Amos Lawson Fatally Stabs His Twin Brother John at Edwardsport.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

VINCENNES, May 9.—Last night at Edwardsport John and Amos Lawson, twin brothers, enacted a tragedy that will always be deplored. Amos was standing on the steps of Steff's store in Edwardsport and his twin brother John came up. Bad feeling existed between them, and after a word or two of recrimination Amos leaped off the steps with a murderous-looking knife, and before his movement was understood by the two or three who stood near he plunged the knife into the back of the side of John. Amos went out to his home, and Dr. Curran was called to dress the wounds of the bleeding and injured man, which, no doubt, will prove fatal.

The matter was purely a family affair, and the feeling was most intense. The difficulty started at the April election, when it is alleged that John offered Amos $1 to vote the Republican ticket. While they are twin brothers, John is a Republican and Amos a Democrat. Amos refused to vote the ticket, and that led to a difference between them. Amos is a married man, and John, the wounded brother, is a widower. This morning Amos was tried before Judge Albert Lea, and failing to give a bond, he was brought to this city and placed in jail, where he awaits the action of the court.

Iowa Aerolite Owned by a Hoosier.

GREENSBURG, May 9.—John Goddard, sr., of this county, owns the tract of land in Winnebago county, in northern Iowa, near the Minnesota line, upon which, last Friday a week ago, when a meteoric storm of considerable importance passed over that section, and a meteorite or aerolite, weighing from fifty to seventy-five pounds, fell from the sky, and was found by the owner of the land on which it fell, who obtained several thousand dollars for it, and it is now in England.

"Coal Oil Johnny" Fatally Hurt.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BRAZIL, May 9.—Nathan Jefferson Williams, Capt. Robert Campbell's "Coal Oil Johnny," who was released by Judge Sullivan of Indianapolis, and permitted to return to Brazil, on Wednesday, has just met with what may prove to be a fatal accident. While attempting to board a moving engine on the Chicago & Indiana coal road, at an early hour this morning, he fell under the wheels and lost a leg and an arm. It is fully expected that he will die. Capt. Campbell, by the way, must be a prominent member of the Amosias Club, or else he has struck a prominent member. Williams received not to exceed $500 from his father's estate, and not $300,000, as stated in one of the Indianapolis papers. The "astounding figure" by which he became dispossessed of so much of a fortune, is the career of Bill Nye's hero, who, "after a long and continuous course of profligacy," spent his $100,000 on a large farm, just west of Brazil, at Williams's expense, and he realized considerable royalty from coal, but not nearly so much as represented.

Jail Delivery at Crawfordsville.

CHAMBERSDALE, May 9.—Three prisoners, James Hogan, Frank Kelly and Mat Lynce, escaped from the jail last evening about 8 o'clock. The wife of Sheriff McClary heard a noise in the corridor, and going in to investigate, noticed that the outside bolt to the cell-corridor door was out, and these three prisoners were standing at the iron-grating door. As she walked toward the door to put the pin back, the men pushed open the door, and rushing past her into the kitchen, they escaped. They were in jail on the charge of burglarizing the store of a grocery. As they had no money, they had to get out of jail by some means, and with this wire passed through the hole, the pin was worked out. When the men were not at work drilling the hole, they were at work on the pin, and it could not be noticed. The men are still at large.

Bowen Acquitted.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENCASTLE, May 9.—The jury in the Bowen murder case came into court this morning with a verdict of not guilty. It is learned that they stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction when the first ballot was taken; the second ballot stood ten to two, and at 11 o'clock last night they reached an acquittal. They remained all night, the court having given instructions to that effect. When the verdict was read there was a great display of applause, which met with a rebuke from the court, and then the prisoner went forward and thanked the jury, taking each man by the hand.

The Marion Gas Trouble.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MARION, May 9.—The legal fight between the new board of directors of the Citizens Gas Company and John D. Oakford for possession of the Citizens Gas Company's plant has been inaugurated. The new board filed suit to replevin the books, accounts, stock certificates, tools, etc., also to make damages in the sum of $500 for loss of the property. On the other side the State's attorney, C. M. Ratliff, backed by the attorneys of the plant, has filed a quo warranto proceeding. The complaint charges that the Citizens Gas Company has not complied with the law governing corporations, and asks that the corporation be dissolved and its assets sold. The quo warranto was filed May 19, and the quo warranto case will be heard May 20, and the quo warranto case will be heard May 20.
