

FACTS THAT CAN NOT BE DENIED

Unanswerable Speech on the Tariff by Secretary Blaine at South Bend, Ind.

How Protection Has Decreased Prices of Necessaries and Luxuries and Stimulated Business During Twenty-Nine Years.

What Farmers Will Gain When New Markets Are Opened by the Reciprocity Act.

Tribute to the President and Appeal to Hoosiers - Addresses by Speaker Reed in Wisconsin - Speech at Milwaukee at Night.

BLAINE AT SOUTH BEND. Unanswerable Argument in Favor of Protection and Reciprocity - Appeal to Hoosiers.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 29.—The ground was covered with snow and a drizzling rain was falling when the train bearing the Hon. James G. Blaine arrived here, so that there were only a few who ventured out to meet the distinguished visitor.

Mr. Blaine was introduced by Mr. A. L. Brick. The Secretary smiled pleasantly in response to the hearty reception. He said: "There is no subject so continually presented to the people of the United States as the tariff. There is no subject so continuously misrepresented as present in the United States as the tariff."

At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Blaine went to Plymouth, where he met his wife and daughter in their private car en route for Washington.

REED IN WISCONSIN. Speeches at Numerous Places During the Day and an Evening Address at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 29.—Speaker Reed received an ovation in Wisconsin today. He left St. Paul last night, accompanied by Horace Paul and Chairman Payne, and today made brief speeches at Eau Claire, River Falls, Redwood, Baraboo, Madison and Wausau, reaching Milwaukee at 10 o'clock.

"The West is just now receiving the full benefit of the protective tariff. I fear ago, when the exigency of the tariff was started in this country, the Western States were mostly engaged in agriculture. They were almost all farmers. These Western States were their interests lay in the market for their produce. They had the good sense and wisdom to believe that the best market for their produce was the market nearest to them."

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The opening ceremonies in connection with the five-anniversary of Archbishop Feehan's elevation to the episcopacy were held this morning at the Cathedral. About four hundred priests and many church dignitaries were present, and many persons were unable to gain admission to the edifice on account of the overflow of the faithful.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The opening ceremonies in connection with the five-anniversary of Archbishop Feehan's elevation to the episcopacy were held this morning at the Cathedral. About four hundred priests and many church dignitaries were present, and many persons were unable to gain admission to the edifice on account of the overflow of the faithful.

Democracy's Murderous Spirit Exemplified. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Lawrence Roach, Republican, was shot and instantly killed by James J. Allen, Democrat, last night, on Fourth street, near Tehama. The killing was the result of politics.

To the Supreme Court at Once. CINCINNATI, Oct. 29.—The parties to the injunction suit against Mayor Mosby, to prevent him from appointing the members of a new board of city commissioners, have agreed to take the case at once to the Supreme Court for a final settlement.

Democracy's Inefficiency on Reciprocity. "For a time the Republican party was divided. That showed that they were a set of reasoning men. After a while, in due time, the Republicans all became solid for it. When the Democrats were divided on the tariff the Democrats were unanimous for it, but just as soon as the Republicans became unanimous you could not get a Democrat to vote for it at all. [Laughter.] At first the Democratic Senators said: 'Go on; that's all right; we were about six or seven weeks bringing the Republicans to

REVOLT AGAINST CRUELTY

Russian Peasants Up in Arms Against the Brutality of Their Rulers.

Gladstone Bewails the Passage of Our Tariff Law, and Like All Free-Traders, Predicts Discontinuance—The Birchall Case.

THE RUSSIAN OUTBREAK. Uprising of Peasantry Due to Unusual Cruelty of Those in Power.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—A dispatch from Vienna says that the Russian authorities at St. Petersburg and Odessa are making every effort to suppress the circumstances connected with the outbreak of the peasantry in southern Russia. The revolt is said to have originated in the stringent enforcement of the conscription, from which the rich land-holders find ways to escape, and the cruelties fall upon the peasants.

