Enthusiastic Conventions Held by Minnesota and Nebraska Republicans. President Harrison's Administration and the Work of Congress Heartily Indorsed—Points from the Platforms—The Tickets.

St. Paul, Minn., July 24.—The Republicans of Minnesota met here to-day and held an enthusiastic State convention. After disposing of preliminary business a platform was presented and unanimously adopted. It indorses the State and national administrations, favors reciprocity with South America, claims that the high-license system of the State of Minnesota is the best means of controlling the liquor traffic yet adopted, favors the exclusion of undesirable immigrants, favors the reduction of the rate of interest on money, indorses the introduction of the manufactory of binding-twine into the State prison, denounces all monopolies and trusts and advocates the placing on the free list of any commodities that may at any time become the subjects thereof, favors the extension of interstate-commerce of common-carriers, pledges the party to secure the taxes that will free the people from the vexatious and exactions of monopolies, and particularly to secure the reduction of rates on grain, lumber and coal; approves the Australian ballot system for the whole State, recognizes the services of the soldier, and indorses the stability pension law introduced and championed by Senator Davis; favors free text-books in the public schools, and firmly opposes any federal legislation to restrict the competition of Canadian with domestic commerce-carriers.

Nominations for Governor being in order, the names of W. E. Merriam, present incumbent, W. W. Braden, present State Auditor, and ex-Congressman Knute Nelson were presented. The first ballot resulted: Merriam, 100; Braden, 100; Nelson, 34. Previous to that vote there had been a long fight as to the manner of holding the election for the candidates named, some favoring a secret ballot, others a public one. The delegations to be polled and the result announced by the chairman. The latter won by a vote of 287 to 171. Governor Merriam was brought to the convention by a committee appointed for the purpose, and made a brief speech of thanks, in which he stated the grounds for his belief in the success of the party, and then chosen him for the head position on its ticket. The ticket was completed as follows: For Lieutenant-governor, Senator G. S. Merriam; for Secretary of State, Joseph Bobbitt, by acclamation; Secretary of State, T. P. Brown, of Fairbault county; State Auditor, F. J. McGuire, of Polk county; Attorney-general, Moses E. Clapp, re-nominated; clerk of Supreme Court, C. B. Holcomb, of Washington county.

Platform and Ticket of Nebraska Republicans.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 24.—The platform adopted by the Republican State convention this morning reiterates the principles enunciated in the successive national Republican platforms from 1856 to 1888. It indorses President Harrison's administration; approves national legislation on the silver question; denounces the trusts; indorses the disability pension bill, and declares in favor of a service pension bill. It demands honest elections and favors the Australian ballot system as the means thereto. It opposes the land monopoly and recognizes the right of labor to organize; favors the control of railroads by legislation; demands the enactment of laws defining the liability of employers for injuries sustained by workmen; the just taxation of corporate property; the reduction of freight and passenger rates; the establishment of a system of postal telegraph, and favors the enactment of more stringent usury laws. A resolution indorsing prohibition was tabled, and the platform adopted on that question. The convention adjourned at 10:30 this morning, after placing the following ticket in nomination: For Governor, L. D. Richardson; Lieutenant-governor, George Hummer; Attorney-general, H. Hastings, of Adams county; State Superintendent, A. K. Gawdy, of Webster.

Congressional Nominations. RALEIGH, N. C., July 24.—The Democrats have nominated D. F. Grady, an Alliance man, for Congress in the Third district, and nominated B. H. Bunn in the Fourth district. The Republicans of the Fifth district renominated John M. Brower.

STURM, Miss., July 24.—The Sixth congressional district convention of the Democrats today nominated Hon. T. R. Stockdale to succeed himself in Congress.

STRIKE ON SOUTHERN RAILROADS.

