

EASTER

ATTRICTIONS

SPECIAL PRICES

Ladies' and Children's Spring Garments.

One lot Children's Short Coats, size 2, 3 and 4 years, about 30 garments, in navy colored, navy blue, cloth, worth $5 to $7; choice Friday and Saturday, $3.75.

L. S. AYRES & CO.

SEASONABLE SOUVENIRS

THE HEIGHT OF EASTER TIDE

VASES, VASES, VASES, LAMPS, SHADES, DUCKS, CHICKS—very chic.

WHITE AND GOLD.

No prices—just something beautiful to see.

EASTMAN, SCHLEICHER & LEE

ART EMPORIUM, Telephone 500.

EASTER CARDS

with Soule's Photographs.

THE STATE FAIR RACES.

Agricultural Board Will Hang Up Over $8,000 in Purse.

There are to be some fast events at the next State fair. The driving club is not going to be allowed to monopolize all the speedy racers by any manner of means.

THE H. LIEBER COMPANY, 33 South Meridian St.

GOOD FRIDAY OBSERVANCES.

The Day in the Churches—Additional Programmes of Easter Music.

Urging Ware's Appointment.

Brick on Morris Street.

Cement Walks for Illinois Street.

City Will Meet its Bills.

Urging Ware's Appointment.

Brick on Morris Street.

Cement Walks for Illinois Street.

City Will Meet its Bills.

Urging Ware's Appointment.

Brick on Morris Street.

Cement Walks for Illinois Street.

City Will Meet its Bills.

Urging Ware's Appointment.

Brick on Morris Street.

Cement Walks for Illinois Street.

City Will Meet its Bills.

Urging Ware's Appointment.

Brick on Morris Street.

Cement Walks for Illinois Street.

City Will Meet its Bills.

Urging Ware's Appointment.

Brick on Morris Street.

Cement Walks for Illinois Street.

City Will Meet its Bills.

A NEW CHARITY WORK

Episcopians to Build the Tuttle Home for Orphans and Aged.

Ground Broken for an $115,000 Building at Central Avenue and Seventh Street—Funds on Hand.

The Tuttle Home for the Aged People and Orphans will soon be a reality, and the efforts of those who have been untiringly endeavoring to secure it will soon be crowned with success.

One lot Ladies' Short Coats and Capes at $4; good value at $8.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Boice are in Athens, O., for a few weeks.

Miss Mary Taylor entertained a few friends last evening at cards at her home, 1175 North Delaware street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jordan and daughter Mary left yesterday for California, to be absent two months.

Miss Jessie Langley, who has been visiting relatives on North Pennsylvania street for a month, returned yesterday to her home in Evansville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hart Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark entertained friends at the new home of the former, on North Pennsylvania street, near Fifteenth, last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. DeHart Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark entertained friends at the new home of the former, on North Pennsylvania street, near Fifteenth, last evening.

The Propylaeum Association will give a party at the Propylaeum for the young people of the afternoon and evening of April 21.

Wedding and Reception. The wedding of Miss Stella Williams at the bride's home, near Mount Summit, Henry county, Mr. Marshall will bring his bride to Muncie.

STONE-NIXON. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 22.—This evening John W. Stone, of St. Louis, Mo., and Nixon, of Indianapolis, were married.

COLFAX, Ind., March 22.—Prof. and Mrs. George E. Long celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage at the O. G. F. hall last evening.

The Vaccination Test Case. Secretary Metcalf, of the State Board of Health, was at Terre Haute yesterday, testifying in a test vaccination case, which is causing much interest over there, and a decision in which will be awaited with great interest all over the State.

A Fear of a Cold Wave. It is feared by C. F. R. Wapenhans, of the local weather bureau, that a cold wave will strike Indiana and this vicinity to-night.

A Joke on Their Friends. Late yesterday afternoon Justice Habich united in marriage a Cincinnati couple who gave the names of Albert McKibben and Daisy Belle Chambers.

A Carpenter Loses His Tools. William Bennett, a carpenter, residing in North Indianapolis, lost some tools valued at $5 and a pair of shoes Wednesday.

Half Fare for the Masons. The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons will be held in this city May 22 and 23.