FREE-TRADER GLADSTONE. Like Other Foreigners He Sees Nothing Good in the McKinley Law.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Mr. Gladstone arrived at Dundee to-day and was presented with the freedom of the city. In accepting the honor, Mr. Gladstone made an address, in which he referred to the commerce of the city, which, it was said, was threatened by the adoption of the new tariff bill by the American Congress.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS. The Mysterious "Colonel" with Whom Murderer Birchall Was Intimate.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Inquiries were made at Morely's hotel in Trafalgar square today to ascertain what truth there is in the story from Montreal that Reginald Birchall, now under sentence of death at Wood-Bowling, for the murder of F. C. Bennett, Mrs. Birchall and the "Colonel," the alleged author of the letter received by Birchall in which he killed Bennett, were at the hotel last January. He advised that the hotel show that an American styling himself "Colonel Lewis" arrived there on Jan. 1 and remained until Jan. 24.

Incappable of Governing. THE HAGUE, Oct. 29.—At today's session of the Dutch Parliament, the question regarding the fitness of the King to govern, in view of the condition of his Majesty's health, was put to vote, in accordance with the section of the constitution providing for a declaration by Parliament in the event of the King becoming incapacitated.

Work for Ireland's Destitute. DUBLIN, Oct. 29.—Mr. Balfour has pushed forward the arrangements for the construction of railways in the distressed districts in the west of Ireland. The work of building the roads will furnish employment for a host of laborers besides those living in the distressed districts through which the roads will be built.

Sent to Jail for Contempt. TIPPERARY, Oct. 29.—Among the witnesses called to-day to give evidence for the prosecution in the conspiracy case were Simon Gleeson and Alice Sadler. When questioned by the counsel for the crown, the newly-created witnesses refused to answer the questions, but they still persisted in their refusal. The magistrates thereupon committed them to jail until Friday.

Cable Notes. The steamer Alaska, from New York, for Liverpool, has arrived at Queenstown, Ireland. Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Stanley sailed on the Teutonic from Liverpool yesterday for New York.

The Official Gazette of Spain announces the appointment of Don Juan de la Cruz y Ganes, now Spanish consul-general at New York, to Spanish minister to the United States.

CRIME WITHOUT PARALLEL

Last Act in a Georgia Tragedy That Shocked the Country a Few Years Ago.

Thomas Woolfolk Hanged at Ferry for Braining with an Ax Nine Members of His Father's Household—The Murderer's Motive.

PERRY, Ga., Oct. 29.—Thomas Woolfolk was hanged here at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. His crime was probably unparalleled in this country. Just before dawn on the morning of Aug. 6, 1887, in Hazard's district, Bibb county, some twelve miles from Macon, nine people were brutally murdered by a single assassin.

The scene of the crime was the Woolfolk homestead, an ordinary Southern country farm-house of frame, one story high and with four rooms, two on either side of a central corridor. The dwelling stood facing to the east, on a slight elevation, set back a little way from the public road in a clump of oak trees. The surroundings betokened the home of a well-to-do Southern planter of the better class. It was in this home that Captain Woolfolk and his family were living at the time of the tragedy.

Disbanded Their Lodge. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 29.—The trouble which has existed here for the past few days between the Western Union telegraph operators, who are, or were, members of the newly organized Brotherhood of Telegraphers, and the Western Union company, has been amicably settled.

Will Be No General Federation. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 29.—There will be no general federation of locomotive engineers with brakemen, firemen, conductors and other railroad employes. As stated last week, a majority report favoring federation, presented at the Brotherhood convention in this city, was defeated.

Reached a Satisfactory Agreement. CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The committee of the Rock Island railroad employes that has been in conference with General Manager Smith for some time past, today reached a satisfactory agreement with him. The company defines and restricts the power of foremen and grants the employes an increase in wages.

Sorrowful Affliction Brought on by a Cat. DODGEVILLE, Wis., Oct. 29.—The family of Robert Paul, at Middleton, has been afflicted with diphtheria, which was introduced into the house in a singular manner. About four weeks ago a stray cat came to the house and one of the children handled and played with it. Although it was admitted at the time that it discharged at the nose and mouth, nothing was thought of it until soon after when the little boy was taken down with diphtheria.

