

SUICIDE OF JUDGE J. D. NEW

One of the Most Prominent Jurists of the State Takes His Own Life.

Member of the Appellate Court and Democratic Nominee for the Supreme Bench—Insanity Resulting from the Grip.

The legal fraternity of Indianapolis and the Democratic party leaders were shocked and astounded yesterday morning upon receipt of the news that Judge J. D. New, of the Appellate Court, candidate for Supreme Bench on the Democratic ticket from the Second district, had committed suicide at his home at Vernon, Jennings county, by shooting himself through the heart. A special to the Journal says:

"About a quarter to 6 A. M. County Recorder Lewis H. Huckleberry, who lives just opposite the New home, heard the report of a pistol and loud cries at the New residence, and rushed to the scene. Judge New in the throes of death from the effects of a pistol shot through the heart inflicted by his own hand. At a quarter to 7 Mrs. Mary, who was from her bed and went to the kitchen to see about the preparation of breakfast. The Judge embraced her before she went out; he arose from the bed, and she saw him medicine again lay down. The next moment a shot was heard, and when the startled family appeared they found the Judge lying on the bed in the act of expiring."

"At the time of the tragedy there were in the house, besides his wife, his two sons, who were still boys, one thirteen and a servant who was in the kitchen. Judge New has been in failing health for some time, but neither his family nor friends realized that his condition was so serious. He often seemed depressed, and that is the only reason that can be assigned for his committing the terrible act. His domestic relations were always very harmonious, and he was financially sound, being one of Jennings county's wealthiest citizens. His family all survive him, and consist of his wife, Sallie; three sons, Harry, William and Dr. W. H. Stemm, Willard and Bert, two promising young lawyers, both members of the Jennings county bar, and two little grandchildren. Among the citizens at his home and throughout the community there are heard only the most profound expressions of sorrow and regret that his life, so bright with usefulness and honor, should terminate so sadly. In his home life he was an ideal husband and father."

Judge New's friends were loath to believe the story of suicide until it was confirmed in a brief telegram from Lincoln Dixon, of Vernon, to Attorney-General Smith, who was formerly judge of the Appellate Court. His friends all assign as the cause of the suicide mental impairment, due primarily to an attack of the grip which Judge New suffered early in the spring. Since his recovery many eccentricities have been noticed in his conduct. At the time of the State convention he was greatly worried over the fact that there was a candidate against him. "It was then that I first suspected his sanity," said Hon. John W. Kern last evening. "He called me aside no less than twenty times at the Grand Hotel the day before the convention, each time with the same idea of impressing me with the belief that this was the man to be elected, and the nomination was absolutely essential to his career."

About three weeks ago Judge New went home to Vernon, intending later to take a journey around the great lakes, but when he reached home he grew worse instead of better and the trip was deferred. The Judge's relations with his family were of the happiest and most affectionate character, he was wealthy, his two sons were doing very well in law practice, and it is impossible that any other cause than insanity could have prompted his self-destruction.

The funeral will be held at Vernon Monday afternoon. The State judiciary and State officers will attend in a body.

Judge New's Career.

Jeppha Dudley New was born at Vernon, Jennings county, this State, Nov. 28, 1830. He was descended from revolutionary stock, his grandfather, Jeppha New, having served in the war of 1812. His father, Jeppha D. New, was Hickman New, who removed from Gallatin county, Kentucky, to Jennings county, this State, in 1822. Hickman New was one of the pioneer members and ministers of the Christian Church in southern Indiana.

Jeppha D. New was educated at the Vernon Seminary and at Bethany College, Virginia. While preparing for college he assisted his father much of the time by working at cabinet-making, and he became a good workman at that trade. He left college in 1850, and for the next two years was engaged in school-teaching and reading law. Subsequently he studied law with Hopton C. Newcomb, of Indianapolis, and Lucius Bingham, of Vernon.

