

INDIANA AND ILLINOIS NEWS

Too Many Wives the Cause of a Fruit-Tree Agent's Inglorious Downfall.

William Williams, Arrested at Covington, Escapes from the Officers—Monon Freight Wreck—Big Gas Well at Anderson.

INDIANA.

Mrs. Williams, of Dayton, Runs Down Her Husband and Her Rival.

Covington, Oct. 14.—Quite a sensation was created in our city this morning by the arrest of a fruit-tree agent by the name of William Williams and his supposed wife upon the affidavit of wife No. 1, who put in an appearance last night. Together with the officers she went to the Cottage Hotel, where Williams and his supposed wife have been staying for the past two weeks, who she and arrested them. While they were all in the office of the prosecuting attorney Williams escaped and has not yet been found. This morning his paramour, whose name is given as Maggie Davis, was taken before the Mayor, bound over to the Circuit Court, and taken to jail in default of bail. Mrs. Williams' home is in Dayton and she has two children married and two who have been living at home with her.

Another Bonanza Gas-Well.

Anderson, Oct. 14.—To-day the North Anderson Land and Improvement Company drilled in what promises to be the best gas-well yet drilled in the Anderson field. Ex-Senator Charles L. Henry, of this city, and Philip Master, of Marion, are backing the company. They have planted four large factories, one complete and three others in process of construction. The well will supply the factories and the electric street railway power-house. When ten feet in iron run a volume of gas equal to twice million cubic feet gushed forth. The well is dry as a powder, and the citizens are delighted with the prospect.

Freight Wreck on the Monon.

Seymour, Oct. 14.—Early this morning there was a freight train wrecked on the Monon, one mile below Orleans and seven miles south of Mitchell, which resulted in derailling and piling up ten freight cars, with heavy loss. The south-bound mail and express train, which was en route from Mitchell to this city, arriving here shortly after 7 o'clock. The engine was turned here and the train taken south over the Louisville division of the E. C. C. & St. L. railroad to its destination.

Minor Notes.

Nathan Makin, a wealthy farmer near Goshen, died of old age. He was seventy-four.

The Masonic Lodge Building at Shippensburg, Tipson county, was burned. Loss, $30,000.

Joel B. Weadell, a former citizen of Seymour, was fatally kicked by a mule at Marysville, Mo.

Leading New Albany horse men are about decided on holding a trotting meeting at Sherwood Park this month.

The postoffice at Lawrence, Montgomery county, was robbed on last Tuesday night of $3 and postage stamps worth $16.

Miss Eliza Nadon, who lived alone in LaPorte county, was found dead in her kitchen. She was seventy years old.

Sheriff Brown, of Jackson county, will resign his office to accept the position of cashier in the new court building.

Casey Ketcham celebrated her 101st birthday at Crawfordville. She was general Richard Canby's nurse during his infancy.

Ellis Martin, of Evansville, got a verdict for $2,000 against the Chicago & North Western on the E. & T. H. railroad, for breach of promise.

Stephen Riddin, of Fountainville, Shelby county, hung his head in sorrow for his dead wife and the loss of his eyesight, which occurred about the same time.

Clara Cunningham, a fifteen-year-old girl, had been arrested in Terry, Hazle for assisting in the run of Nellie Huhn, a girl but thirteen years old, at Urbana, Ill.

Steps have been taken to organize a Brownstown and Seymour street railway. The distance is eleven miles, and it is thought the line can be made for $50,000.

At Miller's, Stark county, Tuesday night, a tramp named John Smith, charged with arson. He visited the home of a farmer and being refused food deliberately fired the buildings.

Charles Hunt, of Knightstown, who shot Jacob Webber, at New Castle, while the latter was assaulting his own sister, was in court to answer a charge of assault, but the case was ordered dismissed.

A combination auction sale of blooded horses will be held at the Anderson fair grounds to-day. Horsemen are in attendance from Terre Haute, Nashville, Richmond, Wabash and Cambridge City.

