Little Prospect that It Will Be Accepted by the Belligerents—Debates in the European Parliaments.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—It is probable there will be a cessation of hostilities in Crete for a time if the advice of the powers is heeded.

The representatives of foreign governments in the island and the admirals of the fleets are doing their utmost to stop the fighting between the Christians and the Mussulmans.

Last night the British, Italian and Russian consuls proposed an armistice of one week at Selinous.

This proposition was accepted by both Moslems and Christians. When the consuls returned to Crete, they were accompanied by 150 Mussulman fugitives.

They were unable to hold conferences with the chiefs of the belligerents, who are conducting a war of extermination, but made an arrangement with the leading citizens of Selinous.

Both sides have mutually agreed to a cessation of hostilities for a period of one week.

Republican leaders are not as a general thing consumed with idolatrous love for Mr. Hanna, but they did not want to see him turned down in the way proposed because it would have been regarded as a capitulation to the insurgent administration.

SUNDAY CIVIL BILL

WILL IT BE SAID, BE "POCKET VETOED" BY THE PRESIDENT, WITH THE OBJECT OF FORCING THE SPECIAL SESSION OF CONGRESS TO ENACT GENERAL LEGISLATION.

Another Debate on Sectarian Indian Schools—Report on the Monetary Conference Measure.

WORK OF THE LEGISLATORS

SENATE IN THE SENATE AVERTED BY WITHDRAWAL OF A BILL.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Members of House and Senate appropriations committee set it from under the bill, so that President Cleveland will give the sundry civil bill a "pocket veto." The bill carried $3,000,000 in the form it passed the House.

About $10,000,000 have been added already in the Senate and notice has been served of additional appropriations for at least $5,000,000 more. All the "pocket vetoes" otherwise, for which no place in other bills can be found and which cannot pass on their own merits, are loaded on the sundry civil and general deficiency bills. Critics of the President charge that his motive in pocket vetoing the sundry civil bill will be to saddle the nation with responsibility on his successor and to force Congress to enact general legislation at the special session.

The Senate was in the ragged edge of a session of an unusual character this afternoon. A harmless looking bill was pressed for passage amending the practice in territorial courts and then hastily withdrawn in the face of a threat to debate it.

The debate would have uncovered the existence of a desperately dangerous murder or assassination in New Mexico involving several persons in high places. The immediate purpose of the bill that came up to-day was to give persons convicted of capital crimes in territories the right of appeal to a higher court than they now enjoy.

Four criminals, who are to be hanged to-morrow unless the President vetoes the bill, were the beneficiaries, and but for the fact that the debate of the bill would have brought out the details of an explanatory of the reasons why certain individuals were hanged, the bill would have passed. The bill would have provided for the hanging of a group of murderers, the Senate would have been provided to indirect participation in a border tragedy that is shaking New Mexico to its center. It looks as though the butchers would have to wait.

Representative Walker, of Massachusetts, to-day publicly controverted the story contained in these dispatches to the effect that that State is heading a revolt against the one man rule that now control the House to suppression of the individuality of members. He disclaimed any intention of attacking Speaker Reed, but served notice to-day publicly that he would not support the speaker if given the power of absolute dictatorship over the entire membership of that body. A majority of the representatives are undoubtedly in favor of amending the rules so that the movement is not so unpopular as Mr. Walker is with some of the members.

DEBATE IN THE SENATE.

Indian Appropriation and Land Postal Bills Discussed at Length.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The Senate spent its first hour to-day in listening to Washington's farrow address, read by Mr. Donnell, and then turned its attention to the Indian appropriation bill. It was the subject of a long and heated debate.

The clause directing temporary contracts with these schools when no Government schools were available was agreed to 8 to 8. A provision was added declaring it to be the settled policy of the Government to hereafter make no appropriations whatever for the support of sectarian schools. A further amendment offered by Mr. Gallinger, directing that all appropriations to sectarian schools end on June 30, 1898, went on to a point of order, which the Senate sustained 8 to 8.

A veto from Mr. Cleveland on a private pension bill brought out sharp criticism from Mr. Gallinger against the President's policy of not allowing the reform of the course of inquiries that the passage of all these bills would involve less expense than the actual cost of the Indian bill. Mr. Gallinger took the floor and made a long speech in support of the bill. Mr. Hearst also took the floor and made a long speech in support of the bill.

Mr. Platt endeavored to pass the bill, but was defeated. Mr. Hearst then took the floor and made a long speech in support of the bill. Mr. Gallinger also took the floor and made a long speech in support of the bill.