In the summer of 1856 Mr. New and Thomas W. Woolen, afterwards Attorney-General of Indiana, formed a law partnership, and opened an office at Franklin. That fall he was nominated by the Democracy for circuit prosecutor, but was defeated. In the spring of 1857 he returned to Vernon and opened a law office there. The same year he married, and was married to Miss Sallie Butler, who was a pupil of his in the first school taught by him after leaving college. This marriage proved a most happy one, and they have resided at Vernon ever since, with the exception of a few months' residence in Minnesota in 1860-61. In 1862 he was elected district prosecutor, and held the office such until the fall of 1864, when he was elected common pleas judge. He served out the term of four years, and declined a re-nomination. In the summer of 1870 he was given the Democratic nomination for Congress, and was elected. The nomination was given unsought and over his protest.

In politics he has always been a Democrat and a very active worker, but after having sat upon the bench became averse to holding political office. He was unanimously renominated for Congress, but declined. In 1878 he was urged to accept the nomination and did so. The remainder of his career in the Congress testified to his popularity in the district. In the Forty-fourth Congress he was on the committee on war claims and in the same Congress he received the nomination of the committee on the conduct and management of the federal offices there. He prepared and submitted to Congress a report on the subject. After the presidential election of 1876 he was one of the committee of fifteen sent to Louisiana to investigate the election there. He was made chairman of the committee, the body being divided.

When the finding of the electoral commission was made as to Louisiana, he was one of the six members of the committee selected by the Democratic members to argue the objections filed to that finding. In the Forty-fifth Congress he was a member of the judiciary committee, and the committee on expenditures in the Department of Justice. The Indiana Morgan raid claims received special attention from him, and he was mainly instrumental in having them transferred from the office of the Adjutant-General of Indiana to the War Department, at Washington, just at time to save them from being barred by the statute of limitation.

The career of Judge New has been creditable to him and his State. At the time of his death he held the position of Appellate Judge for the Second judicial district, having been appointed by Governor Hovey under the law to hold the position until it should be filled by a general election. The Judge had received the nomination on the Democratic ticket for Judge of the Supreme Court of Indiana, a position to which he had long aspired.

The flag upon the State-house was hung at half-mast yesterday immediately upon receipt of the news of his death.

REORGANIZING THE TEAM

Hoosier Club Strengthened by New Players from Weak Sisters.

The crowd cheered itself hoarse. Attendance, 4,100. Score: Cleveland, 3; Philadelphia, 1-7. Philadelphia, 0; 0 0 2 2 0 1 0-5. Hits—Cleveland, 12; Philadelphia, 7. Errors—Cleveland, 4; Philadelphia, 4. Batteries—Cupp and Zimmer; Epler and Cross. Score, second game: Cleveland, 0; 4 0 0 2 2 0 0 0-8 Philadelphia, 1; 0 1 0 0 0 0 0-2. Hits—Cleveland, 8; Philadelphia, 5. Errors—Cleveland, 4; Philadelphia, 3. Batteries—Clarkson and Zimmer; Keece and Cross.

Cincinnati Won Twice from New York. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CINCINNATI, July 9.—The Reds knocked out the New Yorks twice this afternoon before a crowd numbering nearly five thousand people. The Reds played lively, gingerly ball, and in both games took a commanding lead in the opening inning. The feature was the pitching of Dwyer and Chamberlain, and the batting of Coniskey and O'Neill. Score, first game: Cincinnati, 4; New York, 1. Errors—Cincinnati, 0; New York, 0. Batteries—Dwyer and Chamberlain; Crane and Boyle.

