RED MEN'S SUN FIRE. Officers for the Coming Year Nominated—Annual Reports.

The twenty-sixth sun fire of the Great Council of Indiana Red Men was kindled yesterday morning at the State wigwam in the Griffith Block, and will continue to burn until to-night. There were present twenty-one officers, 194 representatives and fifty past sachems, who have access to all meetings of the Great Council. In the morning session the various officers made their reports, which showed a sound condition of the treasury and a membership of 7,111 in the State. The afternoon session was spent mostly in listening to the reports of the committees on legislation, judiciary, constitution and by-laws, and the grievances and appeals. The following nominations were made for the officers who will be elected at to-day's session: Great sachem, Thomas J. Gray, of Noblesville; great senior sachem, L. B. Weaver, of Warsaw; great junior sachem, J. J. Breyer, of Anderson; Charles McClelland of Madison, and W. W. Drinkwater of Kokomo; great prophet, W. B. King, of Lafayette; great chief of records, Thomas G. Harrison, of this city; great keeper of wampum, John A. McGraw, of this city; great representative to the Supreme Council, Joseph C. Sutt, of Frankfort; George F. Davis, of this city; Charles L. Fetous of Terre Haute, and Thomas J. Smith of Frankfort; grand trustees, Walter Ramsey of this city, Wesley David of this city, and Perry Barr of Vincennes. As a compliment to Thomas G. Harrison, present great chief of records, it was decided by a unanimous vote to have the great chief of records to attend all future meetings of the Supreme Council at the Great Council's expense. At to-day's meeting the raising of initiation fees will be discussed, and an attempt will be made to classify chapters for which a tribe may expel a member.

POSTPONED FOR A DAY

GEN. HARRISON'S TRIP TO FORT WAYNE WILL BE MADE FRIDAY.

His Sister-in-Law's Death Necessitated This Change in Arrangements—Same Running Schedule.

The death at Minneapolis yesterday of Mrs. Bettie L. S. Harrison, widow of the late Col. A. Irwin Harrison, brother of Gen. Benjamin Harrison, has necessitated a change in the ex-President's trip to Fort Wayne. The body of Mrs. Harrison is expected to arrive in this city Thursday morning and the funeral will occur in the afternoon, and General Harrison notified Chairman Gowdy last night that he would hold himself ready to undertake the trip on Friday morning instead of Thursday morning, as was the expectation. The tour will, therefore, occur one day late, but the same schedule will be observed as already announced. The State central committee, and busy last night making the necessary changes in the dates of speakers, which required a good deal of telegraphing.

ONE OF T. TAGGART'S SCHEMES.

Sent Democratic Heelers to Break Up a Colored Republican Meeting.

There was a meeting of colored voters last night in the ante-room of Antioch Church, corner of Fourth and Howard streets, where Elder Morton preached, and which was presided over by a Republican to demand that a colored man be placed on the county ticket for clerk. There were sixty colored men present by actual count. Conspicuous among them were such Democratic negro heelers as J. T. V. Hill, L. E. Christy, Charles Bass, John Dade and Charles Stepp. They started out to have a great deal to say in the meeting, but the Republicans present had an overwhelming majority and diverted the meeting into a Republican rally. Hon. George L. Knox was the leader of the Republican voters present, and A. M. Sawyer and leaders of the Democrats were his able seconds. Conrad Burley was chosen to preside. Christy attempted to make a speech, but he believed they were not receiving the recognition that is due them, but he was asked whether he spoke as a Democrat or as a Republican. He tried to evade the question, saying he understood it was a mass meeting called in the interest of the colored race. But on motion of Mr. Knox a resolution was adopted that the meeting did not want to hear Christy speak, and the chairman ruled him down. Rousing Republican speeches were made by Mr. Knox, Mr. Eberman and others, and the meeting stirred the Republicans to greater interest than ever. They applauded vigorously when Mr. Knox ended his speech, and the Republicans to the declaration that what the colored men of Indianapolis want is employment, not office. He said if the Republican party were returned to power work would be plenty and the empty dinner pail, the discarded tools and loan books and the rusted tools would again come into use. Property would satisfy the colored men, he said. He then given him every right that he now enjoys. It is to this party, he said, that the colored race must look for relief. When once the Democratic party, in a losing year, had nominated a colored man on their ticket, he ran 2,000 votes behind the head of the ticket. This is the way, he said, that Democrats care for the colored man. They had representatives present, he said, who were sent to create dissension on the eve of the battle, but the coming to do so for every colored man who vote with the party that has honored him. The speech ended with vociferous applause. Democratic heelers sneaked out one after another whispering to a Sentinel reporter, whom they had telephoned to be present, that the fig was up.

THE COUNTY CLERK CANDIDATE.

Republican Committee Men Recommend One To-Day.

The members of the county committee, 225 in number, and the finance and executive committees of the Republican organization of Marion county will meet this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, to select a man to be recommended to Chairman Moores as the candidate for county clerk, to succeed the late Aurelius J. Joyce. The meeting will be in executive session and nobody will be allowed to vote by proxy. The dates will be excluded from the meeting. The convention of committees will occur at the Commercial Hall. The name of the candidate will be accepted by Chairman Moores as the candidate to be certified to the election board.

Henry on Indiana Avenue.

Charles L. Henry addressed an audience of two hundred colored men in the Odd Fellows' Hall, on Indiana avenue, last night. He was presented to the audience by W. W. Christy, who presided. The audience heard the speaker with every evidence of earnest interest and frequently gave him applause. The speech treated of the tariff and its direct application to the industrial prosperity of the wage workers he was addressing. Captain Tarterton brought a large detail of the Henry Brigade of the ward. As they entered some drunken ruffians followed and talked in a loud voice for the purpose of raising a disturbance. He was seized by the collar and ejected into the street by Elmer Lowe and others. Various candidates made short addresses, and the meeting adjourned with applause.