Boys Loot a Fruit Cellar. Detectives McGuff and Doherty yesterday arrested eight boys, none of whom are over fifteen years of age, for stealing a quantity of fruit from the cellar under No. 13 South Indiana street in the morning.

Unemployed Will Not Meet Again. The unemployed will not meet again unless a meeting is called by the chairman.

Names Not Made Public. The Board of Health yesterday afternoon met and selected the board of examiners for the medical college to graduate, but decided not to make the names public.

Company Will Obey the Ordinance. The case in which a street-car conductor and motorman were arrested for blocking a street has been indefinitely postponed.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

THE INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL

South Meridian Street Improvements.

The Board of Public Works will to-day take up the consideration of the South Meridian-street improvement.

ANOTHER IRON HALL DIVIDEND.

It is the intention of Judge Winters to declare another Iron Hall dividend on April 17, when it is believed that there will be enough money to pay the 12,000 members who have accounted to the receiver.

Mr. O. Hawkins left last night for Philadelphia to represent the receiver in the Iron Hall dividend matter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jordan and daughter Mary left yesterday for California, to be absent two months.

Miss Mary Taylor entertained a few friends last evening at cards at her home, 1175 North Delaware street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jordan and daughter Mary left yesterday for California, to be absent two months.

Miss Jessie Langley, who has been visiting relatives on North Pennsylvania street for a month, returned yesterday to her home in Evansville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hart Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark entertained friends at the new home of the former, on North Pennsylvania street, near Fifteenth, last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. DeHart Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark entertained friends at the new home of the former, on North Pennsylvania street, near Fifteenth, last evening.

The Propylaeum Association will give a party at the Propylaeum for the young people of the afternoon and evening of April 21.

Wedding and Reception. The wedding of Miss Stella Williams at the bride's home, near Mount Summit, Henry county, Mr. Marshall will bring his bride to Muncie.

STONE-NIXON. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 22.—This evening John W. Stone, of St. Louis, Mo., and Nixon, of Indianapolis, were married.

COLFAX, Ind., March 22.—Prof. and Mrs. George E. Long celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage at the O. G. F. hall last evening.

The Vaccination Test Case. Secretary Metcalf, of the State Board of Health, was at Terre Haute yesterday, testifying in a test vaccination case, which is causing much interest over there, and a decision in which will be awaited with great interest all over the State.

A Fear of a Cold Wave. It is feared by C. F. R. Wapenhans, of the local weather bureau, that a cold wave will strike Indiana and this vicinity to-night.

A Joke on Their Friends. Late yesterday afternoon Justice Habich united in marriage a Cincinnati couple who gave the names of Albert McKibben and Daisy Belle Chambers.

A Carpenter Loses His Tools. William Bennett, a carpenter, residing in North Indianapolis, lost some tools valued at $5 and a pair of shoes Wednesday.

Half Fare for the Masons. The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons will be held in this city May 22 and 23.

Boys Loot a Fruit Cellar. Detectives McGuff and Doherty yesterday arrested eight boys, none of whom are over fifteen years of age, for stealing a quantity of fruit from the cellar under No. 13 South Indiana street in the morning.

Unemployed Will Not Meet Again. The unemployed will not meet again unless a meeting is called by the chairman.

Names Not Made Public. The Board of Health yesterday afternoon met and selected the board of examiners for the medical college to graduate, but decided not to make the names public.

Company Will Obey the Ordinance. The case in which a street-car conductor and motorman were arrested for blocking a street has been indefinitely postponed.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

BATTLE WITH TRAMPS

Police Capture Fourteen Men En Route to Join Coxe's Army.

They Were Having a Hilarious Time in a Box Car and Fought Violently for a While.

There was a battle yesterday afternoon between some men and a tramping party who were on their way to join Crank Coxe, and a number of officers, aided by citizens, on the Big Four tracks west of the river, near Elevator A. About 1 o'clock patrolman Asche was in the vicinity of the West-side street-car stables when foreman Shaw, of the P. & E. railroad yards, ran up to him and stated that a car in the yards was full of tramps, who were drinking and having a hilarious time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jordan and daughter Mary left yesterday for California, to be absent two months.

Miss Mary Taylor entertained a few friends last evening at cards at her home, 1175 North Delaware street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jordan and daughter Mary left yesterday for California, to be absent two months.