Suit Against Republicans Dismissed. NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Referee Louis G. Reeger has filed in the New York Superior Court his report in the case of Hildred & Martin, printers and stationers, against Plineas C. Lounsbury, as treasurer of the National Republican League, in which he recommends that the action against the league be dismissed with costs.

County Treasury Robbed. OLIVET, S. D., Oct. 29.—Last night a robbery was effected in the Hutchinson county treasury at this place. The burglars made a hole through the brick wall of the vault and secured entrance. The outer doors of the safe which were in the vault had been left open and the inner doors were opened by blowing the lock to pieces with powder.

Penitentiary and Fatal Railway Accident. PENITENTIARY, R. I., Oct. 29.—An accident occurred to-day on the Worcester division of the New York, Providence & Boston road, near the Branchville bridge, in which two men were almost instantly

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Govt Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

because a jury could not be secured in Bibb. Again Woolfolk was convicted. Another appeal was taken, but the Supreme Court sustained the court below and he was finally sentenced to be hanged at Perry, Oct. 29. Woolfolk maintained innocence through his three years imprisonment, and up to the time of the execution he never betrayed emotion of any kind, and preserved a uniform self-possession. When he spoke of the crime he denied that he did it, but seldom expressed regret for the death of his relatives.

Advertisement for baking powder, featuring the text 'Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Govt Report, Aug. 17, 1889.' and 'Absolutely Pure'.

Advertisement for Pennsylvania Lines, including a table of train schedules and routes between various cities like Philadelphia, Baltimore, and New York.

Advertisement for Pullman Car Line, detailing services and schedules for various routes.

Advertisement for National Tube-Works, listing various products like boiler tubes, cast and malleable iron fittings, and steam engines.

Business Embarrassments. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 29.—The lumber business of Charles F. Deatherage, at No. 836 Santa Fe street, was today decimated over to O. J. Young, trustee, by virtue of a circuit court order in the case of the Merchants National Bank, the National Bank of Kansas City and M. B. Abell. This is one of the largest lumber firms in the Southwest.

Mangled in Pullman Car. ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 29.—The Richmond & Danville train, which left here this morning, was wrecked near Seneca, N. C. The result of a change on one of the cars precipitated the two Pullman cars from the track. They rolled down the embankment, and were wrecked. Among the severely injured was J. M. Jones of York, cut on head and badly hurt; J. H. Croft, Western R. L. injured in head and shoulder; Mrs. Geo. C. Hawards, of New York, cut about a head and left eye; Siegfried Arnold, Philadelphia, cut in head; Jos. Henschen, New York, leg broken; J. W. Hurrell, the porter, of Washington, will die.

Losses by Fire. WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 29. This morning the Northern Pacific wheat elevator at Eureka Junction, twenty miles from here, was destroyed by fire, together with sixty thousand bushels of wheat. The loss is $100,000; fully insured. It is thought the fire was set by tramps.

His Shortage Growing. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 29.—Further examination of the books of Fred C. Mehl, the embelzling book-keeper of Miller Brothers, develops the fact that his shortage has increased from $6,000 to over $40,000, with a probability of his defaulting, reaching even more formidable figures. His default extends over a period of six or seven years. No one has yet offered to furnish the requisite bond, and Mehl is still in jail, where he was placed some three weeks since.

The Mafia at Work in Louisville. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 29.—Yesterday the body of an Italian was found on the river front in several gashes in his head and a knife thrust over the heart. The cause of the death was a mystery until this morning when the police obtained a clew showing that it was the work of the Mafia. The victim, it is believed, was followed here from New Orleans.

Fits, spasms, St. Vitus dance, hysteria, headache, neuralgia and nervous prostration cured by Dr. Miles' Nervine. Free samples sent by mail. Sold everywhere. MILES MED. CO., Elkhart, Ind.