William M. Reeves, of Crawfordville, has been appointed district president of the Patriotic Sons of America for the counties of Warren, Tippecanoe, Montgomery, Fountain, Parke, Putnam and Vermillion.

John Barr, of Brazil, had his clothes caught between rollers in the clothing mill, but saved his life by holding on to an iron shaft until all the clothing had been stripped from his body. He was terribly bruised.

A creamery company has been organized in Spiceland by the farmers and the following men have been elected directors: A. B. Hall, J. W. Newby, Hugh Gardner, L. H. Johnson and Daniel Lawrence. The plant will be put in at once.

ILLINOIS.

Skeleton of a Murdered Peddler Found Upright in a Gravel-Pit.

Paris, Oct. 14.—A gravel-hauler came to town to-day from the gravel banks east of this city, and told the following story: While loading gravel at the gravel bank near the Paris and Clinton road, just east of the State line, on Monday, the hauler came upon a human skeleton sitting upright, about three feet below the surface. Its position looked as if the body had been chucked into a round hole dug for the purpose, as the knees were pressed up toward the chin. M. W. Hale, who was among the discoverers, says that a peddler named Cox and another man who lived in that vicinity, but whose name has been forgotten, went hunting one day, and the peddler never returned and was not heard of afterward. The other man who went with Cox afterward became insane, and would often say that the devil was over in the woods, and that he had seen him in a tree top. This happened about ten years ago. Many think that Cox, the peddler, was murdered and thrown into this hole, where the skeleton was found last Monday.

Insisted the Fair Association.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DANVILLE, Oct. 14.—The grand jury to-day returned an indictment against the Danville Fair and Trotting Association for permitting a wheel of fortune to run during the fair. The fair association received $200 for the privilege.

Burgess Hall Corner-Stone.

EUREKA, Oct. 14.—The cornerstone of Burgess Memorial Hall, Eureka College, was laid to-day with appropriate ceremony. A letter of regret from Mrs. O. Burgess, of Indianapolis, who gave $10,000 toward the erection of the new building, was read. To-night the college buildings and the city are brilliantly illuminated.

Brief Mentions.

Senator Pettibone left Topeka for Illinois, where he will make several Alliance speeches.

Noah Avery, a farmer of Franklin county, was fatally injured Monday in a runaway accident.

Sherman Knite, a twelve-year-old boy, accidentally killed himself with a shotgun while hunting near Hamilton.

The horses and mules at Quincy are fast being rendered unfit by a gripe, which has suddenly broke out among them.

The cornerstone of the new Odd-fellows' building at Warsaw was laid Tuesday. The building was destroyed by the Hon. M. P. Berry, of Carthage.

Fifty delegates of the F. M. B. A. of Marion county met at Decatur Tuesday. Politics are said to be almost entirely eliminated from the order in that county.

The Halfacre-Waldruff wedding, which was to have taken place in Danville Sept. 1, and was mysteriously postponed, has been effected in Denver, Col. There is said to have been another woman in the case.

Thomas Fullford, known as "Uncle Tommy" of Chester, Randolph county, made two unsuccessful attempts at suicide. He shot himself in the head and stabbed himself in the abdomen without producing the desired effect.

CHRISTIAN WOMEN WORKERS.

Instructive Session of the Association of the United States and Canada.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—The conference of the Women's Christian Association of the United States and Canada resumed its sessions this morning. After devotional exercises, reports of the work being done on behalf of the women in their respective cities were made by Mrs. Durand, of Boston; Mrs. R. L. Dickinson, of Brooklyn; Mrs. Underwood, of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. Rogers, of London, Ont.; Mrs. Crutcher, of Louisville, and Mrs. Tyng, of Peoria, Ill. Miss Drinkwater, of Boston, gave a talk upon "Gymnasium Work" in her city. Mrs. C. R. Springer, of St. Louis, read a paper on conference work. It suggested the necessity of a stronger central organization and committee was appointed to outline such a plan.

