

THE DAILY JOURNAL

Washington Office—1503 Pennsylvania Avenue. Telephone Calls. Business Office—281 Editorial Rooms... TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. DAILY BY MAIL. Daily only, one month... Weekly by mail...

service. This makes an aggregate of 165 days for forty-five assessors, which seems excessive. In Bartholomew county the deputy assessors seem to have made out the bills in excess of the legal rate, for the Columbus Republican says the county commissioners cut them all down, in some instances as much as 50 per cent.

THE CHANGE OF MINISTRY IN FRANCE. The sudden change of Ministry in France is typical of that kaleidoscopic government and mercurial people. The Ministry which has just gone out dates from the beginning of the administration of President Loubet, who was elected in February last to succeed President Faure, who died suddenly of apoplexy.

THE STATE PRESS. McKinley, prosperity and broad patriotism will do for the Republican battle cry for the coming year. There is something about and audacious in William J. Bryan's posing as the champion of the people against trusts.

ABOUT PEOPLE AND THINGS. The first visit of Thomas Hardy, the novelist, to America was made as a college lecturer by the late General Grant. He is a great admirer of the United States.

THE TOWNSEND LIBRARY. The "Townsend library," of which mention has been previously made in the Journal, is a vast compilation of newspaper clippings relating to the civil war.

THE RICHMOND PALLADIUM. The Richmond Palladium says the cost of the Wayne township assessment this year was $5,250. Wayne is the township in which Richmond is situated.

work-government publications not excepted. Where a complete record of all the regiments, companies and battalions can be found. In this respect, the archives of the different States, especially those of the South, are woefully deficient.

WOMEN IN MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS. Two things have happened lately which the suffrage branch of the International Council of Women, soon to meet in London, will regard as especially timely.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE. The peace conference will begin by establishing peaceful relations with the newspapers. Its proceedings will be made public.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE. The peace conference will begin by establishing peaceful relations with the newspapers. Its proceedings will be made public.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE. The peace conference will begin by establishing peaceful relations with the newspapers. Its proceedings will be made public.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE. The peace conference will begin by establishing peaceful relations with the newspapers. Its proceedings will be made public.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE. The peace conference will begin by establishing peaceful relations with the newspapers. Its proceedings will be made public.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE. The peace conference will begin by establishing peaceful relations with the newspapers. Its proceedings will be made public.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE. The peace conference will begin by establishing peaceful relations with the newspapers. Its proceedings will be made public.

GENERAL WOOD'S WORK. GOVERNOR OF SANTIAGO DISCUSSES HIS ADMINISTRATION. Many Things Yet Necessary to Be Done—Gambling in Havana—Arms Stolen by Cubans.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Major Gen. Leonard Wood has written for the forthcoming issue of the Independent on "The Establishment of the Civil Government in the Province of Santiago." Of the main purpose of his own administration of Santiago affairs, General Wood says: "Whatever work has been done here has been founded upon the belief that no liberal form of government can exist except among an intelligent, well-educated people; that such government must be based upon the respect for the civil rather than the military law, and that its main reliance must be upon the industries of the country, avoided, to the greatest possible extent, the old Spanish system of officialism combined with militarism."

General Wood tells of the exactions on the people of sanitary precautions of simple cleanliness at home and in public places. He refers to the replacement of the faulty municipal procedure with a system of filling offices General Wood writes: "Men were appointed to office solely for their fitness for the position and their selection was made arbitrary by always upon the recommendation of the best citizens. I do not mean the best men in the social sense, but any other sense that was always qualified by experience and ability to judge of the people anxious to shake off the yoke of a despotic government."

General Wood tells of the exactions on the people of sanitary precautions of simple cleanliness at home and in public places. He refers to the replacement of the faulty municipal procedure with a system of filling offices General Wood writes: "Men were appointed to office solely for their fitness for the position and their selection was made arbitrary by always upon the recommendation of the best citizens. I do not mean the best men in the social sense, but any other sense that was always qualified by experience and ability to judge of the people anxious to shake off the yoke of a despotic government."

General Wood tells of the exactions on the people of sanitary precautions of simple cleanliness at home and in public places. He refers to the replacement of the faulty municipal procedure with a system of filling offices General Wood writes: "Men were appointed to office solely for their fitness for the position and their selection was made arbitrary by always upon the recommendation of the best citizens. I do not mean the best men in the social sense, but any other sense that was always qualified by experience and ability to judge of the people anxious to shake off the yoke of a despotic government."

