

BOYS AND CHILDREN.

In Children's and Boys' Suits we show a wonderful array of novelties. Fashionable styles and select fabrics at low prices.

A Base-Ball Outfit or some other nice present with every Child's or Man's Suit sold.

ORIGINAL EAGLE

5 & 7 West Washington St.

MURPHY, HIBBEN & CO

(AT WHOLESALE ONLY.)

SPECIAL OFFERING HOUSEKEEPING LINENS

As recently noted in this paper, we have paid over $700 duties on direct importations. Table Linens, Crashes, Towels, Napkins, comprising many novelties and all leading staples, at lower prices than ever before offered in this market.

100 CASES FANCY STANDARD PRINTS 100 CASES SHIRTING PRINTS. 50 CASES DRESS STYLE GINGHAMS.

At a material reduction from prevailing quotations. Lowest Prices always a certainty.

Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis.

BIG 4

By the recent acquisition to the Big Four system of the C. I. & W. railway (now called Peoria division of C. C. & St. L. railway) the only through car service to the Missouri river and points beyond is added to its perfect equipment. On the 7:45 a. m. train from Indianapolis is attached a through car to Lincoln, Neb., and by merely stepping from one coach to another on same train the passenger can resume his route to all western Nebraska points and also to Denver without dimming the lustre of the polish imparted to his shoe-leather at Indianapolis by contact with the soil of any of the great States through which he travels.

Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton R. R.

"The Pullman Vestibule Line"

INDIANAPOLIS and CINCINNATI

This road, always foremost to provide for the safety, convenience and comfort of the public, have in their Pullman Vestibule Trains a service which is acknowledged to be the "finest on wheels" and a trial to convince you of the fact. The first-class coaches, smoking parlor and sleeping-cars are the most luxurious ever constructed by the Pullman Company. The dining cars, with a menu that would make the leading hotels envious, must be seen to be appreciated. Cars are attached to the trains, leaving Indianapolis at 4:10 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. For tickets and other matters apply at company offices, No. 1 East Washington street, No. 138 South Illinois street and Union station.

NO MORE DIVINE REVELATIONS.

President Woodruff, of the Mormon Church, Throws a Bomb Into the Camps of the Saints.

SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., March 5.—At the sixtieth annual conference of the Church of Latter-day Saints, which began yesterday, five thousand persons were in attendance, representing branches of the Mormon Church all over the country. President Woodruff, the head of the church, said in his opening address that the day of revelations had ended. God had revealed enough of the mysteries for people to seek salvation, and there was no need of looking for more divine utterances.

The statement was a bomb-shell in the camp of the Mormons, who had hitherto contended that all action of the church was dictated by revelation from the prophet, which is Woodruff. Other speakers followed in the same strain and urged strict compliance with the laws of the church. A leading Mormon said yesterday that it was expected that Woodruff would, before the close of the conference, assert that he had a revelation from God that polygamy should be abandoned.

Four Men Buried in a Land-Slide. TROY, N. Y., April 6.—A big land-slide has occurred on the West Shore road east of Saint Johnsville, at DeWittville hill. Both tracks are blocked. An east-bound freight train ran into it. Engineer Potter and three other train men were buried in the slide. The slide occurred about 9 p. m. At a late hour tonight the four victims were exhumed from the debris. None were killed. Engineer E. S. Potter and fireman Gorman were seriously injured. Two other trainmen were badly hurt. Gorman may die.

Baby Accidentally Hanged. WICHITA, Kan., April 6.—When the wife of Rev. Thomas Cefton returned home from church to-day she found her daughter, one year old, hanging by the neck from a hammock. The child had been stretched by the side of the bed in which the nurse had left the baby asleep. It is supposed the little one attempted to crawl into the hammock, and in doing so its head slipped between two of the strands, and it was choked to death.

Fatal Fall from a Window. MONROE, N. B., April 6.—Judge Botsford fainted and fell backwards through the second-story window in the Moncton Club last evening, and sustained internal injuries which resulted in death to-day. He was seventy-seven years of age, and the pioneer member of Royal Arch Masons, belonging to the lodge bearing his name.

YOU'LL NEED IT

If not to-day, then S'M OTHER DAY.

Goodyear's Brighton and Derby GOSSAMER COATS

For boys and men, regular prices $2 and $3, for

$1, MONDAY ONLY.

And then, remember to-day and tomorrow, 1,000 Short Pants for $1, that are worth $3, $3 and $4. Don't lose your chance.

THE WHEN

MURPHY, HIBBEN & CO

(AT WHOLESALE ONLY.)

SPECIAL OFFERING HOUSEKEEPING LINENS

As recently noted in this paper, we have paid over $700 duties on direct importations. Table Linens, Crashes, Towels, Napkins, comprising many novelties and all leading staples, at lower prices than ever before offered in this market.

