THE FUTURE POPE. He Will Probably Be Cardinal Parocchi, the Present Vicar-General of the Vatican. London Daily News.

THE FUTURE POPE. The frequent attacks of illness to which the Pope is now subject have given rise in Rome to many conjectures as to the future Pontiff. A correspondent of the Roma, who appears to be well informed, has written two articles in which, after eliminating some eminent cardinals as impossible, he shows why it is probable that Cardinal Maria Parocchi, the vicar-general, a man of rank, a lawyer, and a comparatively young, having been born in 1828, is likely to become the successor of Pope Leo XIII.

George Francis Train in Trouble. BOSTON, Sept. 24.—George Francis Train was arrested at noon today in his room at the Tremont House, and is now in custody of Deputy Sheriff Fitzpatrick. He was arrested on a writ returned by C. M. Spiller on a judgment note for $1,000. Spiller belongs to Toledo, Mo. Train says that in 1872 he guaranteed $70 for John A. Ladd, editor of the Toledo Sun, to buy type for a printing press. Ladd was unable to do so, and Train was held liable for the amount, and simply asked him to guarantee it. Spiller, Train made his way to Toledo, and advanced some of the money. In 1876 he got judgment against Train in Toledo for $100, and four years later wanted to settle, so Train says, as a Bishop of Toledo, he got the work and had paid it all. Spiller then got judgment

THE WANE OF BOULANGISM

Leaders of the Party Much Discouraged at the Result of Sunday's Elections.

The General, However, Has Not Lost Hope, and Thinks the Time Will Come When the Country Will Call Him Back to Power.

Boulangier and Rochefort to Be Barred from the Deputies if Re-Elected.

Peculiarities of the Mexican Volcano of Colima.—A Charge of Dynamite That Was Evidently Intended for the Czar of Russia.

BOULANGIER'S DEFEAT. His Party Much Discouraged at the Result of Sunday's Elections in France.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—General Boulanger and his adherents, although keeping up appearances, are much discouraged by the steadiness of the Republican feeling in France as revealed last Sunday. They do not seek publicity, and submit to only such interviews as are unavoidable.

Spain Demands Reparation from Morocco. MADRID, Sept. 24.—A long conference was held today between the Minister of War and Minister of Foreign Affairs concerning the firing upon the Spanish gun-boat Corralillo by Rifians on the Moroccan coast.

The Catholic University Schemes. DUBLIN, Sept. 24.—Mr. Timothy M. Healy, presiding at a meeting of the National League here today, said that Mr. Balfour's renunciation of the Catholic University scheme was a bitter blow to those who sought to consolidate the power of England at the Vatican against the Irish Nationalists.

Whereabouts of Rev. Burfield. LONDON, Sept. 24.—The Star says that Rev. Mr. Burfield, who recently disappeared in a mysterious manner, sailed on the steamer Sardinian, which left Liverpool on Aug. 29 for Montreal, and which arrived at the latter place on Sept. 8.

Mr. Edison's Illness. LONDON, Sept. 24.—Mr. Edison's illness is likely to cause more disappointment to others than suffering to himself. There is a great rush to see and greet the famous inventor, and the canceling of receptions and banquets will interfere sadly with the public's eagerness to see him.

An Angry Monarch. VIENNA, Sept. 24.—On arriving at Monor, Hungary, today, Emperor Francis Joseph, thanked the people cordially for their welcome, and he referred almost angrily to an article in the Nord, Paris daily, which, under an insult was offered to Austria and her flag.

partly to Cardinal Rampollo del Tindaro and partly to Lucido Maria Parocchi, who soon made his influence felt.

At present the organization of the church is in his hands. An inflexible legion of priests depends on his nod. Even the underlings fear him, and if he protest he suspends them. In the eventuality of a conclave the vicar-general enjoys perfect impunity. He will try to attract to himself all the appointments and honors that the Sacred College, the "black" party among the cardinals, who already consider his election certain.

Sympathy for the Pope. MUNICH, Sept. 24.—Six thousand Catholics, meeting to-day, adopted resolutions expressing sympathy with the Pope in his difficult and unpleasant position, and favoring the restoration of temporal power as the only remedy for his grievances.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS. Probable Attempt to Blow Up the Czar with Dynamite.—A Premature Explosion. LONDON, Sept. 24.—A story reaches here from St. Petersburg, which appears to be credible authority, that just previously to the Czar's departure for Copenhagen a chest of dynamite exploded at the Peterhof station. The station was badly wrecked and a railway signal-man was killed.

A FAIR GIRL HORSE-THIEF.

Carer of a Young Adventurer Who Stole Simply for the Love of Excitement.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 24.—There is now in progress here a trial, begun yesterday, of a seventeen-year-old girl, named Etta Robinson, whose life has for the past six months been full of sensations. The charge against her is horse-stealing, and the circumstances attending the committing of the crime are very romantic.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 24.—The last Legislature of this State passed two laws to regulate elections, the first known as the registration law, and the second as the Dorch bill. The registration law applies to cities of a certain size, includes Memphis, Nashville, Knoxville, and Chattanooga, and two counties—Shelby and Davidson.

ATTACKS ON CIVIL SERVICE

Commissioner Roosevelt Pays His Respects to Those Who Criticize the Law.

He Thinks There is No Danger of Its Repeal by Congress, and that the President Would Veto Any Measure to That Effect.

Newspaper Charges Against Commandant Brown, of the Norfolk Navy-Yard.

Destitute American Cattle Men in England.—School-Land Decision.—Pension Commission.—The President's Wet Trip.

THE CIVIL-SERVICE LAW. Mr. Roosevelt Thinks It Has Come to Stay, Despite Attacks Against It.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—This morning's Post had another caustic editorial from the pen of ex-Postmaster-general Frank Hatton, on civil-service reform. If followed the same general line of previous emanations, charging Commissioner Lyman with appointing and promoting a brother-in-law to a place under the commission, while he (Lyman) was the only commissioner, and doing it without an examination. It also intimated that the commission was inclined to evade the law, and that the letter and the spirit of the law in making its own appointments. The article was very cleverly written, and, like others on the same subject, attracted much attention.

Commenting on these criticisms this afternoon Mr. Roosevelt said: "They come from three classes of men. Those who cannot get office, and probably could not anyhow, comfort themselves by attacking civil-service reform. Those whose political capacity for peddling political patronage are, of course, opposed to it. The other class is composed of dull people, deluded by the other two."

"No, for if there is any danger of a repeal of the law, the President's veto would prevent this. The President would certainly veto any act repealing the law, and the possibility could the opposition get strength
