the Democratic ticket. Over in Hendricks county they have had their friends form a combination, which it is agreed that the Democrats shall vote for the prohibition candidates for Representatives, and that the prohibitionists, in turn, shall vote for Mitchell and Sullivan.

Applying the Discharge. George Roberts, a member of the First Voters' Drum Corps, until yesterday was employed by August Kubz, the surveyor of customs. When Mr. Roberts declared his intention to vote for General Harrison, and joined the First Voters' Club, he says he was threatened with discharge.

An Invitation to Workingmen. All workingmen who believe in the protection to American industry are invited to attend the meeting in the Criminal Court room, at 7:30 o'clock, this evening. Very energetic work is being done by the organized workmen, and the unionists are presenting by those now employed in the shops and factories in the city and suburbs.

Picked at Tomlinson Hall. To-night at Tomlinson Hall ex-Governor Pitkin, of Louisiana, will be in several parts of the State, and no one is better supplied than he with facts that show the infamous methods and purposes of the Democrats. He is an interesting as well as an eloquent talker.

Governor Foraker, of Ohio, is announced to speak at Madison, this State, on the 31st prox. The First Voters' Club will meet at the court-house this evening at 7 o'clock to transact business of importance.

The Union Labor party county central committee has been called to meet in the Council chamber at 7 o'clock, this evening, to elect a gentleman, who has gone through several sections of Indiana during the past month, says that General Harrison's majority in this State will be at least 10,000.

Dr. J. R. Hanna, formerly connected with the Surgical Institute in this city, is now living in Michigan, where he is earnestly engaged in the Republican cause. He is a physician, and the Doctor predicts a splendid Republican victory in that State. He says that not a single Republican, to his knowledge, will vote against the Cleveland ticket, and that Michigan will do her duty.

The executive committee of the Republican State Central Committee held its last meeting to consider an invitation to go to Terre Haute in a body this evening. Owing to the limited time in which to get notice to members of the club it was decided to make the trip on the 1st of November. The club are requested to meet at the Criminal Court room this evening, at 7:30 o'clock, to transact some business of importance to be transacted.

THE MASONIC HALL MEETING

An Eloquent Speech from Chicago's Distinguished Irish-American Orator.

Free-Trade England and Sackville West's Letter—A Study of Gen. Harrison and President Cleveland—Views of Democracy.

The audience in Masonic Hall last night, to hear the eloquent Irishman, Hon. John P. Finerty, of Chicago, was larger than could be comfortably placed in the hall. As many people unable to get in as would have filled another hall of the same size.

Mr. Finerty was escorted from the New Denison House by the Columbia Club, with the Bugle Drum Corps at its head, and after it came the First Regiment Band, followed by the First Veteran Regiment of Harrison and Hovey Guards. Among the inspiring tunes played was "Wearing of the Green." The hall was already full when the escort arrived and the most of those comprising it had to stand, while the aisles were crowded from the entrance-door to the stage.

On the opposite side was another speaker, a friend of the workingman—Terence V. Powderly. On the opposite side was another speaker, a friend of the workingman—Terence V. Powderly. On the opposite side was another speaker, a friend of the workingman—Terence V. Powderly.

Mr. Finerty was received with the greatest enthusiasm, the audience rising to their feet and waving hats and handkerchiefs. He was in poor voice, but managed to keep his audience up to the yelling point for almost two hours.

Upon the vote of the people of Indiana, said he, "and those of New York hangs the fate of the Nation. India has the largest population of the country's race in time of peril, and will come again on the 6th of November. (Cheers.) The battle that we are fighting now is as important as any that has ever been fought in the history of the Nation, and in 1868 you were fighting to preserve the victories of the war, and you are fighting exactly the same class of enemies. The Southern wing of the Democratic party is all that remains of the old slave power, and it is your duty to defend the Nation, and in 1868 you were fighting to preserve the victories of the war, and you are fighting exactly the same class of enemies.

Business Men's Meetings. The business men's noonday meetings, at Republican county headquarters, are proving to be one of the most interesting features of the local campaign, and the party managers regret that they were not better sooner. Directly after the noon hour, yesterday, the county committee room in the New Denison Block was packed with business men, clerks and others.

At the close of his speech the audience arose and gave Mr. Finerty three hearty cheers and then sang several verses from the "Star Spangled Banner." The general comment was that it was one of the best meetings of the campaign.

