LILLUOKALANI INTERVIEWED.

Hawaii's Ex-Queen Says She Is Not Selfish in Desiring to Be Restored. NEW YORK, March 12.—The Herald this morning prints an interview with ex-Queen Lilluokalani, granted to its correspondent at Honolulu Feb. 28. The ex-queen wished it distinctly denied that, as she said had been widely published, her interest in the restoration of the monarchy was wholly personal. "Of course," she contended, "I have naturally a deep personal interest at stake, but you may say that we are deeply sorry on account of our patient native people, many of whom have lost employment by the overthrow. If anything grieves us sorely, more sorely than our own annoyance, it is their distress. Their devotion to the monarchy was not during our trouble that we are most grateful. They are, of course, very anxious about their liberties, for I assure you that the Hawaiian people are a patriotic as any people in the world. Our subjects are probably more patriotic than any other people in the world, and, for that matter, we have counseled them to be peaceful and await results."

COKE WILL RETIRE.

The Senior Texas Senator Will Not Be a Candidate for Re-Election. WACO, Tex., March 12.—Walter S. Baker, chairman of the State Democratic executive committee, is in receipt of a letter from Hon. Richard Coke, United States Senator from this State, saying that under no condition will he again be a candidate for office. His public life, he says, will end with his present term.

RASCALS TURNED OUT.

Two Cities in Maine Taken from the Democracy by Republicans. AUGUSTA, Me., March 12.—The Republicans carried Augusta to-day, being an overturn from last year. Charles A. Milliken, Republican, was elected Mayor by a majority of 310 over Moses R. Leighton, Democrat, and the Republicans carry six of the seven wards.

THREE BROKE JAIL.

Marshall, Ill., Prisoners Knock Down the Turnkey and Escape. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARSHALL, Ill., March 12.—Peter Jackson, Charles Sullivan and Emanuel Lacy, three prisoners confined in the county jail, awaiting trial, knocked down the turnkey, who was taking them their supper, at 6:30 o'clock to-night, and escaped. Officers are in pursuit. The two former were brought here from Chester, a penitentiary two weeks ago on a burglary charge. They had been sent there for three years from Crawford county. Lacy was in for larceny.

LITTLE COLORED FRIENDS.

White Boy Tied to a Stake, Brush Filled About Him and the Mass Fired. CAMDEN, N. J., March 12.—Conrad Coke and John Ellis, negro boys, yesterday seized Charles Timney, a white child of eight years, and tied him to a stake. Then they held brushwood about it and set it on fire. The child's cries brought a colored man to the scene, who released him. The child is so badly burned that even should he survive he must lose both arms.

DOINGS OF A CRAZY MAN.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 12.—In response to an inquiry, Gen. W. H. Jackson made the following statement relative to Judge Howell E. Jackson's health: "I am sorry to hear that he is suffering from a bronchial affection, and at times he spits up a little blood. It does not seem to me his lungs at all. He will recover his seat on the Supreme Bench in April, as his health is constantly improving under the effects of the mild climate of Florida."

WILL NO MORE HURRIED

Programme of the Senate Minority Outlined by Mr. Allison. Republicans Will Insist on Ample Time to Discuss the Tariff Bill and Offer Amendments.

A COMPARATIVE STATEMENT

How the Revenues Would Be Affected by the Amended Bill.

Increase in Internal Taxes Estimated at $63,500,000—Workingmen Will Not Be Granted Hearings.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, March 12.—"We do not intend to factiously oppose the progress of the Wilson tariff bill when that measure comes before the Senate for disposition," says Senator Allison, of Iowa, a leading Republican member of the finance committee, "but you can depend upon it that the measure will not finally be disposed of under some months. Of course, the Republicans will be charged with offering amendments and making speeches simply for delay. We fully anticipate that construction upon what we shall do, but it will not deter the Republicans in the least. My idea is, and I think it is the opinion of the other Republicans in the Senate, that the minority, clearly outside of partisan politics, owe it to themselves, who passed the McKinley tariff law, and to that measure itself, to offer amendments and to push them vigorously and show their advantage over similar provisions in the Wilson bill. I presume our amendment to the Wilson bill will be a feature of the present tariff law. You will remember that the Republicans in the House offered the existing law as an amendment to each paragraph of the Wilson bill when it was up for consideration. They simply said by their action that the present law was good enough for them, and that it could not be improved upon; and that is the opinion that we will follow pretty much the same program."

TREASURY FIGURES.