Hundreds of Cars of Perishable Freight Side-tracked Between Lexington and Cincinnati. LEXINGTON, Ky., July 24.—The railroad situation in this city is beginning to assume a serious phase. Tuesday night the switchmen in the Cincinnati Southern yards in this city joined in with the strikers, and no trains were being handled. The men claim that they presented their complaints to the officials of the road some time since, and waited for a reply, which, so far, they have failed to receive. A lot of perishable freight from the South is arriving here by every train, which will cause a considerable loss unless it is transported rapidly. It is said that unless the demands made by the yardmen are met, the roadmen will join with them. Should this prove true, it will be the greatest railroad strike ever known in Kentucky, as all Southern trains are controlled by the roadmen. A few trains were made up, with the assistance of outsiders, and sent out, but the strikers say that green men cannot give satisfaction. Every train that is made up is placed before the railroad company will be that the engineers will refuse to haul freight handled by the "scabs. All the side-tracks last night were filled with awaiting transportation, and as the Southern road has been crowded with freight for some time past, the strike will cause great inconvenience. Every 100 loads of coal are being sent to Cincinnati, a distance of two hundred miles, is crowded with loaded cars, hundreds being filled with perishable freight. The Kentucky Central road is in even worse shape, and last night not a freight train was in motion on either road. The yard contains more than 1000 loaded cars, and have been here a week. Passenger trains are moving as usual and will not be disturbed.

Wages of Santa Fe Trainmen.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 24.—The grievance committee of the trainmen of the Santa Fe system concluded its conference with General Manager Robinson to-day, having agreed upon a schedule of wages which is satisfactory to all persons concerned. By the terms of the agreement passenger conductors for runs of 4,000 miles will be paid $125 per month and brakemen $60 per month. For runs of less than 4,000 miles conductors will receive $100 and brakemen $55 per month. In the freight service conductors will receive $80 and brakemen $35 per month for regular runs, and for irregular service conductors will receive 2 cents and brakemen 3 cents per mile. For the train service conductors will receive $90 and brakemen $60 per month. These rates apply on the main line. The schedule for other divisions of the road is about $5 per month higher.

Strike of Street-Cleaners.

NEW YORK, July 24.—All the drivers of the street-cleaning department joined the strikers this morning and work is almost at a stand-still. About two hundred men are out. Men are being taken on to supply the places of the strikers.

ROMANCE OF A POETESS.

How a New England Writer of Ferrid Rhymes Was Won by a Miner of the Woolly West.

BOSTON, July 24.—Miss Lida Lewis Watson, the New England "Poetess of Passion," is about to be married. She also intends soon to join the Catholic Church. Her collected poems will be published in book form before long. Each of these incidents in the career of the remarkable young woman makes a romantic chapter of itself. The gentleman who is to bestow his name upon the poetess came here last Sunday from the West with a string of cartridges around his waist, a six-shooter in his pocket, which he has since discarded. The marriage will occur next September. The wooing was romantic. Francis Washington Higgins, a miner in the far West, by mistake opened a letter written by the poetess to a friend, glancing at the signature he was surprised to find the name of the poetess. A collection of poems of which he was very fond. A correspondence followed and its result will, with the poetess, be published in book form very soon. The bridegroom-elect is a Southerner by birth and a rich man by reason of Black Hill mines. During the demonstration of Miss Watson's Catholicism, and has applied for admission to the Roman Catholic Church.

Statehood Celebration in Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 24.—The formal celebration of Wyoming's admission to Statehood was observed here yesterday by imposing ceremonies. An immense parade several miles long, consisting of the State militia, civic societies, trade displays and the garrison of United States troops from Fort Russell, marched through the principal streets to the new Capitol building. The presentation speech was by Theresa A. Jenkins, who reviewed the history of woman suffrage in the Territory, and predicted for the movement permanency and success in the future. The response was by Gov. F. E. Warren. M. Brown, president of the constitutional convention which framed the Constitution adopted by Wyoming, presented the women with a copy of the Constitution. It was received by Amelia B. Foster, one of the delegates to the national woman's suffrage association.

Thousands of Dead Fish.

HUNTINGTON, Pa., July 24.—A mysterious disease has been attacking the bluegill and other fish in the Raystown branch, and to-day the banks are lined with dead fish for miles. Thousands of dead bluegills are floating on the water's surface, or are piled up in drifts along its edge. This stream is far-famed for its splendid fishing advantages, but during the past few days it has been depleted of nearly all its fish, numbering many thousands.

CULLINGS FROM THE COURTS.