Will Not Vote for Bynum.

"I am doing all I can," said a well-known Democrat yesterday in the courthouse, "to see to it that Mr. Bynum may not have occasion after this term of his is out to leave his home in Washington to run here every two years for a nomination. He has never come back since he went to Washington except to vote or look after his fences, and he is nothing if not a resident of the District of Columbia. The man who helped him out in 1886 in his fight against Bailey are now generally against him, and I personally know of many Democrats just like myself, who not only will not support Bynum, but are at work to beat him."

Mr. Henry's Meetings To-Day.

Charles L. Henry will speak at the noon meeting to-day at the corner of Madison avenue and Ray street. He will address the voters of Brightwood, where he opened his campaign two years ago in this county, at 2 o'clock to-night. The noon meeting Thursday will occur at Morris street and Halley avenue in West Indianapolis, and on Thursday night he speaks at the meeting of the Bald-head Glee Club will be present there.

Marcus R. Sulzer in Town.

Marcus R. Sulzer arrived in town last night from Columbus, where he spoke during the evening to a large crowd. "It was one of the best meetings I ever saw," he said. "The people are taking more interest this year in politics than they did two years ago, and I consider it a most hopeful sign that our meetings have been so uniformly well attended."

IN THEIR HUNGER THEY CRIED.

Mrs. Deitz and Seven Children in a Dolorable Condition. Last Saturday morning Mrs. Deitz, residing at No. 729 South East street, and the mother of seven children, told a sad story to police matron Buchanan. She said for the past year her husband, Frank Deitz, had refused to provide for herself and children, and that they had lived on charity during that time. Last Saturday the rent was not forthcoming and Mrs. Deitz said she and her hungry children were ejected from the house by the landlord. She asked for help from the police, but it could not be given her. She was referred to the charity organization. Last night, about 9 o'clock, the officers at the police station were called upon to see Mrs. Deitz, accompanied by her children, the oldest of whom is thirteen years old, slowly drag themselves, past the fatigued mother, said since Saturday she and her children had been wandering with no place to sleep at night, and crying with hunger. The children looked haggard and while the mother was talking to the officers the youngest, twin, cried for something to eat. Mrs. Deitz said as a last resort she had brought her children to the police station, asking that they be sheltered for the night and hoping that on the morrow she could find something to do to provide for them. Captain Quigley sent the forlorn family to the Friendly Inn in charge of officers Asche and Dills. Superintendent Moore, of that institution, hesitated about allowing them to enter, but the officers insisted and installed Mrs. Deitz and her children in a cozy room. Mrs. Deitz said she had no place to go to rest for the night, but the pangs of hunger of the children would not down, and she had to go to a grocery store to eat. The officers went to a grocery store close by and bought a supply of edibles. Returning to the inn, the officers placed in the hands of the mother, who wept with joy. The children hushed their cries and in great gladness ate the packages. The police will give Mrs. Deitz's complaints against her husband an investigation to-day.

The orators will be Hon. John W. Foster, late Secretary of State, who was colonel of the Sixty-fifth Indiana regiment during the war; Judge M. L. Bundy, of New Castle, and Ex-Mayor Charles W. Foster, of Indianapolis, who brought him in close contact with the war Governor. Department Commandant Francis M. Price and Daniel Davis, of Terre Haute, will furnish vocal music.

ARRESTS TO FOLLOW

GOOD CITIZENS WHO BOUGHT LIQUOR SWEAR OUT WARRANTS.

Mayor Denny Gives Orders that the Sunday Law Must Be Observed at All Hazards.

Mayor Denny had his jaws set very firm when he entered the rooms of the Board of Safety yesterday afternoon while that board was considering those bids. He dropped in to talk about the reported liquor law violations last Sunday. "The liquor laws must be enforced," said he. "If we have to discharge every policeman on the force to secure men who will do their full duty, I will take the responsibility for any action that is necessary to keep the saloons in this city closed on Sunday and after hours. I am provoked to think any one should intimate that the saloons were allowed privileges last Sunday on account of the campaign that is on. I will not discharge any policeman unless enough to catch all these violators, but I want the violations stopped, even if we have to ask the Council for an extra appropriation to employ special officers."

The Mayor said in view of the developments of the past few days that he wanted the board to at once institute a rigid investigation into the conduct of the officers in the districts where violations were reported. If the officers have winked at violations of the law or have negligently failed to detect illegal sales of liquor and make proper report on them and designate places where there is reason to believe that violations are being committed, they should be summarily dismissed. He told the board to immediately swear in all the special officers needed to prevent law breaking. He told it to appoint as many extras as the superintendent deemed necessary for the purpose of keeping the law strictly as long as they were needed. On the question of expenditures required he said if the board felt any extra appropriation making the responsibility for the additional expense he would not only share the responsibility, but assured it would be a small balance of the appropriation for special officers was not sufficient he said he would see a recommendation to the Council that it pass another appropriation before the beginning of the new year.

Warrants are being prepared for the arrest of all the saloon keepers who sold to the "good citizens" people last Sunday. The warrants will be issued by the Mayor. Mr. Conner yesterday, and he insisted that they make the affidavits upon which the warrants should be issued for the arrest of the saloon keepers. The men were reluctant about consenting to do this, but they were told that if they refused they were taken before the prosecutor in the city court and there made the affidavits. They were told that if they refused to do so the persons who sold the liquor to the quartet on that day. An effort will be made to get a case against the saloon keepers for the sale of each drink. The warrants will be issued and the men arrested to-day.
