

MODEL

Thin Goods

Prepare for the hot days that will soon be upon us. Our stock of thin clothing is the largest we have ever shown.

MODEL

Three Hours to Cincinnati - The Round Trip for $2.50 VIA THE 'BIG 4.'

Tickets will be sold for all trains Saturday, June 22, and for regular train 3.30 a. m. on special train Sunday morning, 7 a. m., June 23.

THE HARBURG EXCURSION

TO Terre Haute and Return HAS BEEN POSTPONED UNTIL SUNDAY, JUNE 16.

FARE ONLY $1.75.

CLOSING EXHIBITIONS.

The Oratorical and Educational Contest of Wabash College Undergraduates. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

BLOOMING, Ill., June 14.—The College of Letters and Science of the Illinois Wesleyan University, of this city, held its commencement yesterday.

MOORE'S HILL COLLEGE.

MOORE'S HILL, Ind., June 14.—The commencement exercises of Moore's Hill College occurred at 10 o'clock to-day.

WHEN INDICATIONS.

SATURDAY—Light rain, followed by fair weather, slightly cooler.

Summer Thin Goods

In fact all are thin goods in this sale section, and the thinnest goods—the coolest, toughest, daintiest, cheapest thin goods that this market ever saw.

Seersucker coat and vest, $1. Separate black luster coats, extra sizes—a special provision in these.

FLANNELS, MOHAIRS, SERGES, SILKS, DRAP D'ETES.

In stripes, checks and solid colors, all combinations and patterns—the largest, finest stock ever shown here.

THE WHEN

Surgical Instruments & Appliances

Trusses, Supporters, Deformity Braces, Crutches, Amputees, Optical Goods, Artificial Eyes, and every thing in Surgical Instruments and Appliances.

THE UNRULY CHIPPEWAS.

Only One Settler Said to Have Been Killed—The Cause of the Uprising.

MORA, Minn., June 14.—Recently a contract was awarded by the settlers to Foley Brothers, of St. Paul, to dig a ditch for irrigation purposes from Mille Laes lake to a point on the Snake river, near this place.

Views of the Commissioners.

St. Paul, Minn., June 14.—Ex-United States Senator H. M. Rice, of St. Paul; Bishop Marty, of Dakota, and Dr. Whiting, of Wisconsin, commissioners appointed by President Harrison to treat with the Chippewa Indians, are in this city, and were to have started out next week to negotiate with the tribes at Mille Laes.

A FOUL RIVER.

Sewage Exhalation from the Potomac Allowed to Permeate the White House.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The representatives of the health office who have made an examination into the condition of the water supply of the city, report that there is danger of an influx of foul matter into the river about the point from which the water is drawn, unless there is something done immediately.

A Noted Life Insurance Swindler.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 14.—The insurance companies, through their agents, have fixed upon the reward and expenses for the capture of John Hillman, and he will be brought to Lawrence within a few days.

Enforcing the Law Against Liquor Violators.

CINCINNATI, O., June 14.—The first work-house sentence under the Owen law, the law requiring saloons to be closed on Sunday, was pronounced this afternoon against Thomas B. White, a barkeeper, who was convicted of violating the law Sunday.

Killed His Brother and Then Himself.

St. Louis, June 14.—At Kirkville, Mo., this morning, Frank K. Prater, ex-convict, commissioner, shot dead by his brother, Joseph Prater, who then put a bullet through his own heart.

THE CANNELTON POSTOFFICE

Mrs. De La Hunt's Own Action Responsible for the Selection of Zimmerman.

An Examination of Papers in the Department Discloses the Fact that She Flatly Refused to Be a Candidate for the Place.

The Delay in Filling Offices Caused by Failure of Congressmen to Agree.

Senator Quay and the Postmaster-General Smooth Their Differences—A Bad System of Sewerage and the Evil It Causes.

IT WAS HER OWN FAULT.

Mrs. De La Hunt Withdrawn from the Cannelton Postoffice Race Six Days After Election.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Some of the Democratic newspapers continue to harp upon the fact that Zimmerman was appointed postmaster at Cannelton, Ind., when a soldier's widow, Mrs. Isabella De La Hunt, was in the field as a candidate.

THE FAILURE TO MAKE APPOINTMENTS DUE TO SQUABBLING CONGRESSMEN.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The members of the House and Senate who still linger here seemed determined to make up for lost time to-day, and there were more of them among the President's callers than there has been before in some time.

THE TRAMP PRINTER.

The Union Discusses His Burial When He Lays Down His Stick on the Road.

DENVER, Col., June 14.—But little business importance was transacted at the typographical convention to-day.

MINOR MATTERS.

Augustana Lutheran Synod.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., June 14.—At the opening of the sixth session of the Augustana Synod resolutions were offered by Rev. C. A. Swenson, of Lindsborg, Kan., expressing the sympathy of the synod with the temperance movement in Pennsylvania, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Auction Store Damaged by Fire.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Fire at midnight last night in the auction-house of Nichols & Friend, damaged the building and contents to the amount of $50,000.

SULLIVAN ADMITTED TO BAIL

He Is Granted a Writ of Habeas Corpus and Released on a Bond of $20,000.

Judge Tuley Exhaustively Reviews the Testimony Presented to the Coroner, and Finds It Insufficient to Hold the Prisoner.

Though the Evidence Points Strongly to His Connection with the Conspiracy.

Developments in the Cases of Maroney and McDonald at New York—An Effort to Make the Arrests a Political Matter.

