ANARCHY IS NOT DEAD.

It Does Not Even Sleep, but is Actively Preparing for a Dangerous Outbreak.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The Times says that anarchy is not dead, nor even sleeps. On the contrary, it is more thoroughly organized than ever at the time of the Haymarket riot, and its membership is larger than it has ever been.

An Enthusiastic Quarryman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Hugh McKeevers, a quarryman at Verplack's, began celebrating Harrison's election last night by exploding dynamite cartridges in the streets of New York.

The Bigoted Bourbons of Wells County Try the Bulldozing Methods of the South.

MARION, Ind., Nov. 13.—The Chronicle prints the following: Peter Jackson, the only colored man who ever had the courage to attempt to live in Bluffton, is temporarily residing in Marion. Jackson is here for his health.

Suits Against Hawkins and His Deputies.

RICHMOND, Ind., Nov. 13.—This morning August Waischman and Frank Brooks, who as deputy United States marshals, arrested Louis Kromer as a non-resident, put in an appearance for trial before Squire Lyle, as per their bond, but their cases were continued until Saturday.

READY FOR A FIGHT.

Critical Condition of Affairs in the Chickasaw Indian Nation—Bloodshed Probable.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.—The latest news from the Chickasaw Indian nation is brought from Tahomango, to-day, by James Harris, the Auditor of the nation, to Gainesville, Tex., and is of a startling character. Mr. Harris said that Gov. Quay was not killed Saturday night, as reported yesterday, the would-be assassin's bullet falling to hit him.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

It is Getting Very Close and the Democrats Are Fighting Very Hard.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—There is likely to be trouble at the organization of the next House of Representatives. It is going to be uncomfortably close, and the Democrats are alarmed and are taking measures to secure certification for the candidates of that party who claim election.

More About the Proposed Seal.

When the polls closed on election night the Republicans had undoubtedly elected 185 members of the House of Representatives.

AN ALLEGED INTERVIEW BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND SENATOR BLACKBURN.

AN ALLEGED INTERVIEW BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT and Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, was published to-day. The interview was said to have occurred at the White House a week or more before the election, and Mr. Cleveland is quoted as saying: "I have no objection to your publishing it."

THE FUNDING OF DR. MILLER, THE MILLIONAIRE PHARMACEUTICAL MANUFACTURER.

WILMINGTON, Mass., Nov. 13.—Dr. Henry Miller, who made $3,000,000 in the manufacture of pills, was buried here Sunday in a casket which cost $9,000. Four coal black horses carried him to a temporary brick tomb, which cost $500, on a catafalque which cost $2,000, and at the tomb the casket was placed in a big red cedar box which cost $250, held together by sixty big brass screws which cost $18.

THAT TARIFF MESSAGE.

A Scathing Denunciation of What It Called New York Sun. "We would not necessarily rob the special disciples of President Cleveland of a single consoling fancy. Without a sufficient reason, we would not chip off so much as a pin's weight from the ideal image of the President which has been the last few years has been respectfully enshrined in their imagination."

Carlisle's Perforated Ballots.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13.—An examination of the ballots in Boone, Campbell, Kenton and Pendleton counties, in the Sixth Kentucky district, shows that 7,702 perforated tickets were cast for Hon. John G. Carlisle. His majority in the entire district was 6,651, so that if no further search is made there are enough ballots to defeat him if it shall be declared upon contest that these perforated ballots are void.

WEST VIRGINIA.

The State Still in Doubt and Claimed by Both Parties.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 13.—A Chronicle Telegraph Wheeling, W. Va., special says: "The all-important official count in the Mountain State has not yet been completed, and until it is no one will know definitely whether Gov. or Fleming is elected Governor, or whether the electoral ticket is Republican or Democratic. The majority cannot be more than 200 or 300 either way."

GROVER FORESAW DEFEAT.

He Predicted the Loss of New York, and Charged It to Hewitt.

NEW YORK SPECIAL TO LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL. Ex-Judge A. W. Rucker, a prominent, well-known Democrat of Colorado, according to a Denver dispatch to the Sun, to-day, makes the following remarkable statement:

CHAMBERLAIN'S BRIDE.

The Wedding Will Take Place on Thursday—A Few of the Many Presents.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The day has finally been fixed. Joseph Chamberlain, who arrived here last night, took apartments at a very fashionable up-town hotel, spent nearly the entire day at the residence of the Endicotts, and was occupied this afternoon in driving his bride-elect about the city. It was announced late this afternoon that the day for the ceremony which is to unite the two has been fixed for Thursday, and the hour at 2 o'clock. The place will be St. John's Church, which was the place of worship attended by President Arthur and other prominent officials. The guests will be the members of the Endicott family, the President, Mrs. Cleveland, the members of the Cabinet and their families, and some few relatives of the bride from Boston and Salem.

THE POLICE AT LAST SEIZE THE CLEW, WHICH THEY HAD BEEN SEARCHING FOR.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The police of the Whitechapel women, which have been very low, were raised to the same buoyancy to-day, in consequence of the testimony, at the Kelley inquest, of George Hutchinson, a grocer, who had known the victim for some years, and who saw her with a male companion shortly before 2 o'clock on the morning of the murder. Hutchinson testified that he saw a well-dressed man with a Jewish cast of countenance seated on the woman on the street at the hour mentioned on Friday morning, and the circumstance of his acquaintance with her induced him to follow the pair as they walked together. He looked straight into the man's face as he turned with the woman into Miller court, out of more curiosity. He had no thought of the previous murders and certainly had no suspicion that the man contemplated violence, since his companion manifested affection for her companion as they walked along formed a large part of the incentive to keep them in sight.

AFFAIRS IN PERU.

A Serious Quarrel with the United States—Adjusting the Public Debt.

PANAMA, Nov. 5.—A serious international trouble is pending between the government of the United States. The circumstances are these: On the assumption that a house at Mollendo belonged to the Arcequia railway and was therefore the property of the state, orders were given to occupy it by force, although the building was declared to belong to a citizen of the United States. It was accordingly seized by a squad of soldiers. The United States consulate was situated in the building, and this was forcibly closed and pad-locked, the cost of arms removed and the agent prevented from entering his office for nearly a week.
