BYNUM'S SHERWOOD VIEW. Will Not Stand for Congress—Wants to Be Governor.

Those who ought to know, and who say they do, insist that W. D. Bynum has no idea of standing for re-election to Congress, and that he wants to be in the position of the logical candidate for Governor in 1896.

The man most talked about as the probable choice of Bynum as his successor is John R. Wilson. It is said that Mr. Wilson is a lively, energetic man, who has a good deal of business ability.

MAYOR DID NOT WAGER. Indian Territory Man Claims Payment of a Bet on Cleveland.

Mayor Denny yesterday received a letter from W. C. Lykins, president of the Miami Town Company, of Miami, Indian Territory, calling upon him to pay a bet of a plug that upon the election of Grover Cleveland in 1888.

It was from a Journal Article. Dispatches announcing the probable success of James Johnston, of Parke county, Congress from the Eighth district, refer to him as the man who coached several years ago.