At the conclusion of Mr. Finerty's remarks the club sang "Hall Columbia," and the meeting was adjourned. The meeting will be continued to-day and the remainder of the week. If the crowds continue to grow Pflaun's Hall, opposite the New Denison House, will be secured.

Will Be Considered by the Committee. As Superintendent Williams, of the poor asylum, and Superintendent Boope, of the county work-house have refused to permit the Republicans to take a poll of the inmates of the institutions, Chairman Harding has submitted the matter to the Committee of One Hundred, in the following communication:

As an illustration of the British leniency of this administration, a gentleman who recently visited the United States signal service office in this city noticed the observer in charge of the office unpacking a considerable invoice of English ink, and inquiring as to how it happened that English products were given the preference over American writing fluids, was informed that the former were chosen by the government pur-chasing agents and supplied to all stations connected with the bureau.

As an illustration of the British leniency of this administration, a gentleman who recently visited the United States signal service office in this city noticed the observer in charge of the office unpacking a considerable invoice of English ink, and inquiring as to how it happened that English products were given the preference over American writing fluids, was informed that the former were chosen by the government purchasing agents and supplied to all stations connected with the bureau.

A commercial traveler, who has been over the greater part of this State during the past three weeks, writes to the State central committee at this city today that at several points he had met parties from other States who were being kept at saloons by the proprietors of the latter establishments, under contract with Democratic leaders, with the understanding that these importations were to be voted wholesale for the Democratic ticket as soon as the polls opened. He says that he has seen many of these parties and that they were being kept at saloons by the proprietors of the latter establishments, under contract with Democratic leaders, with the understanding that these importations were to be voted wholesale for the Democratic ticket as soon as the polls opened.

world say, 'Go to West, young man.' [Cheers.] Four years ago thousands of them broke to Blair [cheers], and this year tens of thousands are breaking for Harrison. [Cheers.] Every man has a right to chance. George Washington began life as a British subject and wore the British uniform. He changed. Gen. Grant [cheers], who commanded a larger army than Alexander Czar or Napoleon, began life as a Democrat. He changed. General Sherman [cheers] began as a Democrat, but changed. He became a hero and died a Republican. Phil Sheridan [cheers] began as a Democrat. When he got into the Southern wing of the Democratic party in the Shenandoah valley, he kept it very active. [Laughter.] There were no insects upon that world at that time. [Cheers.] If Roger Q. Mills were to-night he could tell you something about it. [Laughter.] A man has enough example for changing his politics if he wants to. It is a hard cost, he is in the same boat with the twelve apostles, Saint Patrick, Gladstone, Washington, Grant and Logan, and that ought to be enough backing for any one. [Cheers.] God forgive you if you vote for British interests and against American. It is America that is to be saved and the motto ought to be with every man, "America against the world." The country that England has never touched has withered. Hindostan, 150 years ago, was the richest country in the world, and she is poorer than ever Ireland. England has been the cause of her making and that for her destruction. A nation's charity begins at home, and we are not called upon to help the industries of England. One workman in every ten in a laboring class in America has his own home and the children of workmen have such chances to rise as their fathers never had. I have no respect for a man who strikes six months for better wages and then goes to the polls and votes in five minutes for 50 cents a day all year long. [Cheers.] Mills says his bill gives us free range. You see we do not have a free-trade country. [Laughter.] God forgive you Mr. Cleveland. He has grown very generous lately. His voice is still for war. [Laughter.] More so than it was twenty-six years ago. When the draft struck him he sent a telegram to Mr. Cleveland. He says, "I have made a great error in civil-service reform. Where is it? You may search the offices through, and you will not find a Republican left in them. I have never seen the old soldiers since then. While they were fighting he was casting his slurs in Buffalo. He wanted to return the rebel flag. He was very generous with what he had in mind. He never said a word about it, or helped to. [Cheers.] His foreign policy has been the laughing stock of the world. Ben Harrison did not wait to be elected. He raised a recruiting party for America, Great Britain for Great Britain, and why Ireland should be cut off and allowed to legislate for herself."

Mr. Finerty was received with the greatest enthusiasm, the audience rising to their feet and waving hats and handkerchiefs. He was in poor voice, but managed to keep his audience up to the yelling point for almost two hours.

Upon the vote of the people of Indiana, said he, "and those of New York hangs the fate of the Nation. India has the largest population of the country's race in time of peril, and will come again on the 6th of November. (Cheers.) The battle that we are fighting now is as important as any that has ever been fought in the history of the Nation, and in 1868 you were fighting to preserve the victories of the war, and you are fighting exactly the same class of enemies. The Southern wing of the Democratic party is all that remains of the old slave power, and it is your duty to defend the Nation, and in 1868 you were fighting to preserve the victories of the war, and you are fighting exactly the same class of enemies.

