The Strong Inducements Ahead for Crack Shots to Use Their Best Skill.

A Shooting Tournament that Will Be Full of Exciting Events and Noticeable Achievements—Sporting Notes of Various kinds.

The rapidly-increasing number of letters received daily by Secretary Allen of the Capital City Gun Club, is evidence of the growing interest in the great trap-shooting tournament to be held on the Brighton Beach grounds of that organization May 19, 20 and 21. The tournament given last October firmly established the club's reputation in that line, both at home and abroad, and there is every reason to believe that the number of entries in the coming affair will be greater than in the fall tournament. Some of the events on that occasion had from fifty to sixty entries, and the committee having in charge the handling of the tournament are prepared to care for double that number, if necessary. The division of money in all but the guaranteed events will be as follows: Under twenty entries two moneys, 60 and 40 per cent; twenty entries and over, three moneys, 30, 20 and 50 per cent; same, four moneys, 40, 20 and 10 per cent. Surplus in guaranteed purses will be as follows: Seventy per cent, divided into 40, 20 and 10 per cent, and added to the first four places respectively; 30 per cent, to go to the next three places below fourth place, divided 50, 30 and 20 per cent, respectively; 10 per cent, to go to the next two places below fourth, divided 40, 20 and 20 per cent, respectively. The prize for the largest straightrun on inanimate targets in regular programme events will be $5; for the best grand average for the first two days on inanimate targets, $10; next best, $5. Those making the twenty highest averages during the tournament on inanimate targets will each receive one year's subscription to the American Fish and Game Warden. The inanimate targets will be blue-rocks. Shooting will begin promptly at 9 A. M. each day. American Shooting Association revised rules will govern, except as to charge of shot to be 12 lbs., one and one-fourth ounces being allowed, and guns must be held below arm-pit until shooter calls "pull." No private matches will be allowed during the tournament. In the inanimate-target-events a class may be barred, but the live-bird events on the third day are open to the world.

The programme for the three days is as follows: First day, Tuesday, May 19. Event No. 1, ten singles, entrance, $1.00; event No. 2, ten singles, entrance, $1.00; event No. 3, twelve singles, entrance, $1.75; event No. 4, fifteen singles, entrance, $2.45. Intercollegiate Ball Games. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 25.—In the State intercollegiate ball game to-day the Rose Polytechnic team defeated the visitors from Butler University by a score of 14 to 8. The batteries were: For Butler, Meeker and Collier; for Polytechnic, Frank and Holman. The home team batted strongly. The long grass in the field made the score large. CRAWFORDVILLE, Ind., April 25.—The baseball team of Indiana University and Wabash College played a game on the college grounds, this afternoon, which resulted in a victory for Purdue. The Wabash team had several men sick, and the new men worked under disadvantages. It was rather a loose game all around. Score Purdue.....4 2 5 0 2 1 4 2 0-29 Wabash.....3 2 0 0 0 0 0 7-13 Errors—Mostly for Purdue, handled for Wabash. Hits—Purdue, 10; Wabash, 9. Stolen bases—Purdue, 6; Wabash, 8. Riley's First Race of the Season. MEMPHIS, April 25.—The new Memphis Jockey Club closed its spring meeting to-day. Riley, the famous Derby winner, made his first appearance to-day, and, like Proctor Knot, he is in fine form, and may be put down for a season of good work. First Race—Five furlongs. Grey Goose won; Kinney second, Lena Frey third. Time, 1:36. Second Race—Six furlongs; selling. Justice won; Ruak second, Ivanhoe third. Time, 1:44. Third Race—One-and-one-eighth mile; the Montgomery stakes; $1,000 added. Riley won; Vallera second, Fayette third. Time, 1:57. Fourth Race—For three-year-olds; six furlongs. Lullithgo won; Philora second, Thibault third. Time, 1:17. Fifth Race—For three-year-olds; six furlongs. Chimes won; Hazel Hurst second, Sea Foam third. Time, 1:15. Sixth Race—Five furlongs; selling. Miss Mary won; Bob Jacobs second, Midget third. Time, 1:34. Valuable Trotting-Horses Burned. PHILADELPHIA, April 25.—One of the stables on the Belmont race-track, near Elm Station, on the Pennsylvania railroad, about seven miles from here, was destroyed by fire early this morning, and nine valuable trotting-horses perished. There were a number of the big trap-shooting tournament at this time, but most of them were got out unharmed. The burned animals belonged to different well-known horsemen.

