

INDIANA AND ILLINOIS NEWS

Wolcott's Double Tragedy Said to Have Been the Result of a Practical Joke.

Fort Wayne's Chief of Police Injured by a Tough-Election Complications - Killed by Dynamite - Missing Man Found.

INDIANA.

The Double Tragedy at Wolcott Thought to Have Resulted from a Practical Joke.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, April 24.—T. J. Bunnell, who was shot at Wolcott, yesterday reported killed, was not instantly killed, but is still alive, though in a critical condition. In the pocket of Martin Ferrick, who died in the shooting and then committed suicide, was found a slip of paper, on which was written, "Publish everything. I wanted Dr. Small and Bert Dibell, but could not get them. I am right, thank God. They were going to mob me for something. I could not help. I leave everything to my wife." This note created a great sensation, as the parties are among the most prominent in town. Ferrick was insane and it is believed that a practical joke is at the bottom of it.

Election Complications.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, April 24.—There is great commotion among the people of the towns of Montgomery county over the new election law which is to govern the elections to be held on May 4. The law requires that notice of the election and sample ballot must be printed in two newspapers of opposite political parties, and only one town, Darlington, has conformed to this section. This city, of course, has made the necessary publication, but as for the other towns, the time to make such publications is past, and there is a quandary as to what to do to make the provisions of the law seem to have no effect. It is believed that the election will be held on May 4, but the law will be in effect, and the towns affected are New Hope, Mace, Adams, Waverland, Adams, Waynesville, Wingate and Linden, besides several suburbs of Crawfordsville. At Waynesville the notice of election was not filed until two days after the limit of the law—fifteen days—had expired, and there promises to be a big middle in this county. The will hold over until another election can be held according to law. If these towns go on and hold elections, a candidate can upset the entire result.

Greenfield High School.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENFIELD, April 24.—Last evening the high school commencement was held in Masonic Hall. The names of the graduates and their topics were as follows: "Caricature," Charles Tharp; "Thinking," T. J. Lineback; "One has but to Die to be Praised," Hodge Neman; "The Causes and Effects of War," Fred Williams; "If I were Sisyphus," Minnie Hughes; "Nothing Venture, Nothing Have," Myrtle Smith; "Printing," John Gant; "Philosophy of Oppression," Ella Hays; "Wonders of Nature," Myrtle Smith; "Wells Without Water," W. Murray Williams; "The Blinding Storms of Winter," Myrtle Smith; "Earth's Leaves that Dried in the Spring," Ruby Martin; "Labor is Essential to Success," Addie Jeffries; "The Influence of Art," Myrtle Smith; "Music," Myrtle Smith; "The Orchestra of Indianapolis," Myrtle Smith. The class was the largest ever graduated from the school. The majority of the graduates were not able to gain admittance so great was the demand for seats. To-night the high-school alumni received the class of '21. The program was given at the M. E. Church, after which all repaired to Bohm's restaurant, where a sumptuous repast awaited them.

Chief of Police Badly Injured.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, April 24.—Chief of Police Wilkinson was assaulted and nearly killed at 4 o'clock this morning by John Gronendyke, the keeper of a tough saloon on Columbia street. Gronendyke was quarreling with a disreputable woman in his saloon, when Chief Wilkinson entered to make peace between the couple. When he turned to leave the place Gronendyke picked up a hand saw and followed him to the floor with a vicious blow on the head. He then jumped on the prostrate man, striking him in the chest, inflicting terrible wounds. Gronendyke next locked the front door, procured a revolver and expressed his intention to kill the officer. Policeman Stoll, hearing the noise, burst in and shot Gronendyke in the back. The body of the officer finally laid him low and arrested him. Chief Wilkinson was taken home in what was supposed to be a serious condition. The body bore evidence that it was somewhat better. It is expected that he has received internal injuries of a serious nature.