Business Men's Meetings. The business men's noonday meetings, at Republican county headquarters, are proving to be one of the most interesting features of the local campaign, and the party managers regret that they were not better sooner. Directly after the noon hour, yesterday, the county committee room in the New Denison Block was packed with business men, clerks and others.

At the close of his speech the audience arose and gave Mr. Finerty three hearty cheers and then sang several verses from the "Star Spangled Banner." The general comment was that it was one of the best meetings of the campaign.

At the conclusion of Mr. Finerty's remarks the club sang "Hall Columbia," and the meeting was adjourned. The meeting will be continued to-day and the remainder of the week. If the crowds continue to grow Pflaun's Hall, opposite the New Denison House, will be secured.

Will Be Considered by the Committee. As Superintendent Williams, of the poor asylum, and Superintendent Boope, of the county work-house have refused to permit the Republicans to take a poll of the inmates of the institutions, Chairman Harding has submitted the matter to the Committee of One Hundred, in the following communication:

As an illustration of the British leniency of this administration, a gentleman who recently visited the United States signal service office in this city noticed the observer in charge of the office unpacking a considerable invoice of English ink, and inquiring as to how it happened that English products were given the preference over American writing fluids, was informed that the former were chosen by the government purchasing agents and supplied to all stations connected with the bureau.

As an illustration of the British leniency of this administration, a gentleman who recently visited the United States signal service office in this city noticed the observer in charge of the office unpacking a considerable invoice of English ink, and inquiring as to how it happened that English products were given the preference over American writing fluids, was informed that the former were chosen by the government purchasing agents and supplied to all stations connected with the bureau.

A commercial traveler, who has been over the greater part of this State during the past three weeks, writes to the State central committee at this city today that at several points he had met parties from other States who were being kept at saloons by the proprietors of the latter establishments, under contract with Democratic leaders, with the understanding that these importations were to be voted wholesale for the Democratic ticket as soon as the polls opened.

A commercial traveler, who has been over the greater part of this State during the past three weeks, writes to the State central committee at this city today that at several points he had met parties from other States who were being kept at saloons by the proprietors of the latter establishments, under contract with Democratic leaders, with the understanding that these importations were to be voted wholesale for the Democratic ticket as soon as the polls opened.

A commercial traveler, who has been over the greater part of this State during the past three weeks, writes to the State central committee at this city today that at several points he had met parties from other States who were being kept at saloons by the proprietors of the latter establishments, under contract with Democratic leaders, with the understanding that these importations were to be voted wholesale for the Democratic ticket as soon as the polls opened.

A commercial traveler, who has been over the greater part of this State during the past three weeks, writes to the State central committee at this city today that at several points he had met parties from other States who were being kept at saloons by the proprietors of the latter establishments, under contract with Democratic leaders, with the understanding that these importations were to be voted wholesale for the Democratic ticket as soon as the polls opened.

correspondent, "and making them swear they will stand by the Democratic party and vote as open ticket, or one prepared by the leaders, parties and other fraudulent voters. Over them the rest after the election." In addition to this, it is reported that in Spencer county votes are being openly bought by the Democrats.

A Third-ward Republican reports the receipt of a dozen hats and two dozen pairs of shoes by a relative of his from the Democratic county committee, which was recently practicing the poverty act in response to a request from the Committee of One Hundred for funds to prosecute repeaters and other fraudulent voters. The instructions that came with the hats and shoes were to hand them around among Democrats where they could be profitably distributed.