Sporting Notes. Pittsburg has a poor-throwing outfield. Boston is in finer shape than any of the League teams. New York was not trained fine enough. The players are most all of them over weight. The San Base-ball Club is ready to play any club in the city. All communications should be sent to Irving Scott, No. 455 Clifford avenue. The Easterns and Hustlers will play the second game of their series at Coy's park this afternoon. The batteries will be Hartman and Jones and Ten. Game will be called at 3:30 o'clock. Fred Erb, of Lafayette, is going to have an Irish setter, an English setter and a pointer at the big trap-shooting tournament next month. These dogs will retrieve all birds shot in the events of the third day, which is to be "live-bird day."

The first spree of the season is reported from Louisville, where Ed Crane and young Willie McGill, of Kelly's Cincinnati Association, are indulged in stimulants to such an extent, Friday, that they spent the night in a station-house cell. The Pittsburg papers are making it lively for umpire Powers, who fined various members of that team an aggregate of $175 in the first two games, and made himself still more obnoxious by ordering Ham from the field during Thursday's contest. The Y. M. C. A. State field-day events will be contested on the old grounds, as the association has not yet determined just when to equip its new park near Fairview. The lease on the old grounds does not expire until July 1, and there is no necessity for hurrying matters. Anson's men are playing great ball despite the fact that they had but little preliminary practice. Pittsburg's prospects are bright, and they are expected to support two thousand dollars worth of the article necessary to win games. That is the amount it cost the team to make the trip. The Grand Avenues and Daltons play the second game of the series at Brighton Beach to-day. These two clubs are pretty evenly matched, and a good game may be expected. The game will be called at 3 o'clock P. M. The batteries will be: Grand Avenues, Leland and Schaub; Daltons, Healy and Duffey.

"We could have told the Pittsburg club that St. Augustine wasn't the place to train," says Tom Burns, of the Chicago team. "An inland town is the proper place. Why, at St. Augustine the sea breezes get very cold in the afternoon. The best training-up place is at Hot Springs or Columbus, Ga. The grounds are bad at Hot Springs, however. Davis, the Cleveland outfielder, who attracted so much attention in the games here last summer by his remarkable work, contributed more largely than any two members of that club to its victories at Cincinnati last week. His batting and fielding may be said to have won two of the three games for Cleveland. He is foremost among the lucky finds of last season, and Young, one of the pitchers of that team, is another. The League season opened Wednesday, and the indications thus far show that the Boston, Cleveland, Brooklyn and Philadelphia players were well prepared for the hard work of the early spring games. The Cincinnati team were in poor shape, the New Yorkers were under Anson's contingent, although about as badly off in respect to lack of practice, managed to make a fine showing against the Florida-trained Pittsburgers in their first few games, however, form nothing of a basis for prediction as to the strength of the several teams. It will take another week for them to properly shape up, and until the Western and Eastern teams have a series there can be little idea had of the results this year.

THE HARVEY TESTIMONIAL. Members of the Marion County Bar Pay Eloquent Tribute to Their Late Associate.

A bar meeting was held yesterday afternoon in Superior Court room No. 1, to take action regarding Jonathan S. Harvey, whose death occurred a few days ago. Charles W. Smith was made chairman of the meeting, and Lawson M. Harvey, secretary. The following memorial was presented: "Though we are accustomed to the invasions by death of our ranks, yet such events cannot be passed unnoted. We are not taken wholly by surprise at the death of one so eminent in his age and feeble health of one standing so high in the estimation of his fellow-men as any person living at the time of his death. He had in other days been recognized as a man of great and extraordinary ability, force of character, gentlemanly deportment, kind in all his relations to his associates at the bar. He had, in earlier life, held and maintained a distinguished position in the political affairs of the State. He had been Treasurer of the State of Indiana and prominent in other political positions. He had been a legislator during all the exciting period of this country from 1850 to within about ten years past. As a politician, he was influential and able. As a lawyer, in early life, he gave great promise and secured great prominence, which he maintained for many years in our State. He will be remembered especially by his acquaintances prior to the war, and for many years afterwards, for his warm, generous and kind disposition, his integrity in business and professional affairs, his patriotic impulses and conduct, for none knew him intimately but to entertain for him a very high respect. There was in his earlier life and success the great encouragement to young men in our profession, and in his later years a genial and warm-hearted friendliness, and in all his official relations a sterling integrity. It is not invidious to commend him to oppose and associate. Failing health and advancing years were within him in the later history of his life from intimate association, but to those of us who can recall him in the plenitude of his powers his memory will abide with us, and his virtues we commend to those who are to take our places. Resolved, That a copy of this memorial be presented to the courts of this county, with request that the same be spread upon the court records; and Resolved, That a copy be presented to the family of the deceased. This memorial was prepared by a committee consisting of Vinson Carter, Robt. N. Lamb, Lawson M. Harvey, Wm. A. Ketcham, J. F. Ritter. Speeches, eulogistic of the deceased, were made by Major Carter, Dr. Ritter, Judge Hill, J. S. Larkington, A. P. Stanton, Mr. Smith and others. The expressions were unanimous in affirming the high intellectual ability and generous character of Mr. Harvey. The resolutions were adopted as read.

