

ESTABLISHED 1823.

INDIANAPOLIS, MONDAY MORNING, JULY 1, 1889.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

REDUCTIONS IN BOYS' SUITS. Boys' $5 suits reduced to $3.50. Boys' $9 and $10 suits reduced to 7.50. Boys' $12 suits reduced to 10.00. And all $15, $16 and $18 suits reduced to 12.00.

ORIGINAL EAGLE 5 & 7 West Washington St.

TRAVELERS' INDEX. KANKAKEE LINE. BIG FOUR RAIL-WAY.

MORE GOOD THINGS. The Big Four is full of them, and if readers of the Journal will only read the ad. they will find they are sure to save much money in railroad fares.

One Fare to all Points. THE POPULAR "BEE-LINE". Will sell excursion tickets to all points on the C., C. & I. and I. & St. L. railroads, on July 3 and 4, at one fare for the round trip.

$7.50 to St. Louis and Return. $8.25 to Cleveland and Return.

Come and Inspect Our STRAW HATS! 50 cts., $1, $1.25 or $1.50.

BAMBERGER 16 East Washington St. Surgical Instruments & Appliances.

A CHILD OF THE FLOOD. Baptism of a Bouncing Baby Who Was Rescued from the Deluge at Johnston.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 30.—Aside from the confusion occasioned by the presence of a large number of excursionists to-day, the city was very quiet. The workmen were enjoying much-needed rest, and the State troops had nothing to do beyond pacing their beats, doing police duty.

Bluffs of Prize-Fighters. DELTIDA, Minn., June 30.—Pat Killen gave an exhibition, last night, to a packed house.

Moody's Summer Institute. NORTHFIELD, Mass., June 30.—Three hundred students attended the Moody conference of college students to-day.

Bluffs of Prize-Fighters. DELTIDA, Minn., June 30.—Pat Killen gave an exhibition, last night, to a packed house.

Bluffs of Prize-Fighters. DELTIDA, Minn., June 30.—Pat Killen gave an exhibition, last night, to a packed house.

PERSIA'S WANDERING SHAH

Magnificent Scale of the Preparations for His Reception in England.

A Round of Feasts and Gayeties Mapped Out, in Which the Queen and Nobility Will Try to Impress Him with British Greatness.

Wm. O'Brien, the Irish Editor, Arrested While Making a Speech Near Cork.

Many Heads Rapped by the Police, and Patrick O'Brien Seriously Injured—Salisbury Sends a Sharp Note to Portugal.

HONORS TO ROYALTY. Gorgeous Preparations Being Made in England to Receive the Shah of Persia.

LONDON, June 30.—Fashionable London has nothing to think of, to-day, but the gorgeous preparations which are being pushed forward for the reception of the Shah, who arrives to-morrow evening.

On Tuesday the Shah will land at the Queen at Windsor Castle, and on Wednesday with the Lord Mayor and Corporation of London City. On Thursday he will attend a garden party at Marlborough House, at which the Queen will be present.

Americans are besieging Mr. Lincoln for invitations to the various fashionable entertainments to which he has the honor to be invited.

O'BRIEN'S NEW PLAN. A Scheme to Cause Interfering Irish Lords Considerable Trouble.

LONDON, June 30.—William O'Brien is engaged in making arrangements for a new plan of campaign which will keep the few landlords who have decided to keep on fighting their tenants in hot water for many days to come.

The Irish Editor Again Arrested.

CORK, June 30.—The government's proclamation forbidding the holding of a Nationalists' meeting here to-day, was disregarded, scattered meetings being held at several places in this city and vicinity.

The result was that William O'Brien, M. P., and others who spoke, were arrested, after the arrest of Mr. O'Brien.

Salisbury Sends a Sharp Note to Portugal concerning the Delagoa Bay Railway.

LONDON, June 30.—The Cabinet yesterday discussed the troubles at Delagoa bay, and formulated a sharp note to Portugal. Lord Salisbury will not tamely submit to the high-handed manner in which Portugal has undertaken to deal with British capitalists.

Twenty-Five Saloon-Keepers Arrested.

CINCINNATI, June 30.—Twenty-five saloon-keepers were arrested to-day for violating the Sunday-closing law.

The Boston Limited Accident.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 30.—In addition to the injured in yesterday's accident to the Boston limited express, whose names were reported last night, are Mrs. O. C. Hutchins and son, of Worcester, Mass.

or anything else, so long as the road is finished. Salisbury has appeased the British investors by sending to Delagoa bay a note which was criticized, since it could not be made, and seems disposed to embrace the opportunity to redeem himself from criticism on his east African policy last winter.

This is one of those cases which Lord Palmerston, who delighted to have the opportunity of bullying small governments, would have settled in short order.

Portugal Willing to Arbitrate. LISBON, June 30.—It is rumored that the Portuguese government will agree to submit the Delagoa bay railroad question to arbitration.

FRONTIER FORTS. How France is Strengthening Them Along the German Line—New Plan of Defense.