ALEX. SULLIVAN RELEASED.

Judge Tuley Renders a Decision in His Favor, and Fixes Bail at $20,000.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Alexander Sullivan was to-day restored to liberty by Judge Tuley. The release was the immediate result of Sullivan's application for a writ of habeas corpus.

A BLOODY BATTLE.

Four White Men and Two Negroes Killed, and a Dozen Persons Wounded in Texas.

St. Louis, June 14.—A telegram from Austin, Tex., says: Meager details of a bloody affray, last evening, at Givens's store, eighteen miles southeast of here, reached this city this morning.

THE CORYDON MOB VICTIMS.

No Effort Likely to Be Made to Indict or Prosecute Those Who Hung Them.

CORYDON, Ind., June 14.—James L. Slaughter, a justice of the peace, held an inquest upon the bodies of James Deavin and Charles Tenyson, who were lynched at this place last Thursday morning.

THE UNION DISCUSSES HIS BURIAL WHEN HE LAYS DOWN HIS STICK ON THE ROAD.

DENVER, Col., June 14.—But little business importance was transacted at the typographical convention to-day.

MINOR MATTERS.

Augustana Lutheran Synod.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., June 14.—At the opening of the sixth session of the Augustana Synod resolutions were offered by Rev. C. A. Swenson, of Lindsborg, Kan., expressing the sympathy of the synod with the temperance movement in Pennsylvania, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Auction Store Damaged by Fire.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Fire at midnight last night in the auction-house of Nichols & Friend, damaged the building and contents to the amount of $50,000.

SULLIVAN ADMITTED TO BAIL

He Is Granted a Writ of Habeas Corpus and Released on a Bond of $20,000.

Judge Tuley Exhaustively Reviews the Testimony Presented to the Coroner, and Finds It Insufficient to Hold the Prisoner.

Though the Evidence Points Strongly to His Connection with the Conspiracy.

Developments in the Cases of Maroney and McDonald at New York—An Effort to Make the Arrests a Political Matter.

ALEX. SULLIVAN RELEASED.

Judge Tuley Renders a Decision in His Favor, and Fixes Bail at $20,000.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Alexander Sullivan was to-day restored to liberty by Judge Tuley. The release was the immediate result of Sullivan's application for a writ of habeas corpus.

A BLOODY BATTLE.

Four White Men and Two Negroes Killed, and a Dozen Persons Wounded in Texas.

St. Louis, June 14.—A telegram from Austin, Tex., says: Meager details of a bloody affray, last evening, at Givens's store, eighteen miles southeast of here, reached this city this morning.

THE CORYDON MOB VICTIMS.

No Effort Likely to Be Made to Indict or Prosecute Those Who Hung Them.

CORYDON, Ind., June 14.—James L. Slaughter, a justice of the peace, held an inquest upon the bodies of James Deavin and Charles Tenyson, who were lynched at this place last Thursday morning.

THE UNION DISCUSSES HIS BURIAL WHEN HE LAYS DOWN HIS STICK ON THE ROAD.

DENVER, Col., June 14.—But little business importance was transacted at the typographical convention to-day.

MINOR MATTERS.

Augustana Lutheran Synod.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., June 14.—At the opening of the sixth session of the Augustana Synod resolutions were offered by Rev. C. A. Swenson, of Lindsborg, Kan., expressing the sympathy of the synod with the temperance movement in Pennsylvania, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Auction Store Damaged by Fire.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Fire at midnight last night in the auction-house of Nichols & Friend, damaged the building and contents to the amount of $50,000.

SULLIVAN ADMITTED TO BAIL

He Is Granted a Writ of Habeas Corpus and Released on a Bond of $20,000.

Judge Tuley Exhaustively Reviews the Testimony Presented to the Coroner, and Finds It Insufficient to Hold the Prisoner.

Though the Evidence Points Strongly to His Connection with the Conspiracy.

Developments in the Cases of Maroney and McDonald at New York—An Effort to Make the Arrests a Political Matter.

ALEX. SULLIVAN RELEASED.

Judge Tuley Renders a Decision in His Favor, and Fixes Bail at $20,000.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Alexander Sullivan was to-day restored to liberty by Judge Tuley. The release was the immediate result of Sullivan's application for a writ of habeas corpus.

A BLOODY BATTLE.

Four White Men and Two Negroes Killed, and a Dozen Persons Wounded in Texas.

St. Louis, June 14.—A telegram from Austin, Tex., says: Meager details of a bloody affray, last evening, at Givens's store, eighteen miles southeast of here, reached this city this morning.

THE CORYDON MOB VICTIMS.

No Effort Likely to Be Made to Indict or Prosecute Those Who Hung Them.

CORYDON, Ind., June 14.—James L. Slaughter, a justice of the peace, held an inquest upon the bodies of James Deavin and Charles Tenyson, who were lynched at this place last Thursday morning.

THE UNION DISCUSSES HIS BURIAL WHEN HE LAYS DOWN HIS STICK ON THE ROAD.

DENVER, Col., June 14.—But little business importance was transacted at the typographical convention to-day.

MINOR MATTERS.

Augustana Lutheran Synod.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., June 14.—At the opening of the sixth session of the Augustana Synod resolutions were offered by Rev. C. A. Swenson, of Lindsborg, Kan., expressing the sympathy of the synod with the temperance movement in Pennsylvania, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Auction Store Damaged by Fire.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Fire at midnight last night in the auction-house of Nichols & Friend, damaged the building and contents to the amount of $50,000.