Water to be Analyzed. Peter Latz, chemist of the Board of Health, has undertaken to analyze the water of White river, from which the water-works company derives its supply. He will begin his analysis to-morrow. Mr. Latz has been in America but a few years. He was a student of a noted German chemist, an acknowledged authority in the science.

DR. R. HEBER NEWTON. The New York Divines Still Further Ecclesie Susceptible Orthodox Clergymen by New "Heresies." Father Ignatius echoes the High Church demand for Dr. E. Heber Newton's expulsion from the ministry of the Episcopal Church. In a recent sermon the learned divine declares that no particular church is the true fold, and adds that such a claim can be based only on the ground of mental blindness, citing in proof of this opinion the words: "And other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also must I lead, and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one flock under one shepherd."

John, x. 16. Richard Heber Newton was born in Philadelphia, Oct. 31, 1840. His parents were Richard Newton and Lydia Gretorex Newton. His father is known throughout the world as the children's preacher. His sermons to children having been translated into about two dozen languages. Mr. Newton, who is now considered the leading clergyman in the broad church, was educated at the Episcopal Academy and other schools in Philadelphia, University of Pennsylvania and the Protestant Episcopal Divinity School, both of which are in Philadelphia. He was ordained deacon Jan. 19, 1861. After holding several pastorates in Philadelphia and elsewhere he became rector of Anthon Memorial Church, New York city, in 1889. He has always been an ardent philanthropist, and early commenced his still unended struggle for theological freedom within the Episcopal Church.

A SATISFACTORY VERDICT.

Daniel N. Brown Acquitted of the Charge of Embezzlement—Details of the Case.

Daniel N. Brown, a dentist doing business on the Circle, was last evening acquitted by a jury of the charge of embezzlement, for which he had been indicted. The prosecuting witness was Dr. Herron, manager of the New York Stages Dental Company, by whom the accused was formerly employed. The amount which Dr. Herron asserted he lost through the alleged dishonesty of Dr. Brown was first stated at $8,000, but the grand jury could find evidence of only $200 missing. The matter was first put in the hands of detective Lloyd, who induced a patron of the office, a lady, to hand Dr. Brown a marked $5 bill, as an extra payment for work done for a child. It was shown that she handed the bill to the accused, with the remark, "You have done so well with my little girl's teeth that I will make you a present of this." Dr. Brown having previously, as it was shown, received and accounted for the regular charge for the work, accepted the pretended gift. In the course of the afternoon detective Lloyd called and demanded the $5, which he said Dr. Brown had failed to turn in. The latter explained the circumstances, but the matter was taken as conclusive evidence of guilt, and the indictment followed. The trial lasted three days, witnesses being subpoenaed. The argument closed yesterday about 5 o'clock, and the jury was charged by Judge Cox with the duty of returning a verdict on the developments of the evidence. The first ballot was unanimous for acquittal, which so pleased every body that several of the jury, as one of its members informed a Journal reporter last night, actually embraced another. The verdict was received with relief, both by Dr. Brown and his wife, who, with their three children, had attended the trial from the morning lobby. The lobby was also apparently much pleased for the verdict was there greeted with applause.

OLD BOARD AT THE HELM.

State Fair Premium List Being Prepared—List of Most of the Coming County Fairs.

