Labor Troubles on the Big Four Believed to Be Over.
 Apparently the Big Four labor troubles at Brightwood have subsided. The thirty-six machinists brought from Philadelphia were put to work yesterday morning and many of the discharged men have been taken back by the company. General Manager Barnard states that only those men who can be depended upon will be re-employed, and says that the primary object in last week's wholesale discharge was to get rid of a lot of malcontents who would undoubtedly have caused serious trouble if allowed to remain. The road officials believe much praise upon their force of special constables for the manner in which they have guarded the company's property. They hold that the officers were subjected to the rank and file at the hands of the strikers and had ample provocation to shed blood if they had so desired.

Oaks Arraigned.
 J. D. Oaks, the special railroad constable who is charged with having shot fireman Pitts, was arraigned in Police Court yesterday morning. His case was continued until Thursday. Elliott & Elliott, acting as the attorneys of the Big Four, have made an effort to have the charges against Oaks changed, but Prosecutor Hollman has declined to interfere until after the preliminary examination on Thursday.

A Few Last Acts of Desperation in the Way of Lying Circulars—Where to Vote.

There remains but one thing for good citizens to do to-day, that is to go and vote. Those who favor good government and an observance of the laws will vote the Republican ticket. This is not a partisan election; it is an election in which the law and order-loving people are striving against the lawbreakers, criminals and ex-convicts. The Sullivan machine represents the lawbreakers. While a great many Democrats will vote for Mr. Denny, to-day, in the interest of good government, it is necessary that the Republicans get out their full strength. It is necessary for many reasons. It is necessary to show the Democrats who intend to vote for Mr. Denny that the Republicans of the city are a unit for an era of respectable government. T. Pinkerton Taggart, the Democratic chairman, has been using every effort to whip Democrats into the party line, and vast sums of money have been expended to get every Democrat who intends to vote for Sullivan to the polls. A survey of the vote in Indianapolis for municipal candidates in past years shows that the party that has been able to get out its best party strength has been able to win. This is an account of the closeness of a majority of one party over another in the city. Although the law-loving people are against Sullivan, yet if they fail to go to the polls Sullivan will be elected because his chairman has made provisions for getting almost every man who will vote for the machine ticket to the polls. Taggart has hired almost every available vehicle in the city, and he has been unable to do this, with the immense corruption fund that has been placed at his disposal. Respectable citizens cannot afford to stay at home or to neglect to vote until it is too late. If good Republicans neglect to vote, the espousal of Mr. Denny's cause by the law-loving people will be of no avail as far as this election goes. It is absolutely necessary that every Republican go to the polls and vote for Mr. Denny.

It is hardly necessary to point out the wisdom of going to the polls early. In the northern wards where the Republican vote is the strongest, Taggart has had old men appointed as Democratic officials. This is done to make the progress of the vote very slow in the afternoon, thereby shutting off as many as possible of Republican votes when the polls close. It is wise, therefore, for Republicans and good citizens to go to the polls in the morning. The polls open at 6 o'clock and close at 6. The polls can be closed at any time after 4 o'clock if no voter offers to vote after that time within a period of fifteen minutes.

Every Republican ticket should be voted without a scratch, as the entire Democratic ticket is composed of men unworthy to govern the city of Indianapolis. Their unworthiness has been pointed out from time to time in the daily press. To vote the straight ticket it is necessary to stamp the eagle at the head of the Republican column on the ballot. Do not stamp anywhere else after that. Then see that the ink is dry before folding the ballot so that no blot may be made.

As the election day begins there is little doubt that the entire Republican ticket will be elected, and by a majority larger than that ever given a candidate in this city. Fraud alone can defeat the ticket, and it is not believed that the Sullivan machine can elect its ticket even by such corruption and debauchery of the ballot.

NO BETS ON SULLIVAN.
 The Money Failed to Materialize at the Sentinel Office.
 The Sentinel has been boasting for the last few weeks that it had at its office from $1,000 to $3,000 to bet on Sullivan, and the report was circulated widely that odds of two to one could be had. Several men who wanted to bet on Denny have been unable to find any of the Sullivan money. "Bill" Tron, whose gambling establishment has been the headquarters for the Sullivan machine, claimed to have a great deal of money that he wanted to bet on his partner, the Mayor, Sam Dinn, another anti-Sullivan Democrat. The Sullivan machine trumpeted the fact about that he had money at his disposal to bet.

