VICTIMS OF A FIRE

FIVE PEOPLE KILLED, TWO FATALLY INJURED AND SIX HURT.

Interior of the Seven-Story Exchange Building at Chicago Burned, Causing a Loss of $375,000.

PANIC AMONG OCCUPANTS

FRIGHTFUL JUMP OR FALL OF TWO GIRLS AND A YOUNG MAN.

Five Firemen Buried in the Debris and Four Killed—Woman Rescued by a Cool-Headed Captain.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The interior of the Exchange Building, a seven-story structure at the corner of Van Buren and Franklin streets, was destroyed by fire today, entailing a loss of $375,000.

The fire broke out at 10:15 o'clock, and in a few minutes it had reached the top of the building, causing the loss of five lives, the fatal injury of two others and the injury of six more who are expected to recover. The dead are:

PARKER J. O'DONNELL, lieutenant of Engine Company No. 1, 37 years of age; MARTIN HERRICK, pipeman; JOHN DOWNS, pipeman. (All the firemen were crushed by falling debris.)

KITTE LANGRAPH, jumped from fourth-story window; injured internally; died at County Hospital.

The injured are:

HARRY NEILL, jumped from fourth-story window; injured internally; left arm broken; will die.

NELLIE TURNER, jumped from third-story window; internally injured; will die.

AGNES M'CALLIN, overcome by smoke; will recover.

OLGA KELLER, overcome by smoke; will recover.

MATTIE BRENNAN, overcome by smoke; will recover.

EDNA RITTER, overcome by smoke; will recover.

MARY PINKY, overcome by smoke; will recover.

DANIEL McNALLY, driver for engine company No. 2, buried beneath debris; will recover.

It was a few minutes before 9 o'clock this morning when Rose Baker, employed by Stern & Beiers, noticed an odor of smoke.

She was working near a door, and stepping out into the hallway, her suspicions were confirmed. The corridors were rapidly filling with smoke, and she saw people running.

"Fire!" "Fire!" she cried as she dashed past her companions. Instantly there was confusion. Following the example of the girl who had given the alarm a score or more shouting "Fire!"

NELLIE TURNER'S FALL. Although every effort was made to control the frightened girls, several opened the windows and climbed out on the ledges.

One of the first to do this was Nellie Turner. She screamed for help, and some one on the ground shouted to her to jump. She, however, went to another window near a fire escape and climbed out. Those on the street watched her movements with great anxiety.

She grasped the escape and swung herself off from the stone ledge on which she had stood, and hundreds on the street below cheered. She commenced to descend. Officer Flaherty was also on the fire escape between the first and second story, and when he saw her he called to her to stop.

She suddenly lost her balance and fell. Officer Flaherty tried to catch her, but could not reach her. She was picked up unconscious.

The escape of Olga Keller is regarded as marvellous by those who saw her when she appeared at a fourth-story window. When the room began to fill with smoke she ran to one of the windows overlooking Van Buren street. She threw up the sash and climbed out on the ledge, clinging with her hands to the iron railing.

She was on the ledge for some time before she was rescued. She saw a few feet below her the ladder on which two firemen stood, and she prepared to jump.

"Wait! don't jump!" shouted Captain Hermanson, who had almost reached the window when she was about to do so.

Great volumes of smoke poured out the window where the girl stood, and at times, her form was obscured. To the hundreds of persons who were watching her from the street the seconds seemed like hours.

After her sister went up for Captain Hermanson to see if she was all right. He had reached the women when she suddenly stopped. He heard her girl scream, and as he looked up he saw her reel and fall.

Her body was seen to fall, and she was overcome by the smoke and had fallen. Captain Hermanson braced himself, and as the girl fell he saw her.

He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall.

He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall.

He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall.

He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall.

He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall.

He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall. He saw her fall, and he saw her fall.

EVIDENCE OF A PLOT

MANY TURKS ARRESTED AT CONSTANTINOPLE AND SENT TO SEA.

Rewards offered by the Sultan for the Discovery of Persons Who Possess Revolutionary Placards.

TWENTY VILLAGES BURNED

PART OF THE DISTRICT OF ALEPPO DEVASTATED BY KURDS.

Thousands of Armenians Supposed to Have Been Massacred—American Missionaries in Peril.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Constantinople says that a large number of Turks were arrested in that city at daybreak. They were hurried to the harbor and placed on board a ship.

The dispatch also announces that all the arrests cannot now be determined. The correspondent of the News at Constantinople also telegraphs that unless the courts which the Sultan has promised to establish in Armenia are carefully supervised there will be a bloodbath after the massacres.

Some of the courts to be established have the right of rendering a final decision on all questions arising, and it is feared that many of the Turks will take advantage of this fact for the purpose of securing a speedy and sure vengeance while ostensibly complying with all the forms of the law.

The correspondent also announces that all the foreign and American papers giving accounts of the revolt of the Arabs in the province of Yemen, Arabia, have been forbidden admission to all towns of the Turkish empire.

The Sultan has offered rewards for the discovery of the persons who recently posted revolutionary placards in the mosques, in Constantinople, and in many other public places, exciting the Armenians against the Mussulmans. A special committee has also been appointed to watch day and night for the discovery of the persons who are guilty of the restoration of order among the Armenians.

The Daily News this morning also publishes a telegram from Van, which states that the Kurds have destroyed five villages in the neighborhood of that town, and out of the thirteen thousand villagers driven away from the attacks only three thousand can be found.

A dispatch to Le Matin, of Paris, from Constantinople, says that twenty villages have been burned in the northwestern portion of the district of Aleppo, and that the inhabitants have been massacred. The dispatch also states that the Kurds are gathering on the borders of the Euphrates, preparing to march into Syria for the purpose of massacring the Christians.

A dispatch to the Times from Sebastopol says that the Russian Black sea fleet, which ten days ago was ordered to lay up at the port of Novorossiysk, has been ordered to march into Syria for the purpose of massacring the Christians.

Advices from Constantinople received at St. Louis say that the Sultan has consented to allow the passage through the Dardanelles of a second guard ship for each power, in accordance with the requests of the Austrian, Italian, Russian and British representatives.

The Standard's Berlin correspondent says that Germany has decided that it will not be necessary to send a second war ship to Turkey to aid in bringing about the suppression of troubles there.

SELLING GOLD BARS

TREASURY OFFICIALS TRYING TO KEEP YELLOW COIN AT HOME.

Recent Withdrawals Have Reduced the Stock at New York to About $25,000,000—To-Day's Shipments.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The recent withdrawals of gold have reduced the free coin treasury here to a little over $25,000,000, and as further withdrawals might inconvenience the treasury, the United States is selling gold bars to exporters at a premium of one-tenth of 1 per cent.

The bankers, however, said they could not afford to pay more than one-sixteenth of 1 per cent. premium, and, after some discussion, the Secretary of the Treasury authorized the Assistant Treasurer here and the superintendent of the assay office to let exporters have the bars at a premium of one-sixteenth of 1 per cent.

Accordingly, $1,500,000 in bars was engaged by 11 o'clock. There was some talk of the United States selling gold bars to exporters at a premium of one-tenth of 1 per cent.