Miss Jessie Langley, who has been visiting relatives on North Pennsylvania street for a month, returned yesterday to her home in Evansville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hart Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark entertained friends at the new home of the former, on North Pennsylvania street, near Fifteenth, last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. DeHart Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark entertained friends at the new home of the former, on North Pennsylvania street, near Fifteenth, last evening.

The Propylaeum Association will give a party at the Propylaeum for the young people of the afternoon and evening of April 21.

Wedding and Reception. The wedding of Miss Stella Williams at the bride's home, near Mount Summit, Henry county, Mr. Marshall will bring his bride to Muncie.

STONE-NIXON. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 22.—This evening John W. Stone, of St. Louis, Mo., and Nixon, of Indianapolis, were married.

COLFAX, Ind., March 22.—Prof. and Mrs. George E. Long celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage at the O. G. F. hall last evening.

The Vaccination Test Case. Secretary Metcalf, of the State Board of Health, was at Terre Haute yesterday, testifying in a test vaccination case, which is causing much interest over there, and a decision in which will be awaited with great interest all over the State.

A Fear of a Cold Wave. It is feared by C. F. R. Wapenhans, of the local weather bureau, that a cold wave will strike Indiana and this vicinity to-night.

A Joke on Their Friends. Late yesterday afternoon Justice Habich united in marriage a Cincinnati couple who gave the names of Albert McKibben and Daisy Belle Chambers.

A Carpenter Loses His Tools. William Bennett, a carpenter, residing in North Indianapolis, lost some tools valued at $5 and a pair of shoes Wednesday.

Half Fare for the Masons. The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons will be held in this city May 22 and 23.

Boys Loot a Fruit Cellar. Detectives McGuff and Doherty yesterday arrested eight boys, none of whom are over fifteen years of age, for stealing a quantity of fruit from the cellar under No. 13 South Indiana street in the morning.

Unemployed Will Not Meet Again. The unemployed will not meet again unless a meeting is called by the chairman.

Names Not Made Public. The Board of Health yesterday afternoon met and selected the board of examiners for the medical college to graduate, but decided not to make the names public.

Company Will Obey the Ordinance. The case in which a street-car conductor and motorman were arrested for blocking a street has been indefinitely postponed.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

West Indianapolis Meeting To-Night. The city board of West Indianapolis will meet to-night to divide the city into the seven councilmanic precincts.

Money to Overthrow Justice. It is said that the State Liqueur League will use every effort in its power to secure the election of Supreme Judges next fall who will reverse the recent decision in the Stehlin case.

LANDLORDS TO ORGANIZE.

They Want the Legislature to Give Them Some Protection.

On April 3 a meeting of Indiana hotel proprietors will be held at the Denton House, when a permanent organization of landlords will be effected.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jordan and daughter Mary left yesterday for California, to be absent two months.

Miss Mary Taylor entertained a few friends last evening at cards at her home, 1175 North Delaware street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Jordan and daughter Mary left yesterday for California, to be absent two months.

Miss Jessie Langley, who has been visiting relatives on North Pennsylvania street for a month, returned yesterday to her home in Evansville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hart Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark entertained friends at the new home of the former, on North Pennsylvania street, near Fifteenth, last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. DeHart Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark entertained friends at the new home of the former, on North Pennsylvania street, near Fifteenth, last evening.

The Propylaeum Association will give a party at the Propylaeum for the young people of the afternoon and evening of April 21.

Wedding and Reception. The wedding of Miss Stella Williams at the bride's home, near Mount Summit, Henry county, Mr. Marshall will bring his bride to Muncie.

STONE-NIXON. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 22.—This evening John W. Stone, of St. Louis, Mo., and Nixon, of Indianapolis, were married.

COLFAX, Ind., March 22.—Prof. and Mrs. George E. Long celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage at the O. G. F. hall last evening.

The Vaccination Test Case. Secretary Metcalf, of the State Board of Health, was at Terre Haute yesterday, testifying in a test vaccination case, which is causing much interest over there, and a decision in which will be awaited with great interest all over the State.

A Fear of a Cold Wave. It is feared by C. F. R. Wapenhans, of the local weather bureau, that a cold wave will strike Indiana and this vicinity to-night.