OHIO'S EX-GOVERNOR TALKS ABOUT PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

He Says St. Louis Is a Good Place to Nominate McKinley—Sherman, Garfield and Conkling.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Charles Foster, ex-Governor of Ohio and ex-Secretary of the Treasury, was in the city today. To a reporter who addressed him on the subject of politics Mr. Foster said that the selection of St. Louis for the Republican national convention city was all right. "It is central," he added, "and the hotel accommodations are ample. Missouri has recently elected two Republican Congressmen, and, besides, the State is the birthplace of the well-known woman suffrage and temperance lecturer, of this State, Mrs. Livermore has already secured the services of counsel, and says she 'will certainly permit no statement reflecting on her character to be made against her.'"

"The difficulty began this fall in the United States Circuit Court here, when Mrs. Livermore was a witness in the suit against Congressman Elijah Morse, brought by Mrs. Gougar. Mrs. Livermore testified that she knew Mr. Gougar well, and that she occasionally used 'harsh and abusive language.' Mrs. Livermore also said she had never been a member of the Prohibition party, and that she had never been rendered to the authorities at Tijuana, Matanzas.

A GOVERNMENT VICTORY.

Conservative Candidate Returned in a North Ontario District.

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 12.—The Dominion government had decided before appealing to the country in a general election to hold an election in an Ontario constituency to sound public opinion on the Manitoba school question and the promised remedial legislation. The election was held in North Ontario to-day, and the riding returned Mr. Gillivray, the Conservative government candidate, giving him 1,479 votes to 966 for Brandon, the Farmer candidate, and 820 for the Liberal candidate.

McGillivray's plurality over Brandon is twice as large as the government majority in that riding at the previous general election, peculiarly so, as the Liberal candidate, who opposed remedial legislation for Catholic parochial schools in Manitoba, had been defeated by Mr. J. G. The government party is elated over its victory and it is thought that the Liberal Government will be dissolved shortly after the first of the year and a general election will be ordered.

HAYWARD'S CONFESSION.

The Murder of Lena Olsen and the Man Who Put Her Out of the Way.

STILLWATER, Minn., Dec. 12.—When Claus A. Bixt was told of the rumor that he was the murderer of Lena Olsen, a domestic, in Duluth, in the fall of 1894, he said: "All I know about that is that Lena Olsen once lived at the Ozark flats and that Harry was intimately acquainted with the person who is supposed to have gone with her to the place where she was murdered. The man who was afterwards found floating in the Mississippi, at St. Paul. My impression was that the Chicago man who was supposed to know he expected and planned to kill me after I had done his bidding to that poor girl. He was a man who was worth more than five times what I got back, but as I was in great pain from the drugged whiskey he had given me, I thought I would die, he did not get the chance."