General Wood tells of the exactions on the people of sanitary precautions of simple cleanliness at home and in public places. He refers to the replacement of the faulty municipal procedure with a system of filling offices General Wood writes: "Men were appointed to office solely for their fitness for the position and their selection was made arbitrary by always upon the recommendation of the best citizens. I do not mean the best men in the social sense, but any other sense that was always qualified by experience and ability to judge of the people anxious to shake off the yoke of a despotic government."

General Wood tells of the exactions on the people of sanitary precautions of simple cleanliness at home and in public places. He refers to the replacement of the faulty municipal procedure with a system of filling offices General Wood writes: "Men were appointed to office solely for their fitness for the position and their selection was made arbitrary by always upon the recommendation of the best citizens. I do not mean the best men in the social sense, but any other sense that was always qualified by experience and ability to judge of the people anxious to shake off the yoke of a despotic government."

General Wood tells of the exactions on the people of sanitary precautions of simple cleanliness at home and in public places. He refers to the replacement of the faulty municipal procedure with a system of filling offices General Wood writes: "Men were appointed to office solely for their fitness for the position and their selection was made arbitrary by always upon the recommendation of the best citizens. I do not mean the best men in the social sense, but any other sense that was always qualified by experience and ability to judge of the people anxious to shake off the yoke of a despotic government."

General Wood tells of the exactions on the people of sanitary precautions of simple cleanliness at home and in public places. He refers to the replacement of the faulty municipal procedure with a system of filling offices General Wood writes: "Men were appointed to office solely for their fitness for the position and their selection was made arbitrary by always upon the recommendation of the best citizens. I do not mean the best men in the social sense, but any other sense that was always qualified by experience and ability to judge of the people anxious to shake off the yoke of a despotic government."

ent of streets in the First ward. She has taken full control of the street and alley cleaning, removal of the garbage and the paving and street repairs. In addition, Mrs. Wood has taken charge of the Parks and William Wells in the development of playgrounds for children in the poorer districts of the city. A system of small parks is planned, and already $1,000 has been appropriated for their equipment.

There was an old girl of New Guinea, Who, though short, was remarkably skilful. In the season of drought she had no other food than the sweet and played shuina. —Yale Record.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Acting Secretary Melkijohn issued an order to-day directing that the number of enlisted men in each company of infantry regiments serving in or ordered to the Philippines, be increased from 112 to 128. There will be five full regiments and two battalions each of two other regiments that will be subject to this order.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Acting Secretary Melkijohn issued an order to-day directing that the number of enlisted men in each company of infantry regiments serving in or ordered to the Philippines, be increased from 112 to 128. There will be five full regiments and two battalions each of two other regiments that will be subject to this order.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Acting Secretary Melkijohn issued an order to-day directing that the number of enlisted men in each company of infantry regiments serving in or ordered to the Philippines, be increased from 112 to 128. There will be five full regiments and two battalions each of two other regiments that will be subject to this order.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Acting Secretary Melkijohn issued an order to-day directing that the number of enlisted men in each company of infantry regiments serving in or ordered to the Philippines, be increased from 112 to 128. There will be five full regiments and two battalions each of two other regiments that will be subject to this order.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Acting Secretary Melkijohn issued an order to-day directing that the number of enlisted men in each company of infantry regiments serving in or ordered to the Philippines, be increased from 112 to 128. There will be five full regiments and two battalions each of two other regiments that will be subject to this order.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Acting Secretary Melkijohn issued an order to-day directing that the number of enlisted men in each company of infantry regiments serving in or ordered to the Philippines, be increased from 112 to 128. There will be five full regiments and two battalions each of two other regiments that will be subject to this order.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Acting Secretary Melkijohn issued an order to-day directing that the number of enlisted men in each company of infantry regiments serving in or ordered to the Philippines, be increased from 112 to 128. There will be five full regiments and two battalions each of two other regiments that will be subject to this order.

Each Infantry Company in the Philippines, and All Ordered There, to Be Increased to 128 Enlisted Men. OTIS TO HAVE ARMY OF 35,000. WITHOUT RECOURSE TO CALL FOR VOLUNTEER SOLDIERS.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

to which all those disabled by foreign service may be sent to recuperate after active service. The Government states that the convalescing thus have a definite home in the United States. They may be sent to any of the foreign hospitals of the regular regiments in the field will be relieved of embarkation. The system of small parks is planned, and already $1,000 has been appropriated for their equipment.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The racing at Ascot opened to-day under brilliant auspices, although deprived of the semi-state procession of royalty, due to the fact that the court was in mourning for Prince Alfred of Sax-Coburg and Gotha, and the Queen of Denmark. Among those present were the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire. In addition big crowds of society people and a large assemblage of the general public attended.