Statement Showing the Effects of the Senate Bill on the Revenues. WASHINGTON, March 12.—The Senate finance committee was to-day supplied with a tabulated statement, prepared by the Treasury Department, showing the amount of revenue which it is estimated will be received under the Senate bill, if it should become a law; also, giving the estimate under the Wilson bill, and comparing both with the returns from the Treasury Department under the present law for 1893. The statement also gives an estimate of the increase in the internal revenue under the Senate bill, which is as follows:

POPULIST MEASURE.

Independent Tariff Bill Introduced by Senator Peffer. WASHINGTON, March 12.—Senator Peffer today introduced an independent tariff bill in the Senate, amending the McKinley law in various particulars. It reduces the tariff on common brown earthenware to 10 per cent. ad valorem; on china, to 30, 35 and 40 per cent., for the various grades; hoop iron or steel, fire; T rails at $10 per ton; iron or steel wire for fences, etc., 5-10 of a cent per pound; other wire, 4-10 of a cent per pound; iron or steel cutlery, 10 per cent. ad valorem; fire arms, 100 per cent. ad valorem. Spikes, nails, screws and like articles are all largely reduced. Lead wire is to pay a duty of 1 cent per pound; tin, 1 cent per pound; heavy or saved lumber, 20 per cent. ad valorem; sawed lumber, 10 per cent. ad valorem; iron or steel, 10 per cent. ad valorem; iron or steel wire, 10 per cent. ad valorem; iron or steel wire for fences, etc., 5-10 of a cent per pound; other wire, 4-10 of a cent per pound; iron or steel cutlery, 10 per cent. ad valorem; fire arms, 100 per cent. ad valorem. JUDGE CALDWELL DENOUNCES SENATORS' ACTION ON LOAN ASSOCIATIONS.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, March 12.—Representative John A. Caldwell, of Cincinnati, the Republican nominee for Mayor of that city, returned to his seat in the House to-day after a week in the Queen City. He is a native of Washington at this time, but for the purpose of defeating, if possible, the work of the Democratic membership of the Senate finance committee, which struck out of the Wilson tariff bill the exemption from income taxes of all building and loan associations organized under the State laws, and which do not make loans where the are located. Judge Caldwell says Ohio would suffer from the law which would levy a tax upon building and loan associations than any other State in the Union, and that under the provisions of the bill as it now stands and as it was framed by Democrats alone the savings banks in various forms of the country are to be taxed 2 per cent., and they are to be made to pay an extra tax of 2 per cent. upon all the money they have borrowed from building and loan associations with which to provide their families with homes. The Democratic members of the House ways and means committee at one time had no exemption of building and loan associations in their income tax scheme, but they finally became afraid of the result of such legislation and provided the exemption. Judge Caldwell says he hopes to have the exemption restored to the bill before it is taken up by the Senate finance committee. He believes that the laboring men of the country should be exempted from the tax under this provision in the income tax bill.

DEMOCRATS DO NOT WANT TO HEAR PROTESTS OF WORKINGMEN.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The Senate committee on finance took up the tariff bill to-day as amended by the Democratic members, beginning with the chemical schedule. Senator Aldrich, on behalf of the Republican members, stated that there were representatives of several interests affected at Brownsville, created considerable excitement in that town. The note was written by a woman, who said that she was being held a prisoner by two men at a Gypsy camp. The place mentioned is situated above Morgantown. The note was given to Clerk Harry Langdon, of the steamer "Blair," who took it to Morgantown and placed it in the hands of the authorities there. The writer wanted the finer points of Blair to send her help at once. The note was written on a piece of paper torn from a note book and was not signed.

THE BRIGGS QUESTION AGAIN.

It Comes Before New York Presbytery on Presentation of Seminary Students. NEW YORK, March 12.—The New York Presbytery held its monthly meeting to-day. Several young men were presented to the presbytery prior to their admission to the ministry, and after the usual questions had been put, and answered favorably, to the candidates, Dr. G. L. Shearer, of the First Society, created a commotion by suggesting that it might be well to ask these young men whether they were attending any seminary not recommended by this body and the General Assembly. This practically introduced the Briggs question into the case, and a dozen ministers were on their feet instantly. Dr. Rosier said that it would be time enough to inquire where the candidates studied theology when the candidates came up for final license. Dr. Charles I. Thompson said that he was not aware of anything that prevented the candidates from attending the seminary they desired. He did not know but what a student had a right to enter a seminary not approved by the presbytery.