100 CASES FANCY STANDARD PRINTS 100 CASES SHIRTING PRINTS. 50 CASES DRESS STYLE GINGHAMS.

At a material reduction from prevailing quotations. Lowest Prices always a certainty.

Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis.

BIG 4

By the recent acquisition to the Big Four system of the C. I. & W. railway (now called Peoria division of C. C. & St. L. railway) the only through car service to the Missouri river and points beyond is added to its perfect equipment. On the 7:45 a. m. train from Indianapolis is attached a through car to Lincoln, Neb., and by merely stepping from one coach to another on same train the passenger can resume his route to all western Nebraska points and also to Denver without dimming the lustre of the polish imparted to his shoe-leather at Indianapolis by contact with the soil of any of the great States through which he travels.

Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton R. R.

"The Pullman Vestibule Line"

INDIANAPOLIS and CINCINNATI

This road, always foremost to provide for the safety, convenience and comfort of the public, have in their Pullman Vestibule Trains a service which is acknowledged to be the "finest on wheels" and a trial to convince you of the fact. The first-class coaches, smoking parlor and sleeping-cars are the most luxurious ever constructed by the Pullman Company. The dining cars, with a menu that would make the leading hotels envious, must be seen to be appreciated. Cars are attached to the trains, leaving Indianapolis at 4:10 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. For tickets and other matters apply at company offices, No. 1 East Washington street, No. 138 South Illinois street and Union station.

NO MORE DIVINE REVELATIONS.

President Woodruff, of the Mormon Church, Throws a Bomb Into the Camps of the Saints.

SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., March 5.—At the sixtieth annual conference of the Church of Latter-day Saints, which began yesterday, five thousand persons were in attendance, representing branches of the Mormon Church all over the country. President Woodruff, the head of the church, said in his opening address that the day of revelations had ended. God had revealed enough of the mysteries for people to seek salvation, and there was no need of looking for more divine utterances.

The statement was a bomb-shell in the camp of the Mormons, who had hitherto contended that all action of the church was dictated by revelation from the prophet, which is Woodruff. Other speakers followed in the same strain and urged strict compliance with the laws of the church. A leading Mormon said yesterday that it was expected that Woodruff would, before the close of the conference, assert that he had a revelation from God that polygamy should be abandoned.

Four Men Buried in a Land-Slide. TROY, N. Y., April 6.—A big land-slide has occurred on the West Shore road east of Saint Johnsville, at DeWittville hill. Both tracks are blocked. An east-bound freight train ran into it. Engineer Potter and three other train men were buried in the slide. The slide occurred about 9 p. m. At a late hour tonight the four victims were exhumed from the debris. None were killed. Engineer E. S. Potter and fireman Gorman were seriously injured. Two other trainmen were badly hurt. Gorman may die.

Baby Accidentally Hanged. WICHITA, Kan., April 6.—When the wife of Rev. Thomas Cefton returned home from church to-day she found her daughter, one year old, hanging by the neck from a hammock. The child had been stretched by the side of the bed in which the nurse had left the baby asleep. It is supposed the little one attempted to crawl into the hammock, and in doing so its head slipped between two of the strands, and it was choked to death.

Fatal Fall from a Window. MONROE, N. B., April 6.—Judge Botsford fainted and fell backwards through the second-story window in the Moncton Club last evening, and sustained internal injuries which resulted in death to-day. He was seventy-seven years of age, and the pioneer member of Royal Arch Masons, belonging to the lodge bearing his name.

SERVANT GIRL'S QUEER STORY

Mamie Starr's Explanation of How She Came to Purchase "Rough on Rats."

Her Arrest for Poisoning the Newland Family and Remarkable Coolness Under a Rigid Examination by the Chicago Police.

Says the Poison Was Intended for Herself, and Was Not Put in the Food.

Conductor Killed by Tramps at Lima, O.—Several Persons Stabbed at New York in a Row Growing out of "Rushing the Growler."

MAMIE STARR'S STORY.

Admits She Bought Poison, but Did Not Put it in the Newland Family's Food.

CHICAGO, April 6.—A champion storyteller is in jail here, in the person of the woman, Mamie Starr, who cooked the corn that poisoned to death Mr. and Mrs. Newland, by whom she was employed. The prisoner's narrative that she had a sister who was a perfect image of her was startling in its ingenious detail, but her latest explanation, the most sensational yet advanced, is that she bought the Rough on Rats at the drug-store, intending to kill herself, and afterwards threw it away without once opening the box. When Chief-of-police Marsh and his assistants locked the girl up, last night, she had positively denied all connection with the poisoning. More singular than this, she had denied that she was ever at the Anchorage Mission, the institution from which the Newland family secured her as a servant. She also denied ever being at the residence of the Newlands, and maintained, in spite of the fact that a dozen persons identified her, that her sister must have been the girl who prepared the fatal dish.