Secretary Bagley, of the old State Board of Agriculture, and his assistant, Emma Rosa, have about completed the work on the premium list for the next State fair. Mr. Bagley is about as anxious as any one for a final settlement of the question of which board is to run Indiana's agricultural matters, so that he can arrange his affairs accordingly. He has not yet given up his residence at Huntington or the office he holds there—city clerk—and will not go until the Supreme Court renders its decision in the litigation now pending between the rival boards. Should the decision be in favor of the new board, Mr. Bagley will of course be out of an office so far as the secretaryship is concerned, but he consents himself with the reflection that his Huntington office has two years to run at a salary of $1,500 a year. Most of the counties have fixed upon dates for their fairs and reported them to Secretary Bagley. They are as follows: Allen county, July 21; Carroll, Sept. 14; Clinton, Aug. 24-25; Daviess, Sept. 22-Oct. 3; Dearborn, Aug. 18-22; Decatur, Aug. 25-29; Delaware, Aug. 18-21; Dubois, Sept. 14-17; Elkhart, Sept. 21-25; Fulton, Sept. 2-5; Gibson, Sept. 7-10; Grant, Aug. 25-29; Greene, Aug. 31-Sept. 3; Hancock, Sept. 14-18; Hamilton, Sept. 31-Sept. 4; Hancock, Aug. 18-21; Harrison, Aug. 24-28; Henry, Sept. 11-14; Hendricks, Sept. 14-18; Jay, Sept. 29-Oct. 2; Jefferson, Aug. 11-14; Jennings, Aug. 4-7; Johnson, Sept. 18-19; Knox, Oct. 12-17; Lawrence, Oct. 6-10; Miami, Sept. 14-18; Monroe, Sept. 14-18; Montgomery, Sept. 7-12; Newton, Sept. 15-19; Noble, Oct. 5-9; Owen, Aug. 17-21; Parke, Aug. 17-21; Perry, Sept. 14-19; Pike, Aug. 31 to Sept. 4; Putnam, Aug. 11 to Sept. 4; Randolph, Sept. 8-11; Rush, Sept. 8-12; Shelby, Sept. 13-16; Spencer, Sept. 13-16; Steuben, Sept. 22-25; Sullivan, Sept. 7-12; Spencer, Sept. 28 to Oct. 1; Tipton, Sept. 13-16; Union, Sept. 17-22; Vermillion, Aug. 17-21; Vigo, Aug. 24-28; Washington, Sept. 1-4; Wayne, Aug. 25-28.

A PLEA FOR DR. BRIGGS.

A Mother Thinks He Brings True Light and Urges the Assembly to Allow It to Burn.

to the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal. As a parent furnishing sons and daughters to be affected by the action that the Presbyterian General Assembly may take in regard to permitting Dr. Briggs to interpret the Bible to its theological students, I do urge that body to think twice, yes, many times, before blowing out the light that may be handed down from his knowledge to future generations. When you support the established principle in theology that it is dangerous to think that "too much knowledge is inimical to faith," you drive more of our sons into atheism than you whip into the orthodox line by the wall you put around them. You should know that boys can easily scale a wall. Atheism is sour and dyspeptic. Agnosticism is good-natured and an liberal. Christian love is unselfish and kind, but religious bigotry is intolerant and intolerable. Our boys and girls go to college together now, and are both "polished after the similitude of a palace," until Bible texts from the lips of the religious instructors become a by-word, and it is only when the teacher of un-thropology or ancient history introduces the lessons contained that they assume a meaning. The young man who has not had infant training to fit him to tell Bible stories after the manner of "Helen's Babies" is lost in the romance of the book of Ruth, and stops not until he learns if "they get married," or the boy listening to the story of Job is hungry at dinner-time only to know "how that fellow comes out." Do you ever hear of the child who comes home from Sunday-school and told her mother she saw God, meaning the superintendent? I think we can give our children more reasonable impressions of God. Give us ministers coming from teachers who have sought light and are allowed to let it shine. Our girls go to church where we do. Our boys go where some other mother's girl goes. They will receive light if you send it to them, but if you send out preachers with an embargo upon their thoughts, our boys will be able to tell us only how many pretty girls were there, and not what the minister said. So long as the preacher is filled with dread alarm at the Darwinian theory, which I suppose he does not understand (not many of us do), the lady will tell us that the Bible says a man has one less rib than a woman. We are accustomed to assume that the Bible says what we can only draw from inference, and the fact that Adam was the first man. We need only to study the history of religion to find how much we have supposed we knew, that we could not learn in a lifetime. One man seldom acquires thorough knowledge on many subjects, therefore, it is not wise for us to criticize or sneer upon subjects that they have more reason by knowledge and experience to understand. I have no quarrel with the Darwinian theory, for I have not the kind of sense to understand it, but when people who have children tell me they will strain mine, I think twice before taking their advice, or if they have materially failed, I say I prefer to copy people's successes. Therefore, as Dr. Briggs seems to have gained light upon Bible interpretation, that his students hailed with cheer, let them be out in the world and teach it to our children. Set this good example and perhaps other religious bodies that possess a similar power over the mind, as you do will copy. Stamp out atheism with Christian love. Interpret Christ as a man of sorrow, acquainted with grief, he is "not here to lay his head." Be patient enough for the multitudes of poor to follow him, for he knew their troubles as only experience could. Do not cause to try to explain wonderful things that bear the stamp of superstition. What person of fine mind and tender sympathy could be followed by such people and not perceive that virtue had gone out of him? INDIANAPOLIS, April 25. A MOTHER.