WAR IN OKLAHOMA

Two Factions Striving for Control of the Town of Enid. Everybody Armed and Ready to Fight on the Slightest Provocation—Two Men Shot Yesterday.

ENID, O. T., March 12.—A new factor entered the municipal war in this city to-day and precipitated another desperate fight between S. F. Spencer, president of the O. County Bank, and a man named Flaherty, a notorious saloon loafer and all-round rascal. Spencer has been identified with the Moore faction, even going so far as to arm himself in defense of Moore's action. Spencer was put in nomination by the Moore crowd to-day for city treasurer, and became involved in a quarrel with Flaherty. Spencer was brutally beaten, but, managing to get his gun in position, commenced an indiscriminate fusillade on his assailant. Flaherty was slightly wounded and a spent bullet struck a woman in the street, but did not seriously injure her. The Moore faction is guarding the old city records in one part of the city, with a trusted squad of armed men. The Gregg crowd climbed over the ramparts of the Council chamber, in another part of the town, and is transacting business with a new set of records. Col. John Wiggins, who is in Washington in the interests of the county-seat bill, wired for money to come home on this morning, and the Moore faction made a draft on the city treasurer for the money to send him. Gregg and his followers immediately sued out an injunction against Moore, restraining him from touching the city records, and it looks as if Wiggins will have to either borrow the money to come home or walk. The Gregg crowd say they will never permit him to have a cent.

WHY GAMA SURRENDERED.

ARIO DE JANEIRO, March 12.—Representatives of the foreign powers were officially notified yesterday that operations against the insurgents in the Bay of Guanabara would be resumed after the expiration of forty-eight hours. As called yesterday, the government fleet is off the entrance of Rio de Janeiro bay, a portion of the fleet, consisting of the Da Gama, Desaix, Aurora, having taken up a position at night at the entrance between Fort 21, and the entrance to the bay. It was believed, to be bombarding Fort Villalobos. The remainder of the government fleet is off the entrance to the bay, and the torpedo boats purchased in Germany, are further outside the entrance of the harbor.

LATEST FROM HAWAII.

Part of Lilluokalani's Canadian Army Thought to Be in Honolulu. VICTORIA, B. C., March 12.—The steamer Warrimo arrived at noon with Hawaiian news one day later than received at San Francisco on the Australia. Writing from Honolulu on March 4 the correspondent says: "More than an ordinarily large number of stowaway passengers, many of them Englishmen and Canadians, some wearing military badges, arrived here during January and February. They have an advanced employment, and are understood to be well supplied with money, while their sympathies are with the 'royals.' Some of them were taken by the police to have been engaged or enlisted by Sansone, of Vancouver, and the military appearance of many of them has given the authorities reason to believe that they are here for the purpose of assisting the Provisional Government. The opinion prevailed that the report previously sent of the entrance of a Canadian army into Hawaii was a hoax. The presence of these men, however, confirms the original story. In view of the presence of these men, the Provisional Government has put half the citizens' guard under arms, and has passed strict regulations in respect to the landing of passengers by steamers. The regulation provides that upon the arrival of any foreign vessel with passengers at any port of the Hawaiian Islands it shall be the duty of the master to report the name, nationality, last residence, destination, occupation and object of coming to Hawaii of every such passenger before any of them are landed to the collector-general of customs or his deputy or collector of customs at the port to which the vessel has arrived. The report shall, throughout the voyage, be kept on file, and the vessel or all at a designated place on shore. Such removal of passengers from the vessel for the purpose of inspection shall not be considered landing. All decisions made by the inspecting officers touching the right of any passenger to land, or the collection of duties, may be reversed by the collector of customs, in the case of appeal, may reverse the decision of his deputy. PROBABLE END OF THE WAR

Thompson Notifies Gresham of the Insurgent Admiral's Action.

FURTHER NEWS FROM HAWAII CONCERNING LILLUOKALANI'S ALLEGED ARMY—THE CANADIAN CONTINGENT AT HONOLULU.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Advice received at the State Department late this afternoon from Minister Thompson at Rio de Janeiro indicate that the Brazilian rebellion is about ended. The dispatches from Minister Thompson contain the information that Admiral Da Gama has gone aboard the Portuguese war vessel "Blindado," now in the harbor at Rio, and has sent to President Peixoto with the Portuguese offer of surrender on condition of full protection for himself and his followers. Two dispatches were received by the State Department. They were in cipher, and when translated read as follows: "Da Gama, to-day, through the senior Portuguese minister, offered to surrender to the President of Brazil, provided he and his followers were granted protection against punishment."