Missing Man Found Dead.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, April 24.—At midnight, Dec. 24 Jack Luckey, a sound-minded, aged twenty-two, left his home in this city and his whereabouts has since been a mystery. To-day Nicholas Pittenger and son were walking along the banks of Buck creek, four miles west of this city, and discovered a body in the water. Coroner Driscoll, with Marshal Robinson and your correspondent, was summoned, dragged the badly decomposed body from the water, and to-night brought to the coroner's complete hunting outfit, found on the corpse to the home of Luckey's mother, who, with her daughter, at once recognized them as the boy's. The body bore evidence that it had been in the water since Luckey's absence, it being impossible to discover marks of violence thereon. He evidently fell in the creek a half mile south of the city.

Suing for Confiscated Property.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, April 24.—At the outbreak of the rebellion Van Rensselaer Morgan was serving in the federal navy, but enlisted in the rebel navy. He owned residence in this city and a fine farm of eight acres north of here. During the war his property was confiscated by the government and sold at United States marshal's sale, Miles Morgan bidding in the town property and T. F. Payne becoming owner of the valuable farm. A late decision of the United States Supreme Court holds that property sold under the confiscation act can be sold by the purchaser only as long as the parties from whom it was confiscated live, and the heirs of Van Rensselaer Morgan, who died at Washington and who have begun proceedings for the recovery of the property valued at $60,000.

De Pauw's Theological Building.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENCASTLE, April 24.—Bids for the construction of the new theological building of De Pauw University were considered by the committee, to-day, and the contract was awarded to J. L. Fatout, of Indianapolis, at the sum named by him, $15,000. There were eight bids in all, ranging from $15,000 to $19,000. The building will be of brick, and will be erected on the university grounds known as the Larrabee Place, on South College avenue. It will be completed by the end of the September term. This makes the eighth building in the city rendered necessary by the multiplied departments of De Pauw University.

Suspected of Horse-Stealing.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, April 24.—On Thursday morning, at 3 o'clock, a man riding a horse passed through Linton and stole a horse-blanket from a buggy. The man was traveling toward the west, and word was sent here to be on the lookout for him. Accordingly he was captured near Waynesville. He said he had stolen the blanket, but that the horse belonged to him. He was taken to Linton on the train and the horse was returned to Waynesville. After arriving at Linton with the man it was found that the horse had been stolen from a Mr. Nicholson, living east of Indianapolis. The man gave his name as Powers.

Art Exhibition at Muncie.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, April 24.—Last night closed the fourth annual exhibit given by the Muncie Art School, also the work of the proprietors, Messrs. Adams & Forsythe, who have decided to remove from this city to other fields, the former going to Chicago and Mr. Adams to Indianapolis. There were 250 pieces on exhibition, consisting of oil, pastel, charcoal and water-colors, all of which were exhibited to the satisfaction of hundreds of Muncie people, and many visitors from Fort Wayne, Union City, Indianapolis, Marion, New Castle and other cities were in attendance.

New Industry at Redkey.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. REDKEY, April 24.—The citizens of Redkey have contracted with Findlay, O., parties for the building of an ornamental tile-works in this place, which, when in full operation, will give employment to five hundred persons. The consideration is $10,000 cash, four acres of ground and free transportation to and from the place. The great field Marshall was unveiled at Redkey. In his eightieth year he was still head of the Redkey school, a native of Germany, and accustomed to speak of the Reichstag with all of his old force, lucidity and intellectual acumen.

Death of Count Von Moltke.

(Continued from First Page.) member of the Upper Chamber, and in October, 1871, he was appointed chief of the great field Marshall was unveiled at Redkey. In his eightieth year he was still head of the Redkey school, a native of Germany, and accustomed to speak of the Reichstag with all of his old force, lucidity and intellectual acumen.

General Count Von Moltke.

General Count Von Moltke, chief of the general staff of the German army since Sept. 18, 1888, on Aug. 3, 1891, was appointed chief of the staff of the German army. He was a member of the Reichstag, and was appointed chief of the staff of the German army. He was a member of the Reichstag, and was appointed chief of the staff of the German army.

Obituary Notes.