Mrs. Campbell, of Memphis, Tenn., read a paper on "The Work of the Christian Women's Association of New York, and Mrs. Foster Palmer, of Chicago, were the chief speakers. The conference excited much interest by her talk in advocacy of self-help for working girls. She gave a list of names of the women who are members of the working girls clubs in New York. Mrs. Palmer's address was in relation to the world's fair women's auxiliary.

Annual Women's Congress.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 14.—The nineteenth annual Congress of the Association for the Advancement of Women opened this morning with executive session, from which men were excluded. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe is presiding, and the attendance is about one hundred and fifty. In the afternoon and evening the women were entertained at the Literary Club-room, which was lavishly decorated for the occasion. In the evening Mrs. Charlotte L. Emerson, of Boston, read a paper on "The Ministry of Success of Women," and Miss Mary A. Ripley, of New York, read "The World's Fair and Economy of Time and Strength as a part of Education." The congress will continue until Saturday.

Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

GALESBURG, Ill., Oct. 14.—After an adjournment of three days, the members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen were again called to order at 9 o'clock this morning. Under the new rules of the order the office of editor and manager of the Trainmen's Journal was transferred to the editor and the responsibility of conducting the journal placed upon the grand master, who will appoint an editor to conduct the affairs of the paper. The grand secretary and treasurer will have charge of the financial interests of the institution, and every cent earned and spent by the office. The grand executive board, to consist of three members, was also created. These officers will be elected at the session of the convention. A special step taken was that of reducing the board of trustees from five to three members.

Movements of Steamers.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 14.—Arrived: Rotterdam, from New York.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Sighted: Ruzia, from New York.

BRIMMER HAVEN, Oct. 14.—Arrived: Havel, from New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Arrived: Teutonic, from Liverpool; Sprea and Saale, from Bremen.

More Earthquake Shocks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 14.—A shock of earthquake similar in intensity to that which struck San Francisco on Monday 5 o'clock this morning. No damage is reported.

Petaluma, Cal., Oct. 14.—Another heavy shock of 4.37 o'clock, and a much lighter one about 7. The vibrations were north to south.

George M. Pullman, who controls the stock of the Pullman Car Company, has decided that at the coming annual meeting of the company the capital stock shall be increased from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000.

This is the eighth time the capital stock has been increased in twelve years, starting in 1873, with $6,000,000. The surplus has increased until it was $16,750,000 last year.

REMINISCENCES OF PARNELL

Henry Labouchere Recalls the Piggott, Capt. O'Shea, and Other Incidents.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach Not Anxious to Be Leader of the House of Commons—Russia's Famine Districts—14,000,000 in Need.

PARNELL AND PIGGOTT.

Labouchere's Reminiscences of the Dead Irish Leader—His Hold on His Followers.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The newspapers of the British isles are still full of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, almost every public man having been induced to say or write something in regard to the great Irish leader. Mr. Henry Labouchere, M. P., writes upon this all-absorbing topic as follows: "Mr. Parnell has been alive for several years, and three years ago that he was suffering from kidney trouble. Everything happening adversely to him, Mr. Parnell attributed to Captain O'Shea, and it was with the greatest difficulty that I finally induced him to believe that Piggott forged the famous letters which were such an important feature of the Times prosecution. He said: 'It can not be Piggott, I know it is O'Shea.' 'Have you any proof that your statement is correct?' I asked him. 'No,' he replied, 'but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the matter, and then Mr. Parnell said: 'If O'Shea is not connected with those letters and that he received money from Chamberlain to pay for them, Mr. Parnell never doubted, but I know it is O'Shea.' 'When I brought Mr. Parnell and Piggott together,' Mr. Labouchere continues, 'the first thing Mr. Parnell said to Piggott was: 'Had O'Shea any connection with the matter?'"

"Piggott denied that the Captain had any hand in the