The following address and direction were neatly written on one of the letters received by General Harrison this week: Take this letter, Uncle Sam, to Benjamin Harrison, he's the man to whom thousands daily write and promise. In Indianapolis, Indiana State, he's a soldier here, tried and true, as every one knows. As every one knows, I'm in the same boat with the twelve apostles, Saint Patrick, Gladstone, Washington, Grant and Logan, and that ought to be enough backing for any one. [Cheers.] God forgive you if you vote for British interests and against American. It is America that is to be saved and the motto ought to be with every man, "America against the world." The country that England has never touched has withered. Hindostan, 150 years ago, was the richest country in the world, and she is poorer than ever Ireland. England has been the cause of her making and that for her destruction. A nation's charity begins at home, and we are not called upon to help the industries of England. One workman in every ten in a laboring class in America has his own home and the children of workmen have such chances to rise as their fathers never had. I have no respect for a man who strikes six months for better wages and then goes to the polls and votes in five minutes for 50 cents a day all year long. [Cheers.] Mills says his bill gives us free range. You see we do not have a free-trade country. [Laughter.] God forgive you Mr. Cleveland. He has grown very generous lately. His voice is still for war. [Laughter.] More so than it was twenty-six years ago. When the draft struck him he sent a telegram to Mr. Cleveland. He says, "I have made a great error in civil-service reform. Where is it? You may search the offices through, and you will not find a Republican left in them. I have never seen the old soldiers since then. While they were fighting he was casting his slurs in Buffalo. He wanted to return the rebel flag. He was very generous with what he had in mind. He never said a word about it, or helped to. [Cheers.] His foreign policy has been the laughing stock of the world. Ben Harrison did not wait to be elected. He raised a recruiting party for America, Great Britain for Great Britain, and why Ireland should be cut off and allowed to legislate for herself."

Lord Lionel Sackville West. Well may I, with King Lear, exclaim: Oh, how sharper than a serpent's tooth is the ingratitude of a thankless friend. I had thought to do Groves (my friend then) a great kindness, and in the doing it render my country an even greater service. My good purpose, forsooth, miscarried, my friend grows cold, and I am to be sent away beyond seas in disgrace. And all on account of the Irish who he loves no more than I do. Was he not? Go to! I'll never try to help another free trade Democrat to an office as long as I live.

Will Embroider Their Pants. Fashionable young men are now to be made gay by the largest party of all. It is likely, though not quite settled, that fashions will let them wear their trousers embroidered this winter. Not all trousers, nor all embroidered, like an old-fashioned waistcoat, but evening dress trousers will be decorated down the sides with rich black silk embroidery, worked on a broad strip of the best black pie-cie silk. Here, perhaps, is the entering wedge at last.

All Colds Are Bad. There is no safety in allowing a cough to ever light, to continue. No one can tell the cough that may prove dangerous. It is always safe to use Brown's Expectant. It may save life when used in cases that cause no alarm. It should always be kept in every house, so as to be used at once. If it were, several attacks of sickness, as bronchitis, pneumonia, pleurisy, etc., and vast numbers of deaths from them would be prevented.

AMUSEMENTS. PARK THEATER. THIS AFTERNOON! TONIGHT! Only Theater Open in the City. THE GREAT MELODRAMA. BLACK FLAG. A STRONG DRAMATIC COMPANY. SPECIAL SCENERY. REALISTIC EFFECTS. NIGHT PRICES—10, 20, 30 cents. MATINEES—10 and 20 cents. COMING! MRS. LANGTRY. "AS IN A LOOKING-GLASS."

MUNACRY'S GREAT PAINTING. Christ on Calvary. To be at PLYMOUTH CHURCH NOW OPEN FROM 9 A. M. TO 10 P. M. ADMISSION 25 CENTS.

VICTOR FOUNDRY & MACHINE WORKS. Manufacturers of GAS BURNERS, STOVE REPAIRS, BOB-SLED RUNNERS, Etc. No. 240 South Pennsylvania Street.

HOLLAND'S ONE-PIECE ED. L. GAS-BURNER. For Cooking and Heating Stoves, Furnaces and Grates.

HOTEL ENGLISH. North-west side Circle Park. Best hotel building in Indianapolis. One of the best kept hotels for the price charged in the country. Rate for transient $2 per day. Very favorable rates given regular customers. Good location, fine view of city.

Our claim from experience: Cannot repair smart, perfect combination, 40 per cent. more heat and fuel economy than any other gas burner in the market. For sale and attached by all first-class plumbers. GEO. A. RICHARDS, Wholesale Agent for Indianapolis.

Best hotel building in Indianapolis. One of the best kept hotels for the price charged in the country. Rate for transient $2 per day. Very favorable rates given regular customers. Good location, fine view of city.

Our claim from experience: Cannot repair smart, perfect combination, 40 per cent. more heat and fuel economy than any other gas burner in the market. For sale and attached by all first-class plumbers. GEO. A. RICHARDS, Wholesale Agent for Indianapolis.

Best hotel building in Indianapolis. One of the best kept hotels for the price charged in the country. Rate for transient $2 per day. Very favorable rates given regular customers. Good location, fine view of city.