Last night W. C. Compton and a companion went to the Sentinel office and offered to bet $100 on the odds of two to one. The man in charge of the office said there was no such odds. Mr. Compton again offered to bet even money on Denny. He threw down $100 in gold. The amount analyzed the man in charge. He told Mr. Compton that the man who had charge of the betting had gone out and he could not for the life of him tell when he would be back. There was no bet to be had at the Sentinel office. Compton then went to Tron's, and he could not find a man big or low who was willing to bet on Sullivan. There was not a bet on the backboard. He went to Sam Dinn and found that the bluff there had out betted. No one about town wanted to bet on Sullivan yesterday.

LAST DEMOCRATIC CIRCULAR.
 Hopeless Endeavor to Get Republicans to Vote the Prohibition Ticket.
 One of the most villainous attacks that has yet been made upon Mr. Denny by the opposition was deferred to the last moment, so as to prevent its refutation in time to be of service to him in the race for Mayor. The attack is made by means of a circular sent to Prohibitionists and temperance Republicans, and was designed to induce them to desert Mr. Denny. The circular contains statements made by three or four saloon keepers to the effect that they would vote for Denny because they knew him to be a good man and did not think he would be unjust to them, and an affidavit by one B. W. Burns, to the effect that these statements were made. The circular is headed "Do Not Be Deceived," and is intended to be construed as conclusive evidence that Denny is a friend of the saloon keepers. The only thing strutting in the fact is that out of about four hundred saloon keepers all but the few named will vote for Sullivan and the wide-open policy.

BLEEDING THE STREET WORKERS.
 Shovelers and Teamsters Assessed for the Corruption Fund.
 One of the most despicable tricks of the Sullivan campaign came to light yesterday, and it is one that should be met with stern rebuke by laboring men to-day. Many a poor man has been compelled to go to work on the streets to keep his family from starving, and many of them have been compelled to promise to vote for the little miserably Mayor in order to get this pittance. Not content with robbing these men of their manhood and self-respect by giving them the alternative of voting for Sullivan or starving, the men have been blackmailed into giving a portion of their small wages to be used on this concluding day of the campaign.

 It was a sight to be deplored, one to be met with pity and indignation. John Shine, the head of the street crew, by having such a giving these poor fellows the alternative of putting up money for Sullivan or losing their jobs, and by having them west around with a book and wanted men to sign away money due them from the city of Indianapolis, and by having them assessed $2 each, and by teamsters, who get $3.75 a day, were assessed $5. Shine went to Dick Symp, a teamster, and told him that he would pay to hold his job.
 Shine, however, had two loads of dirt or Fletcher avenue last week, and yet he was paid a full week's wages. The street crew, the time he spent in campaigning for the machine. Such rottenness has never before been known in the history of this city, and directly under the eye of the "business" Board of Works.

BUSKIRK'S SCHEMES.
 Prisoners Released on Promise to Vote for Him—Albert Smith's Case.
 Hardly a day has passed during the past week that one or more instances is not exposed where the Call has ordered the release of men from the workhouse under promise to vote for him. A colored man named Gibbs is one of the persons so released, and from his conversation it appears that he feels himself bound to fulfill the promise and vote for the Call. Gibbs says that before he was released he was required to give his name to the Call. Buskirk has made a bid for the workhouse vote during all his campaign, under the guise of a promise to release men from the workhouse.

Another instance of the manner in which Buskirk has been using the judicial power is a most despicable and disgraceful one. Last week Albert Smith, a porter at the Union Station, was arrested. Two women had come to his home, at 333 Miami street, to raise a disturbance. Smith was taken out to the station and arrested. When brought up for trial on Friday Buskirk told him to sign a promise to vote for the Call. Smith signed the promise with both hands, and in the Police Court he was asked if he was going to vote for him. He was told that if he would vote the Sullivan machine would give him $100. Smith signed the promise Wednesday to have his fine stayed. Then he was allowed to go.
 It is said that the women who raised the row were sent there by Democrats for the deliberate purpose of having Smith arrested. He was taken to the station, and his boarding house before election day, thereby destroying five Republican votes. The Call has made a bid for the workhouse, with the idea that his wife would be forced to give up her boarders.

EXPORTATIONS AND IMPORTATIONS.
 Trying to Get Negroes Out of Town and Bring Them In.
 There were quite a number of negroes at the Union Station last night to go to Chicago on the Big Four with the passes that T. Pinkerton Taggart furnished them. Most of the colored men were persuaded to remain in the city and vote their principles. The Call has been trying to get the colored men out of town and bring them in. The plan was to have the colored men at the station the evening of the election and have them on the train at Market street. The Republican party has a description of these men, and they will be arrested if they attempt to vote to-day. The leader of the crowd is a man named Johnson.