Wright's Relations to Two Women Dangerous to His Liberty. Before Justice of the Peace Smock yesterday Joseph Wright, who is supposed to have married here while his legal wife was living at Frankfort, was to have been tried. The case, however, was continued until Monday. Both women concerned in the proceedings were in court, Mrs. Wright's appearance being a surprise to the defendant. She was accompanied by her married daughter, who had a babe with her. The woman who, until this trouble began, considered herself Wright's wife, referred in scathing terms to his pretensions and to the fact that the man she trusted is a grandfather. Wright, it is charged, attempted to induce his wife to swear that they had been divorced, promising to marry and live with her again, but the lady promptly declared she would not do so. The other woman is about to secure $1,800, the proceeds of the sale of a farm in this county, and her friends say they believe Wright would get this money and leave her. She told a journal reporter that she was married to Wright by Rev. Kieseling, at her father's house in Anderson. Wright first told her he had never been divorced, and then he said he once had a wife, but was divorced four years before. He afterward reduced the time to one year, and again to one week, since the procurator had dissolved the marriage. Wright went to jail in default of $100 bond, but will probably be arrested today on a charge of bigamy.

Convicted of Various Offenses.

Moses Allen was sent to the penitentiary for one year by Judge Irvin, yesterday, for stealing two hogs from Addison Robson. Moses Reese, for assaulting Leonard S. Page, was given six months in the work-house, and Noah Russell, for assaulting William Wood, was fined $10 and given ten days in the work-house. Harry Buser stole a revolver from John Weathers and received four months in the work-house. P. Brennan, for burglary committed at St. John's Academy, was sent to the penitentiary for two years. William Haley, for assaulting W. W. Lester, was fined $10 and sent to the work-house for sixty days. James McKenney was put on trial, charged with stealing $89 from Mrs. Rebecca McGripp.

Suit Against a Guardian.

Wilhelmina C. A. Feifer brought suit yesterday against William Pfeifer for specific performance of duty. Twenty years ago Carolina Pfeifer died, leaving the defendant, her husband, and the plaintiff, her daughter, sole heirs for $2,000 worth of personal property. The defendant qualified as guardian of Wilhelmina, who now claims a right of refusing to give a lot to her, to which she claims a right.

Notes from the Dockets.

The Circuit Court adjourned yesterday until the opening of the September term. Mayor Sullivan fined Hugh Griffin $10 and Frank Elif was fined by Mayor Sullivan yesterday for selling liquor to Charlie Stenel and Charlie Helzheim, minors. He had to pay $62, including costs. Fred Buchert was fined $1, with costs, yesterday, by Justice of the Peace Smock, in a case of malicious trespass and one of forgery. Buchert let the building of a house on Arizona street to a contractor, Reckstroth, who sub-let the brick-work to R. W. Hartley. Buchert has a dislike for Reckstroth, and when he found that the house was being built on the house used provoking language and going down into the cellar, pulled down the bricks already laid.

THE CARPENTERS RESTLESS.

Violation of the Terms Fixed by Recent Arbitration Considered by Their Council.

The council of the carpenters' unions met last night to consider matters affecting their own branch of labor. The strike of last spring and the settlement effected by arbitration through Mayor Sullivan was the basis of discussion, and the carpenters said they have had considerable trouble ever since with a few of the bosses in holding them in line with the agreement. Some of them were, it was said, constantly infringing on the terms then made, but up to within a week these cases were successfully met. The complaints, however, have become so numerous that some of the bosses, when threatened with a suit, replied that they would not be successfully incorporated, they could not be held liable, collectively or individually. This, the carpenters say, was new ground, and they had to be met. They had been misled. They realized that, as far as the wages per hour, settled in the agreement, they are helpless, but they try to do their best to protect the eight-hour system. They claim that only a few of the contractors have as yet broken the wage schedule, but they foresee a general default, and do not propose to remain idle or suffer more than a temporary defeat.

The council deliberated till a late hour and decided to lay the situation before the executive board of the brotherhood in Philadelphia, with a petition for instructions. The season, the carpenters say, is not without some advantages, favorable to an early and just settlement should a strike be ordered. The building begun in the spring is not so near completion as the previous season. The situation is strained, but until the answer of the executive board is received nothing can be done. This may be delayed, owing to the approaching convention in Chicago Aug. 1, entailing extra work upon the board. The regular routine work and consideration of proposed amendments to the constitution will be considered at the national convention were also before the council last night.