PARIS, June 30.—Military critics who have made a tour of France since the opening of the Paris Exposition express surprise at the rapid and formidable changes that have been made in the land defenses of France under the present administration.

An English Turf Scandal in Which Members of the Nobility Have Disgraced Themselves. LONDON, June 30.—The decision of the arbitrator in the Lord Durham-Sir George Chetwynd turf-scandal matter confirms the utmost general surmise that there has for a long time existed, a powerful jockey ring which is now under the control of Jockey Wood, and was formerly engineered by the famous Archer.

THE CRONIN CONSPIRACY. Grand Jurors Believe the Right Men Have Been Indicted—The Coming Trial.

CHICAGO, June 30.—Foreman Clough of the grand jury, which closed its labors in the Cronin case yesterday, said to-day that a more damnable conspiracy was never conceived and executed.

BLOODY STREET RIOT. Three Men Killed and Several Wounded in a Factional Fight in Missouri.

GLASGOW, Mo., June 30.—A riot between two factions, numbering about twenty persons, occurred in the streets of Glasgow yesterday afternoon.

Monument Dedicated at Gettysburg.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., June 30.—The monument to the sixty-first New York Infantry Regiment was dedicated this afternoon.

Used Kerosene Was the Usual Fuel.

CLEVELAND, June 30.—Mrs. Catherine Arnold, an aged woman living at No. 51 Woodbine street, was burned to death this morning while trying to start a fire with kerosene.

RETRIBUTIVE JUSTICE. A Railway Accident and the Part It Played in Punishing an Unfaithful Husband.

NASHVILLE, June 30.—A special to the American from Bransford, Tenn., says: Some very sensational developments have come to light in regard to Hiram Crabtree, one of the injured passengers in the wreck on the Chesapeake & Nashville railroad, near this place, last Wednesday.

Hiram Crabtree lives with his wife and three children near Lafayette, Tenn. Hiram's life has been somewhat wayward for the last three years. One Mrs. Claiborne resided near Hiram's abode, with her three children of doubtful parentage.

Hiram's injuries are slight, though he is bruised somewhat, and, with a few scratches, he is able to travel.

SITTING BULL MAKING TROUBLE. Blocking the Path of the Sioux Commissioners—His Misdemeanor Assisted.

ST. PAUL, June 30.—A somewhat uncertain but decidedly powerful influence yet to be met by the Sioux commissioners is Sitting Bull, and the wild old warrior seems to have been quietly scheming to block the work of the commissioners.

THE PENSION BUREAU. Commissioner Tanner's Method of Treating Debtor and Creditor Winning Encomiums.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The flood of abuse, which has met Commissioner Tanner at every turn in the Democratic newspapers, recently, seems to have subsided to some extent within the past few days.

DOESN'T BELIEVE IN RED TAPE. An Official Who Brushes Aside Technicalities and Has No Place for Democrats.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Assistant Secretary Chandler, of the Interior Department, is a Republican without faults.

Why the Usual Jury Increase of Employers Cannot Be Made This Year.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Usually at the beginning of a new fiscal year there are a great many additions to the list of clerks and other employees of the government.

QUARTERS FOR POST OFFICES. Difficulty in Securing Suitable Locations for Want of Money to Pay Them.

An Instance of How Parsimonious Commissioners Put the Government in a Disagreeable Position by Their False Economy.

How a Simplification of Pension Bureau Methods Has Facilitated the Work.

Frederick Douglass Not Blaine's First Choice for the Haytian Mission—District Offices—Why Few New Clerks Are Needed.

PARSIMONIOUS ECONOMY. The Trouble Caused by the Meager Appropriations for Rent of Postoffice Buildings.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—One of the greatest annoyances with which the Postmaster-general has to contend is that raised over the rental of buildings for postoffice purposes.

DISTRICT OFFICES. Washingtonians Anxiously Waiting to See Them Filled—A Colored Man's Chance.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Residents of the District of Columbia are anxiously waiting the appointment of the two principal officers of the local service which remain to be named by the President.

Why the Usual Jury Increase of Employers Cannot Be Made This Year.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Usually at the beginning of a new fiscal year there are a great many additions to the list of clerks and other employees of the government.

DOESN'T BELIEVE IN RED TAPE. An Official Who Brushes Aside Technicalities and Has No Place for Democrats.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Assistant Secretary Chandler, of the Interior Department, is a Republican without faults.

Why the Usual Jury Increase of Employers Cannot Be Made This Year.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Usually at the beginning of a new fiscal year there are a great many additions to the list of clerks and other employees of the government.

DOESN'T BELIEVE IN RED TAPE. An Official Who Brushes Aside Technicalities and Has No Place for Democrats.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Assistant Secretary Chandler, of the Interior Department, is a Republican without faults.

Why the Usual Jury Increase of Employers Cannot Be Made This Year.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Usually at the beginning of a new fiscal year there are a great many additions to the list of clerks and other employees of the government.

DOESN'T BELIEVE IN RED TAPE. An Official Who Brushes Aside Technicalities and Has No Place for Democrats.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Assistant Secretary Chandler, of the Interior Department, is a Republican without faults.