and special oversight is there dropped. Some negligence in the temperance work is mentioned. The report of the committee showed the meeting to be alive and at the front on this question. Good citizenship and the "Nichols" plan were mentioned favorably by a number. A special meeting on temperance was appointed for to-night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jessup and others spoke. The report of the associated executive committee on Indiana is to be read at 8 o'clock.

At the afternoon session Rev. David Sampson presented an interesting report on the famous Blue Ridge mission in North Carolina, with which he is connected. Following this the question of the new general system mentioned above, was brought directly before the Yearly Meeting proper. The plan was considered section by section, carefully and prayerfully, and with only insignificant changes the different sections were approved by the meeting.

TO RACING AT ROBY. The New Association Will Wait for Thursday's Injunction Case. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 17.—An attempt was made by the Lakeside Jockey Club to run a race at Roby to-day. Sheriff Hayes visited the track this afternoon, but as none of the defendants in the injunction case was there he was unable to serve the restraining order. At Crown Point, this morning, William Parsons, head of the track, appeared in the circuit court and stated that he represented the Lakeside Jockey Club and acknowledged service in open court. It was agreed that the case should be heard next Thursday, but the defendants took a change of venue from Judge Gillett and up to a late hour this evening, no other case was heard.

To try the case, all the parties have agreed on Judge Lucius Hubbard, of South Bend, and should it be impossible to secure his services, either Judge Shirley, or Judge Blackledge, of Kokomo, will be secured. The defendants in the case are Judge William Johnston, of Valparaiso, and Solicitor General C. F. Peis, of the Monon railroad, to defend the jockeys. The case will be heard by the injunction set aside. While at Roby this afternoon Sheriff Hayes and chief of police made a raid on the State line pool room. Finding all the operators doing business on the premises, they arrested them and took them to the Western Union telegraph wires leading to the pool room, and after that they moved to the pool room, where three hundred people quietly dispersed. The managers of the concern announced that they would not be arrested, but Sheriff Hayes says he is not done with them yet and if they attempt to start again he will take them to court to stop them. The penalty for injuring a telegraph wire is a fine of from $5 to $50 and imprisonment for not less than thirty days.

KNIGHTSTOWN'S OIL BOOM. Major Doxey Makes a Rich Strike, and Other Wells Are to Be Sunk. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Sept. 17.—According to experts oil in paying quantities has been discovered in the local field. Work on the gas well on James Hall's farm, just outside the city limits to the west, was done last night, and an electric light pole was far beyond the expectation of the warmest supporters of those who have contended that oil was here in paying quantity. Last fall the Pine Street Company, a local organization, drilled for gas, but as the well did not produce gas, although it showed strong signs of oil, they were not permitted to develop it. Afterward a well was drilled on James Hall's farm, and although it is a failure so far as gas was concerned, it gave excellent indications of oil. It was then that Major Doxey, who has been interested in the project, and work on the last-named well was begun last night. When the pumps got to work the flow indicated a capacity of five hundred barrels a day, and the well shows an increase. One of the wells, sunk to the depth of 100 feet, was not permitted to be worked, as the contract called only for 500 barrels. Of the many wells which have all shown indications of oil, and the present one, which is being worked, gave the best showing. Major Doxey is making arrangements to have additional tanks erected and to put down a new well. The town is excited, and it is the prevailing impression this new development of the country will be a great success, such as Knightstown has never experienced.

Major Doxey in Town. Maj. Charles T. Doxey, of Anderson, was in the city yesterday for a few hours, and while here received a telegram announcing the result of the nine hours' pumping at the new oil field at Knightstown. The result was most gratifying. Major Doxey believes the oil is finer than that found at Lima. He thinks the new well is worth $100,000 as it stands. Major Doxey is a fortunate one, as his outlay only represents a few hundred dollars. He thinks in five or six years he will be a millionaire in the vicinity of Indianapolis, and that Indiana will soon be the greatest oil field in the world. The oil is being pumped out of the well by a pump which is being run by a steam engine. The oil is being pumped out of the well by a pump which is being run by a steam engine.