Homer Boyce, ex-Chief-Justice of Vermont, and an Ex-Congressman. ST. ALBANS, Vt., April 24.—Ex-Chief-Justice Homer Boyce died here this evening at 10 o'clock. He was born June 14, 1834, in Berkshire, Vt. He was educated in the district schools, and began the study of law in 1852, and was admitted to the bar in 1854. He was State attorney in 1864 and 1867, and represented Berkshire in both branches of the Legislature. He was a member of the Vermont bar, and was a member of the Vermont bar, and was a member of the Vermont bar.

Other Deaths.

CHATHAM, Mass., April 24.—G. Collins, a retired chief of police, died here to-day, aged seventy-five. He was appointed captain of the Seventy-second Pennsylvania Volunteers when he was twenty-two, and was a member of the regular army in 1873. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 24.—Morgan L. Mott, the well-known horseman and breeder, died here to-day, aged seventy-three. He was a member of the regular army in 1873. His mother, aged 102 years, and two sons survive him.

His Father Was Too Strict.

BOSTON, April 24.—Charles Cullis, a Harvard student arrested on the charge of forging a check, was committed to the Municipal Court. Cullis is twenty-two years old, the son of Dr. Cullis, of the Consumptive Home, and has been a student at the Harvard Medical School for the past year and a half. His father has always kept him under the strictest supervision, and he was unable to withstand the temptation of a drink of whisky while at school, his companions all having some freedom to enjoy a dance or visit a theater. Being without the necessary money for such pleasures, he felt pressed to raise some. In court he waived examination and was held in $2,000 for the May term of the Superior Court.

Two Boys Kill Themselves with Whiskey.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Andrew McKenna, eight years of age, and Neil Moffat, eleven years old, were killed by drinking whiskey from a wagon in Brooklyn this afternoon. They rolled the keg into a vacant lot, where they tapped it and drank heavily of its contents. How much they drank is unknown, as the keg was empty when found. The boys were found unconscious by a policeman, and died shortly after his arrival, and his companion is very low and will also die.

Queer Idea of a Murderous Maniac.

CLEVELAND, O., April 24.—Near Steubenville, O., Lorenzo M. Hays, the inmate of a well-to-do farmer, has been found in an upstairs window at his mother and sister, who were in the garden. Both women were struck down by a large amount of white man, a farm hand, came to their assistance young Coleman fired at him. The maniac's sister, but she was not injured. Coleman will recover, Coleman said he thought shooting would reduce the price of coffee. He is in custody.

Nickel Found in South Dakota.

RAPID CITY, S. D., April 24.—A find of millions of tons of bright green quartz, carrying from 75 to 90 per cent of nickel, has just been made in the Harney City district. The ledge is of great width and extends through the heart of the Harney group. The rock carries a large amount of white metal pronounced by experts to be nickel glands. The genuineness of the discovery is undoubted, and it is estimated to contain only to that of the recent silver discovery in Squawville.

Nervous Debility, Poor Memory, Difficult Defecation, Sexual Weakness, Pimples, Ophthalmia, Headache, Dizziness, Nervine, Samples Free at 109 N. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., or Elkhart, Ind.

Andrew Hahn, the Alleged Embezzler, Will Not Be Returned from Washington. WASHINGTON, April 24.—Judge James, in the Court of General Term for the District of Columbia, to-day ordered the discharge of Andrew Hahn, the commission merchant of this city, who was yesterday arrested on a requisition made by Governor Fifer, of Illinois, charging Hahn with embezzlement of about $1,000 from Cassette & Co., of Washington and who have begun proceedings for the recovery of the property valued at $60,000.

Brief Mention.

Robert Wood, of Campus, was killed by lightning Wednesday. Bruster & Elder, hardware-dealers of Toledo, Ill., failed on Thursday. Mr. McDonald, who lives near Pana, was partially paralyzed on Thursday by a stroke of lightning.

Moses Crouch, a prosperous and well-to-do farmer, residing near Casey, aged sixty years, died yesterday.

George Buchanan, a farmer living near Vandavia, committed suicide on Thursday on account of domestic infelicity.

