Big Deal Nipped in the Bud.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The Chicago Junction Railway and Union Stockyards company was organized in July, 1890, under the laws of New Jersey, with a capital stock and outstanding mortgage bonds aggregating $25,000,000. The company was organized by the City of London Corporation, a promotion which had been extensively engaged in England and in this country for some time past.

Since the formation of the company it has been a peck of trouble. The public sentiment has been raised against the Chicago stockyards, and the Chicago company has been a peck of trouble. AMMONIA Good for scouring, cleansing, for a soap powder, for a fertilizer; HARTSHORN Bad in any article of food, yet it is used in some baking powders palmed off as "absolutely pure." Is it in yours? Test it.

Mix one heaping teaspoonful of baking powder with one spoonful of water in a tin cup; boil thoroughly for a few moments, stir to prevent burning, and if ammonia is present you can smell it in the rising steam. As baking powder, when first thrown into the water, will effervesce, do not mistake bubbling for boiling.

business at the old stock-yards. For all this the New Jersey company agreed to pay $3,000,000, partly in cash and partly in bonds.

No sooner had the agreement been made than John Reeves Wormon, of London, a stockholder in the New Jersey company, filed a bill against the New Jersey company and the "Big Three," presumably for the purpose of having the contract declared illegal.

THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL DAILY, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY.

The Journal is first of all a newspaper. Its primary object is to publish the news, and to secure this it spares no pains or expense. Besides the service of two great news agencies, which cover foreign countries as well as the entire United States, it has a corps of Special Correspondents, who give attention to those events and occurrences that are likely to be of particular interest to the Indiana public.

But while the Journal is non-partisan as to news, it is a Republican paper, and sets forth Republican principles. It is important that the people shall read the truth about these principles, and it was with the object of putting everybody in the way of doing so that the price of the