A circumstance that greatly strengthened the girl's story was that she was taken before Dr. Rogers, the druggist who sold the poison. Dr. Rogers looked her over carefully in all possible lights, and his conclusions were decidedly favorable. Finally he said: "She is not the girl who bought the Rough on Rats. I am just as sure of that fact as I am of the fact that I am alive. The girl who came in for that poison looked very cool and collected, and I concluded as soon as I saw her that it would be perfectly safe to trust her with the stuff. She said she wanted it to kill rats with, and remarked that she would have to be very careful to keep her little brother from getting hold of it. She was older than this girl, and better dressed than this girl."

"Can it not be possible that you are mistaken?" asked Chief Marsh.

"No, sir, it cannot be possible. I have surely got hold of an innocent girl. I am sure that this girl never was in my store before." The officers went away puzzled. Early this morning Chief Marsh and Inspector Hunt entered upon a house-to-house canvass to find if any one in the neighborhood had purchased Rough on Rats at Dr. Rogers' store. Of course I was in. He kept it at all day. Every house within a mile of the store was visited, and nobody was found who had bought poison for the purpose of killing rats with the druggist's description. However, a man was found who had seen the girl enter the drug store and the girl's name, Mamie Starr, was given. Finally the Chief and his companion drove into the city, convinced that druggist Rogers was either intentionally or unintentionally mistaken. The girl was brought up from the cell where she had been confined, and taken into the presence of Chief Marsh, Inspector Hunt, Captain Leland and a number of other officers. "Mamie," commented the Chief, "why did you tell me you were not in that drug store?" "Surely I never said anything of that kind," said the girl, and her eyes rolled wildly.

"Of course I was in the drug store. I went there and bought the box of poison. I paid 15 cents for it and wanted for some gun. I had just a quarter."

"Why, you told us last night that you had never seen the girl who bought the poison, and you had never seen the Newlands, that you were never in the Anchorage Mission, and a dozen other things."

"Impossible, you must have misunderstood me. Of course I was in. I was very despondent and did not want to live any longer. You know I have often been despondent, and I would like to kill myself. Chicago two years ago. So I went to the store for the poison, and thought I would take it while the family were asleep that night, when I went to get the poison and rolled it up in my apron, and then went away. I was very much excited at the time, but I remember that I threw the box into the water, and then I hid them up tight and threw the package over a fence. I am sure I don't know just where it was, but probably I could find it if I had had a chance."

"This is altogether a different story from the one you told yesterday," remarked Inspector Hunt.

"I never heard of a case similar to this one," said Chief Marsh. "I saw a new prisoner so self-possessed and cool when under arrest for a serious crime. I do not know whether the members of the family were poisoned by Rough on Rats or by some other substance in the corn. I am sure that the girl had no possible motive to poison them, and that she had taken them some other way."

FIGHT WITH TRAMPS.

Conductor Fatally Shot While Trying to Eject Six Men from a Box-Car.

LIMA, O., April 6.—As the third section of freight train No. 98, east bound, on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago road, was coming to Long Side-track, a half mile west of this city, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, conductor Gardner J. Tuckey noticed six tramps getting into a box car of the train. He ordered them to leave the train and to get out lively. One of the tramps said to him: "You will be the first man to get out." At this moment Tuckey grappled with the man, when one of his companions discharged a gun into the car. The train was moving during the occurrence, and had reached the main street-crossing. The target man, hearing the report of the revolver, ran to the conductor and endeavored to get into the car to aid him. But in trying to get hold of the stick Tuckey was shoved off the conductor to the ground. At the same time the tramps jumped out the door on the north side of the train. Tuckey climbed over the train, and as he alighted on the opposite side one of the gang produced a revolver, which he fired at Tuckey. The other two others caught him, holding each of his arms so that he was powerless to defend himself. Then another one of them placed a thirty-eight-caliber revolver at the conductor's left side and fired, the ball taking effect in the region but a little below the heart. The tramps then started to run north on Main street. Tuckey bravely started in pursuit, but soon fell exhausted from loss of blood. The number of men on foot at the time who would have given the conductor or his assistance, but they could not cross over the track as the train blocked their way. They were forced to retreat to the nearest drug store, where he received medical assistance. The doctors declared that the wound will prove fatal.

The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was created by the shooting, many large crowds gathered at the jail, ready to hang the tramp on sight, but cooler judgment prevailed. Tuckey was removed to the Bureau House, and his automobile was repaired. The police went in search of the tramps, and arrested four of them, after a lively chase of about three miles out of the city. They were identified by Tuckey, one of them as the man who fired the shot. The man was examined, and a thirty-eight-caliber revolver, with one empty chamber, was found on his person. Intense excitement was