NO TEMPORARY INJUNCTION. Mr. Milchrist's Request in the World's Fair Sunday Closing Case Refused.

Arguments Concluded and the Matter Now in the Hands of the Judges, Who May Possibly Render Their Decision To-Day.

Another Statement Concerning the Finances of the Big Exposition. Receipts for the Month of May Averaged $24,000 Daily—Paid Admissions Yesterday Were Nearly Fifty Thousand.

MAY BE DECIDED TO-DAY. World's Fair Injunction Case Closed—Temporary Restraining Order Refused.

CHICAGO, June 2.—Just before the federal court adjourned this afternoon a move towards a decision in the suit brought by the government to close the fair on Sundays was made.

It was contended by attorney Edwin Walker that if an injunction against Sunday opening was issued by the federal court, the directors must necessarily violate it or violate the contrary mandate of the State court.

"No, sir. The public could not insist upon being allowed to remain open, in view of the large expenditure of money, the exposition authorities have the right to charge a fee. This point has been passed upon by Judge Wiley, in the case of the Columbian Steamship Company."

Attorney James L. High, for the government, produced a report of the dedication of the exposition, and read a portion of President Highbottom's address, in which he formally transferred the enterprise to the national commission.

FINANCES OF THE FAIR. Director Schwab Says Nearly $250,000 Was Cleared Last Month.

CHICAGO, June 2.—Director Charles Schwab, of the world's fair, says that the exposition has cleared a quarter of a million dollars on the month of May, and as a result of a general reduction of officers, to begin next Monday, a better result is confidently anticipated for the month of June.

Treasurer Seeburger says the financial statement for May is not compiled and he does not know when it will be ready. He gives as an excuse the extra work entailed on the part of the treasury.

Chairman Thatcher, who has proved invulnerable to the criticism of Europe and America in the matter of awards, hits back at his friends, the protesting foreign commissioners to the fair, by saying that three-eighths of the foreign exhibits have not been fully unpacked, and many have not even been unpacked, and that if the exhibits were ready to be examined the judges could go to work now.

A conservative estimate made to-day by the committee in charge of the arrangements for the parade and celebration of "German day" at the exposition, June 15, regarding the attendance from other cities, places the number of German-American visitors at 100,000 and the participants from Chicago at about 150,000—in all about a quarter of a million.

It is now positively known that the famed Oriental monarch, the Sultan of Johore, is coming to the world's fair. His Majesty called the fact of his intended visit to Deputy Commissioner V. W. Lake, and directed Mr. Lake to meet him in Carlsbad, Germany, to accompany him to Chicago.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Arrived: Columbia and Sorrento, from Hamburg; Germania, from Liverpool; Lizard, June 2.—Passed: La Touraine, from New York; Minnesota, from Philadelphia.

Chicago, Father Thomas Moreschini, and other Catholic clergymen visited the world's fair this morning. The party arrived at the grounds in carriages. They were then taken to the grounds to view the sights.

IMMIGRATION LAW VIOLATIONS. Testimony of Inspector Theobis, Colonel Weber, an Italian Banker and Others.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The Senate committee on immigration resumed its investigation to-day, Senator Hill presiding. The inquiry related to the alleged violations of the contract labor law and the failure to prosecute offenders under the law by the proper officers of New York, New Jersey and Philadelphia.

G. H. Theobis, an immigrant inspector, took the stand. He started in to testify without being sworn. When his attention was called to the fact, he said: "I am a Kentuckian, and Kentuckians always tell the truth." He took the oath, however.

Frank Gebilso, a banker, was then called. He said that to make sure of having employment when they arrived, some of the Italians made arrangements to work before they started for this country. This was generally done through the bankers and brokers in the city.

Colonel Weber was then questioned. He told of a visit he had made to Russia. He said the Russian Christian a black eye. He said that they are mostly ignorant and don't even know enough to emigrate.

TALK OF LYNNING HIM. Decatur (Ill.) Jail Now Contains the Negro Who Outraged Two Women.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DECATUR, Ill., June 2.—Samuel J. Bush is the name of the negro who outraged Mrs. William H. Vest near Mount Zion last Tuesday forenoon.

STROCK BY A TORNADO. Town in Arkansas Almost Demolished and a Score of Persons Reported Killed.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 2.—The town of Eldorado, Union county, Ark., was swept by a destructive tornado about 4 o'clock this afternoon. Eldorado has a population of 1,100. A dispatch received here while the storm was raging says that from fifteen to twenty-five persons were killed and injured in Eldorado.

Collision on the Lake. ALPENA, Mich., June 2.—The steel steamer Corcoran, bound for Grand Haven, was struck by a Rock Island passenger train. One occupant of the steamer, an unknown woman, was injured.

Street Car Struck by a Train. CHICAGO, June 2.—A horse car of the City railway line, going east on Fifty-ninth street, at 6:50 o'clock this evening, was struck by a Rock Island passenger train.

Cleveland's Luck. CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 2.—Fishing was much better to-day than yesterday, and Mr. Cleveland succeeded in catching seven large drum and a good many sea trout, and other smaller fish.

There is One Thing Certain, However. Call it malaria or what you may, and it comes without calling, and here it health does exist Simmons Liver Regulator will restore it.

CASE OF THE STATE IS ENDED. Defense Begins Its Testimony in the Trial of Parker and McAfee.

It Proposes to Show Efforts on the Part of the Police to Suborn Witnesses Against the Two Men.

Testimony Introduced to Impeach the Evidence Given by Venable.

Stories of Colvin, Gabler and Banks—Mrs. Eyster Again on the Stand—Court Room Packed to the Doors.

The damaging testimony brought out by the State Thursday and the expectation that the defendants would probably be put on the stand to testify in their own behalf caused a much larger crowd than usual to visit the Criminal Court room yesterday, where the Eyster murder trial is on.

The first witness was Mrs. Eyster, who was recalled by the defense. She was asked concerning the location of the prescription case and the stove, and testified that it was the same now as upon the night of the shooting.

She was again asked as to the description she had given of the colored men who were in the store looking at cards on the night of the shooting, and said that one of them wore a soft hat, and her recollection was that the other wore a stiff hat.

Witness said that she had shown to officers the clothes her husband wore the night he was shot, but she did not know whether it was McGuff and Thornton or not. The witness denied emphatically that she had described the men to Thornton as two heavy-set colored boys between sixteen and eighteen years of age, one wearing a soft hat and the other a stiff hat.

Colvin's Testimony. The next witness called was Ed Colvin, who occupies rooms over Venable's saloon. Witness said that on the night of the shooting he was sitting in his room with his arm resting on the window sill. He heard the shot fired and heard the woman scream. He grabbed his coat and ran down stairs without putting it on.

Witness said that he had stepped off the distance earlier in the morning. He said that the middle window upstairs over the saloon was about seventeen feet from the north end of the building. The defendants were standing about six or eight feet south of the window when they were shot.

Prosecutor Holtzman interrupted the witness and asked about the situation of things about the premises. He asked the witness said he was sitting looking out of the window with his arms resting on the sill, and saw the defendants standing upon the stairs talking to each other.
