Western Matches of the Annual Meet of the National Association. CHICAGO, July 11.—The Western championship matches of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association were commenced at the home of the Riverside Tennis Club today. Samuel T. Chase, brown and formidable as ever, was early upon the grounds, as was his sharer of the championship doubles Ryerson. Though Chase declares he is out of practice, his play does not show any appreciable retrogression. Victor Eling, who last year all but ran Ryerson for a place in the final singles, was absent to the regret of a host of friends. It is for the first time that he will be out of the tournament. Californians two reputedly invincibles, Joseph S. Tobin and C. H. Hebbard, of San Francisco. The features of the event are the contests in which Chase will defend his championship cup against the winner of this year's Western single, and the one which Chase and Ryerson will fight to retain possession of the double-secured trophies last year. Wren and Gardner and Hebbard and Tobin opened the fight. The Californians, who had never before played together, and were expected to turf court, won after a hard match, 6-4, 6-0, 6-1. At the same time Sherman and Knickerbocker took the north court against Beach and Myers. They were easily outclassed and the result surprised no one. Beach and Myers, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2. Meantime Chase and Ryerson were playing a very close game. Chase won after a very hard fight, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4. Hebbard and Tobin easily defeated Stratton and White, 6-4; 6-4; 6-3. In the singles Avery met Beldon and defeated him, 8-7, 6-2, after a very hard fight. Hebbard and Ben are taking on a victor in Myers, but he managed to tire him out after the first set, and won 6-4, 6-3. Stratton and Haddock in singles, and Stratton was outclassed as every point. He lost the match 6-0, 6-1. Tomorrow Carver and Ryerson play Neely and Hoagland; Allen and Munday meet Hebbard and Ben; and Chase and Myers cross rackets with Scudder and Pierce, and Chase and Shaw play Cole and Paddock.
