

DRUGS BELT

POPOCRACY'S NOMINEE INVADES THE HOOSIER STATE AGAIN.

And sees and hears thousands of enthusiastic Republicans shouting for William McKinley.

MANY SPEECHES DELIVERED

SOME OF WHICH COST THE POPOCRATS ABOUT $50 A MINUTE.

Scenes at Richmond, Rushville, New Castle, Muncie, Anderson and Other Towns—Harrison Attacked.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Oct. 21.—Mr. Bryan's invasion of Indiana to-day was replete with incidents, but not of a nature to fill the Popocrats' heart with joy.

Mr. Bryan began speaking early to-day, his first address being delivered at Tiffin, O., at 1:30 a. m., where a crowd awaited his arrival from Sandusky.

Mr. Bryan's troubles began when he crossed the line into Wayne county. Republicans and gold badges were so numerous as to make Popocrats objects of interest.

Mr. Bryan's first speech in Indiana was at Glen Miller Park, a Richmond suburb, in his speech Mr. Bryan quoted the late Senator Oliver P. Morton, saying: "I want to quote to you what your own townsman, who became one of the greatest men of the country, once said in regard to the effect of contracting currency."

There Senator Morton was declaring against the policy of contraction and we today are declaring against the same policy of contraction. Then he was asserting that an increase in the supply of money would bring about a depression of the enterprise and we assert the same thing today.

Mr. Bryan made a second speech at the Hotel Westcott, Richmond, and there the wearers of yellow, red and blue badges, Mr. Bryan commented on the badges, saying: "If you wear Republican badges here in the Republican platform, I can tell you how you can show your good citizenship."

At Rushville the crowd, although good, was disappointing. It contained many Popocrats and several of the latter were seen trying to pull off the yellow badges.

At New Castle there was a twenty-minute stop, and less than four thousand people heard Mr. Bryan speak.

At Fort Wayne, Mr. Bryan's train was late when it arrived at Fort Wayne, but the Popocratic agitator was forced to make three speeches to good crowds.

At Muncie, Mr. Bryan's train was late when it arrived at Muncie, but the Popocratic agitator was forced to make three speeches to good crowds.

At Anderson, Mr. Bryan's train was late when it arrived at Anderson, but the Popocratic agitator was forced to make three speeches to good crowds.

At Richmond, Mr. Bryan's train was late when it arrived at Richmond, but the Popocratic agitator was forced to make three speeches to good crowds.

In singing the following, which had been dedicated to Mr. Bryan's visit: "Dear Billy has come and sweet Billy has gone."

And the weary old world still goes wagging along.

And the eagle still spreads his broad wings; The eagle still in the air, going round.

And the G. O. P. sears like a bird, And the people glory in Bryan's volumes of sound.

Were as thin as they ever have heard.

Republicans Out in Force. Muncie was a hotbed of politics when Mr. Bryan arrived there shortly before 1 o'clock.

At Anderson, Mr. Bryan's train was late when it arrived at Anderson, but the Popocratic agitator was forced to make three speeches to good crowds.

ILLINOIS MOSSBACK DEMOCRAT CANNOT STAND BRYANISM.

"Horizontal" William Out in a Declaration Against the Chicago Ticket and Altgeld.

DR. FELTON FOR M'KINLEY

BRYAN SCORED BY A GEORGIA POPULIST NOMINEE FOR ELECTOR.

Attempt by Popocrats to Blackmail Republicans by Offering a Bogus Letter for $1,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Hon. William R. Morrison, chairman of the Interstate-commerce Commission, today a member of Congress and a lifelong Democrat, has bolted Governor Altgeld and the Chicago platform and nominees.

Statement is in the hands of Chairman Williamson at the Chicago headquarters. It is a flatfooted declaration against free silver, W. J. Bryan and the administration of Governor Altgeld.

How the Bryanites Tried to Extort $1,000 from Republicans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Joseph H. Manly has given out the following statement from Republican national headquarters. It shows an attempt to extort from the public a letter which Major McKinley never wrote.

Washington, April, 1890. "Dear General Welles—Your letter begging me to use my influence in securing the nomination for Bryan is duly received."

VICTIM'S BROTHER

HAMLIN J. ANDRUS, OF YONKERS, N. Y., FRIGHTFULLY MANGLED.

Killed by Pieces of a Cast-Iron Pipe That Had Been Filled with Dynamite or Giant Powder.

VERY MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR

WHICH THE POLICE HAVE NOT YET BEEN ABLE TO SOLVE.

The Victim's Brother Certain that the Crime Was the Work of Anarchists—Other Theories.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Hamlin J. Andrus, secretary of the Arlington chemical works, located in Palisade avenue, Yonkers, was yesterday morning killed by a dynamite bomb, which the police think was placed there for the purpose of destroying life and property.

Hamlin Andrus was a man of wealth and he lived in Yonkers in handsome style with his family. He left home in company with his son Hiram, aged twenty years, a little before 3 o'clock this morning, and they went to the factory together.