Mr. Charles Strocker and her six-year-old daughter were gored by steers in the streets of Peoria on Thursday. The mother will die.

At Ottawa on Thursday Edward Cannon was found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing Martin Ryan, Oct. 3. The death penalty will be inflicted.

The Rev. J. A. Kanney, of Kalamazoo, Mich., and J. S. Steyer, of Bloomington, were married at the latter place on Thursday. The groom is eighty-two and the bride is thirty-two.

Frank Strom, a window-glass-blower, whose home is in La Salle, was found hanging by the neck from an apple tree in a prominent city near Indianapolis, last morning. The cause of the suicide is unknown.

An unknown man about sixty years of age was killed by a passenger train on the Big Four track at the city of Indianapolis, last evening. He wore a Grand Army of the Republic badge, but nothing could be found on a person by the name of the deceased.

In the lower house of the Legislature yesterday the bill amending the compulsory education law to permit the education of children in night schools was passed to the third reading after an amendment requiring that the English language should be taught in such schools was rejected.

The first term of the United States Court under a new law of Congress, will be held in Danville on Monday, May 4. Judge Allen will preside. The first case on the docket is William Heater, administrator, vs. the Big Four railroad. The suit is brought to recover $5,000 damages for the killing of a road-crossing.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Company Carried here this evening and went to quarters at the army. They are a tired set of men, but are in good spirits. Sheriff McCormick says their services will be needed in the near future.

Monday, as no more evictions will take place until then. Adjutant-general McClelland was here for a short time this afternoon. The situation of the strike he said: "The prospect of a speedy settlement of the matter is not bright. The strikers are growing very tired of the struggle, and that many of them would return to work were it not for the strenuous efforts of the coke operators."

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

ASSISTED BY THE SOLDIERS

Many Evictions of Strikers in the Connelville Coke Region Yesterday.

Officers Felled with Stones and Retarded by Irate Women—A Deputy Who Was More Zealous than Discreet—Arbitration at Detroit.

PELLED WITH STONES.

Evictions Have a Stormy Time in the Coke Region—An Indecent Deputy.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., April 24.—There was more excitement here to-day than there has been for many months. Deputy Crawford, with a large body of assistants, and guarded by Company C, of the State militia, began throwing out a dozen families at White's this morning, including the notorious Soup House. This was done without any decided opposition, except an occasional collision with an irate female. The evicting party then marched to Morgan's, where they were met by a large number of strikers. At the very outskirts a wild-eyed Hungarian struck Deputy Nail with a stone. This was followed by a shower of stones from a gang of children, but no one was badly hurt by the volley. House No. 5, occupied by Michael McNulty, a local leader, was soon reached, and Company C formed a circle about it, keeping back the crowd that now had grown to enormous proportions. The strikers then began to throw stones, but when Deputy Dickson grabbed a chair he flew at him. Then the deputy lost his temper, and the crowd began calling after his vile name, threatened to shoot.

Cries of "shame" and "coward" which came from guards and strikers alike, overawed the deputy, and he went away. The woman amidst herself by thumping Deputy St. Louis on the head with a brick. She sat down amidst her household goods in the yard and wept contentedly. Then the deputy returned to the scene, and fifteen families were unhoused without much trouble.

Company C arrived here this evening and went to quarters at the army. They are a tired set of men, but are in good spirits. Sheriff McCormick says their services will be needed in the near future.

Monday, as no more evictions will take place until then. Adjutant-general McClelland was here for a short time this afternoon. The situation of the strike he said: "The prospect of a speedy settlement of the matter is not bright. The strikers are growing very tired of the struggle, and that many of them would return to work were it not for the strenuous efforts of the coke operators."

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander Deland, of New York, and Alexander Jones, the two Socialists sent into the region from New York by the organization of the strikers, who had returned to the United States, and said the press was biased in favor of the coke operators in the present trouble.

Deaths of the Strikers.

A mass-meeting of the strikers held in the fair grounds here this afternoon was addressed by Alexander