DRESS STUFFS.

In vastness we stand far in the lead, offering the most replete and varied stock in the State. The very best productions of Home and Foreign looms.

Newness in Rough Effects, Camel's Hair, Boucle and Bison Cloth Novelties in Plaid Mixtures and Plain, prices from $1 to $3.50 a yard. Home productions, good lookers, side by side with imported stuffs and in service nothing wanting; colors just as good as the best, prices 50c to 75c.

SERGES—Every color in the catalogue and some newness not even named to be mililar with. Best grades 48 inch at $1 and a 38-inch all-Wool, same colorings, at $50c; 100 pieces in lot, ahead of time, come to hand yesterday, did not expect them before March next. Direct importation. We put them on sale. They will cost later in the fall 25 cents a yard more.

CHEVRON—48 and 50-inch Soft, large wale. They have been to the front all season. Seven colorings in stock yet, $1.75 the country over, they go at $1.

PLAIDS—Good desirable plaids have not been plenty. They have had the call all season. We predicted this early in the season and secured the best and have had choice for you at correct prices. A selection of 20 styles, $3.95 a suit. A lot of away under price suitings, 54 inches wide, in Brown, Gray, Wine and Garnet, all good and desirable shades, 35c a yard, would be big bargain at 65 cents; and a lot of six colors in all-Wool Camel's Hair $3.95 a suit. A bargain price for quality.

19 CENTS—A price we have named before the season—the line for this week, Mixtures, Stripes and Plaids, a mixed lot, some dark, some medium, others light. Big choice in the lot, but they all go at same price. Are values for double the price.

PERSIAN CASHMERE—House dress material, washable goods, choice of 50 pieces, beautiful styles at 10 cents a yard.

If you did not secure a pair of the four-button Kid Gloves offered last week Monday will be your opportunity. Twenty dozen more is the balance of the lot just received. They will go with a rush. See them early while size and choice is offered. Dogskin at 98c, a regular $1.50 quality. Quantity limited. Early callers get them.

UNDERWEAR—Another lot Monday. Ladies' Union Suits, White and Natural Wool, price 98c, nowhere to be found better than $1.25 to $1.50. Only about 25 dozen; cannot be duplicated this season. A lot of Misses' Union Suits at 69c. Same can be said here. A big under price, and we cannot hope to give like values again this season.

HOSIERY BARGAINS—See line of Children's all-Wool Seamless Hose at 12 1/2c. This is the banner stock of the house daily crowded. They have just what you want and at correct prices.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS—New department. Newness and freshness in everything shown, and prices here are rock bottom. Plenty of the fancy in everything but price.

CLOAK SALE.

The CLOAK SALE which begins to-morrow at H. P. WASSON & CO'S will be the feature of the week. It will be an opening as well as a sale of the late ideas of the season. Many of the styles will be shown to-morrow for the first time.

You can buy Seal-skin Jackets and Sacques as cheap this week as they were offered last season, notwithstanding the advance made by furriers.

Fur Capes in great variety. Muffs, Boas and Collars for Ladies and Children. The Czarina Jacket is the nobbiest style introduced this season.

Tailor-made Jackets at $4.90, made of all-wool Cheviots, will be on sale to-morrow. The Swiss Peasant is the prettiest Newmarket ever introduced. Open to-morrow at Wasson's.

Camel's Hair Mantles, hand-embroidered and braided, very elegant, at Wasson's. Plush Wraps, with crochet trimmings and fringe, new styles, open to-morrow.

Children's Cloaks in endless variety—so many to select from we can't help but suit you. We have them in low prices, also in high-priced novelties. The lowest price are stylish and well made. Special lines for from two to four years in Plaid Camel's Hair, handsomely trimmed, at $5, and are big bargains at price.

BABY CLOAKS—A big selection Cashmere Embroidered from $2.50 to $4. Three lines, and quality superior to anything offered at much more price elsewhere. Baby outfits a specialty.

This is to be the great bargain week of the season. If you have a garment to buy buy now. You have choice, and you will not buy them as cheap later.

A bargain in Wool Felt Hats, correct shapes and new colorings. Price 55 cents, but just such quality as has been sold all season at $1 to $1.25 each.

Silk Nap Fur Beavers, one of the finest Hats of the season, you will find for $2.50, the regular $4 quality sold everywhere.

Baby Caps—You will find them in Silk Fluff, Cashmere and many fancy mixtures as dainty as taste could imagine and much less prices than you would expect for such newness and novelty here displayed.

125 Trimmed Hats, style in color and trimmings as varied as quality and a price here to close far below actual cost of material. Not a hat in the lot but is worth more than double the price named. BIRDS—We cannot name them; some natural, others the touch of the artist has changed both in color and shape, but they are in demand, and we have them plenty and at prices half and less than half what they were ready sellers for early this season. You do not want a whole bird? Well, you can find them in parts—a head or a wing, from a black wing at 10 cents, former price 25 cents at