WHERE YOU WILL VOTE.
 It behooves Every Republican to Get to the Polls.
 Below is printed the location of the polling places. Voting Place Changed.
 The voting place in the sixteenth precinct has been changed. It will be at New York and Illinois streets, instead of Michigan and Illinois streets.

They Will Vote for Denny.
 G. W. Elliot, a colored man whom it was reported had joined the colored Taggart Club and was working for Sullivan, indignantly denies that he has gone over to the machine. He will vote for Mr. Denny. William T. Floyd makes the same statement for himself.

He Was Slandered.
 Somebody yesterday spread a report that Frank R. Knotts, of the First ward, intended to vote for Sullivan. Mr. Knotts called the Journal to the last evening and denounced the story as false.

KILLED BY THE CARS.
 Pleasant Bales, a Young Boy, Mangled by a Freight Train.
 Pleasant Bales, aged eight years, son of a Big Four brakeman, was ground to death under the wheels of a freight train yesterday morning. The Bales family live at Brightwood, and the boy attempted to board the cars near the shops. He missed his footing and fell under the wheels. His head was nearly cut from the trunk, and both eyes were horribly mangled. The coroner was called, and the remains of the unfortunate lad were sent to the Foze & Fitzhugh morgue, where they were prepared for burial. The boy's parents recently came here from Winchester, Ind., where the body will be sent to-day.

Struck by a Train.
 While crossing the Big Four track at Washington street, yesterday morning, Philip Boney, driver of one of the Maus delivery wagons, was struck by a freight and badly hurt. The horse which he was driving became unmanageable, and Boney was unable to get the animal from the track. The injured man was taken to his home, at No. 17 Agnes street, in the city ambulance. His injuries are very serious and may result fatally. The horse was killed and the wagon demolished.

GOVERNOR AND ROBY.
 Chance that O'Malley May Escape, but the Fighters Cannot.
 Governor Matthews positively stated yesterday that the rumors of correspondence between himself and Judge Gillet, of Lake county, looking toward a compromise in the Roby prosecutions, are untrue. "There has been no such talk between us," said the Governor, "but I have heard the question of compromise suggested by either or not it came from President O'Malley, of the Roby association, I am not certain. However, there is one thing of which I am certain, and that is that nothing in the way of a compromise in the prosecution of the actors in the late sports will be entertained. I propose that this part of the program shall be carried out. There is a point wherein the matter might be arranged, I think that if the managers of the Roby ring would tear down the entire affair and move it out of the State, they might relieve themselves of further responsibility in the matter. With the present clubhouse taken away, it is hardly likely that others would attempt to erect a similar one. This, however, would be no punishment for the prize-fighters, and would have no bearing on the pending prosecutions."

SMALLPOX LETTERS.
 Various Queer Communications Received by Governor Matthews.
 Governor Matthews is in daily receipt of a curious bundle of mail from Munich, in which the citizens set forth the smallpox trouble in various ways. Many of the letters are evidently the creation of cranks. Yesterday one man wrote the Governor that all this talk of smallpox was false. The writer asserted that there has not been a case of smallpox in Munich, there is not any case, and that it is very wrong in the physicians to spread a report so scandalous. A woman writes that the Governor instead of sending the letters to the health order all the manufacturers to resume business. She holds that if the men were allowed to go to work the town would need no assistance. The Governor hardly agrees with the Munich lady.

In a Floating Bottle.
 A half bottle of whisky and an accompanying few lines scrawled upon a sock of writing paper were brought to police headquarters yesterday and turned over to the superintendent as the probable cause of a disturbance which was found floating in the canal yesterday morning near Sixth street. A North Indianapolis woman on her way to the city noticed the floating object and securing a stick brought it to the bank. In the neck of the bottle was found the note, which reads as follows: "I am dead. Thy mercies, chastened by Thy rod.
 May we walk through all things humble with our God."

Macbeth Said to Be Innocent.
 F. D. Macbeth, the late bookkeeper of the Knights and Ladies of Honor, met a committee from the Supreme Lodge, yesterday, at the office of Attorney Wishart. The committee was in charge of F. D. Lockard and was appointed by the Supreme Lodge to examine the alleged defalcation of the bookkeeper. Macbeth submitted his statement but the result of the conference will not be made known until next week. It is asserted by Mr. Macbeth's son that the committee is thoroughly convinced of his father's innocence. He also says that some startling developments are about being made.

For Carrying Concealed Weapons.
 William Johnson, colored, was arrested last night at the home of his sweetheart, Ada Bundy, by patrolmen Thomas and Haley. Early in the evening Johnson was in the rear of a West Washington street stable acting in a suspicious manner, and it was thought the lock-up was the best place for him. A charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed against the prisoner.
