PLENTY OF ICE.

Skaters Swarming on the Water-Courses—Plenty of Work To-day for All Who Ask It.

Hundreds of skaters yesterday enjoyed the best sport they have had for many a season.

The canal, the ponds and the various water-courses about the city were black with them.

The ice men are much pleased over the excellent promise of securing a good ice crop.

Last night the ice on the canal was seven inches thick and on the ponds nine inches thick, and the ice men say, of unusually good quality.

This morning the largest of the ice-packers will begin storing ice, Budd, Garter, Cayler and Armstrong having their horses in readiness and tools on the ground to begin operations.

Schmidt's brewery will put a large force of men at work, and teams, as well, hauling the ice from the ponds to the brewery.

The ice men will be at work this morning, and it is expected that a thousand men will be at work to-day.

Some of the packers yesterday began marking out the ice. Signal-service Officer Wapenans tells them that weather of this character is to continue through the month, and they will get all the ice they want.

KNIGHTS OF FATHER MATHEW.

State Organization to Be Formed To-morrow—Plan of the Uniform Rank.

The Knights of Father Mathew will to-morrow organize a State association of the uniform rank department, at the M. G. R. business commandery, on South Tennessee street. Delegates from all the societies already uniformed will be in attendance.

Mr. W. J. Richardson, chairman of the State committee, will call the meeting to order at 9 a. m. This movement is for encouragement of the uniform rank, which fills a social vacancy long felt by the younger members of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America.

Announcements.

The sale of seats for the only performance by the Bostonians, the best of the light opera companies, at the Grand, on Thursday night, will begin at the box-office of the theater this morning.

"Robin Hood," the opera to be presented, is reported to be a gem, and the Bostonians to give it a complete and artistic performance.

The demand for seats promises to be very large, so that those who want good locations should secure them early.

The Chicago Orchestra, under the personal direction of Theodore Thomas, is to give the second of the series of concerts at the Grand Wednesday evening, for which seats will be on sale this morning.

The "Waifs of New York," a successful melodrama, full of local color, will be the attraction at English to-night and until Thursday, with Katie Emmett as the star, and a supporting company that includes Amy Ames and George W. Thompson.

The piece is given a very elaborate scenic production.

The attraction at the Park this week, beginning with the matinee to-day, will be Gillette's well-liked American play, "Held by the Enemy."

OBSERVANCE OF SABBATH

Rev. Frank N. Dexter Cites Some Facts and Statistics That Are Surprising.

Europe Is Rapidly Giving Up Sunday Discretion—Sermon of Rev. Dexter by Dr. Cleveland—Evangelistic Meetings.

The new People's Church, recently established by the coalition of the old People's Congregational Church and the Westminster Presbyterian, at the corner of Michigan and Blackford streets, was filled last night, mostly with young men, members of the various labor unions of the city.

The Rev. Frank Dexter, who presides over this little flock, had announced that he would preach on "Sunday Closing," by virtue of a general invitation extended by the Central Labor Union to the pastors of the city some weeks ago. Mr. Dexter took for his text "The Sabbath was made for man."

He gladly accepted the invitation of the Central Labor Union, and Mr. Dexter, "to discourse upon this subject, for it is in line with Christian endeavor and love of God and right. In olden times the Jews revered the day appointed by God to be kept holy with fasting and prayer. The Sabbath then was observed much more generally and scrupulously than they are now. When man's right is on one side and the question of whether he can be compelled to work on the other, the man always has the preponderance. Christ settled that question two thousand years ago when He declared that the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath. But I am sorry to say that Christ's spirit has little weight in these days.

The labor question is a human question that is agitating more thoughtful, more serious consideration in society to-day than any other. It comes up in the easiest form for answering when put in its relation with Sabbath observance. What is man's chief end? The Westminster Shorter Catechism says, "To glorify God and enjoy Him forever." The world says, "To get money and lots of it." Some people think we live only to fill our bags and those of others with gold. The world says, "To get money and lots of it." Some people think we live only to fill our bags and those of others with gold.

BRICK-LAYERS OF AMERICA

Delegates of the International Union Ready to Begin Their Convention.

President and Other Officers on the Ground—Topics to Be Discussed—Will It Affiliates with the Federation?

The twenty-sixth anniversary of the International Brick-layers' Union occurs to-day with the beginning of the two weeks' convention in this city. Delegates began to arrive in large numbers yesterday, and by 10 o'clock this morning fully two hundred, including visitors from a distance, entitled to the floor, are expected to be present.

The headquarters of the international officers are at the English Hotel, but the convention meetings will occur in Masonic Hall. The delegates are registered for the most part at the same hotel. Brick-layers are known by the square bronze badge significant of their craft. The local union has appointed a committee on reception, of which Nicholas Dugan is chairman. The arrangements are completed for a successful convention. The address of welcome to the State will be delivered by Governor Chase, and the welcome to the city will be delivered by Mayor Sullivan.

The ladies of the Free Kindergarten Association will meet Tuesday, Jan. 12, at 9 a. m., with Mrs. M. A. Finch, No. 406 North Pennsylvania street, to sew. It is hoped that a large number will consider themselves earnestly invited.

OUT IN THE COLD, COLD WORLD.

Neither Democrats Nor Republicans Will Shelter the Alliance Party.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Congressman Cox, of Tennessee, in an interview criticizing the action of the Alliance presidents and the resolution adopted by them here a few days ago says: "Why the resolution shows duplicity on its face. It says they will affiliate with no party or parties and asks that every party take them under its fold. Now, the Democratic party is never going to endorse the Ocala platform as it stands, nor will the Republican party. The People's party, so called, has already endorsed the Ocala demands, and if the Alliance means to affiliate with the Democratic party, it is in for a fight. The Alliance means to affiliate with the Democratic party, it is in for a fight. The Alliance means to affiliate with the Democratic party, it is in for a fight."

Found a Waif in His Carriage.

Lake Morrison, a hackman living at No. 30 Torbet street, found an infant child in his carriage, yesterday morning, when he went to hitch up. It was alive, and was probably not over ten hours old. The finder carried it to the police station, where it was taken to the Orphan's Home on College avenue. The infant was still alive in the afternoon. There is no identity for it.

Refusing Help for Starving Russians.

Boston Transcript (Ind.).

We have too high an opinion of the American people to believe that the Democrats will gain anything by their action. The American people are abundantly able to discriminate between economy and meanness, and while they will hold their legislators to one, they will not forgive the other. Besides, the American people are growing very suspicious of those Congressmen whose declarations are not backed by public and oratorical. Few Americans would have objected to a reasonable appropriation to carry food to Russia. New Englanders would have been the most intransigent at its refusal. The Democratic majority is rapidly verifying the Republican predictions as to its course.