Brooklyn, 7; Pittsburg, 5. PITTSBURG, July 9.—Pittsburg tried Will Thompson, a local amateur, in the box today. He lasted three innings, Baldwin taking his place. Attendance, 3,250. Score: Pittsburg, 5; Brooklyn, 7. Errors—Pittsburg, 3; Brooklyn, 6. Batteries—Thompson, Baldwin and Mack; Hart and Daly. Earned runs—Pittsburg, 4; Brooklyn, 1. Hits—Corkhill, Home run—Beckley, Stolen bases—Bierbaum, Mack. Double plays—Mack to Bierbaum (2); Day to Ward. Bases on balls—Beckley, Thompson (2), Baldwin, Ward, Grimm, Brouthers, Joyce, Hart, Daly. Hit by pitcher—Thompson, Concorde. Struck out—Bierbaum, Bunn, Daly, Hart (2). Time—Two hours. Umpire—Mitchell.

Washington, 6; St. Louis, 1. SPECIAL TO THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL. ST. LOUIS, July 9.—Killen, who pitched for Washington today, had the St. Louis batsmen completely at his mercy. Two singles by Brodie was the sum total of their attack. Washington, on the other hand, batted Galvin freely, and bunched their hits. Score: St. Louis, 1; Washington, 6. Errors—St. Louis, 0; Washington, 1. Batteries—Galvin and Moran; Killen and McGuire.

Louisville, 7; Baltimore, 1. SPECIAL TO THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL. LOUISVILLE, July 9.—The Baltimore were out-classed by the Louisville to-day, who won an easy victory. The features were Grim's home run and Jennings's three-bagger. Score: Louisville, 7; Baltimore, 1. Errors—Louisville, 0; Baltimore, 3. Batteries—Stratton and Dowse; Foreman and Halligan.

WESTERN LEAGUE. Joliet Braves Up and Gives the Hoosiers a Coat of Whiteness. SPECIAL TO THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL. JOLIET, Ill., July 9.—Joliet played one of her old-time games to-day, and the Terre Haute were hardly visible after the first few innings. The score was 3 to 0.

Rockford, 9; Rock Island, 3. SPECIAL TO THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL. ROCK ISLAND, Ill., July 9.—The game here to-day resulted in a victory for Rockford by a score of 9 to 3.

Another World's Record Broken. CHICAGO, July 9.—Frank E. Spooner, of the Chicago Cycling Club, finished his twenty-four-hour bicycle ride at Park Side this evening, breaking the world's best previous record of 363 and a fraction miles. He accomplished 375 miles, less 155 yards. After that lap the exhausted rider was assisted from his seat and taken to a cot in the club-house. He was unable to walk alone, and staggered as he was assisted. Much to his discredit, he was unable to get up the stairs to his room, and he was present to see him make the final lap.

AT WASHINGTON PARK. Estimated that 17,000 Chicagoans spent Saturday at the Race-Track. CHICAGO, July 9.—The Washington Park officials announced that this was the most profitable Saturday the club experienced since its inauguration. There is nothing surprising in this statement for when it is taken into consideration that the card offered was one of extraordinary attractiveness, embracing as it did, in its lists of horses, some of the greatest thoroughbreds in the country, and with the extremely fine weather it is not to be wondered at that fully seventeen thousand should submit to these seductive influences.

Those who anticipated enjoying a good day's sport were not disappointed. Three of the contestants were of the non-favorite variety. Five favorites and one third choice, who eventually became a favorite in the heat race, contributed their share to the day's enjoyment. The special feature of the day was the Boulevard stakes, in which Yo Tambien, the winner of the Chicago Derby at Fair Park, won easily. On one of the feature of the day was contributed in the second race. Guido, the favorite, took the lead coming down the stretch, one length ahead of Prince Fortinatus. Belle never prominent. Shellbark bolted in the first hundred yards and was pulled up. In a startling finish the Belladonna colt defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of the fourth race, who was ridden by Prince Fortinatus and Engartia, who were on even terms, the four presenting a striking picture. Tony Williams, on the leader, eventually defeated easily by Merry Monarch at 8 to 1, after H. A. Penny, the Monarch stable companion, had made all the running. Jockey J. J. McCaffery landed Helen Scholard at 5, winner a head of Prince Imperial at 7 to 5, with Garrison up. McCaffery and his friends also made a killing with Queenie Towbridge, winner of