Harvard's Noble Struggle. The players were badly crippled, and U. of P. carried the battle. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 21.—Beaten, battered and shattered, but not disgraced...

Every man played as though his life depended on the result of the game. There was that union which comes only with thorough teaching, each man trying to help the other. Harvard's defensive work for a time was superb, but the awful battering their line received from the heavy weights on the Pennsylvania team began to tell before the first half was finished...

The Murderer of Emma Brader. CINCINNATI, Nov. 21.—William Haas, the murderer of Mrs. Emma Brader, who entered a plea of guilty, leaving the court to fix the degree of crime, was today adjudged, by Judges Evans and Wilson, guilty of murder in the first degree. Haas assaulted the young wife of his employer early one morning in July after Brader had gone to market, and then murdered her and fired the house.

The Ladies Wept. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis and her daughter, Mrs. Fitzhugh, left the city for the home in New York on the Four Noon train today. A large delegation of Daughters of the Confederacy accompanied the ladies to the depot at the Platters Hotel, and several ladies were moved to tears at the motherly good-byes exchanged at parting by their honored associates.

Kahn Tailoring Co., 22 and 24 East Washington Street. A famous painting shows the infant Napoleon in the chamber of his birth, and shows his mother watching over him. The mother of a nation was a strong, healthy, active woman, who brought into the world a healthy, strong, healthy child. Without health and strength Napoleon never could have risen above the position of a common soldier. It is the mother who gives her child high station in life, but she gave something better. She gave him the ability to secure these things for himself. She equipped him with a strong body and a clear intellect. Every mother may do as much for her son. The first step in this direction is perfecting the mother herself. Perfect health in a womanly way. She must take thought for the most important and delicate organs of the body. She must keep them strong by the performance of the greatest and most wonderful work in the world. Women do not sufficiently appreciate the importance of health and carefulness. This is shown by the dreadful prevalence of so-called "Female Complaint." Every woman may be strong and healthy by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is not a cure-all, it is intended to cure just one kind of disease, and that is the disease which the female sex is most liable to contract, and which makes them healthy. It makes weak women strong, and if it is taken during the period of gestation, it insures health for the child, and at the time of parturition comparative freedom from the pains and dangers erroneously believed to be unavoidable. The physiology of women, in health and disease, is contained in Dr. Pierce's great work, the "Common Sense Medical Adviser." A copy of this book, published free to those who will send 2-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only, to Wm. D. Briggs, Medical Association, No. 665 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
