Base-Ball Notes. Reeder returned to Cincinnati last night, after a highly unsatisfactory career here.

Charles Gray, late of the Pittsburg National League team, will pitch for the Grand Avenue in the Brighton Beach game to-day.

Since the Evansville were here last they have released Kirby, and are playing Lauer regularly at third. This increases their batting strength, and they are reaching for the pennant in a way that will land them safe before many days.

Weihl, the first baseman of the Indianapolis club, is in demand, and since the club has a club in the Interstate League, however, Weihl will be a member of it.

The Pittsburg League club is in financial distress once more, and threatened with any number of suits by creditors who are tired waiting for the money to reach home in time to play to-morrow with Buffalo.

Suburban Notes. The citizens of West Indianapolis are preparing a petition to be presented to Postmaster Wallace praying for an extension of the free delivery of mail to the residents on Reiser, Harding, Morris, Miller, Martha, Lee, Shepherd, Belmont, North Williams, Lambert, Howard, Kappas, Hiatt and McLean streets.

A movement is on foot in West Indianapolis to secure a large public park. George S. Smith has been appointed marshal by the Hawthill trustees to fill the place of a hatched patrolman who was killed. Much dissatisfaction exists over the appointment, as it was expected Andrew Moore, who was in his spurs in defending Dillon during the row in which he shot and received his fatal wound, would get the office. Moore presented a petition, signed by a large number of citizens asking his appointment, but the board took no notice of it.

Wilson's Head-Neck Driving. Highland Wilson, a house painter, was arrested by Sergeant Lowe and Captain Spinn last night, on Washington street, and slated for fast driving and drunkenness. He was making his third dash on this street at full speed, when caught, and had attracted a great crowd. His buggy struck a plowman near Tennessee street, in which Mr. George Smith, of No. 773 North Delaware street, and a lady were riding, and damaged it to a considerable extent.

Will Make a Slight Change. Sculptor Park is not satisfied with the pose of the statue on the Hendricks monument. The statue needs to be slightly tilted forward to give the proper effect, and he will have the change made. This, of course, will be done without any change in the pedestal, but it will be necessary to erect scaffolding to get at the figure.

Good-Bye to Professor Barus. The Mennerchor Society had a rehearsal last evening at the residence of Professor Barus, its director, on East street, near Michigan. It was an outdoor affair, the beautiful garden of the Professor being enriched by lights from many Chinese lanterns. In the intervals of singing speeches were made complimentary of the director, and in which many well wishes were expressed for his safe journey to Europe. Important Point Raised Regarding the Extradition of Criminals.

Testimony Closed in the Smeltzer-Ladd Murder Case—Cause for a Desperate's Tears—Hunting for Mythical Estates.

INDIANA

Important Legal Question Raised in the Effort to Extradite Alfred Post.

TERRE HAUTE, July 3.—Judge Mack, of the Circuit Court, said this afternoon that he would discharge Alfred Post, if it were shown that he was in Indiana on June 1, the day fixed in the Chicago indictment charging him with embezzlement.

When the writ of extradition was placed before Governor Hovey to-day there was argument on both sides, but the Governor decided to issue his warrant, which was brought here this afternoon. Attorney Riddle, and his attorney, Caldwell, came over from Indianapolis, and were referred here by Judge Davis and Mr. Harry Baker. When Post was taken before Judge Mack for identification, his attorneys raised the point that under a recent law of this State in the matter of extradition warrants, if it could be shown that the alleged fugitive from justice was in this State at the time the crime is alleged to have been committed in another State, his release must follow.

The Chicago people strenuously opposed this position, and argued that all indictments were drawn to cover two or three years, the specific time being until Monday, and said he would decide on that to-morrow. It is not expected that he will grant the continuance, and it is expected that he will discharge Post. Riddle and Caldwell left for Chicago to-night, saying they did not know what the next step would be.

Closing of the Smeltzer Trial. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MUNCIE, July 3.—In the Smeltzer-Ladd murder trial the cross-examination of Henry Rozell was continued and closed without any new facts being brought out. Mr. A. D. Ogborn, the stenographer of the Henry Circuit Court, read the former testimony of Job Drake, that witness being unable to attend. Mr. Drake testified as to the shooting affray between Ladd and Bill Rozell at the Bundy House; heard William Rozell say to Eli Ladd, who was then in the Bundy House, "Come out and I'll get you."

With the reading of the testimony of Mr. Sees, before the coroner, showing some difference in the language used by the witness at the time and the present, the defendant rested his case. The State then called in rebuttal Clayton Evans, the colored boy who was with Ladd both at the murder of the morning of the day he was killed; witness testified fully as to the occurrence at the Bundy House in the afternoon, the evidence on behalf of the State, in rebuttal, developed no new points in the case, being directed more particularly to the affray at the Bundy House between Bill Rozell and Ladd. The rest of the afternoon the cross-examination was begun. Court will not adjourn to-morrow.

GREENFIELD, July 3.—The remains of Will S. Hammel and his wife, who, by the explosion of a gasoline stove, were burned to death at their home in Hutchinson, Kan. last Friday, arrived in this city on the 5:30 train yesterday morning and were met by a large concourse of people. The remains were immediately conveyed to the home of Mr. Frank Hammel, and during the forenoon they were viewed by hundreds of sympathizing friends.

The funeral services were in charge of the Masonic fraternity and the order of the Eastern Star, and were conducted at the M. E. Church at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Revs. J. K. Walts, of the M. E. Church, J. P. Hutchinson, of the Presbyterian Church, and E. W. Thompson, of the Baptist Church, participating. The Way Chivalrous Works. Writer in Cincinnati Enquirer.

Hydrate of chloral is a very tricky medicine. The first time you take it for insomnia the modest little dose gives you sleep as soft and sweet and natural, as that of a healthy child, and you wake clear-minded, vigorous, and without any "after effects." So with gradually diminishing efficiency the drug works through succeeding experiments; but by and by you find that to produce sleep you must steadily increase the dose. And then, of a sudden, and without warning, the mysterious fluid seems to reassert over the constitution its pristine power, and the greatly increased dose puts you so soundly to sleep that you never awaken in this world.

As to Influence. If you think you have no influence, stop and look into a store window, and see how many others will soon be standing around you.
