Silk Workers' Strike at Phillipsburg Results in a Riot.

Officer whose Nose was Broken by a Thrown Stone Shoots and Wounds a Man—Other Labor News.

PHILIPSBURG, N. J., March 15.—The trouble at the Standard silk mill continued to-night in bloodshed, although nobody was dangerously hurt.

Down for the day, at 5 o'clock, deputy sheriffs started to escort several girl weavers who remained at work to their homes.

Sheriff Swartz had previously cautioned the crowd to maintain order, but the mob, instead of heeding the warning, started to follow the deputies, yelling "scab" and making threats.

At the corner of Fulton and Lewis streets Deputy John Keller was struck in the face with a large stone, which broke his nose.

Keller drew his revolver and fired into the crowd, the ball striking a young man, whose name could not be learned, in the hip and inflicting a bad flesh wound.

Officer Steiner arrested Keller and took him to the police station, followed by several thousand wildly excited people.

He furnished bail for a hearing, and was released. During the shooting one of the girls fainting and was carried to her home.

Excitement is running high here to-night. Superintendent Larned is rapidly filling the places of the striking weavers with new hands.

Will Get to Work To-day. OMAHA, Neb., March 15.—It was 4 o'clock to-day when the fourteen representatives of organized labor filed into General Manager Dickinson's office and the conference over the wage schedule was formally opened.

After President Clark had welcomed the men Mr. Dickinson said that Mr. Clark's physical condition was such that he could not undergo any great strain.

He had called in his assistants, Superintendent of Motive Power McConnell, Superintendent of Telegraph Correll and General Manager Dickinson.

Mr. Clark would preside, and the hearings would be conducted by the men, who were called for and after some discussion it was decided that the real work of the conference should be commenced at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

At that time the grievances of the engineers and firemen will be taken up. They will be held in the morning by the conductors and the telegraph operators coming last.

There were several secret sessions of the men before Mr. Dickinson's office, and the conference. Some comment was indulged as to the scope of the work to be done, and it was suggested by one of the men that a "flash in the pan" Others are of the opinion that everything will be satisfactorily settled and that all will be pleased at the end.

Street Car Strikers' Riot. NEW YORK, March 15.—The employees of the Steiway street railways, running from Hunter's Point to Steinway, Long Island City, went out on strike early this morning in consequence of a reduction in wages and in the working force of the road.

One hundred men quit work and the trolley wires and tore up the track in some places, in others blockading the road with wagons, paving stones and other obstructions.

Assistant Superintendent Conger, who was in charge of the trolley cars, a pistol shot fired into the company's office while he was standing talking with Superintendent Moulton, a noisy crowd of strikers being gathered outside.

There was more violence by strikers in the afternoon. Trolley wires were cut in several places, and in order to protect property and disperse the crowds, the police were obliged to use their clubs.

Directors of the Steiway railway called on Mayor Sanford this afternoon and asked him to act as arbitrator in the dispute between the company and its employees, and Mayor Sanford agreed to do so.

Thereupon the strikers returned to work, and the cars were moving about as usual.

Warned with a Bomb. PATERSON, N. J., March 15.—The Paterson strikers to-night had recourse to dynamite, carrying out their threat of two days ago.

The people of the city were awakened to-night by the explosion of a bomb in front of the residence of John B. Foran in the working part of the city.

The men in Bamford Brothers' mill, a strike. It was at this mill that the trouble first occurred, and the employees of the mill were in the subsequent agitations.

Bates, the foreman, is very unpopular with the men, and has received frequent warnings from the strike committee.

The bomb exploded to-night was a small one, presumably, as no damage was done, and Bates regards it more in the nature of a warning than as an attempt upon his life.

It has been reported that three men did no more damage than to cause the buildings in the neighborhood to tremble. The police have no clue to the perpetrators.

ARTIFICIAL DIAMONDS. Two Firms Now Engaged in Manufacturing the Gems.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle. If society were wise it would not be at all interested in diamonds.

The south African mines have already done much to rob the diamond of its rarity, and now indications are that diamonds will soon be as plentiful as glass buttons and be of as little value.

For many years there have been persons endeavoring to produce diamonds by artificial means, but within a few days it has become public knowledge that there are in the United States at least two wealthy stock companies, duly organized and equipped, which are engaged in the diamond making and hope soon to have their wares on the market.

At a session of the United States Circuit Court sitting in Pittsburgh the Cowles Electric and Aluminum company of Cleveland, filed a bill of complaint against the Carbondom Company of Monacahele City, by which plaintiff seeks to restrain defendant from using plaintiff's secret process of manufacturing diamonds.

This seems to effectually remove the manufacture of diamonds from the realms of romance and make it a hard fact with which society and maiden ladies are to practically deal.

With two rival companies engaged in turning out diamonds without capital or business standing, the market will soon be glutted, the stones will not be worth the stealing and can command no attention whatever from millionaires except, temporarily, as building material.

A Mother's Objection. Harper's Bazar. "Dear me!" cried the nurse. "The baby has swallowed my railroad ticket. What shall I do?"

A Misd. Life. Enthusiastic Catholic Lady (to Jewish proprietor of music hall)—Dear Mr. Mendelbaum, do let us have the hall for our concert, and I will say ten Ave Marias for you. J. P. M. H. (shaking his head slyly)—You would haft ter say Ave Moseses for me.

On St. Patrick's Day. Puck. Mrs. O'Brady—An' yez don't till me yez is agin' to parade this day, because ye are so sick yez kin hardly hold up yez head? Mr. O'Brady—O' am that, Mary Ann. Each wan' us to make our march, but ye are agin' the crowd, or else thin'kin' we're not a bit better than yer are.

Judge Long Not Yet Satisfied.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The pension case of Judge Charles Long, of Michigan, will come up again in the Equity Court of the District within a short time in the form of an application for a permanent injunction to prevent the Commissioner of Pensions from reducing the pension. A notice that this action would be taken unless compliance was made by the Commissioner within thirty days was sent to the Michigan Supreme Court justice on the 1st of the month.

Judge Long's counsel was disappointed in a few days the taking of depositions in Michigan to support the allegations which will be made in the application. In case of the dismissal of the suit by the Equity Court, an appeal will be taken to the District Court of Appeals from there to the United States Supreme Court.

Ex-Senator Dawes Not Seriously Ill. WASHINGTON, March 15.—Some excitement was caused here this morning by the report that ex-Senator Dawes, of Massachusetts, had been seized by a sudden and alarming illness. It appears that the venerable ex-Senator, who has been stopping over in Washington on his way from his home in Massachusetts to Oklahoma, was taken by a sudden attack of the illness on the street about 10 o'clock this evening.

A bystander placed him in a cab and conveyed him to the Arlington Hotel, where he was placed in the care of Miss Dalton, a physician. A physician was summoned and he declared that there was no cause for apprehension, as the fainting attack was the result of an attack of indigestion. Some quinine medicine was administered and at 1:30 Mr. Dawes was sleeping quietly.

The Naval Engineer Corps. WASHINGTON, March 15.—The statement of Chief Engineer Melville concerning the staff of the navy, made before the joint congressional committee on the personnel of the navy, has been made public. He contended strenuously for an increase of ships to three hundred men. Replying to a question as to whether the officers under the engineers could not take the place of their superiors in case of sickness Mr. Melville replied: "No, they cannot. They have had some engineering instruction at the academy in marine engineering as they receive when you received at college, and in mechanics and mathematics, but as for practical engineering they know nothing whatever about it."
